THINGS SEEN IN MOROCCO

BY THE SAME AUTHOR

The Athenæum of 6th December 1902 :—

"It is hardly too much to say that Mr Dawson's latest story does for the Moors what Morier's Hajji Baba did for the Persians. At anyrate we find here what few books in the world, and certainly no other work of fiction in English, can boast of—a deep and accurate knowledge of Moorish life, manners, and ways of thinking. . . . Such intimate knowledge is rarely combined with the skill to impart and the imagination to vivify it. Mr Dawson has both. . . . Indeed the Oriental atmosphere is rendered so admirably that future translators of the Arabian Nights could scarcely choose a better model."
