PREAMBLE

Extracts from the original preamble to the constitution of the Society written by the Illustrious Founder, the Late Gopal Krishna Gokhale in 1905.

From some time past, the conviction has been forcing itself on many earnest and thoughtful minds that a stage has been reached in the work of nation-building in India when, for further progress, the devoted labours of a specially trained agency applying itself to the task in a true missionary spirit are required.

The Servants Of India Society has been established to meet in some measure these requirements of the situation. Much of the work must be directed towards building up in the country, a higher type of Character and Capacity than is generally available at present. The advance can only be slow.

The Servants Of India Society will train men, prepare to devote their lives to the cause of the country in a religious spirit and will seek to promote, by all constitutional means the national interest of the Indian people. Its members will direct their efforts, principally towards -

- creating among the people by example and by precept, a deep and passionate love of the motherland, seeking its highest fulfilment in service and sacrifice;
- organising the work of political education and agitation, basing it on a careful study of public questions and strengthening generally the public life of the country;
- promoting relations of cordial goodwill and co-operation among the different communities;
- assisting educational movements especially those for the education of women, the education of backward classes and scientific industrial education;
- helping forwards, the industrial development of the country; and
- the elevation of the depressed classes.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2000-2001

INTRODUCTION :

The Servants of India Society was founded by Gopal Krishna Gokhale on June 12, 1905 with the object of training of national missionaries for the Service of India and the promotion, by all constitutional means, of the interests of the Indian people without distinction of caste or creed. The members of the Society are pledged to give throughout their lives the best that is in them to the cause of the country in all secular fields.

ORGANISATION :

The headquarter of the Society is at Pune, where members meet every year in June for its annual session. The Society has branches in Mumbai, Nagpur, Allahabad, Cuttack, Rayagada and Chennai.

Dr. R.G. Kakade continued to be the President of the Society, Shri P.K. Dwivedi continued to be the Vice-President and Shri S.S. Ajgaonkar continued to be the Secretary of the Society. Shri Ajgaonkar, Dr. Kakade, Shri P.K. Dwivedi and Shri Damodar Sahoo continued to be the Senior Members of Mumbai, Nagpur, Allahabad and Cuttack branches of the Society respectively. The Chennai branch was looked after by the Head Quarters. Shri Ramkanta Lenka, Shri Atmanand Misra and Shri M.M. Dhanore were elected members of the Council.

Every year the Society organizes annual session and council meeting at Pune from 7th June to 13th June. All members attend the same.

The Society observed the birth anniversary of late Gopal Krishna Gokhale on May 9, 2001 at Pune and Cuttack.

INCOME TAX :

The Society furnished to all the banks necessary application in form 15H, so that no tax is deducted at source by all banks.

TAX EXEMPTION :

Application for renewal of Income Tax Exemption Certificate under Section 80 G of the I.T. Act, 1961 was made to the appropriate I.T. authority, Pune, and renewal certificate was received for the three years from 1st April, 2001 to 31st March, 2004.

ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE FOR 2000-2001 :

Investments :

The sharp decline in Fixed Deposit interest rates by all nationalised banks and also banks in Cooperative sector resulted in considerable decline in the total annual Fixed Deposit Interest income of the Society at H.Q. Pune. Further, the ever increasing demands of the branches for H.Q. grants to them, year after year, have resulted in continuously encashing certain fixed deposits kept in banks; on their maturity. Thus, declining the quantum of Investment in Fixed Deposits kept in banks at H.Q. Pune.

Routine Expenses :

Against the reduced income, annual expenses of H.Q. Pune were increased substantially, especially on repairs and maintenance of old buildings in the Campus area. Increase in electricity bills, telephone bills, water charges bills, staff salary bill was also experienced.

SHRI A.N. MISRA

Member

During the year Shri A.N. Misra succeeded to save the land of the Society situated at our Ghuwas Centre from capturing by nuxalites with the help of District Manager, Sonebhadra and PAC. He kept himself vigilant every time.

All government aided schemes were inspected by District Social Welfare Officer Sonebhadra at end of February 2000 and first week of March 2000 and reports were sent to Government of India alongwith recommendations of U.P. Government for the sanction of grants for the years 1998-99 and 1999-2000. Subsequently U.P. Government changed their instructions and as per new instructions inspection of welfare scheme is to be done jointly by District Social Welfare Officers and Project Directors of all the Districts. Because of these new instructions of U.P. Government earlier inspection reports submitted to Government of India became void. These and others difficulties resulted in delaying the sanction of government grant.

GOKHALE INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND ECONOMICS, PUNE 4

(Deemed to be University)

Annual Report, 1999-2000

The Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics is one of the oldest research and training institute in Economics in the Country. It was founded on the 6th June, 1930.

Since May 1993, the Institute started functioning as 'Deemed to be a University'.

The Institute has completed 12 research projects during the year 2000-2001 and 46 research papers by the members were published in reputed journals. Seventy five students were studying in the M.A. programme while twenty were working for the Ph.D. degree during 2000-2001. Twenty eight successful students received their M.A. degrees at the hands of Professor A. Vaidyanathan, Professor Emeritus, Madars Institute of Development Studies, Chennai, Chairperson, Centre for Development Studies, Trivandrum and former Member, Planning Commission, Government of India, New Delhi, who also delivered the Kale Memorial Lecture on "Poverty and Development Policy". Two UGC sponsored refresher courses for university and college teachers were also conducted during the year. Ninety Five teachers from various Universities and colleges in the country attended the same.

The Institute organised several academic activities on the occasion of the Birth Centenary Year (April 10, 2000 to April 9, 2001) of late Professor D.R. Gadgil. The inauguration of the academic activities for the Birth Centenary Year was done on April 10, 2000, by Professor N.V. Sovani, former Professor and Joint Director of the Institute and former President of the Indian Economic Association and a close associate of Professor Gadgil. This was followed by a debating competition among the students from colleges/institutions in Pune city. An exhibition of books and publications on and by late Professor D.R. Gadgil was organised in the library of the Institute and a permanent separate section for the collection of the writings of Professor Gadgil was also set up in the library. This S.I.S. library has been named as 'Dhananjayarao Gadgil Library' on 31st of March, 2001, at the hands of late Shri Jayantrao Tilak, former

LEGACY OF GOKHALE

"What is the moral of Gokhale's life? What legacy has he left for us? These questions were answered by Gokhale himself in his last words to the members of the Servants of India Society, who were present beside his death bed : Don't waste your time in writing a biography or setting up a statue, but pour your whole soul into the service of India. Then only shall you be counted among her true and faithful servants".

.... Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

"Gokhale taught me not to glorify the country in language but to spiritualise its political life and institutions. He inspired my life and is still inspiring it in that I wish to purify myself and spiritualise myself. I have dedicated myself to that ideal. Political life must be an echo of our private life. There cannot be any divorce between the two".

.... Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

"The man who leads the life of goodness, whose instincts are good, who is full of gentleness, who is the embodiment of truth and who has fully shed his ego, is a Dharmatma, a man of religion, whether he knows it or not".

.... Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

"Gandhiji thought of Gokhale as an ideal Mahatma in his own heart, gave him a place therein, aspired to the realisation on that ideal in himself and in his own life manifested on a larger scale whatever virtues he perceived in his master".

.... K.G. Mashurwala
