PREAMBLE

Extracts from the original Preamble to the Constitution of the Society written by the illustrious founder the Late Gopal Krishna Gokhale, in 1905.

For some time past the conviction has been forcing itself on many earnest and thoughtful minds that a stage has been reached in the work of nation-building in India when, for further progress the devoted labours of a specially trained agency applying itself to the task in a true missionary spirit are required. The work that has been accomplished so far has indeed been of the highest value. The growth during the last 101 years of a feeling of common nationality based upon common traditions and ties, common hopes and aspirations, and even common disabilities has been most striking. The fact that we are Indians first, and Hindus, Mohammedans, Parsees or Christians afterwards is being realised in a steadily increasing measure, and the idea of a united and renovated India marching onwards to a place among the nations of the world, worthy of the great past, is no longer a mere idle dream of a few imaginative minds, but is the definitely accepted creed of those who form the brain of the community—the educated classes of the country. A creditable beginning has already been made in matters of education and of local self-government; and all classes of the people are slowly but steadily coming under the influence of liberal ideas. The claims of public life are every day receiving wider recognition, and attachment to the land of our birth is growing into a strong and deeply cherished passion of the heart. The annual meetings of Congresses and conferences, the work of public bodies and associations, the writing in the columns of the Indian Press—all bear witness to the new life that is coursing in the veins of the people. The results achieved so far are undoubtedly most gratifying, but they only mean that the jungle has been cleared and the foundations laid. The great work of rearing the superstructure has yet to be taken in hand, and the situation demands on the part of workers devotion and sacrifices proportionate to the magnitude of the task.

The Servants of India Society has been established to meet in some measure these requirements of the situation. Much of the work must be directed towards building up in the country a higher type of Character and capacity than is generally available at present, and the advance can only be slow. Moreover, the path is beset with great difficulties; there will be constant temptations to turn back; bitter disappointment will repeatedly try the faith of those who have put their hand to the work. But the weary toil can have but one end, if only the workers grow not faint-hearted on the way. One essential condition of success in this work is that a sufficient number of your countrymen must now come forward to devote themselves to the cause in the spirit in which religious work is undertaken. Public life must be spiritualised. Love of country must so fill the heart that all else shall appear as of little moments by its side. A fervent patriotism which rejoices at every opportunity of sacrifice for the motherland, a dauntless heart which refuses to be turned back from its objects by difficulty or danger, a deep faith in the purpose of providence which nothing can shake equipped with these, the worker must start on his mission and reverently seek the joy which comes of spending oneself in the service of one's country.

The Servants of India Society will train men, prepared to devote their lives to the cause of the country in a religious spirit and will seek to promote, by all constitutional means the national interest of the Indian People. Its members will direct their efforts principally towards (1) creating among the people by example and by precept, a deep and passionate love of the motherland, seek its highest fulfilment in service and sacrifice; (2) organising the work of political education and agitation, basing it on a careful study of public questions and strengthening generally the public life of the country; (3) promoting relations of cordial good will and co-operation among the different communities; (4) assisting educational movements especially those for the industrial development of the women, the education of backward classes and industrial scientific education; (5) helping forward the industrial development of the country; (6) the elevation of the depressed classes.

VOWS:

The country shall always be the first in my thought and I will give to her service the best that is in me.

In serving the country I will seek no personal advantage for myself.

I will regard all Indians as brothers and work for the advancement of all without distinction of caste or creed.

I will be content with such provision for myself and my family, as the Society may be able to make. I will devote no part of my energies to earning money for myself.

I will lead a pure personal life.

I will engage in no personal quarrel with any one.

I will always keep in view the aims of the Society, and watch over its interest with the utmost zeal, doing all I can to advance its work. I will never do anything, which is inconsistent with the objects of the Society.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2006-2007

INTRODUCTION

The Servants of India Society was founded by Gopal Krishna Gokhale on June 12, 1905. Its objects are the training of national missionaries for the service of India and the promotion by all constitutional means, of the interest of the Indian people without distinction of caste or creed. The members of the Society are pledged to give throughout their lives the best that is in them to the cause of the country in all secular fields. The circumstances in which the Society was founded and the objects, which the Founder had in view in founding it, are explained in the preamble he wrote to its constitution in 1905, extracts from which are given in the preceding two pages. The Preamble has been a source of inspiration to the Society during the 102 years of its existence.

ORGANISATION

The Headquarters of the Society are at Pune, where the members meet every year in June for its annual session. The Society has branches in Chennai, Mumbai, Nagpur, Allahabad, Cuttack, Raygada and Kerala.

BRANCH ACTIVITIES OF THE SOCIETY

SHRI ATMA NAND MISRA

Shri Atma Nand Misra continued to be a member of the Advisory Committee of Uttar Pradesh Vidyalaya Prabandhak Mahasabha (U. P. Manager's Association) as well as the Zonal Secretary of Vindhyaal Division. He attended two meetings of the Advisory committee and two meetings of the State Body during the year under report.

Shri Misra continued to be the Joint Secretary of Girivasi Banvasi Seva Prakalp, Varanasi which is doing a lot of work for Tribal Development in Varansi, Chandauli and Sonebhadra district without any Government grant. He attended almost all the four meetings of the Prakalp held during the year under report.

He was nominated as a member of the Bhartiya Itihas Sankalan Samiti by the Kashi Vidyapith through which they are trying to go deeply in the history of struggle for freedom of India (from 1857 to 1947) but unfortunately so far he could attend only one meeting of the Samiti held on the 10th December 2006. Thereafter, he could not attend any meeting convined by them because of one reason or another.

Being the Chairman of the Board of Management of Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics Shri Misra presided almost all the four meetings of the Board held during the year under report. Apart from this, he faced the expert Committee sent by the U.G.C. to enquire in to the complaints made by some busybodies against Shri P.K. Dwivedi, the then our Acting President and consequently the Chairman of the Board of Management. Shri Misra pleaded Society's side before the committee and tried to justify the action taken by Shri Dwivedi.

Being Secretary of the Mirzapur Centre of the Society, he looked after the day to day management of the Schemes approved by the Government of India (Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment) viz. Ten Primary Schools, Five Women's Welfare Centre, Ashram School Siltham, SC Boys Hostel Ghuwas and Girls Ashram School Khaliyari. Members are aware that grants for these schemes have not been released from the year 1998 which was a great hurdle in smooth management of these schemes. Shri Misra made his best efforts to get the grants released during the year under report as a result of which the Government of India deputed an Under Secretary who has inspected all the schemes and submitted fovaourable report in the first week of March 2007 which is under process.

Apart from the abovementioned schemes, Shri Misra looked after overall functioning and development of the schemes approved by the State Government i.e. Three Junior High Schools, Six Primary Schools and Two SC Boys Hostels and self dependent schemes viz. Adivasi Inter College Siltham, Birla Vidya Mandir High School / Intermediate College Muirpur, Raja Baldeo Das Birla Songhathi Higher Secondary School Salkhan and Ayurvedic Dispensary at Tikuriya. A detailed report on the working of these schemes is submitted separately. Members will feel glad to learn that our Birla Vidya Mandir High School Muirpur has been upgraded to Intermediate College and it has received the recognition of Uttar Pradesh Education Department in the month of August 2006.

Now our only one High School viz. Raja Baldeo Das Birla Songhathi Higher Secondary School is remaining to be upgraded to Intermediate College for which Shri Misra has started making necessary efforts.

ADIVASI INTER COLLEGE, SILTHAM - SONEBHADRA

The college is being run without any Grant-in-aid and is depending upon the income from fees only. As a result of this, we are unable to appoint required number of teachers and to allow the admission of all the students who seek admission in this college, though recognition for almost all the subjects except Agriculture and Commerce has been received and eight class rooms were constructed with the generous help of local people and Shri Ram Shakal, Ex. M. P. during his tenure out of local area Development Fund (i.e. M. P. Fund).

This college has got good name and fame in the area and is famous for its standard of education. Details of beneficiaries during the year under report is given below:-

BIRLA VIDYA MANDIR HIGH SCHOOL/INTER COLLEGE, MUIRPUR - SONEBHADRA

The Birla Vidya Mandir High School was upgraded to Intermediate College during the year under report. From the last three years efforts were being made to get the recognition for Intermediate College from the U. P. Education Board. Ultimately in the month of August 2006 we received the recognition.

The College is run without any grant-in-aid and is depending upon the income from the fees only. As a result of this, we are unable to appoint required number of teachers and to allow the admission of all the students who seek admission in this college, though adequate building was constructed by the generous help of Hindalco, Shri Ram Shakal the Ex. M. P. and the Shaktinagar Area Development Authority (SADA).

The college has got good name & fame in the area and is famous for its standard of education. Details of beneficiaries during the year under report is given below:-

Out of 41 students who passed in last High School examination one passed in First Division, 25 in Second Division and 15 in Third Division.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS (THREE)

The Society maintained three Junior High Schools in the Sonebhadra district located at the village Siltham and Muirpur with financial aid from the U. P. Social Welfare Department and at village Salkhan with financial aid from the Education Department of U. P. Government. All these schools are recognized by the U. P. Education Department having good reputation in the locality and posses their own puceabuildings.

Details of number of beneficiaries in these Junior High Schools is given below:-

LEGACY OF GOKHALE

*"What is the moral of Gokhale's life?
What legacy has he left for us?
These questions were answered* by Gokhale himself in his last words to the members of the Servants of India Society, who were present beside his death bed: Don't waste your time in writing a biography or setting up a status, but pour your whole soul into the service of India. Then only shall you be counted among her true and faithful servants".

....Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

"Gokhale taught me not to glorify the country in language but to spiritualise its political life and institutions. He inspired my life and is still inspiring it in that I wish to purify myself and spiritualise myself. I have dedicated myself to that ideal. Political life must be an echo of our private life. There cannot be any divorce between the two".

....Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

"The man who leads the life of goodness, whose instincts are good, who is full of gentleness, who is the embodiment of truth and who has fully shed his ego, is a Dharmatma, a man of religion, whether he knows it or not".

....Gandhiji - Gokhale, My Political Guru.

Gandhiji thought of gokhale as an idela Mahatma in his own heart, gave him a place therein, aspired to the realisation on that ideal in himself and in his own life manifested on a larger scale whatever virtues he perceived in his master.
