PREAMBLE

EXTRACTS FROM THE ORIGINAL PREAMBLE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SOCIETY WRITTEN BY THE ILLUSTRIOUS FOUNDER LATE GOPAL KRISHNA GOKHALE IN 1905.

For some time past, the conviction has been forcing itself on many earnest and thoughtful minds that a stage has been reached in the work of nation-building in India when, for further progress the devoted labours of a specially trained agency applying itself to the task in a true missionary spirit are required. The work that has been accomplished so far has indeed been of the highest value. The growth during the last 105 years of a feeling of common nationality based upon common traditions and ties, common hopes and aspirations, and even common disabilities has been most striking. The fact that we are Indians first, and Hindus, Mohammedans, Parsees or Christians afterwards is being realised in a steadily increasing measure, and the idea of a united and renovated India marching onwards to a place among the nations of the World, worthy of the great past, is no longer a mere ideal dream of a few imaginative minds, but is the definitely accepted creed of those who form the brain of the community, the educated classes of the Country. A creditable beginning has already been made in matters of education and of local self-government; and all classes of the people are slowly but steadily coming under the influence of liberal ideas. The claims of public life are every day receiving wider recognition, and attachment to the land of our birth is growing into a strong and deeply cherished passion of the heart. The annual meetings of Congresses and Conferences, the work of public bodies and associations, the writing in the columns of the Indian Press - all bear witness to the new life that is coursing in the veins of the people. The results achieved so far are undoubtedly most gratifying, but they only mean that the jungle has been cleared and the foundations laid. The great work of rearing the superstructure has yet to be taken in hand, and the situation demands on the part of workers devotion and sacrifices proportionate to the magnitude of the task.

The Servants of India Society has been established to meet in some measure these requirements of the situation. Much of the work must be directed towards building up in the country a higher type of Character and capacity than is generally available at present, and the advance can only be slow. Moreover, the path is beset with great difficulties; there will be constant temptations to turn back; bitter disappointment will repeatedly try the faith of those who have put their hand to the work. But the weary toil can have but one end, if only the workers grow not faint-hearted on the way. One essential condition of success in this work is that a sufficient number of your countrymen must now come forward to devote themselves to the cause in the spirit in which religious work is undertaken. Public life must be spiritualised. Love of country must so fill the heart that all else shall appear as of little moments by its side. A fervent patriotism which rejoices at every opportunity of sacrifice for the motherland, a dauntless heart which refuses to be turned back from its objects by difficulty or danger, a deep faith in the purpose of providence which nothing can shake equipped with these, the worker must start on his mission and reverently seek the joy which comes of spending oneself in the service of one's country.

The Servants of India Society will train men, prepared to devote their lives to the cause of the country in a religious spirit and will seek to promote, by all constitutional means, the national interest of the Indian people. Its members will direct their efforts principally towards - (1) creating among the people by example and by precept, a deep and passionate love of the motherland, seek its highest fulfilment in service and sacrifice; (2) organising the work of political education and agitation, basing it on a careful study of public questions and strengthening generally the public life of the Country; (3) promoting relations of cordial good will and co-operation among the different communities; (4) assisting educational movements especially those for the industrial development of the women, the education of backward classes and industrial scientific education; (5) helping forward the industrial development of the country; (6) the elevation of the depressed classes.

VOWS :

- The Country shall always be the first in my thought and I will give to her service the best that is in me.
 - In serving the Country, I will seek no personal advantage for myself.
 - I will regard all Indians as brothers and work for the advancement of all without distinction of caste or creed.
 - I will be content with such provision for myself and my family, as the Society may be able to make. I will devote no part of my energies to earning money for myself.
 - I will lead a pure personal life.
 - I will engage in no personal quarrel with anyone.
 - I will always keep in view, the aims of the Society, and watch over its interest with the utmost zeal, doing all I can to advance its work. I will never do anything, which is inconsistent with the objects of the Society.

SHRI M.B. DESHMUKH

As a Secretary of the Society, I looked after the day-to-day affairs of the Society's Head Quarters office at Pune. These included the maintenance and administration of the Society's property, Society's day-to-day correspondence including correspondence from various branches and centres of the Society and to look after the budget and accounts matters of the Society. I also worked on the Building Committee and Finance Committee of the Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics.

I had to devote considerable amount of time towards the court cases of the Society and the Gokhale Institute, as well. This involved the studying the case papers, appointing the advocates and briefing them about the cases and also attending the hearings in the different courts. The ownership of Gokhale Hall was vested in our Society by the Charity Commissioner, Pune in March 2010. This ownership was so far in the name of Deccan Sabha, Pune.

During the year, under report, I attended the meetings of the Board of Management, Finance Committee and Staff Selection Committee of the Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, as a nominated member of the Society as and when such meetings were called for by the Director of the Institute.

Besides, I shouldered the responsibilities as mentioned below and carried them out satisfactorily.

- as a Secretary of the Nav Jeevan Mandal, Pune;
- as a Member of the Niwara Vridhashram, Pune;
- as a Member of the Maharashtra Girls Education Society (Huzurpaga), Pune;
- as a Managing Trustee of the Kalawati Adarsha Mahila Vikas Kendra, Pune.

There were innumerable problems with the Society's premises in Mumbai. The tenants were not giving any heed to the Society. These tenants included the Bank of India also. Therefore with the sanction of the Council, the premises were handed over to a renowned builder in June 2009. This action not only relieved the Society of the continuous harassment from tenants but also fetched Rs. 4 Crores and one specious flat in the proposed building at the same place.

From February 2009 to January 2010, Shri A.N. Misra was suffering from severe pain in his right leg because of which he could not move very much and confined himself for very important works only. The most important work which he was bound to attend was the case of his son which was pending in the High Court. Shri A.N. Misra devoted most of his time during the year under report for this case only.

Shri Misra continued to be the Joint Secretary of 'Girivasi Banavasi Seva Prakalp', Gharwal, Sonebhadra and attended almost all the meetings and other programmes of the Prakalp held during the year under report.

Shri Misra continued to be a member of the Advisory Committee of "Uttar Pradesh Vidyalaya Prabandhak Mahasabha", but he could not attend any meeting of the Mahasabha during the year under report because of his physical inability and court case. Why they did not expel him from the Committee and used to send copies of the proceedings of every meeting, Shri Misra does not know.

GOKHALE CHILDRENS HOME (G.C. Home)

The most historic and memorable event in the long history of G.C. Home since its inception on March 15, 1945 occurred during this year by the visit of the incumbent President of SIS Shri A.N. Misra, Vice President Shri Rama Kanta Lenka, Secretary Shri M.D. Deshmukh and the Senior Member Shri Gangadhar Sahoo of Servants of India Society on September 1, 2008 when they were pleased to inaugurate the reconstructed Kitchen and Dining Hall Building of our Gc. Home which was named as Kunju Hall.

The inaugural function was well attended by the Project Director, DRDA Shri T. Baburao Naidu and the local public representatives like the President, Local Mandal Parishat Smt. P. Sarada, Member, Zilla Parishat Shri Ch. Rama Rao and Sarpuch Smt. V. Rajasri and several other important citizens.

In the meeting, philanthropic people like Shri Oruganti Eswara Rao, a local entrepreneur donated a sum of Rs.10,000/- to G.C. Home on the occasion, Smt. G. Satyavathi came forward to donate Rs.5,000/- annually and others like Sarvashri Krishna offered to donate @ Rs.100/- per month on a sustained basis.

The consensus of the meeting was that more such philanthropic people from the locality should be effectively motivated to be empanelled as recurring donors so that the services could be extended to more children to the optimum capacity of the Home and the Home should ultimately grow into an ideal centre for integrated services to the needy and neglected children in the area and develop the infrastructure of the Home into a model centre, while focusing greater attention on the development of children academically, physically while inculcating the qualities like discipline, character and patriotism in the children.

Sarvasri Chintu Rama Rao, Member, Zilla Parishat and Shri B. Ramesh, an industrialist from Kotabommali to together hosted a magnificent dinner to all the guests who attended the meeting. Shri K. Bodenna, a major donor for the reconstruction of Kunzru Hall who donated Rs. 60,000/- was fittingly honoured on the occasion. The distinguished guests from SIS gave inspiring messages appreciating the local efforts to improve the G.C. Home. A pledge was taken by some of the local elders who attended the meeting that efforts would be further mounted to make our G.C. Home, a model centre for child development in the area.

A Local Management Committee has been constituted to monitor the efforts in the G.C. Home to achieve the objectives for the integrated growth of the needy and neglected children. The Committee is evincing keen interest in the Home, which is a healthy beginning for broadening the involvement of the local public more effectively in the efforts of the home.

On behalf of all the office bearers and members of the newly constituted Local Management Committee when a request was made the local Legislator Shri D. Krishnadas, he immediately responded positively by issuing a letter to the concerned authorities to utilize a sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- for the establishment of a Mini Water Supply Scheme in the premises of G.C. Home, which is to be grounded soon. Besides, efforts are now on to involve all the members effectively in the development efforts to the home. The Constitution of this Committee was approved by the President of SIS during his visit.

It should be a matter of interest to all the well-wishers of the Home to note that Ms. Avanthika Tankala, now a school student in USA happened to visit of G.C. Home with her parents Smt. Sudha and Shri Kanishka Tankala recently and she collected the basic information about G.C. Home and the inmates collecting some photographs made a presentation in her school in USA and some of her co-students responded by donating collectively a sum of Rs. 2,323/- from their pocket money. She sent the money along with their good wishes to the inmates in the G.C. Home. She is interestingly the daughter of Shri Kanishka Tankala who is already an empanelled recurring donor of G.C. Home.

We very much wish for a very bright future for Avanthika and her friends and we hope that there could be more such initiatives like that of Avanthika. The local Lions Club of Narasmapeta sponsored a medical checkup for the inmates on March 22, 2009 and some medicines were distributed to the children.

The inmates of G.C. Home are now 13. Their nutritional status is continuously monitored. Special facilities are being provided for sports.

The number of inmates would be increased at least to 20 this year. The infrastructure needs will receive continuous attention. We are getting a master plan ready for the total development of G.C. Home. It is indeed a unique happening with our Home this year that the esteemed President and other from Servants of India Society are pleased with the efforts being locally made here and they have released a special grant of Rs.50,000 this year and we hope this will turn out to be a recurring grant on annual basis from Servants of India Society.

We particularly place on record our sincere thanks to the donors for their munificent donations but for which G.C. Home could not have been what it is today. Please visit G.C. Home unfailingly when you visit these parts, since the local management and the inmates look forward to greet you with gratitude and warmth.

An action plan is being prepared to establish a full scale children park as a part of D.C. Home. As usual D.C. Home's financial accounts are audited on annual basis. We herewith furnish the following documents for your notice.

LEGACY OF GOKHALE

*“What is the moral of Gokhale’s life?
What legacy has he left for us?”*

These questions were answered by Gokhale himself in his last words to the members of the Servants of India Society; who were present beside his death bed : Don’t waste your time in writing a biography or setting up a status, but pour your whole smile into the service of India. Then only shall you be counted among her true and faithful servants ”.

— Gandhiji : Gokhale, My Political Guru.

“The man who leads the life of goodness, whose instincts are good, who is full of gentleness, who is the embodiment of truth and who has fully shed his ego, is a Dharmatma... a man of religion... whether he knows it or not...”.

— Gandhiji : Gokhale, My Political Guru.

“Gandhiji thought of Gokhale as an ideal ‘Mahatma’ in his own heart, gave him a place therein, aspired to the realisation on that ideal in himself and in his own life manifested on a larger scale whatever virtues he perceived in his master”.

— K. G. Mashruwala
