

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-002293

HISTORY AND ETHNOGRAPHY
OF
AFRICA SOUTH OF THE ZAMBESI

Vol. II.

By Dr. G. M. THEAL.

SERIES I.

HISTORY AND ETHNOGRAPHY OF AFRICA
SOUTH OF THE ZAMBESI.

FROM THE SETTLEMENT OF THE PORTUGUESE AT SOFALA IN SEPTEMBER, 1505, TO THE CONQUEST OF THE CAPE
COLONY BY THE BRITISH IN SEPTEMBER, 1795.

VOL. I.—The Portuguese in South Africa from 1505 to 1700.

VOL. II.—Is the one in the reader's hands.

VOL. III.—Account of the Dutch, Portuguese, Hottentots, and Bantu to September, 1795.

SERIES II.

HISTORY OF SOUTH AFRICA SINCE
SEPTEMBER, 1795

VOL. I.,	-	-	-	-	1795—1828.
VOL. II.,	-	-	-	-	1828—1846.
VOL. III.,	-	-	-	-	1846—1860.
VOL. IV. (The Republics and Bantu States),					1854—1872.
VOL. V. (The Remainder of South Africa),					1860—1872.

HISTORY AND ETHNOGRAPHY
OF
AFRICA SOUTH OF THE ZAMBESI

FROM THE SETTLEMENT OF THE PORTUGUESE AT SOFALA
IN SEPTEMBER 1505 TO THE CONQUEST OF THE CAPE
COLONY BY THE BRITISH IN SEPTEMBER 1795,

BY
GEORGE M^cCALL THEAL, Litt.D., LL.D.

FOREIGN MEMBER OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, AMSTERDAM, CORRESPONDING MEMBER OF THE ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY, LONDON, ETC., ETC., ETC., FORMERLY KEEPER OF THE ARCHIVES OF THE CAPE COLONY, AND AT PRESENT
COLONIAL HISTORIOGRAPHER

IN THREE VOLUMES
WITH MAPS AND PLATES

VOL. II.

FOUNDATION OF THE CAPE COLONY BY THE DUTCH

LONDON
SWAN SONNENSCHN & C^o, LIM.
25 High Street, Bloomsbury
1909

All rights reserved.

V63.49
E0.2

W. JOLLY & SONS
Albany Press
38 BRIDGE STREET
ABERDEEN

2293

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XXI.

JAN VAN RIEBEEK, COMMANDER, LANDED IN SOUTH AFRICA 7TH APRIL
1652, RETIRED 6TH MAY 1662.

Cause of the greater importance of Table Bay to the Dutch than to the Portuguese.—Presentation of a document to the chamber of Amsterdam, setting forth the advantages to be gained by forming a settlement in Table Valley.—Account of the wreck of the Haarlem.—Deliberations of the directors of the East India Company.—Decision to form a victualling station at the Cape.—Instructions to the skippers of the Dromedaris, Reiger, and Goede Hoop.—Character and previous occupations of Jan van Riebeeck, commander of the expedition.—Instructions of the directors to the commander.—Departure of the expedition from Amsterdam.—Events during the passage.—Arrival of the expedition in Table Bay.—Condition of Table Valley.—Description of the Hottentots living there and roaming about in the neighbourhood.—Selection of a site for a fort.—Description of the ground plan of the fort Good Hope.—Landing of the expedition.—Quarrels between the Goringhaiquas and the Goringhaikonas.—Distress of the Europeans.—Arrival of ships with many sick men.—Effects of the winter rains.—Account of the sick-visitor Willem Barents Wylant.—Birth of the first Dutch child in South Africa. Page 1

CHAPTER XXII.

MR. VAN RIEBEEK'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Abundance of game.—Project of a whale fishery.—Productions of Robben Island.—Inspection of the country back of the Devil's peak.—Description of forests in the kloofs of the mountain.—Desertion of four workmen and their adventures.—Commencement of gardening in Table Valley.—Voyage of the Goede Hoop to Saldanha Bay.—Cattle barter with the Goringhaiquas.—Account of the interpreter Harry and his niece Eva.—Departure of the Goringhaiquas from the neighbourhood of the Cape.—Effects of the south-east winds.—Productions of the gardens.—Diet of the workmen.—War between England and the Netherlands.—Condition of the fort Good Hope.—Arrival of ships.—Trade with Hottentots.—Damage caused by wild animals.—Appointment of the first secunde.—Dealings with a French ship in Saldanha Bay.—Robbery by Harry and the beachrangers of the Company's cattle and murder of one of the herdsmen.—Unsuccessful pursuit of the robbers.—Discovery of an unknown ore.—Return of the Kaapmans and beachrangers.—Celebration of the anniversary of the arrival of the Europeans.—Despatch of a galiot to St. Helena for provisions.—Appointment of the second secunde.—Account of the south-eastern coast by a missionary of the Society of Jesus.—Despatch of a galiot to explore the south-eastern coast.—Commencement of trade with Madagascar.—Arrival of the first Asiatic banished to the Cape.—Celebration of a day of prayer and thanksgiving.—Conclusion of peace between England and the Netherlands.—Treatment of the crews of English ships Page 23

CHAPTER XXIII.

MR. VAN RIEBEEK'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Arrival of a large fleet.—Formation of sealing establishments at Dassen Island and Saldanha Bay.—Introduction of the vine.—Instructions of the directors regarding the earlier inhabitants.—Views of the commander as to the best method of dealing with the Hottentots.—Hostile acts of the Goringhaiquas.—Account of the first exploring expedition inland.—Return of Harry to the fort.—Renewal of the cattle trade.—Bartering expedition of Harry and Corporal Muller.—Arrival of a large Hottentot horde under the chief Gonnema.—Account of the interpreter Doman.—First shipbuilding at the Cape.—Disastrous expedition to Madagascar.—Allotment of garden ground to married servants of the Company.—Arrangement with Annetje de boerin.—Completion of a hospital.—Construction of a jetty.—Project of Ryklof van Goens to convert the Cape peninsula into an island.—Description of plants and animals introduced.—

Contents

vii

Occupation of the first farm at Rondebosch.—Thefts by Hottentots.—Dealings with Harry.—Efforts to destroy ravenous animals.—Regulations for the preservation of herbivorous animals.—Outbreak of sickness.—Appointment of day of fasting and prayer.—Constitution of the council of policy.—Particulars concerning marriages.—Treatment of Christian blacks.—Instructions regarding the treatment of the crews of foreign ships.—Conditions under which some of the Company's servants became colonists.—Visit of the commissioner Ryklof van Goens.—Alterations in the conditions.—Appointment of the first burgher councillor Page 45

CHAPTER XXIV.

MR. VAN RIEBEEK'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Names of the first colonists.—Regulations of the commissioner Ryklof van Goens.—Appointment of Roelof de Man as secunde.—Expedition to Hottentots-Holland.—Information concerning the Hottentots.—Exploration by a party under the leadership of Abraham Gabbema.—Discovery of the Berg river.—Account of various public works.—Exploration by a party under the leadership of Jan van Harwarden.—Discovery of the Little Berg river.—Inspection of the Tulbagh basin.—Importation of slaves from Angola and Guinea.—Desertion of the slaves.—Seizure of Hottentots as hostages for the restoration of the slaves.—General panic of the Hottentots.—Arrangements between the Europeans and the Hottentots.—Banishment of Harry to Robben Island.—Opening of trade with the Cochoquas under the chief Oedasoa.—Remonstrances of the farmers against new restrictions.—Price of wheat Page 66

CHAPTER XXV.

MR. VAN RIEBEEK'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Planting of a vineyard by the commander at Protea.—Introduction of maize.—Appointment of two burgher councillors.—Regulations concerning sheepbreeding.—Instance of great loss of life by scurvy.—Increase in the number of colonists.—Unsuccessful attempt to visit the Namaquas.—Commencement of wine making in South Africa.—Manufacture of ale.—Enrolment of the burghers as militia.—Constitution of the militia council.—

Changes in the council of policy.—War with the Hottentot clans nearest the settlement.—Conspiracy of some soldiers and slaves to seize a vessel in the bay.—Conclusion of peace with the Goringhaiquas and Gorachouquas.—Duties of the secretary to the council.—Wreck of a French ship in Table Bay.—Illicit dealing in cattle.—Manner of conducting trade with the Hottentots.—Traits of Hottentot character.—Search for the fabulous island of St. Helena Nova Page 87

CHAPTER XXVI.

MR. VAN RIEBEEK'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Expedition under Jan Danckert in search of Monomotapa.—Exploring expedition under Pieter Cruythof.—Naming of Riebeek's Kasteel.—Discovery of the Namaquas.—Description of the Namaquas.—Exploring expedition under Pieter van Meerhof.—Efforts of Pieter van der Stael to teach the Cape Hottentots the principles of Christianity.—Exploring expedition under Pieter Everaert.—Feuds of the Hottentots.—Conflicting accounts of the condition of the settlement.—Appointment of Gerrit van Harn as Mr. Van Riebeek's successor.—Death of Mr. Van Harn at sea.—Appointment of Zacharias Wagenaar as commander.—Disposal of Mr. Van Riebeek's farm.—Arrival of Mr. Wagenaar.—Ceremony of his induction.—Departure of Mr. Van Riebeek for Batavia.—Condition of the settlement.—Privileges of the burghers.—Treatment of foreigners.—Anticipations regarding the olive.—Actual knowledge concerning the Hottentots.—Arrival of the Dutch.—Fabulous accounts of distant tribes.—Neglect of the Government to keep a record of land grants.—Character of Commander Van Riebeek as delineated in his writings.—Offices which he held after leaving South Africa Page 109

CHAPTER XXVII.

ZACHARIAS WAGENAAR, COMMANDER, INSTALLED 6TH MAY 1662, RETIRED 27TH SEPTEMBER 1666.

Character of Commander Wagenaar.—Deputation from Hottentot clans to the new commander.—Visit of the commander to the Cochoquas.—Account of the Hessequas.—Exploration by a party under Pieter Cruythof.—Expedition under Admiral De Laresse against Mozambique.—Intercourse with Madagascar.—Exploration by a party under Jonas de la Guerre.—Occupation of the island of Mauritius as a dependency of the Cape settlement.—Account of George Frederick Wreede.—Outbreak of war between England and the Netherlands.—Resolution of the directors of the East India Company to construct a stone fortress in Table Valley.—Selection of the site for the new fortress by the commissioner Isbrand Goske.—Ceremony of laying the foundation stone.—Construction of a church in the castle.—Attempt to capture an English ship in Table Bay.—Succession of sick-visitors.—Account of the first clergyman of the Cape.—Constitution of the consistory.—Disputes concerning baptism.—Scene at an afternoon service in the church.—Subjects taught in the school.—Succession of school-masters.—Amount of school fees.—Dealings with Hottentots.—Outbreak of a plague among the Hottentots.—Dealings with the beachrangers in Table Valley.—Marriage of Eva with a European.—Prices of various kinds of grain.—Wages of farm labourers.—Price of horses.—Occupations of burghers in Table Valley.—Desire of the commander to be relieved.—Appointment of his successor.—Arrival of Mr. Van Quaelberg.—Installation of the new commander.—Changes in the council of policy.—Departure of Mr. Wagenaar for Batavia.—Knowledge of the country at the time of his departure.—Condition of the colony.—Subsequent visit of Mr. Wagenaar to the Cape.—Bequest by Mr. Wagenaar of a sum of money for the benefit of the poor Page 131

CHAPTER XXVIII.

CORNELIS VAN QUAELBERG, COMMANDER, INSTALLED 27TH SEPTEMBER 1666, DISMISSED 18TH JUNE 1668.

JACOB BORGHORST, COMMANDER, INSTALLED 18TH JUNE 1668, RETIRED 25TH MARCH 1670.

Character of Commander Van Quaelberg.—Destruction of forests.—Establishment of a French East India Company.—Assistance given to the French by Commander Van Quaelberg.—Action of the French at Saldanha Bay.—Exploration of the country.—Discontinuance of work on the castle.—Expedition to Mauritius and Madagascar.—Conclusion of peace between England and Holland.—Dealings with the Hottentots.—Harsh regulations of Commander Van Quaelberg.—Dismissal of Mr. Van Quaelberg from the Company's service.—Appointment of

Jacob Borghorst as commander.—Succession of clergymen.—Increase of the burghers.—Removal of the French beacons at Saldanha Bay.—Survey of the country about Mossel Bay.—Visit to the Attaqua tribe.—Cruel custom of the Hottentots.—Liberty of the Company's servants to trade to a small extent on their own account.—Incidents in the career of George Frederick Wreede.—Expeditions of the Grundel along the western and south-eastern coasts.—Search for metals.—Visit of the commissioner Mattheus van der Broeck.—Desire of Mr. Borghorst to be relieved.—Appointment of Pieter Hackius as his successor Page 161

CHAPTER XXIX.

PIETER HACKIUS, COMMANDER, INSTALLED 25TH MARCH 1670, DIED 30TH NOVEMBER 1671.
 THE COUNCIL OF POLICY, 30TH NOVEMBER 1671 TO 25TH MARCH 1672.
 ALBERT VAN BREUGEL, SECUNDE, ACTING COMMANDER, FROM 25TH MARCH TO 2ND OCTOBER 1672.

Arrival of a French fleet under Admiral De la Haye.—Hostile conduct of the French at Saldanha Bay.—Regulations concerning slaves.—Misfortunes of the secunde De Cretzer.—Arrival of a few families of immigrants.—Ideas of the day as to good government.—Cause of so few immigrants arriving in South Africa.—Death of Commander Hackius.—Resolution of the directors to complete the castle and strengthen the garrison.—Position of the castle.—Selection of officers to conduct the government.—Statistics of ships that put into Table Bay.—Account of wrecks.—Number of visitors yearly.—Dealings with Gonnema's people.—Arrival of the secunde Van Breugel.—Visit of the commissioner Aernout van Overbeke.—Purchase of territory from Hottentot chiefs.—First distillation of brandy at the Cape.—Intelligence of war with England and France.—Arrangements for defence.—Arrival of Governor Goske. ... Page 182

CHAPTER XXX.

ISBRAND GOSKE, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 2ND OCTOBER 1672, RETIRED 14TH MARCH 1676.
 Statistics of population.—Influence of the war in Europe upon Cape affairs.—Progress of the construction of the castle.—

Establishment of an outpost at Hottentots-Holland.—Expedition against St. Helena.—Career of Lieutenant Van Breitenbach.—Trade with the Chainouquas.—Account of Captain Klaas.—Account of Captain Gonnema.—The second Hottentot war.—Wreck of the Grundel and of the Zoetendal.—Method of raising revenue by farming out privileges.—Occupation of the castle by the garrison.—Conclusion of peace between England and the Netherlands.—Career of the first baptized Hottentot.—Account of the church fund for the support of the poor.—Establishment of an orphan chamber.—Regulations concerning ecclesiastical affairs.—Visit of the commissioner Nicolaas Verburg.—Terms of a petition of the colonists to the commissioner.—Position of the island of Mauritius with regard to the Cape government.—Appointment of Johan Bax as successor to Mr. Goske Page 203

CHAPTER XXXL

JOHAN BAX, ENTITLED VAN HERENTALS, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 14TH MARCH 1676, DIED 29TH JUNE 1678.

HENDRIK CRUDOP, SECUDE, ACTING COMMANDER, 29TH JUNE 1678 TO 12TH OCTOBER 1679.

Measures for the protection of the farmers.—Murder of three burghers by Bushmen.—Condition of Hottentot clans when the Dutch settled in South Africa.—Condition of the Bushmen.—Unsuccessful expedition against Gonnema.—Punishment of Captain Kees.—Conclusion of peace with the Cochoquas.—Effects of the war with Gonnema upon the European settlement.—Stringent regulations concerning intercourse between burghers and Hottentots.—Account of Willem Willems.—Condition of the beachrangers.—Measures for the suppression of robberies.—Execution of five Bushmen.—Principles of the government in its intercourse with the earlier inhabitants.—Establishment of a matrimonial court.—Particulars concerning slaves.—Exploration of the western and south-eastern coasts.—Selection of a site for a new church.—Death of the reverend Mr. Hulsenaar.—Removal of bodies from the old church to the site of the new one.—Account of the first colonists beyond the Cape peninsula.—Particulars concerning the first customs regulations.—Arrival of a few families of immigrants.—Death of Governor Bax.—Assumption of the government by the secunde as acting commander.—Appointment of the reverend Johannes Overney as clergyman of the Cape.—Conclusion of peace between the Netherlands and France.—Naming of the five bastions of the castle.—Position of the burghers beyond the Cape peninsula.—Particulars of the census of 1679.—Migration of Hottentots from the neighbourhood of the Cape to the high plateau south of the Orange river.—Appointment of Simon van der Stel as commander Page 228

CHAPTER XXXII.

SIMON VAN DER STEL, COMMANDER, INSTALLED 12TH OCTOBER 1679, RAISED TO THE RANK OF GOVERNOR 1ST JUNE 1691,
RETIRED 11TH FEBRUARY 1699.

Particulars concerning Simon van der Stel.—Condition of the settlement.—Visit of the commander to Hottentots-Holland.—Particulars concerning the naming of Stellenbosch.—Occupation of the Stellenbosch valley by Europeans.—Improvement of the Company's garden in Table Valley.—Account of Hendrik Bernard Oldenland.—Intercourse with the Hottentots.—Visit of some Namaquas to the castle with specimens of copper ore.—First information concerning the Orange river.—Treatment of foreigners at the Cape.—Method of taxing foreigners.—Growth of Stellenbosch.—Destruction of crops by insects.—Establishment of a court of heemraden at Stellenbosch.—Particulars concerning the first school at Stellenbosch.—Various duties of the teacher of the school.—Resolution of the East India Company to make use of South Africa as a place of banishment for Indian political prisoners.—Particulars concerning the Bantamese civil war and the banishment of Sheik Joseph to the Cape.—Visit of the retired governor-general Ryklof van Goens.—Instructions issued by Mr. Van Goens.—Account of the wreck of an English ship.—Establishment of a court for the adjudication of petty cases.—Unsuccessful exploring expeditions of 1682 and 1683.—Receipt of more copper ore from Namaqualand.—Formation of a number of outposts.—Visit of Ryklof van Goens the younger.—Transactions of Mr. Van Goens at the Cape.—First exportation of grain Page 248

CHAPTER XXXIII.

SIMON VAN DER STEL'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Visit of the high commissioner Hendrik Adriaan van Rheede.—Reconstruction of the council of policy and the high court of justice.—Appointment of a landdrost to Stellenbosch.—Constitution and powers of the court of landdrost and heemraden.—Regulations concerning slaves and Hottentots.—Grant of the farm Constantia by the high commissioner to Commander Van der Stel.—Search for minerals of value.—Imposition of transfer dues on sales of fixed property.—Price of grain.—Departure of the high commissioner.—Journey of Commander Van der Stel to Namaqualand.—Particulars concerning Hottentots and Bushmen along the route.—Description of the country along the south-western coast.—Effects of rain and of drought.—Discovery of the Copper mountain.—Results of the commander's journey Page 269

CHAPTER XXXIV.

SIMON VAN DER STEL'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Account of the wreck of the Dutch ship Stavenisse on the coast of Natal.—Adventures of the shipwrecked crew.—Account of the wreck of the English ketch Good Hope at the bay of Natal.—Particulars concerning the building of the Centaurus at Natal.—Account of the loss of the English ketch Bona Ventura at St. Lucia Bay.—Escape of some of the wrecked men in the Centaurus.—Search along the coast for the others.—Rescue of many of them.—Adventures of Guillaume Chenut.—Voyage of the galiot Noord along the southern and south-eastern coasts.—Survey of Delagoa Bay.—Occurrences at Natal.—Particulars concerning the Bantu tribes between Natal and the Keiskama river.—Account of the expedition under Ensign Schryver to the Inqua tribe of Hottentots.—Information concerning the tribes between the Inquas and the Amaxosa.—Second voyage of the galiot Noord along the south-eastern coast.—Purchase by the Dutch East India Company of the country around the bay of Natal from a Bantu chief.—Account of the loss of the Noord on Klippen Point.—Suffering of the shipwrecked crew before reaching the Cape.—Hospitality of Captain Klaas.—Hostility of all other races towards the Bushmen ... Page 291

CHAPTER XXXV

SIMON VAN DER STEL'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Visit of French astronomers to the Cape.—Particulars concerning emigration from the Netherlands to South Africa.—Establishment of a yearly fair at Stellenbosch.—Mode of target shooting in the seventeenth century.—Arrangement for divine service at Stellenbosch.—Erection of various public buildings at Stellenbosch.—Extension of vineyards.—Experiments with the olive.—Particulars concerning tree planting.—Wreck of the Portuguese ship Nossa Senhora dos Milagros.—Treatment of shipwrecked Siamese ambassadors to the king of Portugal.—Particulars concerning the struggle with the Bushmen.—Specimens of local regulations.—Establishment of a deeds registry.—Outbreak of a destructive epidemic.—Visit of a French fleet of war.—Extension of the settlement to Drakenstein.—Survey of False Bay.—Account of the naming of Simon's Bay.—Condition of the colonists.—Particulars concerning sumptuary regulations.—Damage caused by locusts.—Progress of agriculture.—Particulars concerning the census of 1687.—Emigration from the southern to the northern Netherland provinces after the pacification of Ghent.—Emigration from France after 1670.—Desire of the directors of the East India Company to obtain some of the refugees as colonists Page 312

CHAPTER XXXVI.

SIMON VAN DER STEL'S ADMINISTRATION—(Continued).

Arrival at the Cape of various small parties of Huguenots.—Account of the clergyman Simond.—Assistance given to the Huguenots after their arrival.—Location of the Huguenots at Stellenbosch and Drakenstein.—Arrangements for public worship.—Establishment of a school at Drakenstein.—Receipt of assistance from Batavia.—Names of the Huguenots in South Africa in 1690.—Failure of a project to send out a party of Vaudois to the colony.—Grievances of the immigrants.—Ill feeling between the French and Dutch colonists.—Establishment of a church at Drakenstein.—Instructions regarding schools.—Method of locating immigrants.—Blending of the different nationalities.—Arrival of a number of Dutch immigrants.—Intercourse between the Europeans and the Hottentots.—Strife between the different Hottentot clans.—Hostility towards the Bushmen.—Progress of agriculture.—Improvements in the breed of cattle.—Introduction of Persian horses and asses and of Spanish rams.—Intelligence of war between Holland and France.—Capture in Table Bay of the French ships Normande and Coche Page 337

CHAPTER XXXVII.

SIMON VAN DER STEL'S ADMINISTRATION—(continued).

Rapacity of the East India Company's servants in the Asiatic dependencies.—Creation of the office of independent fiscal.—Plans of the directors for reducing their expenditure at the Cape.—Experiments with vines and olive trees.—Description of Capetown in 1691.—Elevation of the colony to the rank of a government.—Names of the chief officials in 1691.—Names of the principal burghers in 1691.—Census returns of 1691.—Particulars concerning revenue.—Statistics of shipping.—Improvements in the town.—Experiments in the cultivation of various plants.—Damage caused by wild animals.—Shocks of earthquake in Table Valley.—Changes in the staff of officials.—Erection of a large hospital.—Instances of dreadful ravages of scurvy.—Various shipwrecks.—Danger from pirates.—Seizure of the brigantine Amy in Saldanha Bay.—Contemplated abandonment of farming operations by the Company.—Names of new colonists.—Gradual alienation of sympathy between Governor Simon van der Stel and the colonists.—High opinion of the governor held by the directors.—Resignation of his office by Simon van der Stel.—Appointment by the directors of his eldest son as his successor.—His retirement to Constantia and subsequent career Page 360

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

WILHEM ADRIAAN VAN DER STEL, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 11TH FEBRUARY 1699, RECALLED 3RD JUNE 1707.

Appointment of Wilhem Adriaan van der Stel as governor.—Search for islands with forests on them.—Extensive planting of trees.—Tour of the governor.—Inspection of the Tulbagh basin.—Naming of the Witsenberg.—Occupation by graziers of the country about Riebeeck's Kasteel and the Tulbagh basin.—

Formation of a small military outpost in the Tulbagh basin.—Permission to the burghers to purchase cattle from the Hottentots.—Contract for supply of meat.—Cattle breeding henceforth a favourite pursuit of colonists.—Troubles with Bushmen.—Dealings with Hottentots.—Church matters.—Discontinuance of the use of the French language in the church at Drakenstein.—Proceedings of a marauding party.—Wreck of the Meresteyn.—Expedition to Natal.—Account of an English resident at Natal.—Fruitless efforts of the directors and the Cape government to make South Africa a wool-producing country.—Experiment in silk culture.—Placing of partridges and pheasants on Robben Island.—Long drought.—Increase of population.—Want of sympathy between the government and the colonists.—Extensive farming operations by the governor and other officials.—Complaints of the colonists to the supreme authorities.—Violent action of the governor.—Arrest of various burghers and their committal to prison.—Banishment of a burgher to Batavia and of four others to Europe.—Defiance of the government by the country people.—Action of the directors in the Netherlands.—Recall of the governor and other officials.—Arrival of the newly appointed secunde Johan Cornelis d'Ableing and transfer of the administration to him.—Views of the colonists and of the directors as to the rights of burghers Page 384

CHAPTER XXXIX.

JOHAN CORNELIS D'ABLEING, SECUNDE, ACTING GOVERNOR, 3RD JUNE 1707 TO 1ST FEBRUARY 1708.

LOUIS VAN ASSENBURGH, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 1ST FEBRUARY 1708, DIED 27TH DECEMBER 1711.

WILLEM HELOT, SECUNDE, ACTING GOVERNOR, 28TH DECEMBER 1711 TO 28TH MARCH 1714.

Matters connected with the different churches and clergymen.—Arrival of Governor Van Assenburgh.—Proceedings against the late officials in Amsterdam.—Division and sale of Vergelegen.—Visit of the commissioner Simons.—Regulations concerning the manumission of slaves.—Abandonment of the island of Mauritius by the Dutch.—Visit of the retired governor-general Van Hoorn.—Instructions concerning the tithes of grain.—Damage to the village of Stellenbosch by fire.—Placaat against destruction of trees.—Neglect of tree planting.—Definition of a boundary between the Cape and Stellenbosch districts.—Death of Governor Van Assenburgh.—Election of the secunde Willem Helot to act as governor.—Enlargement of the colony.—False alarm concerning an inroad of the Great Namaquas.—First appearance of small-pox in South Africa.—Appointment of Lieutenant-Colonel Maurits Pasques de Chavonnes as governor

 Page 415

CHAPTER XL.

MAURITS PASQUES DE CHAVONNES, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 28TH MARCH 1714, DIED 8TH SEPTEMBER 1724.

Efforts to equalise revenue and expenditure.—New taxes.—Basis of colonial law.—Dismissal of the secunde Helot.—Hostilities with the Bushmen.—The first colonial commando.—Trouble caused by fugitive slaves.—Struggle for place and rank.—Important questions submitted by the directors to the council of policy.—Experiments in the production of wool, indigo, tobacco, and olives.—Efforts to find a market for Cape wine.—New diseases among horned cattle and sheep.—Scarcity of butcher's meat.—Prohibition of sale of meat and vegetables to foreigners.—Ruin of the Namaqua tribe.—Outbreak of horse sickness.—Expansion of the Dutch East India Company's trade after the peace of Utrecht.—Refusal of supplies to private traders.—Shipwrecks on the coast and in Table Bay.—Erection of church buildings at the Paarl and Stellenbosch.—Death of the governor.—Appointment by the council of Jan de la Fontaine to act as governor.—Good and bad seasons and exportation of farm produce.—Names of new colonists Page 434

CHAPTER XLI.

OCCUPATION OF DELAGOA BAY BY THE DUTCH.

Abandonment by the Portuguese of trading expeditions to Delagoa Bay.—Resolution of the Dutch East India Company to form a commercial establishment there.—Despatch of a party of men from Holland for that purpose.—Arrival of the party at the river Espirito Santo.—Account of the Bantu on the shores of the bay.—Erection of Fort Lagoa.—Loss of life from fever.—Plunder of the establishment by pirates.—Trifling amount of trade with the Bantu.—Unsuccessful expedition in search of a mountain of iron.—Unsuccessful search for gold fields and copper mines.—Purchase of land along the banks of the rivers from different Bantu chiefs.—Account of Prince John.—Erection of Fort Lydzaamheid.—Exploration of the rivers as far as navigable.—Ravages of fever.—Voyage of the Victoria to Inhambane.—Account of a party of deserters.—Second voyage of the Victoria to Inhambane.—Conspiracy to seize Fort Lydzaamheid.—Terrible fate of the conspirators.—Disastrous conflict with some Bantu.—Abandonment of Delagoa Bay by the Dutch.—Visit of the Smuffelaar to Inhambane.—Erection of a fort at Inhambane by the Portuguese in 1730.—Unsuccessful voyage of the Zeepost and Feyenoord in search of a fitting place for a commercial establishment on the south-eastern coast Page 461

CHAPTER XLII.

JAN DE LA FONTAINE, SECONDE, ACTING GOVERNOR, 8TH SEPTEMBER 1724 TO 25TH FEBRUARY 1727.

PIETER GYSBERT NOODT, INSTALLED 25TH FEBRUARY 1727, DIED 23RD APRIL 1729.

JAN DE LA FONTAINE, SECONDE, ACTING GOVERNOR, 24TH APRIL 1729, TO 8TH MARCH 1730, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 8TH MARCH 1730, RETIRED 31ST AUGUST 1737.

ADRIAAN VAN KERVEL, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 31ST AUGUST 1737, DIED 19TH SEPTEMBER 1737.

Falling off in foreign ships visiting the Cape.—Attempts to plant the Cape flats.—Experiment in silk culture.—Efforts to produce kirman hair at the Cape.—Establishment of an outpost on the river Zonderend.—Arrival of Governor Noodt.—Character of the new governor.—Attempt to recover treasure from wrecks in Table Bay.—Sudden death of Governor Noodt.—Particulars of the trial of some soldiers, and of their execution on the day of the governor's death.—Election of Jan de la Fontaine to act as head of the government.—Appointment by the directors of Jan de la Fontaine as governor, Adriaan van Kervel as secunde, and Daniel van den Henghel as fiscal independent.—Decline in prosperity of the Netherlands East India Company.—Introduction of a new system of land tenure in the colony.—Project of trade between the colony and the east coast and the islands.—Visit of the governor to Mossel Bay.—Establishment of an outpost on the Buffeljagts river.—Shipwrecks in Table Bay and on the coast.—Summary punishment of thieves.—Succession of clergymen at the Cape, Stellenbosch, and Drakenstein.— Wanderings of elephant hunters.—Massacre by Bantu of a party of elephant hunters.—Retirement of Governor De la Fontaine, who is succeeded by Adriaan van Kervel.—Death of Governor Van Kervel. Page 481

CHAPTER XLIII.

DANIEL VAN DEN HENGHEL, FISCAL, ACTING GOVERNOR, 20TH
 SEPTEMBER 1737 TO 14TH APRIL 1739.

HENDRIK SWELLENGREBEL, GOVERNOR, INSTALLED 14TH APRIL 1739,
 RETIRED 27TH FEBRUARY 1751.

Election of the fiscal Van den Henghel to act as head of the government.—Petty insurrection under Estienne Barbier.—Raids by Bushmen.—Appointment by the directors of the secunde Hendrik Swellengrebel as governor.—Particulars concerning governor Swellengrebel.—Account of the warfare with the Bushmen.
 —Game laws.—Visit of the governor-general Gustaf Willem van Imhoff.—Establishment of churches at Waveren and Zwartland.—Particulars concerning combined church meetings.—
 Changes in the staff of clergy.—Moravian mission to the Hot-tentots.—Account of the missionary George Schmit, and of his work.—Opening of Simon's Bay as a port of call in the winter season.—Failure of an attempt to construct a mole in Table
 Bay Page 502

MAPS AND PLATES.

5. Standard map of South Africa in the middle of the seventeenth century To face page 1
6. Chart of Commander Van der Stel's journey to Namaqualand " " 290
7. Map of the Dutch settlement in 1700 " " 386