

Indian Tariff Board

REGARDING THE

GRANT OF PROTECTION

TO THE

COAL INDUSTRY

CALCUTTA: GOVERNMENT OF INDIA CENTRAL PUBLICATION BRANCH 1926 Government of India Publications are obtainable from the Government of India Central Publication Branch. 8. Hastings Street, Calcutta, and from the following

Agents :-

X9(D3551):53.2

EUROPE.

F6__

OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR INDIA. 42, GROSVEHOR GARDENS, LONDON, S.W. 1. And at all Booksellers.

240237

INDIA AND CEYLON.

Provincial Book Depôts:

Madras:—Office of the Superintendent, Government Press, Mount Road, Madras.

Bombay:—Superintendent, Government Book Depôt, Town Hall, Bombay.

Supp:—Library astached to the Office of the Commissioner in Sind, Karachi.

Burgal:—Office of the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, Writers' Buildings, Room No. I, Ground BENGAL:—Office of the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, Writers' Buildings, Reom Mo. I, Ground Floor, Calcutta.

United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, Allahabad.

PURIAS —Office of the Superintendent, Government Printing, Punjab, Lahore.

BURMA:—Office of the Superintendent, Government Printing, Burma, Rangeon.

CHYTRAL PROVINCES AND BENAS:—Office of the Central Provinces Secretariat, Nagpur.

ARRAM:—Office of the Superintendent, Assam Secretariat Press.

BIHAR AND CRIMA:—Office of the Superintendent, Government Priting, Bihar and Orises, F. C. Gulsarbagh, Patus.

COMB :—Office of the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, Bangalore.

NOATH-WHET FRONTERS PROVINCE:—Office of the Manager, Government Printing and Stationery, Pechawar. Peshawar.

Thacker, Spink & Co., Calcutta and Simla.

W. Newman & Co., Ltd., Calcutta.

& Cambray & Co., Calcutta.

E. L. Lahiri & Co., Calcutta.

The Indian School Supply Depôt, 309, Bow Basar Street, Calcutta, and 226, Nawabnur. Basar Street, Canuts, pur, Dacca, pur, Dacca, Butterworth & Co. (India), Ltd., Calcutta. Rai M. Q. Barcar Bahadur & Sona, 90/2A, Harrison Boad, Calcutta. The Weldon Library, 17, Park Street, Calcutta. Standard Literature Company, Limited, Calcutta.
Association Press, Calcutta.
Chukerverity, Chatterjee & Co., Ltd., 13,
College Square, Calcutta.
The Book Company, Calcutta.
The Book Company, Calcutta.
James Murray & Co., 12, Government Place,
Calcutta. (For Meteorological Publications only.)
Higginbotham & Co., Madras.
V. Ralyanarama Iyer & Co., Madras.
P. R. Rama Iyer & Co., Madras.
Rochouse and Sons, Madras.
Co. A. Nateson & Co., Publishers, George Town, Madras.
The Modern Stores, Salem, Madras. Literature Company, Limited, Standard Town, Madras.
The Modern Stores, Salem, Madras.
Bright & Co., Trivandrum.
The Booklover's Resort, Taikad, Trivandrum, South India.
V. S. Swaminathan, Bookseller, West Tower Street, Madura.
Thacker & Co., Ltd., Bombay.
D. B. Taraporevala, Sons & Co., Bombay.
Sunder Pandurang, Bombay.
Ram Chandra Govind & Sons, Kalbadevi,

N. M. Tripathi & Co., Booksellers, Princess Street, Ralbadevi Road, Bombay. R. B. Umadikar & Co., The Bharat Book Depôt, Dharwar.

Proprietor, New Kitabkhana, Poona,

The Manager, Oriental Book Supplying

Agency, 15, Shukrawar, Poona City.

B. S. Gondhalekar's Book Depôt, Publisher

and Bookseller, Budhwar Chawk, Poona

City. Dity.

Bombay.

Minaging Director, Co-operative Bookstall,
Booksellers and Publishers, Poona City.
The Standard Bookstall, Karachi, Quetta,
Delhi, Murree and Rawaipindi.
The Standard Bookstall, Quetta.
J. Ray & Sons, 43, E. & L. Edwardes Road, Rawaipindi.
The Standard Book Depôt, Lahore, Lucknow.
Natnital. Mussoorie. Dalhousie and

Dalhousie and Natnital, Mussoorie Ambala Cantonment Mussoorie,

Karsandas Narandas & Sons, Surat.
Mangaldas & Sons, Booksellers and Publishers, Bhaga Talao, Surat.
Mrs. Radhabai Atmaram Sagoon, Kalbadevi Road, Bombay.

A. H. Wheeler & Co., Allahabad, Calcutta A. H. Wheeler & Co., Allahabad, Calcutta and Bombay.

N. B. Mathur, Supdt, Maxir Kanun Hind Press, Allahabad.

The North India Christian Tract and Book Society, 18, Clive Road, Allahabad.

Ram Dayal Agarwala, 184, Katra, Allaha-Manager, Newal Kishore Press, Lucknow.
The Upper India Publishing House, Ltd.,
41, Aminabad Park, Lucknow.
Munshi Seeta Ram, Managing Proprietor,
Indian Army Book Depôt, Juhi, Cawn-Rai Sahib M. Gulab Singh & Sons, Mufid-i-Am Press, Lahore and Allahabad. Rama Krishna & Sons, Booksellers, Anarkali, Lahore. kali, Lahore.
Puri Brothers, Booksellers and Publishers,
Estcheri Road, Lahore.
The Tilak School Bookshop, Lahore.
The Standard Bookstall, Lahore.
Manager of the Imperial Book Depôt, 63,
Chandney Chowk Street, Delhi. Oxford Book and Stationery Company, Delhi. Supdt., American Baptist Mission Press, Rangoon. Proprietor, Rangoon Times Press, Rangoon. The Modern Publishing House, Ltd., 30, Phayre Street, Rangoon.
The International Buddhist Book Dep3t, Post Box No. 971, Rangoon. Post Box No. 971, Rangoon.

Burma Book Club, Ltd., Rangoon.

Manager, the "Hitavada," Nagpur.

S. C. Talukdar, Proprietor, Students & Co.,
Coooh Behar.

Times of Ceylon Co., Ltd.

The Manager, Ceylon Observer, Colombo.

The Manager, The Indian Book Shop.

Benares City.

B. O. Basak, Esq., Proprietor, Albert
Library, Dacoa.

The Strillington. The Srivilliputtur Co-operative Trading Union, Ltd., Srivilliputtur (Satur S. I.

Banwari Lal, Esq., Pakariya Street, Pilibhit,

Manager, Educational Book De Jubulpore. Raghunath Prasad & Sons, Paina City. Dandekar Brothers, Indore City.

United Province

NOTE.

The estimated cost of the Tariff Board during its enquiry into the Coal Industry is as follows:—

									Rs.	A.	P.
(1)	Salaries of	men	ороги (and	staff				42,790	2	0
(2)	Travelling ance)	allo	wance	(in	cludir •	ıg da	ily •	allow	7,060	6	0
(3)	Printing								2,270	0	0
(4)	Contingend	ies	•	•		•	•	•	1,038	8	0

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Majority Report.

CHAPTER I.

	Introductory.
PAI	RA.	Page.
1.	. The question referred to the Board	1
2	. The proposals of the Indian Mining Federation and the Board's Communiqué	1
3.	. Proposals of the Indian Mining Association	2
4.		2
5.	Evidence tendered against protection	3
6.	•	3
7.	Arrangement of the Report	4
	CHAPTER II.
	THE PROBABLE RESULTS OF A PROTECTIVE DUTY ON COAL.
8.	Necessity of investigating the probable results of a protective duty on coal,	5
9.	Ouestions to be examined	5
10.	The market for coal in India before the war
11.	Conditions affecting the Indian coal market during and after	6
11.	the war	6
12.	The Indian coal market from 1923 to 1925	7
13.	Imports of foreign coal only 21 per cent. of internal consumption	7
14.	The market for coal in Burma and Madras	8
15.	The Bombay coal market before, during and after the war .	8
16.	Displacement of coal in Bombay by fuel oil and hydro-electricity	9
17.	The present market for coal in Bombay	10
18.	Pre-war imports of coal at Karachi by the North-Western
20.	Railway	11
19.	The market for coal at Karachi before, during and after the	_
	WAR	11
2 0.	The present market for coal at Karachi	12
21.	Increase in the market for Indian coal which a protective duty could give—only 300,000 tons a year	12
22.	The c.i.f. cost of the best Jharia coal at the Indian ports	13
23.	Sea freights to Bombay on coal from Calcutta and South Africa	14
24.	Price obtainable for the best Jharia coal c.i.f. Bombay	15
25.	Protection would not increase the price of Indian coal except possibly in Bombay and Sind	15
26.	Comparison of the price of Jharia coal at Bombay with the price of similar coal at Madras and Rangoon	16
27.	Extent to which protection might raise the price of coal in Bombay and Karachi	17
	•	B
		_

Par	A.	PAGE
28.	Effect of protection on the sales and prices of Indian coal	17
29.		17
30.
	tive cuty	18
	CHAPTER III.
	Proposed Protective Duty on all imported coal.
31.	Questions considered in Chapter III	19
32.	Rates of duty proposed by the Mining Federation	19
33.	No reason for imposing a higher duty on coal other than South African	20
34.	Criticism of the proposed rate of duty on South African coal .	20
35.	Impossibility of fixing the rate of duty on coal on the basis of a fair price	21
36.	Depression in the Coal industry	22
37.	Reasons given for declining coal prices	22
38.		22
39.	- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	23
40.	Low price of coal due to over-rapid development	24
41.	· · ·	24
42.	The Claim of the Coal industry to assistance from the State .	25
43.	The embargo on coal exports not a reason for imposing a protective duty on coal	25
44.	The prejudice against Indian coal in overseas markets	26
45.	The prejudice justified by actual quality of much Indian coal sent to Bombay and Sind	26
1 6.	Explanation of the prejudice given by the mine owners	27
47.	Dissatisfaction with Indian coal not due mainly to shipment conditions	28
4 8.	Responsibility of the Coal industry for the unpopularity of Indian coal	28
4 9.	Unfairness of compelling consumer to purchase Indian coal .	29
5 0.	Probable increase of shipments of Indian coal to Bombay and Sind without protection	30
51.	National importance of the Coal industry and unsalability of second class coal	31
52.	Summary of the reasons against a protective duty on all imported coal	32
		•
	CHAPTER ¶V.
	Proposed countervailing duty on South African coal.
53 .	Complaint of the mine owners that the competition of South African coal is unfair	18
54.	Coal freights on the South African railways	34
55.	Difference between export and domestic freight—the primary measure of assistance given to export trade	36
56.	The higher rate on bunker coal	86

ests of the coal export trade 7. Possibility of reductions of rail freight on particular commodities with the object of increasing traffic generally 8. Domestic rate on coal too low to admit of drastic reductions on export coal 8. Only a substantial freight concession could develop South Africa's export coal irroduced in the interests of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways 8. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton to the The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty 8. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom 8. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India 8. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty 8. Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal 8. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended 8. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 8. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa 8. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 8. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala 8. Minority Report. 8. CHAPTER I. 8. REASONS FOR DISSENTING FROM THE MAJORITY REPORT. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 8. Competition with South African coal 9. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 9. Explanation 10. Acknowledgments 8. CHAPTER II. 8. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty		.
Sacrifice of revenue by the South African railways in the interests of the coal export trade 59 Possibility of reductions of rail freight on particular commodities with the object of increasing traffic generally 60. Domestic rate on coal too low to admit of drastic reductions on export coal 61. Only a substantial freight concession could develop South African cas export coal trade 62. South African rebate on export coal introduced in the interests of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways 63. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 at on the existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty 65. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom 66. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India 67. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty 68. Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal 69. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended 60. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 61. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa. 62. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 63. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala 64. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 65. Explanation 66. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal. MAINLY a result of bounty 66. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal ain the separate note 67. Bounty 68. Bounty 69. The amount of the bounty 69. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	57.
7. Possibility of reductions of rail freight on particular commodities with the object of increasing traffic generally. 6. Domestic rate on coal too low to admit of drastic reductions on export coal. 6. Only a substantial freight concession could develop South Africas export coal trade. 6. South African rebate on export coal introduced in the interests of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways. 6. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton the existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty. 7. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom. 7. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India. 7. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty. 7. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty. 8. Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal. 8. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended. 9. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry. 1. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa. 1. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal. 8. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. CHAPTER I. CHAPTER I. CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal. 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal. CHAPTER II.	53.	Sacrifice of revenue by the South African railways in the inter-
60. Domestic rate on coal too low to admit of drastic reductions on export coal 61. Only a substantial freight concession could develop South Africa's export coal trade 62. South African rebate on export coal introduced in the interests of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways 63. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton 64. The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty 65. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom of Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India 67. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty of Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty of Countervailing duty on South African coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of retaliation by South Africa of Indian coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of retaliation by South Africa of Indian coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of retaliation by South Africa of Indian coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of retaliation by South Africa of Indian coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of retaliation by South Africa of Indian coal of Indian coal of Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry of Possibility of Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for disserting from other countries of Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement of CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of Bounty of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note Bounty of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note Bounty of Rebates are nothing but a direct b	59.	Possibility of reductions of rail freight on particular commo-ca's export coal trade 22. South African rebate on export coal introduced in the interests of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways 23. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton ton of a countervailing duty 25. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom 26. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India 27. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty 28. Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal 29. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended 20. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 21. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa 22. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 23. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala 24. Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 25. Exclusion of competition from other countries 26. Competition with South African coal 27. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 28. Explanation 29. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 29. The amount of the bounty 20. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	60.	Domestic rate on coal too low to admit of drastic reductions on of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the railways 3. Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton 4. The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposi- tion of a countervailing duty 5. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom 5. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in 5. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty 5. Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably in- crease if a duty were imposed on South African coal 6. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended 6. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 7. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa 7. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 7. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala 7. CHAPTER I. REASONS FOR DISSENTING FROM THE MAJORITY REPORT. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opi- nion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagree- ment 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of Bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	61.
Export bounty on South African coal not less than Re. 1-8 a ton The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty 55. Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom. 156. Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India 57. Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal increase in a duty increase in a duty were imposed on South African coal increase in a duty were imposed duty on South African coal increase in a duty increase in a duty were imposed duty on South African coal increase in a duty were imposed duty on South African coal increase in a duty were imposed duty on South African coal increase in a duty increa	62.	of the Coal industry rather than to bring traffic to the rail-
The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposition of a countervailing duty Procedure for safeguarding industries in the United Kingdom Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry Possibility of retaliation by South Africa The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note Bounty The amount of the bounty Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	63.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India Success of South African coal not likely to injure industries in India Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry Possibility of retaliation by South Africa The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. Chapter I. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations Exclusion of competition from other countries Competition with South African coal Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement Explanation Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of Bounty Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note Bounty The amount of the bounty Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	64.	The existence of a bounty does not of itself justify the imposi-
Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in India Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty Extent to which the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry Possibility of retaliation by South Africa The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. CHAPTER I. Competition of competition from other countries Competition with South African coal Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement Explanation Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal and the separate note Bounty The amount of the bounty Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	65.
Signature of the sales of Indian coal would probably increase if a duty were imposed on South African coal. 19. Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended. 10. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry. 11. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa. 12. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal. 13. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala. 14. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 15. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations. 16. Exclusion of competition from other countries. 17. Cimpetition with South African coal. 18. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement. 19. Explanation. 19. CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal. Mainly a result of bounty. 19. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note. 19. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty.	66.	Duty on South African coal not likely to injure industries in crease if a duty were imposed on South African coal	67.	Success of South African coal not due entirely to the bounty .
O. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 1. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa 2. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 3. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	63.
O. Protective duties inappropriate to the Coal industry 1. Possibility of retaliation by South Africa 2. The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal 3. The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	69.	Countervailing duty on South African coal not recommended .
The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South African coal The Report not signed by Mr. Ginwala Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	70.
Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries 3. Competition with South African coal 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement 5. Explanation 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty 9. The amount of the bounty 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	71.
Minority Report. CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations. 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries. 3. Competition with South African coal. 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement. 5. Explanation. 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty. 9. The amount of the bounty. 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty.	72.	The Board's findings regarding the proposed duty on South
CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations	73.
CHAPTER I. Reasons for dissenting from the Majority Report. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations
REASONS FOR DISSENTING FROM THE MAJORITY REPORT. 1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations		Minority Report.
1. Agreement with Majority on essential facts; difference of opinion as regards recommendations. 2. Exclusion of competition from other countries. 3. Competition with South African coal. 4. Difference in methods of approach—main cause of disagreement. 5. Explanation. 6. Acknowledgments CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal Mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty. 9. The amount of the bounty. 10. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty.		CHAPTER I
nion as regards recommendations		REASONS FOR DISSENTING FROM THE MAJORITY REPORT.
3. Competition with South African coal	1.
3. Competition with South African coal	_	mion as regards recommendations ment	2.
CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal mainly a result of bounty Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note Bounty	2. 3.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
CHAPTER II. Success of South African coal mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty		Exclusion of competition from other countries
Success of South African coal mainly a result of bounty 7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 8. Bounty	3.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
7. Summary of the conclusions arrived at in the separate note 3. Bounty	3. 4.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
3. Bounty	3. 4. 5.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
9. The amount of the bounty	3. 4. 5.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
9. The amount of the bounty	3. 4. 5.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
O. Rebates are nothing but a direct bounty	3. 4. 5. 6.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	3. 4. 5. 6.	Exclusion of competition from other countries
	3. 4. 5. 6.	Exclusion of competition from other countries

Par.	A.	PAGE
11.	South African freights deliberately approximated to Indian freights	55
12.	South African coal cannot compete against Indian coal without bounty	55
13.	Success of South African coal due to bounty and not to deterioration of quality of Indian coal or embargo on export.	56
	CHAPTER III.	,
	Measures against unfair competition in other countries.
14.	How unfair competition is dealt with in other countries	58
15.	Pre-war legislation against unfair competition	58
.16.	Post-war legislation against unfair competition :	- 58
17.	Unfair competition—sole criterion in some countries	59
18.	Unfair competition attended by actual or probable injury to domestic industry, criterion of other countries	60
19.	United Kingdom requires fulfilment of other conditions	60
20.	These conditions afford little assistance in the deliberations of
21.	this Board	6 0
21. 22.	Aulie aut combact to marketically commisse	61 62
23.	Reasons for action	62
	CIT A DIRECT. THE
	CHAPTER IV.
	Countervalling duties on South African coal.
24.	Practice of other countries	64
25.	Practical considerations justify imposition of countervailing duties	64
26.	Limitations imposed by fiscal law and system cannot be ignored	6₽
27.	Fiscal law	64
28.	Indian fiscal system	65
29.	Injury to the Indian Coal industry extensive	66
30.	Loss of external market must be taken into account in determining the extent of injury	66
31.	Amount of countervailing duty recommended—Re. 1-8 per ton on South African coal	67
32.	Burden of the countervailing duty on the consumer	67
33.	Principal Bombay consumers in favour of countervailing duty	68
34.	Rise in the price of South African coal will throw no burden on the consumer, it may reduce it	68
35.	Quantity of South African coal which may be displaced	68
36.	Gain to the country as a whole by the imposition of counter-vailing duty	69
37.	Precautions by consumer to secure good quality of Indian coal. Purchasing direct from the collieries	69
38.	Securing guarantee as to the quality if middlemen employed .	70
39.	Reason for such guarantee	70
4 0.	Consumer will not adopt any precautions unless South African	71

(▼)

CHAPTER V.

Objections to the imposition of a countervalling duty on Soute Aprican coal.

Para											Page.
`41.	Result	ant gain to I	ndian (Coal in	dustry	smali	_	_	_		72
42.		recovery alrea			•			-			72
43.		deterioration i						cantit	lee ·	in-
ш.		try to assistant	-		-		,	BCII (II)			74
44.		rness of restr				's cho	ina.	•	•		75
45.		ation by Sout						•	•	•	75
₩,	Metan	ation by Bout	u Aiii	Cas	• •	•	•	•	•	•	10
			C	HAPT	ER VI.
	Expor	T TRADE, SUM	MARY (or con	CLUBION	8 AND	BEC	окив	NDAT	rion	8.
46.	Expor	t Trade .					_				77
47.	Summ		·				•	•	•	•	78
48.		mendations	·			•	•	•	•	•	79
•0.	IVO. UII	IMENUA CIONS	•	•	• •	•	•	•	•	•	10
									_
APPI	en di X	I.—Press c					Tari	ff Bo	ard	on
					r 1925	-	•	٠.	• .	•	81
APPI	NDIX	11.—Consum	ption	of coa	l (inclu	ding	coke	and	pate	ent
					ore and		the	War	•	•	82
	INDIX	III.—Imports					•	•	•	•	83
	NDIX	IV.—Market				-	•	•	•	•	84
APPI	IN DIX	V.—Market	for se	a-born	e coal i	n Ma	dras		•		85
APPI	NDIX	VI.—Market									86
APPI	INDIX	VIJ.—Market	for o	oal in	Karacl	hi (ex	cludi	ing I	Railw	7ay
		coal)				•		•	•	٠,	87
APPE	NDIE T	7III.—Distanc	es to c	ertain	ports f	from (Calcu	tta, 🗋	Durt	an
		and	Delago	за Вау				•			88
APPI	INDLE	IXWhite	paper i	bersai	by the l	Board	of T	rade.			89
APPI	NDIX	X.—Extract	from	eviden	ce of c	ertain	wit	108808	bef	ore
		the	Indian	Coal	Commit	tee					92
APPI	INDIX	XI.—Analysi	s of tr	ade be	tween t	he Un	ion a	and l	ndia	٠.	95
										_
Note	by M	r. P. P. Ginv	vala re	egardir	g the	injury	infl	cted	on	the al	dian C	oal industry by reasons which l	the c	ompeti	tion of	the So	outh	Afric	an c	oal	96
an	d the 1	reasons which i	1846 DI	rougnt	about t	ле вис	C088	or tn	e lat	ter	סמ
Ann	EXURE	A
	m. L	le I.—Exporta	of T-	lian co	al and	chin-	+-	af aa	a) f-
	170				n ports		CHILE	OT CO	ai iI		118
	m_1	le II.—Export			-		rica	•	•	•	119
4									•	•
ANN	EXURE	B.—Pithead p	LICOS O	I NETS	n Bud I	naian	coal	~	•	.•	120
ANN	EXURE	C.—Extracts									101
		Report	•	•	• •	•	•	•	•	•	121

	PAGE.
ee's Report	. 123
al	. 125
South Africar	. 126
ight be earned
	al South African