Annual Supplement of "INDIAN FINANCE"—1934

IN EXTENUATION

The Year-Book sees the light of day considerably behind the time. The delay is, doubtless, inordinate. And our readers have probably reason to feel aggrieved. But we must point out that we have always regarded the Year-Book as a valuable addition to the literature on Indian economy and not as a routine supplement. In endeavouring to cover the entire national economic life we have met with difficulties, disappointment and delay. And for our part we have been unwilling to subordinate the quality of the publication to the rigorous requirements of the time table. The reader will judge for himself to what extent the various sections have been expanded in scope and enriched in detail. The experiences of the past three years have been fruitful in inducing the confidence that henceforward, the Year-Book will be brought out within three months of the close of the financial year.
