

THE CATTLE WEALTH OF INDIA.

(Peasants' Plight: Salvation lies in Co-operation.)

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-011453

A Treatise for improving the Economic condition of the peasantry through a systematic process of developing the Cattle Breeding and Dairy Farming Industry, based on the model of Denmark and to be worked out on
"Co-operative" lines.

By

E. V. S. Maniam.

Second Edition.

PATT & COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS & BOOKSELLERS, CAWNPORE.
1938

λ 311:7.2

G8

11453

Nirmal Press, Mall Road, Cawnpore.

CONTENTS.

1. THE INDIAN PEASANT: The world-wide depression—the hard-pressed Indian peasantry—Sir Fredrick Sykes' analysis—Rural Reconstruction—economic elevation of peasants through Cattle Breeding and Dairy Farming—scope for development of Dairy Industry in India.
 2. THE PROBLEM OF MILK: Milk, an ideal article of diet—milk in ancient days—scarcity of pure milk in Indian cities—Memorial of the members of the Cow Conference—Infant Mortality in India—comparative tables—slaughter of milch cattle—export of animals from India—shortage of grazing grounds and fodder.
 3. CATTLE BREEDING & DAIRY FARMING: Approximate number of live-stock (excluding poultry and pigs) totals 300 million—annual value of their products, (excluding labour) not less than Rs. 1053 crores—Cow and buffalow statistics—milk-yield of various breeds in India—housing and feeding of cattle—care of calves—treatment of sickly animals.
 4. COMPOSITION OF MILK: Butter-fat and other constituents—the separating process—village method of butter making—uneconomic and unscientific—modern ways of butter manufacture—addition of salt and preservatives—packing—ghee, how it is made in villages—annual production amounts to Rs. 1,00,00,00,000—cheese, a popular product—Casein, industrial uses of casein—lactine, for infants and invalids—powdered milk—condensed milk, etc.
 5. DENMARK AND INDIA: The two ancient countries—social and economic conditions compared—position of Danish peasants 50 years back—critical stage in their history—the bloodless revolution—how a happy peasantry was carved out.
 6. CO-OPERATION, THE ONE CURE: The soul of India sick unto death under a crushing load of debt—ways and means of improving the economic condition of peasants—their salvation lies in co-operation—detailed account of organizing and running various types of co-operative institutions—Education and Co-operation—duty of the youths of India—Conclusion.
-