

Count Tolstoy

MY CONFESSION

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

- 2/6 A RUSSIAN PROPRIETOR.
„ THE COSSACKS.
„ IVAN ILYITCH.
„ THE INVADERS.
„ MY RELIGION.
„ LIFE.
„ MY CONFESSION.
„ CHILDHOOD, BOYHOOD, YOUTH.
„ THE PHYSIOLOGY OF WAR.
„ WHAT TO DO?
„ THE LONG EXILE.
„ SEVASTOPOL.
„ THE KREUTZER SONATA.
„ THE KINGDOM OF GOD.
3/6 ANNA KARÉNINA.
„ WAR AND PEACE. (2 vols.)
1/- WHAT IS ART?

SOCIETY
POONA

My Confession
and
The Spirit of Christ's Teaching

TOLSTOY

London and Felling-on-Tyne:
THE WALTER SCOTT PUBLISHING CO., LTD.
NEW YORK AND MELBOURNE

Q6

C1

2588

CONTENTS.

MY CONFESSION.

CHAPTER	PAGE
I.—Youthful beliefs — Precocious scepticism — Atheism at college — Demetry Tolstoy's mysticism — How one ceases to believe — Orthodoxy not a security for virtue—History of S.—Faith in perfection . . . . .	I
II.—Youthful passions—The author begins to write —Theories of creative artists regarding life— That they are superior beings and that their vocation is the instruction of mankind—The author refuses to believe this—The true desire of the apostles of culture is to receive as much money and as much praise as possible . . . . .	9
III.—The author travels—His faith in perfection increased by his contact with European civilisation—This faith shattered by witnessing

CHAPTER	PAGE
the execution of a criminal at Paris—Death of the author's brother—The author establishes peasant schools—New travels abroad—Judicial service, teaching, journalism—Mental disease—Departure for the Steppes—Marriage—The influence of family life—The author continues to write—A crisis—Life has no joys if we do not know its meaning—Morally speaking, the author feels himself incapable of life . . . .	18
IV.—Life an absurdity—Suicide contemplated—Meanwhile the author lives in luxury and his physical health is perfect—Life an ugly practical joke played by some unknown power—There is nothing, there never was anything, there never will be anything in life—An Oriental fable—The impossibility of not thinking—The terrors of uncertainty—Immediate death far preferable . . . .	28
V.—Looking for the secret of life—Exact sciences—Theoretical sciences—Cessation of development—Science ignores the question of life—The search after theories—The emptiness of philosophy . . . . .	38
VI.—Man astray—What is the meaning of life?—Socrates—Schopenhauer—Solomon—Buddha

CONTENTS.

vii

CHAPTER

PAGE

- Death worth more than life—Life should be surrendered . . . . . 51
- VII.—Four methods—Ignorance—Epicureanism—Suicide—Acquiescence—Do not realise that life is absurd—Get what you can out of life and never think of the future—Understand that life is an evil and kill yourself—Know that life is unprofitable and still live—The author asks himself if he has ignored any essential fact, or if there is any error in his reasoning . . . 66
- VIII.—Where is the mistake?—The author has considered only the artificial life of his own class—He believed that the life of the masses was of no consequence—And yet the masses formulate the question of life and solve it with astonishing clearness—But their solution is founded on a faith which the author no longer possesses—A terrible dilemma . . . . 77
- IX.—The author's mistake—He has tried to solve, not the question of life, but the question of his own life—In faith alone is the possibility of life—Without faith, life is impossible—In the solutions offered by faith there is profound human wisdom . . . . . 83

CHAPTER	PAGE
X.—The author studies religions—He mingles with believers and theologians—The author is alarmed and again in despair—The lives of these men do not correspond with their professions—The faith of these people is not the faith for which the author seeks — He mingles with the common people, with fanatics and sectarians—He finds a true faith — He believes that he has grasped the meaning of life . . . . .	94
XI.—Everything clear—The insanity of the race—What has the author done for thirty years?—To understand the will of the Regulator of the universe one must carry out that will—The wise and the simple . . . . .	102
XII.—The life of a parasite and the true life—Seeking after God — If God, Cause of all causes, exists, life is possible—The problem unsolved—The bird falls from the nest—And yet lives—Aspirations of life—Despair—Man adrift and God the shore . . . . .	108
XIII.—The life of the world a travesty of life—To understand life we must apply to those who produce life and give it a meaning—The

CONTENTS.

ix

CHAPTER	PAGE
author accepts all rites inspired by faith— Reasons for this—The arguments of theo- logians—Reservations in the author's faith .	118
XIV.—Ritual not understood—The author adheres to ceremonial—Religious ideas of the people —Reading the lives of Saints and martyrs .	126
XV.—The author envies the simple beliefs of the people—Orthodoxy—New problems—The Orthodox Church and other churches—Men of different faiths treat one another as heretics —The author tries to conciliate different Christian communities—Reply of a Russian priest—The author renounces Orthodoxy— The Orthodox Church and its indorsement of war . . . . .	132
XVI.—There are falsehoods in faith—The author searches the Scriptures—The fruits of his studies to form a book: My Religion . . .	141
CONCLUSION . . . . .	144

THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST'S TEACHING.

	PAGE
PREFACE . . . . .	153
INTRODUCTION . . . . .	173
CHAPTER
I.—THE SON OF GOD . . . . .	175
Man, the Son of God, powerless in the flesh, is free in the spirit. ( Our Father. )
II. . . . .	178
And therefore man must work, not for the flesh, but according to the spirit. ( Which art     in heaven. )
III. . . . .	181
From the spirit of the Father hath proceeded the life of all men. ( Hallowed be thy name. )
IV.—THE KINGDOM OF GOD . . . . .	184
And, therefore, the will of the Father is that all men should have life and happiness. ( Thy     kingdom come. )

CONTENTS.

xi

CHAPTER	PAGE
V.—THE TRUE LIFE . . . . .	189

The fulfilment of the will of the Father gives a true life. (Thy will be done.)

VI.—A FALSE LIFE . . . . .	195
----------------------------	-----

And, therefore, in order to attain to a true life, a man on earth must abstain from the false life of the flesh, and live in the spirit. (On earth as in heaven.)

VII.—I AND THE FATHER ARE ONE . . . . .	204
---	-----

The true food of life is fulfilment of the will of the Father, and union with Him. (Give us this day our daily bread.)

VIII.—LIFE NOT IN TIME . . . . .	212
----------------------------------	-----

Therefore, a man really lives when he thinks only of fulfilling the will of the Father in the present, and leaves all thought of the past and of the future. (Give us now our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.)

IX.—TEMPTATIONS . . . . .	218
---------------------------	-----

The delusions of the individual and temporal life hide from men the true life, which alone is real, in union with the Father. (Lead us not into temptation.)

CHAPTER	PAGE
X.—THE STRUGGLE AGAINST TEMPTATION . . .	228

Therefore, to get rid of evil, we must, every hour of our life, be in unity with the Father.
(Lead us not into temptation.)

XI.—THE FAREWELL DISCOURSE . . . . .	237
--------------------------------------	-----

Personal life is a deception of the flesh, an evil. True life is the life which is common to all men. (But deliver us from the evil one.)

XII.—THE VICTORY OF THE SPIRIT OVER THE FLESH . . . . .	243
---	-----

Therefore, for the man who lives not a personal life, but in the common life which is through the will of the Father, there is no evil. The death of the body is union with the Father. (Thine be the kingdom, the power, and the glory.)

THE CONCLUSION. TO UNDERSTAND LIFE IS TO DO GOOD . . . . .	251
--	-----

The good tidings of Jesus Christ is the revelation of the understanding of life.