

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-000211

HISTORY
OF THE
POLITICAL AND MILITARY TRANSACTIONS
IN INDIA.

LONDON :
PRINTED BY S. AND R. BENTLEY, DORSET-STREET.

HISTORY
OF THE
POLITICAL AND MILITARY
TRANSACTIONS IN INDIA
DURING THE ADMINISTRATION
OF THE
MARQUESS OF HASTINGS
1813—1823.

BY HENRY T. PRINSEP,

OF THE BENGAL CIVIL SERVICE.

ENLARGED FROM THE NARRATIVE PUBLISHED IN 1820.

Res poscere videtur,—ut non modo casus eventusque rerum, qui ple-rique fortuiti sunt, sed ratio etiam causæque noscantur. TACITUS.

IN TWO VOLUMES.—VOL II.

LONDON:
KINGSBURY, PARBURY, & ALLEN,
LEADENHALL STREET.

1825.

V2, L-1923

1925.2

211

INDEX.

A.

- Abkaree* revenue described, and its amount in the Lower and Western Provinces Bengal, vol. ii. 429, 430.
- Adams*, Lieut.-Col. J. W. relieves Col. J. Nicolls in Kumaon, vol. i. 183—appointed to command the Nagpoor Subsidiary force, 386—his arrangements to intercept the Pindarees from Ganjam, 485, 486—part assigned him in campaign of 1817-18, vol. ii. 15—crosses the Nerbudda, 45—advances into Malwa against the Pindarees, 46. 113—ordered to Gungrar, 118—surprises Kureem's durra, 147—receives Namdar Khan's submission, 149—marches on Nagpoor, 239—proceeds to meet Bajee Rao, 240—roula him at Soonee, 243 to 245—proceeds to attack Chanda, 255—siege and fall of the place, 256 to 258—operations against Arabs and Goonds, 311 to 319.
- Ahmedabad* (in Goozerat), rights of the Peshwa and Gykwar therein, vol. i. 271—farm of, to the latter, 273—farm resumed by Bajee Rao, 279—renewed by treaty of Poona, 452—finally ceded to the British, vol. ii. 3 to 8.
- Ahmednugur* ceded by the treaty of Poona, vol. i. 451—collector established there, vol. ii. 381.
- Ajmeer*, head-quarters of Bapoo Sindheea, vol. i. 50—a British officer sent there at the commencement of the Pindaree war, vol. ii. 34—surrender of, obtained from Sindheea, 200—revenue yielded by, 426—See Statement.
- Alliances*, subsidiary, described, vol. i. 5—Protective, 6 to 17. and 20—See Tréaties.
- Almora* (capital of Kumaon), operations against, vol. i. 152 to 156—surrender, 157.
- Ameer Khan*, Putan officer in Holkur's service, vol. i. 21—his plans against Nagpoor thwarted by the British, 29—his policy and views in 1814, 48 to 52—intrigues in 1815, 233—assassination of the Joudhpoor minister, 338—his

- operations against Jypoor, 375---intrigues in 1816, 1817, 415---signs a treaty of concert against the Pindarees, vol. ii. 35 --- duplicity, 189 to 193---arrangements concluded with Sir D. Ochterlony, 194 to 196 ---condition under final arrangements, 399.
- Anund Rao Gykwar*, his imbecility, vol. i. 15---intrigues in consequence, 280 to 290---See Gykwar.
- Apa Sahab* (Moodajee Bhoosla, so called), his views on Raghoojee's death, vol. i. 344---made regent, 355---seeks a subsidiary alliance with the British, 359---signs a treaty, 365 ---alarms in consequence, 368---subsequent conduct, 385---duplicity and intrigues, 422---plans the death of Purnajee Bhoosla, 426---succeeds to the Raj, 427---policy afterwards, 428 to 430---conduct in 1817, vol. ii. 66---won over by Bajee Rao Peshwa, 69---attacks the British position, 71---conduct after the defeat, 82 to 89---surrenders himself, 90---restoration on conditions, 96 to 102---pusillanimity, 103, 104---fresh treachery, 222 to 230---message to Bajee Rao, 233---seized in his palace, 231---despatched a prisoner to Allahabad, 260---escapes on the road, 262, 263---joined by Arabs in the Mohadeo hills, 311---raises the country east of Nagpoor, 315---driven out of the hills, escapes to Aseergurh, 320---flies to Runjeet Singh at Lahore, 333.
- Army*, increase of, in Bengal, vol. i. 248 to 250.
- Aseergurh* demanded of Sindhees pending operations against the Pindarees, vol. ii. 29---stipulation for temporary surrender included in the treaty of Gwalior, 30 to 32---Bajee Rao's flight thither, and proceedings, 267---a detachment of General Doveton's fired upon from the fort, 283---Apa Sahab seeks refuge there, 322---siege and fall, 325 to 330.
- Ashtce*, battle of, vol. ii. 180 to 183.
- Azim ool Oomra*, minister of Nizam Ulee, at Hyderabad, vol. i. 9---his death, 10.

B.

- Baillie*, Major John, resident at Lukhnow, his differences with Nuwab Sadut Ulee, vol. i. 219---subsequent conduct, 223.
- Bajee Rao Peshwa*, his policy, vol. i. 14---also 267 to 276---his claims on the Gykwar, 278---intrigues, 281---behaviour towards Gungadbur Shastree, 286, 287, 288---plans his death, 290---subsequent conduct, 299---discussions with the resident, and hesitations, 300 to 311---yields and imprisons Trimbukjee Dainglia, 313--surrenders him to the British Government, 317--conduct after his escape, 394--friendly demonstrations, 432--insidious support of Trimbukjee, 433-4--conduct on the resident's breaking off communication with him, 438--yields to his fears, 445--further hesitations, 448--signs the treaty of Poona, 450--leaves Poona while his ministers negotiate execution, vol. ii. 4--urges reduction of Soondoor, 48--conduct in October 1817, 49--attacks the British position at Kirkee, and burns the residency, 56, 57--flies from Poona on Gen. Smith's arrival, 66--subsequent movements, 155 to 158--affair with Captain Staunton, 159 to 163--flight resumed, 167--overtaken and routed at Ashtee, 179 to 182--his forts reduced, 184, 185--Flight northward, 186--encounters Gen. Hislop, and flies east, 234--appears on the Wurda, 237--his advance guard routed by Col. Scott 239--routed by Col. Adams at Soonee, 243 to 245--subsequent flight to Aseergurb, 267--message to Gen. Malcolm, 269--meeting, 275--submission, 277--Bithoor fixed for his residence in exile 283--arrangements made for the management of his territory, 285 to 297, and 383 to 389.

Bajee Rao Bhoosla, his elevation to the Guddes of Nagpoor, vol. ii. 390, 391--See Bhoosla.

Balajee Koonjur, his intrigues, vol. i. 334.

Balaram Set, a minister of Holkur's court, vol. i. 338--arrested and put to death, 415.

Bapoo Myral, attached to the Gykwar mission to Poona, vol. i. 290--his situation after the Shastree's murder, 306.

Bapoo Sindheea, vol. i. 50, vol. ii. 34.

Baptiste, Col. Jean, an officer of Sindheea's, vol. i. 26--employed against Bhopal, 236--conduct there, 251--his operations against Raghoogurh, 389--a British officer sent to his head-quarters, vol. ii. 33--conduct of Sindheea towards him, 401.

Baragurhee, post there in Nipal war, vol. i. 121. 128.

Baroda, or Brodera.--See Gykwar.

Beekaneer, alliance concluded with, vol. ii. 367, 368.

Belaspoor, Gen. Ochterlony's movement on, vol. i. 112--Raja gained over, 114--his name and condition, 177.

Bengal presidency, statement of its revenue, vol. ii. 426--items detailed, 427 to 440.

Betia Raja, his disputes with the Nipålese, vol. i. 64 to 80.

Bheckoo Seyud, Pindaree, effects his escape from Col. Doveton, vol. i. 332.

- Bheem Sein Thapa*, General, his rise to power in Nipal, vol. i. 59.
- Bhoosla Raghoojee*, his disposition and views, vol. i. 29—rejects finally the British alliance, 250—his death, 339.
- Pursajee, son and successor of Raghoojee, vol. i. 339—his incompetency and appointment of a Regent, 343 to 358—death by violent means, 426.
- Moodajee (commonly called Apa Saheb) succeeds his cousin Pursajee, vol. i. 427.—See head Apa Saheb.
- Bajee Rao elevated to the Raj on the deposition of Apa Saheb, vol. ii. 391—general condition of the state and family, 389 to 394.
- Bhopal*, alliance with resolved on, vol. i. 234—its condition, and policy of the Nuwab, 235 to 238—negotiation broken off, 255—alliance again in agitation, but declined by British government, 340, 341—concluded prior to operations against the Pindarees, vol. ii. 38—condition and final arrangements made with the principality, vol. ii. 338 to 343.
- Bhugtee Thapa*, Goorkha officer, leads an attack on the British post at Deothul, vol. i. 170—his heroic conduct and death, 171.
- Bhugwant Rao*, agent of Seeta Ram at Poona; his intrigues, vol. i. 281—suspected of concern in the Shastree's murder, 291. 293—delivered up by Bajee Rao, 317—made over to the Gykwar for custody, 323.
- Bhurtpoor*, Raja of, his disposition, vol. i. 17.
- Bhutees*, Bhutnér, state of, and arrangements concluded with, vol. ii. 368.
- Blackney*, Capt. surprised and slain by the Nipalese at Sumunpoor, vol. i. 123.
- Bombay*, Bajee Rao's territories annexed to, vol. ii. 388—Mr. Elphinstone appointed governor, 388—revenue how increased, 444.
- Bombay Government* suggests revision of arrangements with the Gykwar, after the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 6—recalls the Goozerat army pending operations against Pindarees, vol. ii. 133—sends a force into the southern Konkan under Col. Prother, 134.
- Bootwul*, on the Gourukpoor frontier, disputes there a cause of the Nipal war, vol. i. 68 to 70—investigation, its result, 73—Pergunna occupied by the British, 76—Goorkha outrage there, 77—Gen. Wood's operations against, 116.
- Borthwick*, Lieutenant, his affairs with Pindarees in Ganjam, vol. i. 404.
- Bradshaw*, Major Paris, commissioner to settle the frontier disputes with Nipal, vol. i. 72—his proceedings, 73, 74

- further ditto after the declaration of war, 118—attacks Pursuram Thapa, &c., 119, 120—negotiates with Nipál, 182.
- Brown*, Major-gen., detached by Lord Hastings against Pindarees, carries Rampoorá by assault, vol. ii. 139—defeats Juswunt Rao Bháo, and reduces Jawud, 143, 144.
- Browne*, Capt., seizes Apa Saheb in his palace, vol. ii. 231—commands the escort carrying him to Allahabad, whence he escapes, 261 to 263.
- Buka Baec*, widow of Raghoojee Bhoosla, her intrigues at Nagpoor; vol. i. 354. 385---regent and adoptive mother of Bajee Rao Bhoosla, vol. ii. 390, 391.
- Bulbhudur Singh*, Goorkha commandant at Nalapanee, vol. i. 86—his defence and heroic conduct, 87 to 90.
- Bum Sah Chountra*, Nipalese governor of Kumaon, his opinion as to war with the British, vol. i. (appendix) 461, 462---surrenders the province, 156—made channel for a pacific overture, 183.
- Bunacek Rao*, manager of Sagur, vol. i. 239---rejects the offer to negotiate, vol. ii. 38---terms demanded of him, 204---submission enforced by General Marshall, 205.
- Bunarus* fixed for residence of Shumsood-doula, the Nuwab Vizeer's brother, vol. i. 226—Sreedhur Pundit retires thither from Nagpoor, 348—Land Revenue of the Province, vol. ii. 430.
- Bundojee*, Govind Rao, agent of Seeta Ram, at Poona, vol. i. 281—See Bhugwunt Rao.
- Byreesal*, Rawul, minister of the Jypoor state, vol. ii. 374---interference in his favour, 376 to 379.

C.

- Cash balances*—See statement, vol. ii. page 443—explanation of, 424. 450.
- Caulfield*, Captain, 5th Native Cavalry, his affair with Pindarees, vol. i. 406—appointed to Juswunt Rao Bháo's camp at Jawud, vol. ii. 34—proceedings there, 140—retires to Gen. Brown's camp, 142.
- Chanda*, Apa Saheb retires thither, vol. i. 425—Bajee Rao's march upon, prevented by Col. Scott, vol. ii. 239—siege and capture by Col. Adams, 256 to 258.
- Charges*—See Finance—Home territorial described, vol. ii. 455.
- Checoon Chang*, Chinese officer.—See China.
- Cheetoo*, or Sectoo, Pindara, account of him, vol. i. 44 to 46—operations at his cantonment in 1815-16, 328—ditto in

- 1816-17, 396-7—conduct in the rains of 1817, 40—retires before Gen. Malcolm, vol. ii. 46. 105—joins Holkur's army, 121—pursued by Sir William Keir, 146—further proceedings, 151—killed by a tiger, 152—notice of his previous connexion with Apa Saheb, 320. 323.
- Chimna Apa, or Chinnajee*, Nurayun, brother of Bajee Rao Peshwa, plan of Nana Furnavees to place him on the Guddee, vol. i. 267—policy of raising him in lieu of Bajee Rao considered, vol. ii. 173—deserts Bajee Rao, and surrenders, 249.
- China*, relations of Nipal with, vol. i. 208—proceedings of Chinese in consequence of the war, 209, 210—minister sent to Digurchee, 210—his proceedings, 211, 212, 213.
- Cholera Morbus*, vol. ii. 107 to 111, also 259.
- Chouragurh*, ceded by treaty of Nagpoor, vol. ii. 98—reduced by Brigadier-general Watson, 262—attempt of Chyn Sah Goand on it, 317.
- Chundoo Lal*, minister at Hydrabad, vol. i. 11—his policy, 12—weakness apparent in the insurrection of the Princes, 263—reflections on the effect of the system, vol. ii. 413, 414.
- Chundur Seekur Opadheea*, his mission from Nipal, vol. i. 117—intrigues and capture, 119—associated with Gujraj Misur to negotiate, 187—delivers the ratified treaty to Sir D. Ochterlony, 204.
- Chyn Sah*, a Goand chief, gives shelter to Apa Saheb, vol. ii. 264—his attempt to recover Chouragurh, 318—final rout by Lieut.-col. O'Brien, 319.
- Clarke*, Major, 5th Bengal N. C., his affairs with Pindarees, vol. i. 406, 407, vol. ii. 147.
- Cruikshanks*, (Lieut., afterwards Capt.) his affairs with the Arabs and Goands in the Mohadeo hills, vol. ii. 314, 318.
- Cumming*, Major, 7th Bengal N. C., sent with detachment by Lord Hastings to cover Banda, vol. ii. 42—employed against the Arabs at Mooltaya, 312.
- Customs of Bengal*, account of, vol. ii. 432.

D.

- Dajee*, an Arab chief, surprised by Capt. Cruikshanks, vol. ii. 314.
- Damajee Gykwar*, notice of him, vol. i. 270 to 272.
- Darke*, Capt. 4th Madras N. C. his death, vol. i. 403.
- Davies*, Capt. commanding Nizam's reformed horse, his affair with Godajee Dainglia, vol. i. 442.
- Debooka Tibia*, affair there with Umur Singh's army, vol. i. 101.

- Debts of India*, vol. ii. 453. 462.
- Deathul*, a peak near Maloun, seized by General Ochterlony, vol. i. 167---obstinate conflict there, 170, 171.
- Dhurmajee Bhoosla*, his intrigues at Nagpoor, vol. i. 345---arrested by Apa Saheb, 355.
- Dhurna* explained, vol. i. 337.
- Dick*, Col. Brigadier in the Sarun army, vol. i. 127---commands there on General Marley's departure, 129---affair with a Nipalese detachment, 139---commands a brigade under General Ochterlony, 195.
- Donkin*, Major-general Sir R. commands the right division of the grand army, vol. ii. 11---falls in with Pindaree advance, and captures the wife of Kureem Khan, 116---sent to occupy Kumulner, &c., 144---his division broken up, 208.
- Dorana*, in Kandès, stormed by Col. Scot, vol. i. 456.
- Dost Mohummed*, Pindara, account of him, vol. i. 42. 47---death, vol. ii. 40.
- Doulut Rao Sindheea*---See Sindheea.
- Doveton*, Col. commanding the Hydrabad subsidiary force, vol. i. 240---defensive arrangements against Pindarees, 257---baffled by Bheekoo Seyud, 332---sends Col. Walker to Nagpoor, 367---made Brigadier-gen., and vested with command of the 2d division of the Dukhun army, vol. ii. 13. 15---part assigned to him, 16---marches on Nagpoor, 87---battle and proceedings there, 91 to 95---subsequent operations, 218---movement on Kandès, 219---pursuit of Bajee Rao eastward, 237---ditto westward after the rout of Soonee, 247---conduct pending Sir J. Malcolm's negotiations, 271, 272---takes part in operations against Apa Saheb, 314. 321---invests Aseergurh, 325---conducts the eastern attack, 328.
- Dukhun*, army of---See Hialop, &c.
- Dya Ram*, chief of Hutras, vol. i. 416---misconduct and proceedings against, 418 to 420.

E.

- Ellichpoor*, Col. Doveton ordered thither in 1814-15, vol. i. 240. --- Sulabut Khan Jageerdar of, his quota of horse how employed, vol. i. 329. vol. ii. 14.
- Elphinstone*, the Honourable Mount-Stuart, British resident at Poona, vol. i. 279---notices change in Bajee Rao's disposition, 280---mediates Peshwa's claim on the Gykwar, 282---line taken by him therein, 284---goes to Ellora, 290---conduct after the murder of Gungadhur Shastree, 295---anticipates his instructions, 300---presents a strong memorial, 302—further remonstrances, 307—conduct on receipt of instructions, 309 to 312—obtains Trimbukjee Dainglia's surrender, 317—conduct approved by the Governor-general, 318—proceedings on the escape of Trimbukjee, 394—and on appearance of an insurrection, 433—suspends communication with Bajee Rao, 436—demands engagement to surrender Trimbukjee in a month, 444—obtains it with three forts in guarantee of sincerity, 445—further demands after arrival of instructions, 449—concludes the treaty of Poona with Bajee Rao, 450—measures to procure execution, vol. ii. 2, 3, 4—conduct on the reduction of Soondoor being demanded, 48—suspicion excited, 49 to 51—moves the brigade to Kirkee, 52—receives a hostile message from Bajee Rao, 55—retires from the residency, 57—suggests a change of military plan, 171—asks instructions as to disposal of Bajee Rao's dominions, 173, 174—made commissioner to occupy the whole, 177—conduct on the fall of Sutara, 172. 178—judicious proceedings in execution of his instructions, 286 to 298—his decision as to the treatment of the garrison of Maleegáon, 307—appointed Governor of Bombay, 388—his report, 389.

F.

Finance, difficulties of, 1814-15, vol. i. 215, 216—how remedied, 225—general review, from 1813 to 1823, vol. ii. 422 to 462.

Fitzgerald, Capt. 6th Bengal N. C., his famous charge at the battle of Nagpoor, vol. ii. 76, 77.

Ford, Major, commandant of Bajee Rao's reformed brigade, consulted touching surrender of Trimbukjee, vol. i. 316, 317—employed by Mr. Elphinstone in negotiating the treaty of Poona, 449—his interview and parting with Moro Dikahut, vol. ii. 53, 54—part taken by him in the battle of Poona, 59.

Fraser, William, political agent with Generals Gillespie and Martindell, wounded at Nalapanee, vol. i. 90—employed in settling the relations of the hill chiefs, 176.

Fraser, Col. H. M. Royals, killed at Aseergurb, vol. ii. 327.

Futteh Singh Gykwar, regent at Brodera, vol. i. 15—objects to land cession in compromise of the Peshwa's claims, 287, 288—conduct and expectations after the Shastree's murder, 322—intrigues at the court, 392—new arrangements with after the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 6 to 9.

G.

- Ganjam*, expedition of Pindarees into, vol. i. 398. 403, 404.
- Gardner*, Lieutenant-col., his operations in Kumaon, vol. i. 143 to 150.
- Hon. E. civil commissioner in Kumaon, vol. i. 144
—his proceedings, 157. 175—appointed resident at Katmandoo, 206.
- General*, explanation of this head in the Bengal accounts, vol. ii. 440. 442.
- Gillespie*, Major-gen. Rollo, commanding the Meeruth division of the Bengal army in 1814, part assigned to him in the Nipal war, vol. i. 83, 84—takes the field, 86—attack of Nalapanee, 88—failure and death, 90.
- Ghazeeoodeen Hydur*, Nuwab of Oudh, vol. i. 222—See Oudh.
- Ghufoor Khan* connected with the Putan party at Holkur's durbar, vol. i. 415—conduct prior to hostilities, vol. ii. 126—opens negotiations after, 134—secures a Jageer for himself, 136—his condition under final arrangements, 399. to 400.
- Gokla*, confidential adviser of Bajee Rao, vol. i. 312. 445—head of the war faction, vol. ii. 53—leads the attack on the British position and residency, 55, 57, and 60—captures two British officers, 62—harasses the British march, 156—his lands ordered to be resumed, 177—killed at the battle of Ashtee, 181—his character, 182.
- Goojaba Dada*, a relation of the Bhoosla Raja, vol. i. 385—Apa Saheb's jealousy of him, and his retirement to Allahabad, 429—called to Nagpoor, and made a minister on Apa Saheb's removal from the Guddee, 390, 391.
- Goorkhas*, their rise, vol. i. 55—See Nipal.
- Gooroo*, family priest—See Gujrajmisur.
- Goozerat*, army there ordered into the field, vol. i. 240. 247—rights of the Peshwa and Gykwar there, 278—Peshwa's rights there ceded by the treaty of Poona, 452—arrangements and exchanges with the Gykwar there, vol. ii. 6. 9—part assigned to the Goozerat army in the Pindaree war, 15—army recalled by the Bombay government, 133—advance ordered by Lord Hastings, 133—joins Sir Thomas Hialop, 134—subsequent operations, 146.
- Gourukpoor*, frontier, disputes there with the Nipalese, vol. i. 68 to 71—British police officers murdered, 77—General J. S. Wood's operations there, 115 to 118.
- Governor-general*—See Lord Hastings.
- Govind Rao*, Nana, chief of Jaloun and Sagur, vol. i. 239—See Sagur.

- Gujraj Misur*, Gooroo (family priest) of Nipal Raja, negotiates with Col. Bradshaw, vol. i. 182—signs the treaty of Segoulee 188—meets General Ochterlony to report non-ratification, 194—sent as envoy to meet Lord Hastings at Patna, vol. ii. 17.
- Gungadhur Shastree*, Gykwar minister, sent to negotiate with Bajee Rao Peshwa, vol. i. 278—his conduct at Poona, 283 to 288—duped by Bajee Rao and Trimbukjee Dainglia, 289—assassinated by the latter at Pundurpoor, 292—succeeded in office by his son, 323.
- Gunput Rao* carries off part of the routed army of Nagpoor, vol. ii. 92, 93—joins Bajee Rao, 186—urges his march towards Nagpoor, 232, 233.
- Guntoor*, Madras civil station, plundered by Pindarees, vol. i. 331.
- Gwalior*, chosen by Doulut Rao Sindheea for his capital, vol. i. 25—treaty of, vol. ii. 33—See Sindheea.
- Gykwar*, British connexion with this family, vol. i. 15—its rise in Goozerat, and disputes with the Peshwa, 278—negotiation of them, 280 to 287—negotiator murdered, 292—resumption of the negotiation, 324—temper of the court on different occasions, 322, 392—fresh arrangements consequent on the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 6, 9.

H.

- Hastings*, Marquess of, Governor-general, vol. i. 1—conduct towards Nipal, 75—proceeds on a tour to the north-west, 81—plan of campaign against Nipal, 83—resolves on an attempt in Kumaon with irregulars, 143—supports it with a regular brigade, 150—terms proposed to Nipal, 185—conduct towards Nuwabs of Oudh, 221 to 224—obtains the Oudh loans, 225 to 228—views in regard to Pindarees, and Central India, 229—resolves on seeking the Sagur and Bhopal alliance, 234—augments the Bengal army, 248 to 250—decision regarding compensation for the Shastree's murder, 323—views on the death of Raghoojee Bhoosla and Wuzeer Mohammed of Bhopal, 340—plans in respect to Jypoor, 371 to 374—views in regard to Pindarees, 410—plans the campaign of 1817-18, vol. ii. 11—political arrangements, 18, 19—takes the field in person, 24—general order published on conclusion of the treaty with Sindheea, vol. i. 33—views and instructions regarding Nagpoor on Apa Saheb's first defection, vol. ii. 99—military movements, 112—fresh plan, 118—instructions and views as to disposal of Bajee Rao's dominions, 174, 177—views in

- regard to Putan military, 191. 195—fresh military-dispositions, 198 to 202—orders reduction of Sagur, 204—and Mundela, 207—orders Apa Saheb to Allahabad, 261—preparations against any attempt of Bajee Rao to move northward, 268—his opinion of the terms offered to Bajee Rao, 277. 279—orders the occupation of Aseergurh, 332.
- Havildar*, conduct of one in an affair with Pindarees, vol. ii. 117.
- Hearsey*, Major, commands a party of irregulars sent against Kumaon, vol. i. 144—his operations, 148—defeated and taken prisoner by Husteedul, 152.
- Cornet, engaged in an affair with the Nipalese, vol. i. 140.
- Hislop*, Lieutenant-general Sir Thomas, commander-in-chief at Madras, ordered into the field in 1814-15, vol. i. 246—takes command of the army of the Dukhun in 1817, vol. ii. 12, 14—moves on Hindia with the first division, 17, 22—returns on hearing of Apa Saheb's defection, 44—called back by Lord Hastings, 47—fights the battle of Mebudpoor, 128—returns through Kandès, 214—proceedings at Talnèr, 215 to 218—marches against Bajee Rao, 234—returns to Madras, after breaking up the army of the Dukhun, 235.
- Holkur*, condition of that court, vol. i. 20—again in 1814-15, 232, 233—ditto in 1815-16, 337—ditto in 1817; until involved in hostility with the British, vol. ii. 121 to 125—condition of the family after the close of operations, 396 to 398.
- Hurechurpoor*, affair there with the Nipalese, vol. i. 202.
- Husteedul*, Goorkha commander, sent to relieve Almora, vol. i. 152—defeats and takes prisoner Major Hearsey, 153—killed in an affair with Major Patton, 154.
- Hutras*, state of, vol. i. 416—siege and surrender, 419.
- Hydurabad*, affairs of, vol. i. 8 to 13—disturbances occasioned by the Nizam's sons there, 261 to 266—final condition of, vol. ii. 413. 416.

J.

- Jaloun*, Nana of, his connexion with Sagur, vol. i. 239—fresh arrangement with after the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 38—his interests considered on the occupation of Sagur, 204.
- Jenkins*, Richard, resident at Nagpoor; his conduct on the death of Raghoojee Bhoosla, vol. i. 348—negotiates subsidiary treaty with Apa Saheb, 360 to 366—avoids interfe-

- rence with Nagpoor intrigues, 421 to 428—his opinion of Apa Sahab's disposition in October 1817, vol. ii. 67—receives a message indicating hostility, 69—conduct after the battle of Nagpoor, 82—procures the personal surrender of Apa Sahab, 90—negotiates his restoration, 95 to 98—conduct on receiving Governor-general's instructions, showing a difference of intention, 99—suspects fresh treachery, 222—proceedings to ascertain the fact, 226, 227—has Apa Sahab seized in his palace, 231—employs British officers, and assumes the entire administration, 391.
- Jerulmeer*, alliance with and condition of, vol. ii. 368.
- Jilpee Amner*, reduced by Col. Pollock, vol. ii. 321.
- Jones*, Captain, his affair with Arabs, vol. ii. 314—his post evaded by Apa Sahab, 320.
- Joudhpoor*, alliance concluded with, vol. ii. 357, 358—See Mán Singh.
- Jugut Singh*, Raja of Jypoor—See Jypoor.
- Jumsheed Khan*, a Putan chief of Ameer Khan's army, vol. i. 51—his obstinacy, vol. ii. 196.
- Jurwant Rao Bhdó*, officer of Sindhees's army, vol. ii. 34—his misconduct and defeat by Maj.-gen. Brown, 140 to 144.
- Jurwant Rao Gorepara*, claimant of Soondoor, vol. ii. 48.
- Jurwant Rao Hulkur*, his insanity and death, vol. i. 20—cause of enmity to Bajee Rao, 268.
- Jurwant Rao Lar*, Kiladar of Aseerguhr, vol. ii. 268—See Aseergurh.
- Jurwant Rao Ramchundur*, minister of Raghoojee Bhoosla, vol. i. 348—his conduct on Raghoojee's death, 359.
- Jypoor*, state of relations with, vol. i. 18. 370—alliance with resolved on, vol. i. 374—negotiations, 375—broken off, 378—resumed, 381—again broken off, 383—final arrangements with, vol. ii. 371 to 380.
- Jyvingk* of Raghoogurh, his affairs with Col. J. Baptiste, vol. i. 389.
- Jythisk*, position of Runjoor Singh there, vol. i. 96—Gen. Martindell's operations against, 97 to 102—further proceedings, 152 to 163—surrendered by Umur Singh, 175.

K.

- Kalsee*, post there to command the Dehra Doon, vol. i. 95.
- Kandés*, proceedings for reduction of, vol. ii. 299 to 308.
- Katmandoo* capital of Nipál—See Nipál.
- Keir*, Sir William Grant, Major-general, commanding the

- Goozerat army, vol. ii. 133—his junction with Sir Thomas Hislop, 134—employed against Cheetoo, 146.
- Kelly*, Colonel, of his Majesty's 24th foot, commands the column appointed to attack Hureehurpoor, vol. i. 201—affair there with Runjoor Singh, 202.
- Keroulec*, chief, arrangement concluded with, vol. ii. 37.
- Khyreegurh*, Perguna, Goorkha usurpations there, vol. i. 79.
- Kinloch*, Major, notice of his operations against Nipál in 1767-8, vol. i. 56.
- Kirkee*, occupation of, by Poona brigade, vol. ii. 52—battle there with Bajes Rao, 57 to 62.
- Kirkpatrick*, sent resident to Katmandoo, by Lord Cornwallis, vol. i. 57.
- Kishen Raj Oodiaver*, raja of Mysoor, vol. i. 16.
- Knor*, Captain, resident at Katmandoo in 1802, vol. i. 57.
- Konkan*, northern, ceded by treaty of Poona, vol. i. 451.
- Kota*, Captain Tod sent there, vol. ii. 114—arrangements concluded with the state, 353—embarrassment on the death of Moha Rao Omed Singh, adjusted by the British political agent, 355 to 357.
- Kumaon*, operations in, vol. i. 148 to 157—made a British province, 175.
- Kumpta*, east of Nagpoor, operations against, vol. ii. 315.
- Kumulner*, occupied by General Donkin, vol. ii. 144—given up to Oodeepoor, 360.
- Kureem Khan*, Pindara, his rise, &c. vol. i. 41 to 46—defeat and imprisonment, 46—release in 1816-17, 415—preparations of 1817, vol. ii. 40—retires towards Gwalior, 46. ---his wife captured by General Donkin, 116—flight through Haraotee, 116, 117—his durra surprised by Col. Adams, 147—general submission, 149, 150.
- Kurmanjodh Bikrum Sah*, Raja of Nipal, vol. i. 59—dies in 1816, 213.

L.

- Lanjhee hills*, east of Nagpoor, insurrection and military operations there, vol. ii. 315.
- Latter*, Major Barre, employed in the Nipal war, vol. i. 85—opens negotiation with the Sikhim Raja, 130—military operations, 131—negotiates final treaty with Sikhim, 207. 482.
- Lawrie*, Major Bengal N. I. distinguishes himself at Deotul, vol. i. 171.
- Lawtie*, Lieutenant of Bengal Engineers, affair in a recon- noissance of his, vol. i. 107---favourable testimonial on his death, 178.

- Loans*, obtained from Oudh, vol. i. 225---payment of existing and negotiation of fresh, vol. ii. 463 to 463.
- London*, this head of Indian accounts explained, vol. ii. 447, 448.
- Luchungeer*, Goorkha officer in Roteehut, killed in affray with Betia people, vol. i. 71.
- Ludlow*, Major and Lieutenant-colonel, sent in pursuit of the fugitives from Nalapanee, vol. i. 93---commands a column sent against Jythuk, 96---failure and retreat, 97, 98---sent to Ajmeer as British agent with Bapoo Sindheea, vol. ii. 34---appointed to command the force stationed at Holkur's court, 209.
- Lushington*, Major Madras 4th N. C., his affair with the Pindarees, vol. i. 402.

M.

- Macherree*, Raja, protective alliance with, and conduct of, vol. i. 18.
- Macpherson*, Major, employed against the Arabs and Goands, vol. ii. 312.
- Madhoo Singh*, eldest son of Zalim Singh of Kota, notice of him, vol. ii. 356, 357.
- Mahrattas*---See Peshwa, Sindheea, Bhoosla, Gykwar, Holkur, &c.
- Malcolm*, Sir John, arrives opportunely for Pindaree war, vol. ii. 13---how employed, 13---his opinion of Bajee Rao's disposition, 16, 17---crosses the Nerbadda, 45---proceedings against Pindarees, 121---moves after Cheetoo, 121---falls back on Sir Thomas Hislop, 125---his part in the battle of Mehudpoor, 130---concludes the treaty of Mundisor with Holkur, 134---left in command in Malwa, 213---Bajee Rao opens a communication with him, 269---officer sent to negotiate, 270---meeting with Bajee Rao, 276---grants him terms, 277---takes part in the siege of Aseergurh, 325 to 330---his arrangements with minor chiefs of Malwa, &c. 369, 370.
- Malegaon* in Kandes, Arabs collect there, vol. ii. 300---siege, 301 to 305---surrender, 306.
- Maleegurk*, lower fort of Aseergurh so called, vol. ii. 326---operations against, 327---evacuation, 328.
- Maloun*, position taken up by Umur Singh, vol. i. 113---operations of General Ochterlony for its attack, 163 to 173---surrender, 174.

- Manjee Das*, minister of Jypoor in 1816, vol. i. 379—his artful conduct, 380. 384.
- Man Singh*, Raja of Joudhpoor, employs Ameer Khan to assassinate his minister, vol. i. 338—forms protective alliance with the British, vol. ii. 357—his condition, &c. vol. ii. 358.
- Marley*, Major-general, commands the Buhar division in the first campaign of the Nipal war, part assigned to him, vol. i. 85—his plans, 121—subsequent hesitation, 126—removal from the staff, 129.
- Marshall*, Major-general, commands the Bundelkhund army against the Pindarees (left division of the Grand Army), vol. ii. 11—moves by Hutta and Sagur, 41—further advance, 45. 113—routs the durras of Kureem and Wasil Mohummed, 115—ordered to Seronj, 117—reduces Sagur, 205—Dhamonee, 206—and Mundeela, 207, 208.
- Martindell*, Major-general, succeeds Gen. Gillespie in command of the Meeruth division, vol. i. 95—operations against Jythuk, 96 to 102—subsequent inactivity, 104—further proceedings, 157 to 163.
- Mawbey*, Col. H. M.'s 53d Foot, succeeds to command on General Gillespie's death, vol. i. 90—his second attack on Nalapane, 91—further proceedings, 94, 95.
- M'Dowell*, Major and Lieutenant-colonel, his affair with Pindarees, vol. i. 399—reduces several of Bajee Rao's forts, vol. ii. 251, 252—commands at the siege of Maleegaon, 301 to 306.
- Mehudpoor*, battle of, vol. ii. 127 to 132.
- Metcalfe*, Mr. (now Sir Charles Theophilus), Resident at Dehlee, receives overtures from Bhopal in 1814, vol. i. 237—conducts negotiations with Jypoor in 1816; 376 to 384—employed to negotiate protective alliances with the Rajpoots, &c. vol. ii. 22—concludes treaty with Ameer Khan 36, 189—employed to negotiate with the Rajpoot states, 352—made Political Secretary, and afterwards Resident at Hyderabad, 356.
- Meer Alum*, minister of Hyderabad, vol. i. 10—his death, 11.
- Meer Ukkur Ulee*, present Nizam—See Nizam.
- Mint* revenue of Bengal, vol. ii. 440.
- Minto*, Lord, Governor-general, political acts of, vol. i. 2—conduct in regard to Nipal, 70. 74—ditto in regard to Oudh, 219.
- Mohadéo hills*, Apa Saheb flies thither, vol. ii. 263—operations there, 311 to 320.

- Mokummed Meer Khan*—See Ameer Khan.
- Mohummed Shah Khan*, an officer of Holkur's army, vol. i. 21---his rise and death, 48 to 50.
- Moodajee Bhoosla*---See Apa Saheb.
- Mooneer Mohummed* succeeds Nuzur Mohummed as Nuwab of Bhopál, vol. ii. 342.
- Mooneer-ool-Moolk*, nominal minister of Hydurabad, vol. i. 11.
- Moro Dikshut*, courtier and confidential adviser of Bajee Rao Peshwa, vol. i. 316---his proposition to Major Ford, vol. ii. 53, 54---killed in the battle of Poona, 61.
- Mukwanpoor*, Kasim Ulee Khan defeated there, vol. i. 56---General Ochterlony's action with the Nipalese there, 198, 199.
- Raja of, his disputes with the Betia Raja, vol. i. 64---subdued by the Goorkhas, 65.
- Mulhar Rao Holkur*---See Holkur.
- Mun-Bhut*, a surdar attached to Apa Saheb, suspected of concern in murdering Purnajee Bhoosla, vol. i. 426---his concern in the battle of Nagpoor, &c. vol. ii. 92, 93---surrenders to Mr. Jenkins, 95.
- Mundela fort*, on the Nerbudda, ceded by Apa Saheb, vol. ii. 98---conduct of its Kiladar, 206---siege and capture by General Marshall, 207---trial and acquittal of the Kiladar, 208.
- Mundisior*, General Malcolm's advance to, vol. ii. 133---treaty concluded there with Holkur, 135.
- Munro*, Col. John, resident at Travankoor, vol. i. 16.
- Col. Sir Thomas, civil commissioner under the Madras government, vol. ii. 48---made Brigadier, and vested with command of the reserve, 49---employed to reduce Soondoor, 49---prepares to resist Bajee Rao, 168---advances against Solapoor, 251---affair there, and capture of the place, 252 to 255.
- Mysoor*, connexion with, vol. i. 16---how governed, vol. ii. 408---horse employed against Pindarees, vol. i. 399---take part in the battle of Mehudpoor, vol. ii. 131.

N.

- Nagoo-Punt*, Apa Saheb's dewan, vol. i. 359---negotiates a subsidiary alliance with the British, 360, 364---rewarded by a pension, 365---subsequent conduct, 422 to 425---surrenders with Apa Saheb, vol. ii. 90---further intrigues, 221, 225---arrested, 231---sent prisoner to Allahabad, 260.

- Nagpoor*, capital of the Bhoosla family, subsidiary alliance concluded there with Apa Saheb, vol. i. 365—further proceedings there, 385. 422 to 430. also 66 to 103. vol. ii. —first battle of, vol. ii. 71 to 80—second do. 91 to 92—siege of the fort, 93 to 95—See heads Apa Saheb and Bhoosla.
- Nahn*, occupied by General Martindell, vol. i. 96.
- Nalapane*, General Gillespie's attack of, vol. i. 87—second assault by Col. Mawbey, 91—evacuation, 93—fort dismantled, 94.
- Namdar Khan*, nephew and Lieutenant of Kureem Khan Pindara, vol. i. 44—his surrender, vol. ii. 149—See Pindarees.
- Nana Furnavees*, his policy, and ruin by Bajee Rao, vol. i. 267.
- Nana Govind Rao*, of Jaloun and Sagur, vol. i. 239—arrangements with him consequent on the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 38—his rights considered on the occupation of Sâgur, 204, 205.
- Naruba Chitnavees* (secretary) minister of Raghoosla Bhoosla, vol. i. 357—his intrigues, &c., 358, 359.
- Negotiations* with Nipál, vol. i. 179. 193—with Bhopál and Sâgur, 238 to 240—with Nagpoor, 360 to 365—with Jypoor, 376 to 382—with Bajee Rao, prior to treaty of Poona, 443 to 450—with the Gykwar, vol. ii. 6 to 9—with Sindheea, 25 to 32—with Ameer Khan, 34 to 37—with Holkur, 135 to 139—with Bajee Rao, prior to surrender, 273 to 277—with the Rajpoot states, 352 to 380.
- Nicol*, Colonel, H. M. 66th Foot, commands under General Ochterlony in the 2nd campaign of the Nipál war, vol. i. 195—penetrates to Etounda, 201.
- Nicolls*, Colonel Jasper, commands a brigade employed against Kumaon, 1st campaign Nipál war, vol. i. 151—his proceedings, 152 to 156—reduces Almora, 157.
- Nipál*, condition of, and origin of the war, vol. i. 54 to 80—first campaign against, 81 to 176—second campaign, 194 to 205—peace concluded, 206—relations with China, 208 to 213—mission from, received at Patna, vol. ii. 17—intrigues at commencement of the Pindaree war, 32.
- Nizam*, his condition in 1814, vol. i. 8 to 13—disturbances raised by his sons, 261 to 266—condition after the Pindaree and Mahratta war, vol. ii. 413, 414, 416.
- Nizam-Ulee*, his relations with the British, and death, vol. i. 9, 10.
- Nurayun Pundit*, minister of the Bhoosla, vol. i. 360—negotiates a subsidiary alliance, 361 to 364—subsequent

- conduct of Apa Saheb to him, 423. 427, vol. ii. 66—
shows incapacity, and is put aside, 390.
- Nuseerce battalions*, raised, vol. i. 175.
- Nuzur Mohummed*, succeeds his father Wizeer Mohummed,
as Nuwab of Bhopal, vol. i. 340—signs a treaty with the British in November 1817, vol. ii. 38—liberality towards him, 338 to 340—death, 341.

O.

- O'Brien*, Major, 8th Bengal N. C., employed at Mundela
and Jubulpoor, vol. ii. 207. 209. 263—destroys the force of Chyn Sah Goand, 319.
- Ochterlony*, Major-general Sir David, commands the force at Loodheeana, vol. i. 83—employed against Umur Singh,
104—reduces Nalagurh, 105—turns the enemy's position
at Ramgurh, 109 to 112—reduces the Ramgurh forts, 163,
164—effects a lodgment in the Maloun ridge, 164 to 171
—reduces Umur Singh, 174—commands the Buhar force in the second campaign, 194—penetrates into the hills
196—gains a victory at Mukwanpoor, 197, 198—grants
peace to the Nipalese, 204—commands the reserve division of the Grand Army, in 1817-18, vol. ii. 11, 12—his negotiations and arrangements with Ameer Khan, and
the Putan chiefs and military, 189 to 196—succeeds Sir
Charles Metcalfe as Resident at Dehlee, 356—his interposition in support of Byreesal, at Jypoor, 374. 379.
- Oodeepoor*, alliance concluded with, vol. ii. 359—condition
of, and arrangements for future settlement, vol. ii. 360 to 365.
- Opium Revenue*, a main resource of the Bengal Presidency, account of its management, vol. ii. 436 to 439—how affected by the tranquillization of Malwa, 438.
- Oudh*, British relations with, vol. i. 4—state of, in the time of Nuwab Sadut Ulee, 217 to 221—views of Lord Hastings towards, 221—accession of Nuwab Ghazee ood
Deen, 222—resident's proceedings, 223—Loans negotiated, 225—condition of, vol. ii. 408—reform projected, 409.

P.

- Patton*, Major, his affair with Husteedul, vol. i. 154.
- Peshwa*.—See Bajee Rao.
- Pickersgill*, Captain, his affair with a Goorkha detachment,

- vol. i. 189—discovers a route to turn the Choorea Ghatee defences, 195—activity at Mundela, vol. ii. 207.
- Pindarees*, their rise and condition in 1814, vol. i. 32 to 48—reference to England regarding, 229—second more urgent reference, 327—expeditions sent out by them, 328—Guntoor plundered, 331—further proceedings, 395—expeditions of 1816, 398 to 406—preparations of 1817, vol. ii. 40, 41—proceedings on British advance, 46—dispersion of two durras, 114, 115—surprises, 117, 147, 151—distress, 149—general submission and settlement of the chiefs, 150 to 153.
- Political review*, vol. ii. 336 to 420.
- Poona*, affairs of—See Bajee Rao.—Treaty of, vol. i. 450—battle of, vol. ii. 59, 60—second ditto, 64.
- Poornea*, dewan of Mysore, notice of his death, vol. i. 16.
- Poorundur*, guarantee fort, surrendered by Bajee Rao, vol. i. 445—restored, vol. ii. 2—siege and capture by Brigadier-general Pritzler, 184.
- Post Office Revenue*, vol. ii. 440.
- Prithee Nurayun Sah*, first Goorkha Raja of Nipál, vol. i. 56.
- Pritzler*, Brigadier-general, in command of the reserve of the Dukhun army, vol. ii. 14—his march to Poona, and pursuit of Bajee Rao, 167—reduces Wusota and other forts, 249 to 251—engaged in the battle of Selapoor, 254.
- Pundurpoor*, Gungadhur Shastree murdered there, vol. i. 292—Bajee Rao retires there after treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 4—limit of the Sutara dominions east, 383.
- Pursa*, detachment cut off there by the Nipalese, vol. i. 124.
- Pursajee Bhoosla*—See Bhoosla.
- Pursaram Rao*, his intrigues at Nagpoor, vol. i. 358, 428.
- Putans*, force organized by chiefs of this class, vol. i. 48, 50—See Ameer Khan, &c.—Dissolution of the force arranged by Sir David Ochterlony, vol. ii. 192 to 196—chiefs established in Malwa, policy of the measure, vol. ii. 399, 400.—Punnee Putans, notice of their guaranty, vol. i. 354.—of Rohilkhund, raised for service in Kumaon, vol. i. 143—insurrection amongst quelled, vol. i. 417.

R.

- Raghojee Bhoosla*—See Bhoosla.
- Raja of Nipál*, of Rewa, &c.—See Nipal, Rewa, &c.
- Rajas* and Chiefs, restored in the western hills on their conquest, vol. i. 177.
- Rajpoorana* and Rajpoots, their condition in 1814, vol. i. 49—

conduct of Apa Saheb to him, 423. 427, vol. ii. 66—
shows incapacity, and is put aside, 390.

Nusserce battalions, raised, vol. i. 175.

Nuzur Mohummed, succeeds his father Wizeer Mohummed,
as Nuwab of Bhopal, vol. i. 340---signs a treaty with the British in November 1817, vol. ii. 38---liberality towards him, 338 to 340---death, 341.

O.

O'Brien, Major, 8th Bengal N. C., employed at Mundela
and Jubulpoor, vol. ii. 207. 209. 263---destroys the force of Chyn Sah Goand, 319.

Ochterlony, Major-general Sir David, commands the force at Loodheana, vol. i. 83---employed against Umur Singh,
104---reduces Nalagurh, 105---turns the enemy's position
at Ramgurh, 109 to 112---reduces the Ramgurh forts, 163,
164---effects a lodgment in the Maloun ridge, 164 to 171
---reduces Umur Singh, 174---commands the Bubar force
in the second campaign, 194---penetrates into the hills
196---gains a victory at Mukwanpoor, 197, 198---grants
peace to the Nipalese, 204---commands the reserve division of the Grand Army, in 1817-18, vol. ii. 11, 12---his negotiations and arrangements with Ameer Khan, and
the Putan chiefs and military, 189 to 196---succeeds Sir
Charles Metcalfe as Resident at Dehlee, 356---his interposition in support of Byreesal, at Jypoor, 374. 379.

Oodeepoor, alliance concluded with, vol. ii. 359---condition
of, and arrangements for future settlement, vol. ii. 360 to 365.

Opium Revenue, a main resource of the Bengal Presidency,
account of its management, vol. ii. 436 to 439---how affected by the tranquillization of Malwa, 433.

Oudh, British relations with, vol. i. 4---state of, in the time of Nuwab Sadut Ulee, 217 to 221---views of Lord Hastings towards, 221---accession of Nuwab Ghazee ood
Deen, 222---resident's proceedings, 223---Loans negotiated, 225---condition of, vol. ii. 408---reform projected, 409.

P.

Patton, Major, his affair with Husteedul, vol. i. 154.

Peshwa.—See Bajee Rao.

Pickersgill, Captain, his affair with a Goorkha detachment,

- vol. i. 189—discovers a route to turn the Choorea Ghate defences, 195—activity at Mundela, vol. ii. 207.
- Pindarees*, their rise and condition in 1814, vol. i. 32 to 48—reference to England regarding, 229—second more urgent reference, 327—expeditions sent out by them, 328—Guntoor plundered, 331—further proceedings, 395—expeditions of 1816, 398 to 406—preparations of 1817, vol. ii. 40, 41—proceedings on British advance, 46—dispersion of two durras, 114, 115—surprises, 117, 147, 151—distress, 149—general submission and settlement of the chiefs, 150 to 153.
- Political review*, vol. ii. 336 to 420.
- Poona*, affairs of—See Bajee Rao.—Treaty of, vol. i. 450—battle of, vol. ii. 59, 60—second ditto, 64.
- Poornea*, dewan of Mysore, notice of his death, vol. i. 16.
- Poorundur*, guarantee fort, surrendered by Bajee Rao, vol. i. 445—restored, vol. ii. 2—siege and capture by Brigadier-general Pritzler, 184.
- Post Office Revenue*, vol. ii. 440.
- Prithee Nurayun Sah*, first Goorkha Raja of Nipál, vol. i. 56.
- Pritzler*, Brigadier-general, in command of the reserve of the Dukhun army, vol. ii. 14—his march to Poona, and pursuit of Bajee Rao, 167—reduces Wusota and other forts, 249 to 251—engaged in the battle of Selapoor, 254.
- Pundurpoor*, Gungadhur Shastree murdered there, vol. i. 292—Bajee Rao retires there after treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 4—limit of the Sutara dominions east, 383.
- Pursa*, detachment cut off there by the Nipalese, vol. i. 124.
- Pursajee Bhoosla*—See Bhoosla.
- Pursaram Rao*, his intrigues at Nagpoor, vol. i. 358, 428.
- Putans*, force organized by chiefs of this class, vol. i. 48, 50—See Ameer Khan, &c.—Dissolution of the force arranged by Sir David Ochterlony, vol. ii. 192 to 196—chiefs established in Malwa, policy of the measure, vol. ii. 399, 400.—Punnee Putans, notice of their guaranty, vol. i. 354.—of Rohilkhund, raised for service in Kumaoon, vol. i. 143—insurrection amongst quelled, vol. i. 417.

R.

- Raghojee Bhoosla*—See Bhoosla.
- Raja of Nipál*, of Rewa, &c.—See Nipal, Rewa, &c.
- Rajas* and Chiefs, restored in the western hills on their conquest, vol. i. 177.
- Rajpootana* and Rajpoots, their condition in 1814, vol. i. 49—

- resolution to take generally under protection, vol. ii. 22, 23---arrangements made for the purpose, their effect, &c. vol. ii. 343 to 380.
- Ram Chunder Wāgh*, rises to favour at Nagpoor, vol. i. 422---concerned in the hostilities of 1817, vol. ii. 69. 90---arrested, 231---sent prisoner to Allahabad, 260.
- Ram Deen*, an officer of Holkur's army, vol. ii. 123---joins Bajee Rao, 186. 233---his surrender, 283.
- Rewa*, compulsory engagements with, vol. i. 2---Raja how affected, 19.
- Review, Political*, vol. ii. 336 to 420---Financial, 420 to 462.
- Richards*, Major, 13th N. 1. commands a column sent against Jythuk, vol. i. 96, 97---his good conduct, 99---obliged to retire with loss, 102---employed again, 161---successfully, 163.
- Ridge*, Captain 4th Bengal N. C. his affair with Pindarees, vol. i. 407.
- Rohilkhund*, Nipalese claims and encroachments there, vol. i. 79---insurrection there quelled, 417.
- Roshun Beg*, { two officers of Holkur's army, their conduct,
Roshun Khan, { vol. ii. 124. 138---attacked and defeated by General Brown, 139.
- Rukhma Bacc*, her connexion with the Sagur state, vol. i. 239.
- Run Buhadur Sah*, Raja of Nipal, vol. i. 57---slain by conspirators, 57.
- Runjeet Singh*, ruler of the Punjab and Seikh territory, vol. i. 2.
- Runjoor Singh Thapa*, son of Umur Singh Thapa, his position at Jythuk, vol. i. 96 (see Jythuk)---misconduct at Huree-hurpoor in the second campaign, 203.
- Russell, Henry*, Resident at Hyderabad, quells the disturbances of the Nizam's sons, vol. i. 263 to 265.
- Rygurh*, guarantee fort surrendered by Bajee Rao, vol. i. 445---restored, vol. ii. 2---besieged and taken by Col. Prother, 285.

S.

- Sadut Ulee Khan*, Nuwab Vizeer of Oudh, his conduct and disposition, vol. i. 217---disaffection, 220---conduct of Lord Hastings towards, 221---death, 222.
- Sagur*, proposed to be taken under protection, vol. i. 234---negotiation with, and condition, &c. 239---measures proposed towards in 1817, vol. ii. 22---Bunaeek Rao's conduct 38---reduction of Sagur, 205.

- Salt Revenue of Bengal*, how raised in western provinces, vol. ii. 433—history of in lower, 434 to 436.
- Sarun Frontier*, disputes there with Nipalese, vol. i. 60 to 67. 71. 74—operations there—See Generals Marley, G. Wood, and Sir D. Ochterlony.
- Scott*, Lieut.-col. Robt. his attack of Darana, in Kandês, vol. i. 456—his part in the battle of Mehudpoor, vol. ii. 129.
- Scott*, Lieutenant-colonel, H. S. commanding the brigade at Nagpoor, vol. ii. 70—his dispositions, 71—repels the enemy's attack, 72 to 80—marches to Chanda, and falls in with the advance-guard of Bajee Rao Pêshwa, 239—leads the storm of Chanda, 257—establishes posts to cut off Apa Saheb's communications to the east and south, 319.
- Seeta Ram*, Ex-dewan of the Gykwar, vol. i. 15—intrigues at Poona and Brodera, 281—counteracted, 283—placed under restraint by the Bombay government, 323.
- Segoulee*, treaty of with Nipalese, vol. i. 188—not ratified, 190—subsequent ratification and delivery, 204.
- Shastree*—See Gungadhur Shastree.
- Sheek Dulloo Pindara*, astonishing enterprise of, vol. i. 400—plans in 1817-18, vol. ii. 41.
- Sheeoraj Pergunna*, disputes there with the Nipalese, vol. i. 69—occupation of by the British government, 76—Goorkha outrage there, 77.
- Shumsheer Rana*, Nipalese captain, cuts off a British detachment at Pursa, vol. i. 124—commands in the battle of Mukwanpoor, 200.
- Shums-ood-Doula*, brother and rival of Ghazee-ood-Deen Hydur, ruler of Oudh, vol. i. 222, 225, and 226.
- Shums-ool-Oomra*, Hyderabad, noble candidate for the ministry, vol. i. 11.
- Sibley*, Captain, defeated and killed at Pursa, vol. i. 124.
- Sikhim Raja*, his quarrel with the Nipalese, vol. i. 85—negotiation opened with, 130—treaty with, 207. 482.
- Sindhheea*, Doulut Rao, his disposition and policy from 1805 to 1814, vol. i. 21 to 28—conduct towards Kureem Khan Pindara, 44—protests against British negotiations with Bhopal, 242—subsequent conduct, 251—reply to Bajee Rao, in 1815, 336—inactivity pending negotiation of the subsidiary treaty with Nagpoor, 387—conduct in regard to Jypoor, 390—ditto Pindarees, 414—Governor-general's policy towards Sindhheea in 1817, vol. ii. 20—negotiations, 26 to 32—treaty signed, 33—subsequent conduct and humility, 200—called upon to recall and punish Juswunt Rao Lar, 324—his insidious support of Bajee

- Rao and Apa Saheb punished by the retention of Ascer-gurh, 331, 332—conditions and relations how altered, 400 to 405.
- Singurh*, guarantee fort obtained from Bajee Rao, vol. i. 445—restored on execution of the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 2—siege and capture by General Pritzler, 184.
- Smith, Colonel Lionel*, commanding Poona subsidiary force, vol. i. 438—marches on Poona to enforce signature of the treaty of Poona, 444—post assigned to him in the campaign of 1817-18, vol. ii. 15—marches on Poona, 54—operations there, 64, 65—pursuit of Bajee Rao, 154 to 158—capture of Sutara, 172—overtakes Bajee Rao at Ashtee, 179—pursuit of Bajee Rao eastward, 236—return, 249.
- Solapoor*, battle of, vol. ii. 253, 254.
- Soondoor*, reduced by Colonel Munro, for Bajee Rao, vol. ii. 48, 49.
- Sreedhur Luchmun Pundit*, minister of Raghoojee Bhoosla, vol. i. 347—retires to Bunarus, 348—intrigues for his recall, 359.
- Sparkes*, Captain, cut off with a detachment by Arabs at Mooltye, vol. ii. 310, 311.
- Stamp Revenue* of Bengal, vol. ii. 440.
- Staunton*, Captain, Bombay 1st N. I. his heroic defence at Koragaon, vol. ii. 160 to 164.
- Stockades* of Nipalese, observations regarding, vol. i. 138.
- Sudeek Ulee Khan*, military officer of the Bhoosla, employed against Bhopal, vol. i. 236, 244—intrigues and conduct on the death of Raghoojee, 359—and subsequently, 385, 386—attempt to ruin him, 423, 424.
- Sumunpoor*, detachment cut off at, vol. i. 123.
- Surbjeet Thapa*, Goorkha commandant in the affair at Sumunpoor, vol. i. 123.
- Surplus* of Bengal, vol. ii. 426—of India, 443—See Finance.
- Sutara* taken, vol. ii. 178—Raja and family captured at Ashtee, 181—condition of the principality established for the family, 383 to 388.

T

- Talacr*, General Hislop demands its surrender, and is refused, vol. ii. 215—storm, 216—loss of officers from mismanagement, 217—Kiladar hanged, 217.
- Tanteca Aleckur*, minister of Holkur, vol. i. 232, 233, 337, 338.
- Tanteca Jog*, minister of Holkur's court, vol. ii. 122—in-

- trigues, 123—negotiates the treaty of Mundisôr, 185—established as chief minister, 138—his conduct, 396, 397.
- Thackeray*, Lieutenant, his heroic conduct and death, vol. i. 102.
- Thompson*, Colonel, sent by General Ochterlony to occupy Debooka Tibia, affair there, vol. i. 110—ditto to Deothul, in the Maloun ridge, 167.
- Tirhoot*, aggressions of Nipalese there, vol. i. 78.
- Travankoor*, connexion of British with, vol. i. 16.
- Treaties* with Nipal, vol. i. 206. 475—with Sikhim Raja, 207. 482—with the Bhoosla state, 365—of Poona with Bajee Rao Pêshwa, 451—with the Gykwar, vol. ii. 9—with Doulut Rao Sindheea, 33—with Ameer Khan, 36—with sundry minor chiefs, 37, 38—second of Nagpoor with Apa Saheb, 99—of Mundisôr with Mulhar Rao Holkur, 137—with Bhopal, 339—with Kota, 352—with Joudhpoor, 357—with Oodeepoor, 359—with Boondee, 366—with Bikaneer, 367—with Jesulmer, 368—with sundry minor chiefs, 369—with Jypoor, 372—with the Sutara Raja, 384—final with Sindheea, 403.
- Trimbukjee Dainglia*, his rise to favour with Bajee Rao Pêshwa, vol. i. 279—intrigues and negotiations with Gungadhur Shastree, 286—duplicity, 289—concern in the Shastree's murder, 291, 292—conduct afterwards, 293, 298, 300—charged with the murder by Mr. Elphinstone, 302—defence, 305—confined by Bajee Rao, 313—delivered up to the British, 317—remarks on his general conduct, 319, 320—escapes from confinement, 392—raises an insurrection, 433—efforts to effect his re-apprehension, 448—joins Bajee Rao, wishes to make terms along with him, vol. ii. 283—apprehended and sent prisoner to Chunar, 284.
- Turacs*, or Tureeana, description of, vol. i. 60 to 63—disputes about with Nipalese, 64 to 80—boundary there surveyed and marked with pillars, 206.
- U.
- Ubdoola Beg*, jageerdar of the Sarun Turace, vol. i. 65—conduct of Nipalese towards him, 66.
- Ujumba Punt*, Goorkha leader, extraordinary feat of, vol. i. 159—taken prisoner afterwards, 162.
- Umur Singh Thapa*, Sooba of Palpa, on the Gourukpoor frontier, and father of Bheem Sein Thapa, his death, vol. i. 59.
- , Goorkha commandant to the north west, vol. i.

59---his conduct and views, 79, 80---opposed to the division of General Ochterlony, 104---takes position at Ramgurh, 106---changes it on being turned, 111---retires to the Maloun ridge, 113---anecdote of his severity, 163---attempts to dislodge the British from Deothul, 170---desertion of his men, and surrender, 174---heads the war faction at Katmandoo, 180. 191 to 193---his famous letter to the Raja, Appendix B. 464.

V.

Vaughan, two officers of that name, hanged by the Mahrattas, vol. ii. 62.

W.

Walker, Lieutenant-colonel, commands the Nagpoor subsidiary force on its formation, vol. i. 367---establishes a line of posts along the Nerbudda, 395 to 397---further arrangements, 405---relieved by Colonel Adams, 407.

Wasil Mohummed, brother and successor of Dost Mohummed, as leader of Pindarees, vol. ii. 40---party sent from his durra, 41, 42---retires northward before Gen. Marshall, 46---dispersion of his durra, 115. 117---subsequent distresses, 149---taken and delivered up at Gwalior, 150---ultimate fate, 150.

Wauchope, John, Political Agent in Bundelkhund, negotiates with Sagur and Bhopal in 1814-15, vol. i. 239---employed to settle the new relations with Bundeela chiefs, consequent on the treaty of Poona, vol. ii. 22, 23.

Wellesley, Marquess, Governor-general, his prophetic view of Bajee Rao's disposition, vol. i. 14---his plan for tranquillizing India, 24.

Wood, Major-general George, appointed to succeed General Marley on the Sarun frontier, vol. i. 129---his proceedings, 140.

_____, Major-general J. S. commands on Gourukpoor frontier, vol. i. 84---fails before Bootwul, 116---subsequent measures, 117---second attempt on Bootwul, and return to cantonments, 141.

Wusota, reduced by Brigadier-general Pritzler, vol. ii. 250.

Wuzeer Mohammed, Nuwab of Bhopal, his character and condition, vol. i. 235---seeks British protection, 237---intrigues and double-dealing, 254---his death, 339.

_____, son of Ameer Khan, vol. ii. 189.

Wuzeer Singh, nephew of Bheem Sein Thapa, obtains the government of Palpa on Umur Singh's death, vol. i. 115

 ---repulses General J. P. Wood's attack on Baotwul, 116.

Z.

Zalim Singh, Raj-Rana, manager of Kota---mediates the release of Kureem Khan Pindara, vol. i. 45---affords refuge to Holkur in a military disturbance, 337---his exertions against the Pindarees, vol. ii. 114---places Kota under British protection, 353---peculiarity and embarrassment from his relations with the Râja of Kota, 355, 356---how finally arranged, 357---his death, 357.

LONDON :

PRINTED BY S. AND R. BENTLEY, DORSET STREET.