NOTE

The orthography of proper names follows the system adopted by the Indian Government for the Imperial Gazetteer of India. That system, while adhering to the popular spelling of very well-known places, such as Punjab, Lucknow, etc., employs in all other cases the vowels with the following uniform sounds :—

a, as in woman : á, as in land : í, as in police : í, as in intrigue :
o, as in cold : u, as in bull : ú, as in sure.

THE ANNALS OF RURAL BENGAL.

SIXTH EDITION, 16s.

'It is hard to over-estimate the importance of a work whose author succeeds in fascinating us with a subject so generally regarded as unattractive, and who on questions of grave importance to the future destiny of India, gives the results of wide research and exceptional opportunities of personal study, in a bright, lucid, forcible narrative, rising on occasion to eloquence.'—Times.

'Mr. Hunter, in a word, has applied the philosophic method of writing history to a new field. . . . The grace, and ease, and steady flow of the writing almost make us forget, when reading, the surpassing severity and value of the author's labours.'—Fortnightly Review.

ORISSA :

THE VICISSITUDES OF AN INDIAN PROVINCE UNDER NATIVE AND BRITISH RULE.

TWO VOLS., MAP AND STEEL ENGRAVINGS, 32s.

'The mature and laborious work of a man who has devoted the whole power of his mind, first to the practical duties of his profession as an Indian civilian, and next to the study of all that relates to or can illustrate it. As long as Indian civilians write books like this—as long as they interest themselves so passionately in their work, and feel so keenly its connection with nearly every subject which can occupy serious thought—the English rule will not only last, but will prosper, and make its subjects prosper too.'—Pall Mall Gazette (1872).

THE INDIAN MUSALMANS.

THIRD EDITION, 10s. 6d.

'A masterly Essay.'—Daily News.

A STATISTICAL ACCOUNT OF BENGAL.

IN TWENTY VOLS., HALF MOROCCO, 5s. EACH, WITH MAPS.

'Un ensemble d'efforts digne d'une grande nation, et comme aucune autre n'en a fait jusqu'ici de semblable pour son empire colonial.'—Revue Critique.

THE IMPERIAL GAZETTEER OF INDIA.

SECOND EDITION, FOURTEEN VOLS., HALF MOROCCO, £3 5s.

'The volumes before us form a complete account of the country, its geography, topography, ethnology, commerce, and products, arranged in alphabetical order according to the names of places.' (Second Notice) — 'It is one of the grandest works of administrative statistics which have ever been issued by any nation.'—The Times.

'Dr. Hunter has rendered to the Indian Government and to English people generally, the highest service a public servant could achieve.'—The Athenæum.
