LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION,
Washington, D. C., March 9, 1935.

HON. HENRY A. WALLACE,

Secretary of Agriculture.

DEAR MR. SECRETARY: Herewith is transmitted the second report of efforts to assist in the recovery of agriculture, undertaken in compliance with the mandate of Congress contained in the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

The report covers the activities of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration from February 15, 1934, through December 31, 1934. It supplements and is a continuation of the first report, which was dated February 15, 1934.

Respectfully,

Administrator.

FOREWORD	XVIII
CHAPTER 1. THE ECONOMIC POSITION OF AGRICULTURE	1
I. THE ADJUSTMENT PROBLEM	2
Agricultural Adjustment Act directed toward correcting economic conditions in agriculture.—Parity established as objective.—Adjustment of production as means of attaining parity.—Production control applied to basic commodities.—Secretary of Agriculture empowered to enter into marketing agreements.
II. THE SCOPE OF THE ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM	3
Adjustment programs in 1933 applied to cotton, wheat, and cigar-leaf tobacco.—Marketing agreements in 1933 applied to rice and fluid milk.—Surplus removal measures effected in 1933.—Loans extended to cotton and corn producers.—Programs instituted in 1934.—Wheat seedlings increased to 90 percent of base acreage.—Cotton plantings restricted.—Bank-head Control Act put into effect.—Seven tobacco programs inaugurated.—Rice agreements extended to Southern section.—Corn-hog production-control program instituted.—Price support applied to milk markets.—Amendments to agricultural act add seven products named as basic.—Supplies of sugar adjusted under authority of Jones-Costigan Act.—Production-control program replaces marketing agreements for peanuts.—Cattle-adjustment program converted into emergency-purchase program.—Scope of marketing agreements and licenses extended.—Increased loan values on cotton and corn.—Sixty-seven to seventy percent of farm income derived from 14 basic commodities in 1929, 1932, and 1933.—Programs in effect for 9 of 14 basic commodities.—More than 3,600,000 adjustment contracts signed in 1934.—Marketing agreements supplement production control.—Amendment strengthens marketing agreements.—Corn, hog, cotton, and tobacco growers participate in referenda.
III. EFFECTS OF ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM	8
Exchange value of farm products reaches 80 percent of pre-war level.—1934 farm cash income 21 percent over that of 1933.—Welfare of farmers advances 50 percent in 2 years.—Farm share of National income increases.—Rental and benefits total over 446 million dollars.—Trend of farm income fluctuates sharply.—Increased farm income sustains business activity.
IV. THE PRESENT STATUS OF ADJUSTMENT	13
Expected wheat carry-over about 125 million bushels.—Indicated cotton carry-over reduced to about 8 million bales.—Hog numbers about 30 percent fewer than last year.—Drought causes beef cattle decline from top to bottom of cycle.—Production reflects results of both adjustment control and drought.—Continuing adjustment needed.—Productive capacity of crop acreage still excessive.—Agriculture now supplying all that urban consumers can absorb.—Immediate abandonment of control measures would be almost certain to bring new cycle of surplus and scarcity.

CHAPTER 2. THE DROUGHT CRISIS, AND HOW IT WAS MET.....	17
Drought of 1934 unprecedented in history of Nation.—Federal agencies correlated program to meet crisis.
I. EARLY STAGES OF THE DROUGHT.....	17
First stage a climax of trends of decade.—Rainfall deficiency occurred over wide area.—Small grains blasted beyond recovery.—Fall pastures cut to 39 percent of normal.—Seed supply menaced.—Livestock rushed to market to avoid starvation.
II. PRELIMINARY MOVES TO MEET CRISIS.....	20
Emergency agencies already possessed broad and flexible powers.—Relief operations well under way in May.—Congress votes $525,000,000 to meet emergency.—Many Government agencies enrolled.—Benefit payments provided income.—Important functions delegated to Agricultural Adjustment Administration.—Drought areas designated.
III. EMERGENCY CATTLE- AND SHEEP-BUYING PROGRAM.....	27
Two primary methods of livestock adjustment employed.—Drought toll reaches its peak in July.—Program designed to maintain nucleus herds and preserve basis of livestock industry.—Program has beneficial culling effect.—Sheep and goat purchases started in August.
IV. OTHER REMEDIAL MEASURES.....	35
Adjustment contracts modified to encourage most effective use of land.—Measures increase actual supply of hay and forage.—Information on needs and supplies cleared through Federal Livestock Feed Agency.—Adjustment Administration underwrites conservation of corn fodder and corn stover.—Funds allocated by Congress to prevent loss of adapted seed stocks.—Government takes options on seed corn.—Railroads cooperate with the Government in emergency movement of livestock and feed.—Territory in which emergency rates apply enlarged.
V. DROUGHT EFFECT ON FOOD SUPPLIES.....	41
Comprehensive survey indicates no severe shortage of human food.—Federal Emergency Relief Administration advised of location of surpluses.
VI. ORGANIZING AGAINST FUTURE DROUGHT DEVELOPMENTS.....	42
Specific functions assigned to new and existing units of Department of Agriculture.—Effects of drought intensified by past courses of human action.—Measures designed to alleviate future drought conditions are planned to correct mistaken policies and practices.—Government agencies devote research and conservation efforts to problem.
CHAPTER 3. COTTON.....	45
Cotton adjustment enters third year.—World supply of American cotton decreases from 1931-32 season.—World carryover of American cotton drops.
I. FACTORS IN DECREASE OF AMERICAN COTTON SUPPLY.....	46
Removal from cotton production of 10 million acres in 1933 prevents record crop.—Adjustment in 1934 restricts planting of cooperating producers 38 percent.—Drought contributes to short crop.—Objective of 1935 program contemplates further reduction in carryover.—Average price of cotton rises.—Farm value of cotton increases.—Voluntary agreement includes crop years 1934-35 and 1935-36.—Base acreage used in program is average cultivated acreage in the period 1928-32.—Rental and parity payments offered producers.—Community and county committees set up.

	Page
II. THE BANKHEAD ACT	50
Sentiment for supplementary type of production control develops.—Purpose is to prevent nullification of adjustment program.—Producers indicate overwhelming approval of Bankhead bill.—Act approved in April 1934.—Provides for national quota to be divided among cotton-producing States.—County and individual allocations made.—Administration decentralized as much as possible.—State allotment boards appointed.—Production-control associations administer act within counties.—Exemption certificates transferable.—National pool organized.—Transfer of certificates is form of crop insurance.—Bankhead referendum authorizes continuance of provisions of act.—Bankhead Act quota for 1935 ascertained.
III. THE 1935 PROGRAM	56
Carryover of cotton still excessive.—1935 program to continue reduction efforts.—Producers authorized to make maximum reduction of 35 percent.—Payments on same basis as in 1934-35 season.—Parity payments increased.—Three factors contribute to decrease in exports.—High spot-cotton prices cause dealers and foreign consumers to defer purchases.—Reduced dollar exchange abroad is serious impediment to cotton export movement.—Production control not an important factor in increasing production and consumption of foreign cottons.—Administration conducts educational program for benefit of producers.
IV. THE COTTON PRODUCERS' POOL	61
Cash profits accrue to producers who elect to accept options on Government-owned cotton.—Operations of cotton producers' pool.—Established in January 1934.—Initial distribution at rate of 4 cents a pound to certificate holders who surrender option.—Second distribution of 2 cents a pound.—Cotton account of the Secretary of Agriculture.—The pool cotton account.
V. THE COTTON PROCESSING TAX	65
Rate fixed at 4.2 cents per pound effective August 1, 1933.—At beginning of 1934-35 season rate remains unchanged.—Tax applies only to cotton domestically consumed.—Effect of tax on consumption.—Effect on processing and distributing margins.—Tax passed on to consumer.—Tax on cotton in large cotton bags abated or refunded.—Commodities in competition with cotton and cotton products taxed.
CHAPTER 4. WHEAT	71
Wheat program tested in practice in 1934.—Cooperating farmers to receive higher income despite drought.—Problems ahead.
I. REVIEW OF WHEAT OPERATIONS IN 1933	72
Wheat acreage too large for available market outlets.—Program developed in conference with growers.—United States took part in world conference on wheat situation.—Exports assisted.—Acreage of winter wheat reduced.—Benefit payments added to growers' income.
II. THE POSITION OF WHEAT IN 1934	76
Statistical position of wheat improved in 1934.—Surplus worked off by drought and adjustment programs.—Growers' income is larger.
III. OPERATION OF THE PROGRAM IN 1934	78
Acreage brought more nearly into line with demand.—Drought tests flexibility of program.—Farmers coordinate and administer their own program.—More than 800,000 wheat producers are members of 1,328 county wheat associations in 37 States.—Processing tax furnishes money for adjustment operations.—Drought hastens adjustment.—International cooperation continues through 1934.—Agencies handling wheat adopt codes of fair competition.

II. THE BANKHEAD ACT -----	50
Sentiment for supplementary type of production control develops.—Purpose is to prevent nullification of adjustment program.—Producers indicate overwhelming approval of Bankhead bill.—Act approved in April 1934.—Provides for national quota to be divided among cotton-producing States.—County and individual allocations made.—Administration decentralized as much as possible.—State allotment boards appointed.—Production-control associations administer act within counties.—Exemption certificates transferable.—National pool organized.—Transfer of certificates is form of crop insurance.—Bankhead referendum authorizes continuance of provisions of act.—Bankhead Act quota for 1935 ascertained.
III. THE 1935 PROGRAM -----	56
Carryover of cotton still excessive.—1935 program to continue reduction efforts.—Producers authorized to make maximum reduction of 35 percent.—Payments on same basis as in 1934-35 season.—Parity payments increased.—Three factors contribute to decrease in exports.—High spot-cotton prices cause dealers and foreign consumers to defer purchases.—Reduced dollar exchange abroad is serious impediment to cotton export movement.—Production control not an important factor in increasing production and consumption of foreign cottons.—Administration conducts educational program for benefit of producers.
IV. THE COTTON PRODUCERS' POOL -----	61
Cash profits accrue to producers who elect to accept options on Government-owned cotton.—Operations of cotton producers' pool.—Established in January 1934.—Initial distribution at rate of 4 cents a pound to certificate holders who surrender option.—Second distribution of 2 cents a pound.—Cotton account of the Secretary of Agriculture.—The pool cotton account.
V. THE COTTON PROCESSING TAX -----	65
Rate fixed at 4.2 cents per pound effective August 1, 1933.—At beginning of 1934-35 season rate remains unchanged.—Tax applies only to cotton domestically consumed.—Effect of tax on consumption.—Effect on processing and distributing margins.—Tax passed on to consumer.—Tax on cotton in large cotton bags abated or refunded.—Commodities in competition with cotton and cotton products taxed.
CHAPTER 4. WHEAT -----	71
Wheat program tested in practice in 1934.—Cooperating farmers to receive higher income despite drought.—Problems ahead.
I. REVIEW OF WHEAT OPERATIONS IN 1933 -----	72
Wheat acreage too large for available market outlets.—Program developed in conference with growers.—United States took part in world conference on wheat situation.—Exports assisted.—Acreage of winter wheat reduced.—Benefit payments added to growers' income.
II. THE POSITION OF WHEAT IN 1934 -----	76
Statistical position of wheat improved in 1934.—Surplus worked off by drought and adjustment programs.—Growers' income is larger.
III. OPERATION OF THE PROGRAM IN 1934 -----	78
Acreage brought more nearly into line with demand.—Drought tests flexibility of program.—Farmers coordinate and administer their own program.—More than 800,000 wheat producers are members of 1,328 county wheat associations in 37 States.—Processing tax furnishes money for adjustment operations.—Drought hastens adjustment.—International co-operation continues through 1934.—Agencies handling wheat adopt codes of fair competition.

	Page
IV. PROBLEMS AHEAD -----	85
Export market for United States wheat still uncertain.—Increase in domestic consumption for food not likely.—Domestic price levels may return to world price level.—Wheat-producing capacity as great as ever.—Farmers may choose 1 of 3 courses.
CHAPTER 5.—CORN AND HOGS -----	87
Production control through group action inaugurated.—Corn and hog prices improve.—Farmers vote for another program.—Excess production calls for two-handed attack.—Removal of market hogs and hog products by purchase.—Corn-hog adjustment contracts signed.—Corn-loan program aids farmers.
I. SUPPLEMENTAL PROGRAM FOR PURCHASE OF HOGS AND HOG PRODUCTS -----	88
Pigs and sows purchased in 1933.—Supplemental purchases in January 1934.—Effect on hog marketings and prices.—Reduced hog numbers conserve corn needed in drought.
II. THE CORN-LOAN PROGRAM -----	90
Plan announced in October 1933.—Corn value established at 45 cents per bushel.—Is modified price-fixing plan linked to production control.—No risk to borrowers.—Bulk of loans made in 1934.—Loan privilege extensively utilized.—Proves boon to producers.—Net gain to borrowers.—Extend maturity date.—New loan agreement substituted.—Value under new loan established at 55 cents per bushel.
III. THE 1934 CORN-HOG ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM -----	93
First really fundamental plan for raising corn and hog prices.—Contract provides for reduction of both corn and hogs.—Producers offered two benefit payments.—Restrictions relaxed when drought develops.
IV. DEMOCRATIC NATURE OF ADMINISTRATIVE SET-UP -----	94
Initial administrative set-up temporary.—Permanent committees elected.—Production-control associations become key units.—Duties of allotment committees.—New control program put into effect.—Corn-hog is largest A. A. A. program.—Making individual adjustments consumes time.—First checks to contract signers in April 1934.—Final installment due in February 1935.—Degree of noncompliance slight.—Principal classes of violators.
V. BENEFIT TO GROWERS RESULTING FROM PROGRAM -----	99
Value of hogs advances.—Pronounced adjustment in corn production evidenced.—Surplus production prevented.—Producer gets income in two parts.—Receipts from direct sale as well as benefit payment.—Administrative expenses average about 4 to 5 percent of benefit payment.
VI. THE PROCESSING TAXES ON CORN AND HOGS -----	103
Funds from taxes on corn and hogs appropriated to Secretary of Agriculture.—Collections equal cost of program.—Close relation of corn and hog production seen in use of processing tax funds.—Small volume of corn is subject to tax.—Exemptions from tax specified.
VII. THE 1935 CORN-HOG ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM -----	106
Why follow-up program in 1935 is desirable.—Feed supplies are short and high priced.—Post-drought reaction toward drought in past studied.—Regional meetings held to discuss problem.—Referendum indicates contract signers favor another program.—1935 contract simplified.—Restrictions are modified.—Benefits to cooperating producers specified.—Unrestricted use of land not planted to corn permitted.—First payment due when contract is accepted.—Contract is based upon outlook for future of corn-hog industry.

CHAPTER 6. DAIRY PRODUCTS.....	Page 117
Situation of dairy industry at passage of Agricultural Adjustment Act.—Unusually large number of milk cows on farms.—Milk production per cow lowered.—Prices for dairy animals sharply reduced.—Several regions present different problems.
I. HISTORICAL SURVEY OF DAIRY INDUSTRY—1900-35.....	118
Upward trend in numbers of dairy cows and heifers since 1900.—Large increase in central areas of United States.—Total milk production fails to keep pace with sharp increase in number of cows.—Since 1918 more butter made in creameries than on farms.—Inter-regional shifts in production.—Marked increase in production of cheese and evaporated milk.—Favorable prices of dairy products after close of World War.—Farmers shift to dairying.—Dairy prices remain favorable until 1929.—Decline from 1929 to lowest point in March 1933.—Rise to October 1934.—Summary of adjustment measures under Agricultural Adjustment Act.
II. MILK AGREEMENTS AND LICENSES.....	119
Agreements and licenses put into effect in 13 markets in 1933.—Include schedule of prices and provisions for prorating market.—Establishment of resale prices appears to "freeze" distributors' margins.—Difficulties in enforcing agreements.—Primary purpose of act to increase returns to producers.—Modified policy announced early in 1934.—All agreements canceled.—Licenses in accord with new policy issued.—Approximately one-fourth of fluid milk consumed by nonfarm population handled under Federal license.—Milk-license program intended to raise and maintain income of producers.—Classified price plan in operation.—Producers in markets operating under straight pool receive weighted average price of all milk.—Market pool tends to eliminate violent price fluctuations.—In markets operating under base-surplus method producers receive allotments on basis of past deliveries.—In some markets distributors pay blended price.—Enforcement of license raises problem of regulating commerce in milk.—Prices established in licenses are subject to revision.—Producer-distributor brought into program.—Apportioning market among producers.—Duties of market administrators set forth in licenses.—State authority increasingly important.—Suggestion that groups of States act together.
III. SURPLUS-REMOVAL ACTIVITIES.....	125
Surplus-reduction put into effect in August 1933.—Leaders pledge support to general production-adjustment program.—Anticipating processing tax, United States Treasury advances $10,000,000 for purchase of butter.—Additional purchase made from F. E. R. A. funds.—Jones-Connally Act and La Follette amendment provide funds for purchase of dairy and beef products.
IV. ELIMINATION OF DISEASED CATTLE.....	127
V. MARKETING AGREEMENTS FOR EVAPORATED AND DRY SKIM MILK.....	130

VI. PROPOSAL FOR PRODUCTION-CONTROL MEASURES	132
Various production-adjustment proposals studied.—Regional differences and large number of farmers to be considered.—Program evolved and submitted in April 1934.—Suggestion made that dairymen sign contracts to reduce sales 20 to 30 percent.—Benefit payment of 40 cents per pound of butterfat proposed.—Processing tax of 5 cents per pound of butterfat was to be levied.—Program presented in series of 15 regional meetings.—Farmers about equally divided for and against it.—Large majority necessary to insure success.—Administration holds action upon program in abeyance.—Way still open for dairy program.—Present hope of industry rests on restored purchasing power of industrial workers.
CHAPTER 7. TOBACCO	135
Ninety percent of land under contract in 1934.—Substantial gains made toward eliminating price-depressing surpluses.—Total farm income from 1934 crop one-third larger than that of previous year.—Flexibility of adjustment contracts.—Three classes of payments to growers.
I. THE KERR-SMITH TOBACCO ACT	138
Act supplements adjustment programs.—Levies tax on first-sale value of tobacco.—Tax burden falls upon growers who have not entered into adjustment contracts.—Growers vote to continue tax in 1935.
II. CIGAR TOBACCO	141
Grown in five districts.—Practically all consumed domestically.—Adjustment programs inaugurated in 1933.—Processing tax in effect.—Contracts continued in 1934.—Flexible enough to fit different conditions.—One-third of surplus removed.—Georgia-Florida situation.—Connecticut Valley type adjusted under marketing agreement.—Contract provided for Puerto Rican tobacco.
III. FLUE-CURED TOBACCO	145
Represents about half of United States production.—Sixty percent exported.—Adjustment contracts cover 97 percent of land used for flue-cured tobacco during 1931-33.—Surplus entirely removed.—Processing tax in effect.—Provisions of contract for 1935.
IV. BURLEY TOBACCO	149
Represents about one-fourth United States production.—Chiefly for domestic consumption.—Contracts cover 88 percent of land used for Burley tobacco during 1931-33.—Production below consumption in 1934 for first time since 1928.—Growing conditions favorable.—Sales permitted above initial allotments.—Provisions of contract for 1935.—Rates of processing tax.
V. FIRE-CURED TOBACCO	153
Three-fourths of crop exported.—Half of surplus removed.—Income increased in 1933 and 1934.—Eighty-eight percent of land used for fire-cured tobacco during 1931-33 under contract in 1934.—Growing conditions favorable.—Sales permitted above initial allotments.
VI. DARK AIR-CURED TOBACCO	156
Represents less than 5 percent of United States production.—Adjustment contracts cover 77 percent of land used for dark air-cured tobacco during 1931-33.—Half of surplus removed.—Growing conditions favorable.—Sales permitted above initial allotments.—Rates of processing tax.—Provisions of contract for 1935.

CONTENTS

	Page
VII. MARYLAND TOBACCO -----	158
Represents less than 2 percent of United States production.— Surplus chiefly lower grade.—Objective to reduce production of lower grades.—Processing tax rate reduced to zero.—Pro- visions of contract for 1935.
CHAPTER 8. SUGAR -----	161
Jones-Costigan amendment dominant influence affecting welfare of sugar industry.—Provides for adjustment of sup- plies.—Marketing and import quotas established.—Processing tax levied.
I. THE JONES-COSTIGAN ACT APPLIED TO SUGAR INDUSTRY -----	162
Import quotas of sugar prevent excess admission of sup- plies.—Consumption requirements are determined.—Quotas for areas supplying domestic sugar established.—Sugar imported in excess of quotas placed in customs custody.—Programs to adjust production inaugurated.—Sugar crop usually con- tracted for by processor.—Allotments made to individual processors.
II. SUGAR-BEET PROGRAM -----	165
Sugar-beet program begins.—Acreage allotments to growers made by reference to marketing allotments to processors.— Contract specified five options.—Any producer who grew beets in 1933 or 1934 eligible to receive adjustment payments.— Benefit provides parity payment.
III. SUGAR-CANE PROGRAM -----	170
Program offers farmers cash benefits for 1934 and 1935.— Schedule of payments determined.—Prices based upon sucrose content.—Grower-processor committees formed.—Sugarcane- adjustment contract approved.—Payment would net producer parity price.—Florida program to be developed.
IV. INSULAR PROGRAMS -----	172
Three-year program for Hawaiian sugar producers outlined.— Marketing agreement for sugar produced in Philippine Islands tentatively approved.—Plans developed for production adjust- ment in Puerto Rico.
V. PROCESSING TAX -----	176
Processing tax basic to production adjustment.—Tax on sugar from insular possessions may be kept in separate fund.
VI. LABOR PROVISIONS -----	176
Adjustment of labor disputes.—Contract clause limits use of child labor.
CHAPTER 9. CATTLE -----	179
Cattle made basic commodity by Jones-Connally Act.— Adjustment program recommended by committee.—Spread of drought causes suspension of proposed program.—Cattle buy- ing program launched.
I. THE SITUATION AT THE BEGINNING OF 1934 -----	179
Cattle prices lowest in present century.—Industry ap- proaches peak of production cycle in 1934.—Principal prob- lems involved in sound adjustment.
II. THE COMMITTEE OF 25 -----	181
Advisory committee of 25 named.—Every cattle producing section of country represented.—Committee recommended holding program in abeyance.—Subcommittee of five sub- mitted tentative report.—Program outlined but postponed.— Cattle purchase program submitted.
III. THE OUTLOOK -----	182
Scope of cattle reduction exceeds early plans.—Greatest re- duction among cows and heifers.—Distribution of reduction uneven.—Practically no reduction east of Mississippi.—Cut 25 percent west of Mississippi.—Progress made in removal of inferior and diseased animals.—Danger of another major up- ward swing and desirability of adjustment program.

	Page
CHAPTER 10. RICE	185
Programs formulated for two distinct regions.—1933 carry-over largest on record.—Marketing agreements put into effect in California and Southern areas.—Licenses issued to Southern millers.—Prices of rice improved.—Production adjustment program planned for 1935.
CHAPTER 11. PEANUTS	191
Commercial peanut growers in United States number 325,000.—Farm prices ranged from 50 to 80 percent of parity since 1929.
I. MARKETING AGREEMENT AND LICENSE FOR MILLERS	191
Includes minimum prices to growers.—Reflected in higher returns to growers.—Farmers turn to "contract shelling" method.
II. ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM	192
Peanuts made basic commodity.—Marketing agreement and license terminated.—Market prices maintained under adjustment program.—Acreage for 1935 to be reduced.—Use for oil and feed encouraged.
III. PROCESSING TAX	194
Payments to growers estimated to total $5,000,000.—Tax rate fixed at 1 cent a pound.—Tax suspended on peanut oils.—Growers anticipate higher returns.
CHAPTER 12. OTHER BASIC COMMODITIES	197
List of basic commodities increased by Congress.—Growers suggest desirability of increasing flax acreage.—Rye crop in United States deficient in 1933.—Barley program could best be developed in combination with other programs.—Little grain sorghum is domestically processed.
CHAPTER 13. GENERAL CROPS	201
Marketing agreements used to improve situation of producers of nonbasic commodities.—Agreements cover 27 commodities in 17 States.—Farm value of commodities increased.—Few agreements effective without accompanying license.
I. SITUATIONS IN WHICH MARKETING AGREEMENTS ARE FEASIBLE ...	202
Best adapted to crops geographically localized.—Past training in cooperative marketing advantageous.—Agreements used primarily in emergency situations.
II. MEANS EMPLOYED IN MARKETING AGREEMENTS TO INCREASE FARM INCOME	204
Returns to producers increased by restricting supply marketed.—High marketing charges characteristic of fruits and vegetables.—Prices must exceed marketing charges before producers receive return.—Most marketing agreements provide period-to-period proration.—Quantity regulated by means of "shipping holiday."—Agreements contain quality regulations.—Minimum price provisions.—Problems of arriving at price acceptable to both producers and handlers.—Minimum price provisions apply to only 6 of 23 agreements in effect.
III. ALLOCATING THE SUPPLY TO BE MARKETED	208
Committee institutes proration of shipments.—Basis of marketing allotments suited to needs of various industries.
IV. OPERATION OF MARKETING AGREEMENTS	209
Agreements administered by control committees.—Committee members elected by growers and handlers.—Minimum Government supervision provided.—Administration representative assures fair treatment to all parties.—Problems of human relations more difficult than economic problems.—Obtaining compliance more important than punishing violators.

V. CODES OF FAIR COMPETITION	211
Four codes relating to general crops put into operation.—Fruit and vegetable code contains fair trade practice and credit provisions.—Anti-hog-cholera serum and virus code designed to prevent destructive price wars.—Commercial breeder-hatchery code designed to prohibit unfair trade practices.—New York live poultry code effects savings to shippers.—Northeastern live-poultry code proposed.
CHAPTER 14. COMMODITY LOANS	213
Corporation established in October 1933.—Loans on 1933 cotton crop.—Loans on cotton in producers' pool.—Loans on 1934 cotton crop.—Loans made on corn.—Loans on gum turpentine and rosin.—Funds derived from Reconstruction Finance Corporation.
CHAPTER 15. HOW FARMERS CONTROL ADJUSTMENT	219
Set-up is democratic in structure.—Members and leaders of farm organizations hold key places.
I. COUNTY ASSOCIATIONS AND PRODUCTION PROGRAMS	219
Signers of over 3 million contracts organized into more than 4,200 county production-control associations.—Localized units deal directly with adjustment problems.—County production-control association is base of adjustment pyramid.—Community committee is nucleus.—Function of county board of directors.—County allotment committee passes upon all contracts.—State board reviews work of county committee.—Referenda register will of farmers.
II. HOW PRODUCERS WORK THROUGH MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND LICENSES	223
Progress made by specialty-crop and dairy farmers through means of marketing agreements and licenses.—Exempted from restrictions of antitrust law.—Marketing agreement a formal, written compact.—License is a permit issued to handlers.—Fundamental purpose of agreements and licenses to establish orderly marketing conditions.—Main factors in their effectiveness.—Steps in establishing them.—How they are administered.—How they help the industry.—Provisions governing prices paid producers.—Quantity to be produced and marketed in some cases specified.
III. AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION AS A COORDINATING AGENCY	229
Farmers operate their own adjustment measures.—Coordination through A. A. A.—Four-fifths of A. A. A. employees drawn from ranks of civil service.—Cooperating agencies of United States Department of Agriculture render invaluable service.
CHAPTER 16. PROCESSING TAXES AND THEIR EFFECTS	231
I. PROCESSING TAXES IN EFFECT AT THE END OF 1934	231
Number of commodities bearing tax increased during the year.—Compensating, import, floor stock, and other taxes.—Refunds.—Where tax burden actually is borne.—Per capita tax contribution by individual is related to his income.
II. DESTINATION OF PROCESSING TAXES	235
Largest item of distribution is in financing adjustment programs.—Constitute mechanism making possible concerted action by farmers.—Used for expansion of markets, removal of surpluses, and administrative expenses.
III. CONTINUANCE OF PROCESSING TAXES	235
If taxes were suspended, collections might be out of line with benefits promised in contracts with producers.—Collections and disbursements do not necessarily show a current balance.—Programs for crop control expected to pay their own way.

IV. EFFECTS OF PROCESSING TAXES ON FARMERS	237
May affect farmers' incomes in one or both of two ways.— May or may not increase total number of dollars spent by consumers for a given commodity.—Increase the proportion of the consumer's food dollar going to the farmer.
V. EFFECTS OF PROCESSING TAXES ON CITY PEOPLE	238
Retail prices reflect effects of production adjustment alone, or of processing tax as well.—Marketing situation of commodity determines.—Processing taxes are substantial part of producers' income but relatively small proportion of retail price of finished product.
CHAPTER 17. THE CONSUMERS' COUNSEL	241
Investigates effect of production-control programs on consumers.—Advises on consumer interest in codes, licenses, and marketing agreements.—Checks tendencies toward private monopoly and other encroachments upon consumer interests.—Studies relationship of processing tax to prices paid by consumers.—Farmers' share in consumers' food dollar makes slow but steady increase.—Record of retail prices of typical cotton textiles kept.—Consumers' Guide gives advice in intelligent buying.—Weekly broadcast offers information on adjustment activity and advice on consumer problems.—Radio service syndicated.—Exhibits shown at national and State conventions.—National survey shows deficient milk consumption.—Women's organizations study consumer problems.
CHAPTER 18. LEGAL PHASES AND DEVELOPMENTS	249
I. SUMMARY OF AMENDATORY LEGISLATION	249
Additional farm products listed as basic agricultural commodities.—Complete plan for regulation of sugar industry developed.—Secretary's procedure with regard to cotton holdings facilitated.—Processing-tax and other provisions clarified.
II. COURT DECISIONS ON AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT LITIGATION DURING 1934	253
In cases tried, court decisions have involved wide range of legal questions with regard to Agricultural Adjustment Act.—Three cases have involved codes jointly administered by Agricultural Adjustment Administration and National Recovery Administration.—Several cases still pending.
III. ENFORCEMENT OF LICENSES	262
Procedure established and embodied in General Regulations.—Compliance frequently obtained through negotiation cases involving handlers of milk have been instituted by the Secretary of Agriculture.—Violators of terms of licenses covering fruits, rice, and general crops, induced to comply when they understood purposes and operations of licenses.
IV. CASES INVOLVING PRODUCTION-ADJUSTMENT AND EMERGENCY-PURCHASE PROBLEMS	265
Purpose of Adjustment Administration to see that benefit payments actually reach producers, upheld by courts.—Statutes invoked to curb fraud and willful misrepresentation.—Cases handled under corn-hog, emergency hog-purchase, cotton-adjustment, and wheat-adjustment programs.
V. ECONOMIC BASIS FOR LEGAL ACTION UNDER THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT	268
Justification of Secretary's actions must be found in economic data.—Adequate evidence required in litigation.

I. COMMODITIES SHIPPED INTO SOUTHEASTERN UNITED STATES	272
Special survey compares volume in years beginning July 1, 1932, and July 1, 1933.—Eastern United States covered.—Commodities shipped from North to South.—About 75 percent increase in goods farmers buy.—Steel and iron shipments increase 113 percent.—Building materials show increase.—Automobiles increase 63 percent.
II. ORIGIN OF SHIPMENTS	278
Pennsylvania leads increase in States of origin of shipments.—Increase in Maine, New York, Ohio, and other States.—Cleveland shows increase of 83.9 percent.—Boston shipping to Southeast increases 72 percent.—Diversified shipments from Peoria.—Other cities studied.
III. FACTORS AFFECTING VOLUME OF SHIPPING	281
Increase due to several factors.—Contributions by other recovery agencies.
IV. OTHER INDEXES OF RECOVERY	282
Registration of automobiles shows gains.—Mail-order houses and department stores report gains.—Christmas trade improved.—Life-insurance sales confirm evidence of agricultural revival.—Substantiation of premise on which Agricultural Adjustment Act is based.—Not a mere transfer of wealth from the cities but an actual increase in the production of wealth.
CHAPTER 20. MEETING THE NATION'S CHANGING NEEDS	285
I. A LONG VIEW OF THE PROBLEM	285
Emergency pressure lessened.—Opportunity to adopt measures looking to long-time objectives.—Policy must be aimed toward more abundant economy for all groups.—Farmers and agricultural planning agencies face questions on future program.—Levels of consumption must be considered in appraising amount of land needed in production.
II. DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN SITUATION	287
Foreign trade a factor in determining agricultural policy.—Welfare of all groups must be an objective.—If United States is to increase exports it must buy more abroad.—Reciprocal trade agreements may accomplish much.—Adjustment programs not designed to restrict possibility of increased foreign trade.—Ultimately, greater crop acreage may be required to meet foreign and domestic demands.—Need for adjustment will continue.
III. RELATION OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRY	290
When balance is attained, further improvement in farm income will depend on increased purchasing power of industrial groups.—Farmers' share of national income is too small.—Continued disparity between agricultural and industrial prices delays recovery.—Inflexible costs a retarding factor.—Disparity in agricultural and industrial production causes price disparity.
IV. PERMANENT LAND ADJUSTMENT	294
Agriculture will gain by putting its own plant in better order.—Land-use program interrelated with problems of adjustment.—Federal and State agencies cooperate in report of National Resources Board.—Program of retiring submarginal land has made progress.—Rural rehabilitation planned for families in city and on the land.
V. IMMEDIATE AND TRANSITIONAL PROBLEMS	297
Adjustment programs can influence better use of good farm land.—Mechanisms of adjustment programs may require modification.—Adjusting livestock numbers through feed-grain control measure.—Regional differences call for modification of adjustment programs.—An ever-normal granary plan proposed.

FOREWORD

When the first report of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration was made 1 year ago, the adjustment program had been in operation approximately 9 months. Production-adjustment measures had been launched for several of the major farm commodities, but at that time the effects of the program had only begun to be felt.

During the year 1934, the programs have been extended to include more than 3 million farmers as signers of adjustment contracts and several hundred thousand others working through marketing agreements and licenses. The number of farmers participating constitutes considerably more than half of all the farmers in the United States, and a still larger fraction of the number raising or marketing enough farm produce to be interested in participating.

The year 1934 also has brought tangible results in the way of increased farm income. The total cash income of farmers for the year, according to estimates of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, is approximately $6,100,000,000, as compared with $5,051,000,000 for 1933 and $4,328,000,000 for 1932.

The great drought which spread over a large part of the United States was a dominant factor in the situation during the year, and brought out the flexibility of the adjustment program. While the drought contributed materially to raising farm prices and was the principal cause of the shortage of meat products developing at the beginning of 1935, it left many farmers in a desperate plight. Their situation has been ameliorated somewhat by benefit payments, which served as crop income insurance, by the Government's cattle-buying program, and other emergency measures.

With accumulated surpluses of some farm commodities largely eliminated by the drought, agriculture's problem now is to carry forward a controlled expansion in step with increasing domestic and foreign demand, and to consolidate the economic gains already made.

Administrator, Agricultural Adjustment Act.

APPENDIX A—THE ACT AS AMENDED

EXHIBIT 1.—COMPILATION OF THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT AS AMENDED AND ACTS RELATING THERETO

PREFATORY NOTE

Throughout the text of this document italics are used to indicate matter added by way of amendment since the passage of the original Agricultural Adjustment Act, Public, No. 10, 73d Congress, Title I, approved May 12, 1933.

Two forms of notes have been used. Those of an explanatory nature are made footnotes and are numbered consecutively. Those containing the statutory citations for the amendatory legislation are placed in the body of the act immediately subsequent to the sections or paragraphs which they amend. In instances where the language of the original act was stricken or changed, comparative prints are used, in which heavy brackets indicate deleted matter, and new matter is set forth in italics.

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT, AS AMENDED, AS OF JUNE 29, 1934

AN ACT

To relieve the existing national economic emergency by increasing agricultural purchasing power to raise revenue for extraordinary expenses incurred by reason of such emergency, to provide emergency relief with respect to agricultural indebtedness, to provide for the orderly liquidation of joint-stock land banks, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I—AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT¹

DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY

That the present acute economic emergency being in part the consequence of a severe and increasing disparity between the prices of agricultural and other commodities, which disparity has largely destroyed the purchasing power of farmers for industrial products, has broken down the orderly exchange of commodities, and has seriously impaired the agricultural assets supporting the national credit structure, it is hereby declared that these conditions in the basic industry of agriculture have affected transactions in agricultural commodities with a national public interest, have burdened and obstructed the normal currents of commerce in such commodities, and render imperative the immediate enactment of title I of this Act.

DECLARATION OF POLICY

SEC. 2. It is hereby declared to be the policy of Congress—

(1) To establish and maintain such balance between the production and consumption of agricultural commodities, and such marketing conditions therefor, as will reestablish prices to farmers at a level that will give agricultural commodities a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy, equivalent to the purchasing power of agricultural commodities in the base period. The base period in the case of all agricultural commodities except tobacco shall be the prewar period, August 1909–July 1914. In the case of tobacco, the base period shall be the postwar period, August 1919–July 1929.

¹ Original Act was Title I of Public, No. 10, 73d Congress (H. R. 3835), 48 Stat. 31 (1933); 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq. By sec. 8 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act, Title I may be referred to as the "Agricultural Adjustment Act." (For text of sec. 8, see p. 328.)

(2) To approach such equality of purchasing power by gradual correction of the present inequalities therein at as rapid a rate as is deemed feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets.

(3) To protect the consumers' interest by readjusting farm production at such level as will not increase the percentage of the consumers' retail expenditures for agricultural commodities, or products derived therefrom, which is returned to the farmer, above the percentage which was returned to the farmer in the prewar period, August 1909-July 1914.

PART 1—COTTON OPTION CONTRACTS

SEC. 3. The Federal Farm Board and all departments and other agencies of the Government, not including the Federal intermediate credit banks, are hereby directed—

(a) To sell to the Secretary of Agriculture at such price as may be agreed upon, not in excess of the market price, all cotton now owned by them.

(b) To take such action and to make such settlements as are necessary in order to acquire full legal title to all cotton on which money has been loaned or advanced by any department or agency of the United States, including futures contracts for cotton or which is held as collateral for loans or advances and to make final settlement of such loans and advances as follows:

(1) In making such settlements with regard to cotton, including operations to which such cotton is related, such cotton shall be taken over by all such departments or agencies other than the Secretary of Agriculture at a price or sum equal to the amounts directly or indirectly loaned or advanced thereon and outstanding, including loans by the Government department or agency and any loans senior thereto, plus any sums required to adjust advances to growers to 90 per centum of the value of their cotton at the date of its delivery in the first instance as collateral to the department or agency involved, such sums to be computed by subtracting the total amount already advanced to growers on account of pools of which such cotton was a part, from 90 per centum of the value of the cotton to be taken over as of the time of such delivery as collateral, plus unpaid accrued carrying charges and operating costs on such cotton, less, however, any existing assets of the borrower derived from net income, earnings, or profits arising from such cotton, and from operations to which such cotton is related; all as determined by the department or agency making the settlement.

(2) The Secretary of Agriculture shall make settlements with respect to cotton held as collateral for loans or advances made by him on such terms as in his judgment may be deemed advisable, and to carry out the provisions of this section, is authorized to indemnify or furnish bonds to warehousemen for lost warehouse receipts and to pay the premiums on such bonds.

When full legal title to the cotton referred to in (b) has been acquired, it shall be sold to the Secretary of Agriculture for the purposes of this section, in the same manner as provided in (a).

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to purchase the cotton specified in paragraphs (a) and (b).

SEC. 4. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture shall have authority to borrow money upon all cotton in his possession or control and may, at his discretion, deposit as collateral for such loans the warehouse receipts for such cotton.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to advance, in his discretion, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $100,000,000 to be available, until March 1, 1936, to the Secretary of Agriculture, for paying off any debt or debts which may have been or may be incurred by the Secretary of Agriculture and discharging any lien or liens which may have arisen or may arise pursuant to part 1 of this title, for protecting title to any cotton which may have been or may be acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture under authority of part 1 of this title, and for paying any expenses (including, but not limited to, warehouse charges, insurance, salaries, interest, costs, and commissions) incident to carrying, handling, insuring, and marketing of said cotton and for the purposes described in subsection (e) of this section.

(c) The funds authorized by subsection (b) of this section shall be made available to the Secretary of Agriculture from time to time upon his request and with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Each such request shall be accompanied by a statement showing by weight and average grade and staple the quantity of cotton held by the Secretary of Agriculture and the approximate aggregate market value thereof.

(d) It is the purpose of subsections (b) and (c) to provide an alternative method to that provided by subsection (a), for enabling the Secretary of Agriculture to finance the acquisition, carrying, handling, insuring, and marketing of cotton acquired by him under authority of section 3 of this Act. The Secretary of Agriculture may at his discretion make use of either or both of the methods provided in this section for obtaining funds for the purposes hereinabove enumerated.

(e) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to use in his discretion any funds obtained by him pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) of this section or of section 5 for making advances to any agency which may have been or may be established by the Secretary of Agriculture for the handling, carrying, insuring, or marketing of any cotton acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture, to enable any such agency to perform, exercise, and discharge any of the duties, privileges, and functions which such agency may be authorized to perform, exercise, or discharge.

(f) The proceeds derived from the sale of cotton shall be held for the Secretary of Agriculture by the Treasurer of the United States in a special deposit account and shall be used by the Secretary of Agriculture to discharge the obligations incurred under authority of part 1 of this title. Whenever any cotton shall be marketed the net proceeds (after discharge of other obligations incurred with respect thereto) derived from the sale thereof shall be used, to the extent required, to reimburse the Treasury for such portion of the funds hereby provided for as shall have been used, which shall be covered into the Treasury as a miscellaneous receipt. If when all of the cotton acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture shall have been marketed and all of the obligations incurred with respect to such cotton shall have been discharged, and the Treasury reimbursed for any and all sums which may have been advanced pursuant to subsection (b), there shall remain any balance in the hands of the Secretary of Agriculture, such balance shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

As amended by Title II of the Emergency Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1935, Public, No. 412, 73d Congress, approved June 19, 1934.

SEC. 5. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is hereby authorized and directed to advance money and to make loans to the Secretary of Agriculture for the purpose of providing funds with which to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to perform the duties and functions which he is directed or authorized to perform under the provisions of part 1 of this title provided such advance of money or such loans shall not be for amounts in excess of the market value of the cotton, or the interest of the Secretary of Agriculture in the cotton, against which the advance or loan is to be made at the time such advance or loan may be applied for by the Secretary of Agriculture, plus costs, expenses, and commissions incurred incidental to handling, carrying, and marketing of such cotton. The Secretary of Agriculture shall not be required to pledge or deposit warehouse receipts or other evidences of title to cotton as security for any advance of money or loans made pursuant hereto, but it shall be sufficient if the Secretary shall give to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation a written statement showing the quantity of cotton by weight and the average grade and staple of the cotton against which the advance or loan is to be made. The amount of notes, bonds, debentures, and other obligations which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to issue and to have outstanding at any one time under existing law is hereby increased by an amount sufficient to carry out the provisions of this section.

As amended by Title II of the Emergency Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1935, Public, No. 412, 73d Congress, approved June 19, 1934.

A comparative print of the section prior to and after its amendment is as follows:
SEC. 5. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is hereby authorized and directed to advance money and to make loans to the Secretary of Agriculture [to acquire such cotton and to pay the classing, carrying, and merchandising costs thereon, in such amounts and upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the Secretary and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, with such warehouse receipts as collateral security:] for the purpose of providing funds with which to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to perform the duties and functions which he is directed or authorized to perform under the provisions of part 1 of this title, provided such advance of money or such loans shall not be for amounts in excess of the market value of the cotton, or the interest of the Secretary of Agriculture in the cotton, against which the advance or loan is to be made at the time such advance or loan may be applied for by the Secretary of Agriculture, plus costs, expenses, and commissions incurred incidental to handling, carrying, and marketing of such cotton. [Provided, however, That in any instance where it is impossible or impracticable for the Secretary to deliver such warehouse receipts as collateral security for the advances and loans herein provided to be made, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may accept in lieu of all or any part thereof (such other security as it may consider acceptable for the purposes aforesaid, including an assignment or assignments of the equity and interest of the Secretary in warehouse receipts pledged to secure other indebtedness.)] The Secretary of Agriculture shall not be required to pledge or deposit warehouse receipts or other evidences of title to cotton as security for any advance of money or loans made pursuant hereto, but it shall be sufficient if the Secretary shall give to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation a written statement showing the quantity of cotton by weight and the average grade and staple of the cotton against which the advance or loan is to be made. The amount of notes, bonds, debentures, and other [such] obligations which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to issue and to have outstanding at any one time under existing law is hereby increased by an amount sufficient to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 6. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to enter into option contracts with the producers of cotton to sell to any such producer an amount of cotton to be agreed upon not in excess of the amount of reduction in production of cotton by such producer below the amount produced by him in the preceding crop year, in all cases where such producer agrees in writing to reduce the amount of cotton produced by him in 1933, below his production in the previous year, by not less than 30 per centum, without increase in commercial fertilization per acre.

(b) To any such producer so agreeing to reduce production the Secretary of Agriculture shall deliver a nontransferable-option contract agreeing to sell to said producer an amount, equivalent to the amount of his agreed reduction, of the cotton in the possession and control of the Secretary.

(c) The producer is to have the option to buy said cotton at the average price paid by the Secretary for the cotton procured under section 3, and is to have the right at any time up to January 1, 1934, to exercise his option, upon proof that he has complied with his contract and with all the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture with respect thereto, by taking said cotton upon payment by him of his option price and all actual carrying charges on such cotton; or the Secretary may sell such cotton for the account of such producer, paying him the excess of the market price at the date of sale over the average price above referred to after deducting all actual and necessary carrying charges: Provided, That in no event shall the producer be held responsible or liable for financial loss incurred in the holding of such cotton or on account of the carrying charges therein: Provided further, That such agreement to curtail cotton production shall contain a further provision that such cotton producer shall not use the land taken out of cotton production for the production for sale, directly or indirectly, of any other nationally produced agricultural commodity or product.

(d) If any cotton held by the Secretary of Agriculture is not disposed of under subsection (c), the Secretary is authorized to enter into similar option contracts with respect to such cotton, conditioned upon a like reduction of production in 1934, and permitting the producer in each case to exercise his option at any time up to January 1, 1935.

SEC. 7. The Secretary shall sell the cotton held by him at his discretion, but subject to the foregoing provisions: Provided, That he shall dispose of all cotton held by him by March 1, 1936: Provided further, That notwithstanding the provisions of section 6, the Secretary shall have authority to enter into option contracts with producers of cotton to sell to the producers such cotton held by him, in such amounts and at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary may deem advisable, in combination with rental or benefit payments provided for in part 2 of this title.

Notwithstanding any provisions of existing law, the Secretary of Agriculture may in the administration of the Agricultural Adjustment Act make public such information as he deems necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of such Act.

As amended by sec. 221 of the National Industrial Recovery Act, Public, No. 67, 73d Congress, 48 Stat. 210; 16 U. S. C. § 607.

The amendment struck out the entire section and substituted the above in lieu thereof. A comparative print of sec. 7 prior to and after its amendment is as follows:

"Sec. 7. The Secretary shall sell the cotton held by him at his discretion, but subject to the foregoing provisions: Provided, That he shall dispose of all cotton held by him by March 1, 1936: Provided further, That notwithstanding the provisions of section 6, the Secretary shall have authority to enter into [additional] option contracts [for so much of such cotton as is not necessary to comply with the provisions of section 6], with producers of cotton to sell to the producers such cotton held by him, in such amounts and at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary may deem advisable, in combination with rental or benefit payments [as] provided for in part 2 of this title."

Notwithstanding any provisions of existing law, the Secretary of Agriculture may in the administration of the Agricultural Adjustment Act make public such information as he deems necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of such Act.

PART 2—COMMODITY BENEFITS

GENERAL POWERS

SEC. 8.² In order to effectuate the declared policy, the Secretary of Agriculture shall have power—

(1) To provide for reduction in the acreage or reduction in the production for market, or both, of any basic agricultural commodity, through agreements with producers or by other voluntary methods, and to provide for rental or benefit payments in connection therewith or upon that part of the production of any basic agricultural commodity required for domestic consumption, in such amounts as the Secretary deems fair and reasonable, to be paid out of any moneys available for such payments; and, in the case of sugar beets or sugarcane, in the event that it shall be established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Agriculture that returns to growers or producers, under the contracts for the 1933-1934 crop of sugar beets or sugarcane, entered into by and between the processors and producers and/or growers thereof, were reduced by reason of the payment of the processing tax, and/or the corresponding floor stocks tax, or sugar beets or sugarcane, in addition to the foregoing rental or benefit payments, to make such payments, representing in whole or in part such tax, as the Secretary deems fair and reasonable, to producers who agree, or have agreed, to participate in the program for reduction in the acreage or reduction in the production for market, or both, of sugar beets or sugarcane. Under regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture requiring adequate facilities for the storage of any non-perishable agricultural commodity on the farm, inspection and measurement of any such commodity so stored, and the locking and sealing thereof, and such other regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the protection of such commodity and for the marketing thereof, a reasonable percentage of any benefit payment may be advanced on any such commodity so stored. In any such case, such deduction may be made from the amount of the benefit payment as the Secretary of Agriculture determines will reasonably compensate for the cost of inspection and sealing, but no deduction may be made for interest.

² Sec. 3741 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and secs. 114 and 115 of the Criminal Code of the United States are made inapplicable to contracts made by Congressmen under the Agricultural Adjustment Act by Public, No. 86, 73d Congress, as amended by National Housing Act, Public No. 479, 73d Congress. See p. 329.

As amended by sec. 14 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(2) After due notice and opportunity for hearing, to enter into marketing agreements with processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof, in the current of or in competition with, or so as to burden, obstruct, or in any way affect, interstate or foreign commerce. The making of any such agreement shall not be held to be in violation of any of the antitrust laws of the United States, and any such agreement shall be deemed to be lawful: Provided, That no such agreement shall remain in force after the termination of this Act. For the purpose of carrying out any such agreement the parties thereto shall be eligible for loans from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under section 5 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act. Such loans shall not be in excess of such amounts as may be authorized by the agreements.

As amended by sec. 7 of the Jones-Connally Cattle Act, Public, No. 142, 73d Congress, approved April 7, 1934.

A comparative print of the first sentence of subsection (2) prior to and after its amendment is as follows: After due notice and opportunity for hearing, to [To] enter into marketing agreements with processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling [, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce] of any agricultural commodity or product thereof, [after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties] in the current of or in competition with, or so as to burden, obstruct, or in any way affect, interstate or foreign commerce.

(3) To issue licenses permitting processors, associations of producers, and others to engage in the handling, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, of any agricultural commodity or product thereof, or any competing commodity or product thereof. Such licenses shall be subject to such terms and conditions, not in conflict with existing Acts of Congress or regulations pursuant thereto, as may be necessary to eliminate unfair practices or charges that prevent or tend to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy and the restoration of normal economic conditions in the marketing of such commodities or products and the financing thereof. The Secretary of Agriculture may suspend or revoke any such license, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, for violations of the terms or conditions thereof. Any order of the Secretary suspending or revoking any such license shall be final if in accordance with law. Any such person engaged in such handling without a license as required by the Secretary under this section shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 for each day during which the violation continues.

(4) To require any licensee under this section to furnish such reports as to quantities of agricultural commodities or products thereof bought and sold and the prices thereof, and as to trade practices and charges, and to keep such systems of accounts, as may be necessary for the purpose of part 2 of this title.

(5) No person engaged in the storage in a public warehouse of any basic agricultural commodity in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, shall deliver any such commodity upon which a warehouse receipt has been issued and is outstanding, without prior surrender and cancellation of such warehouse receipt.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this subsection shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. The Secretary of Agriculture may revoke any license issued under subsection (3) of this section, if he finds, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, that the licensee has violated the provisions of this subsection.

Sec. 8a. (1) Having due regard to the welfare of domestic producers and to the protection of domestic consumers and to a just relation between the prices received by domestic producers and the prices paid by domestic consumers, the Secretary of Agriculture may, in order to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, from time to time, by orders or regulations—

(A) (i) Forbid processors, handlers of sugar, and others from importing sugar into continental United States for consumption, or which shall be consumed, therein, and/or from transporting to, receiving in, processing or marketing in, continental United States, and/or from processing in any area to which the provisions of this title with respect to sugar beets and sugarcane may be made applicable, for consumption in continental United States, sugar from the Virgin Islands, the Philippine Islands, the Canal Zone, American Samoa, the island of Guam, and from foreign countries, including Cuba, respectively, in excess of quotas fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture, for any calendar year, based on average quantities therefrom brought into or imported into continental United States for consumption, or which was actually consumed, therein, during such three years, respectively, in the years 1925–1933, inclusive, as the Secretary of Agriculture may, from time to time, determine to be the most representative respective three years, adjusted, together with the quotas established pursuant to paragraph (ii), (in such manner as the Secretary shall determine) to the remainder of the total estimated consumption requirements of sugar for continental United States, determined pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, after deducting therefrom the quotas for continental United States, provided for by paragraph (B) of this subsection: Provided, however, That in such quotas there may be included, in the case of the Virgin Islands, the Philippine Islands, the Canal Zone, American Samoa, and the island of Guam, direct-consumption sugar up to an amount not exceeding the respective quantities of direct-consumption sugar therefrom brought into or imported into continental United States for consumption, or which was actually consumed, therein during the year 1931, 1932, or 1933, whichever is greater, and in the case of Cuba, direct-consumption sugar up to an amount not exceeding 2½ per centum of the quota established for Cuba: And provided further, That any imported sugar, with respect to which a drawback of duty is allowed, under the provisions of section 313 of the Tariff Act of 1930, shall not be charged against the quota established by the Secretary of Agriculture hereunder for the country from which such sugar was imported, and the Secretary of Agriculture may, by orders or regulations, readjust any quota subject to the provisions of this section, except quotas fixed by paragraph (B) of this subsection; and may allot (or appoint an officer, including the Governor General of the Philippine Islands for that area, in his name to allot) any quota, and readjust any such allotment, from time to time, among the processors, handlers of sugar and others; and/or

(ii) Forbid processors, handlers of sugar, and others from transporting to, receiving in, processing or marketing in, continental United States, and/or from processing in the Territory of Hawaii or Puerto Rico for consumption in continental United States, sugar from the Territory of Hawaii or Puerto Rico, in excess of quotas fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture, for any calendar year, based on average quantities therefrom brought into continental United States for consumption, or which was actually consumed, therein during such three years, respectively, in the years 1925–1933, inclusive, as the Secretary of Agriculture may, from time to time, determine to be the most representative respective three years, adjusted, together with the quotas established pursuant to paragraph (i), (in such manner as the Secretary shall determine) to the remainder of the total estimated consumption requirements of sugar for continental United States, determined pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, after deducting therefrom the quotas for continental United States, provided for by paragraph (B) of this subsection: Provided, however, That in such quotas there may be included direct-consumption sugar up to an amount not exceeding the respective quantities of direct-consumption sugar therefrom brought into continental United States for consumption, or which was actually consumed, therein during the year 1931, 1932, or 1933, whichever is greater, and the Secretary of Agriculture may, by orders or regulations, allot such quotas and readjust any such allotment, from time to time, among the processors handlers of sugar, and others; and/or

(B) Forbid processors, handlers of sugar, and others from marketing in, or in the current of, or in competition with, or so as to burden, obstruct, or in any way affect, interstate or foreign commerce, sugar manufactured from sugar beets and/or sugarcane, produced in the continental United States beet-sugar-producing area, the States of Louisiana and Florida, and any other State or States in excess of the following quotas, for any calendar year, except as provided for in subsection (2) of this section: United States beet-sugar area, one million five hundred and fifty thousand short tons raw value; the States of Louisiana and Florida, except as may be provided under paragraph (C) of this subsection, two hundred and sixty thousand short tons raw value; and the Secretary of Agriculture may, by orders or regulations, allot such quotas and readjust any such allotment, from time to time, among the processors, handlers of sugar, and others; and/or

(C) For any calendar year, determine the quota, but not less than the quota provided in paragraph (B), for any area producing less than two hundred and fifty thousand long tons of sugar raw value during the next preceding calendar year; and/or

(D) Establish a separate quota or quotas for edible molasses and/or sirup of cane juice produced in continental United States, in addition to, and/or for edible molasses, sirups, and sugar mixtures produced in any other area or areas to which this title relates as part of or in addition to, the quotas established pursuant to paragraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of this subsection, for use as such and not for the extraction of sugar.

(2) (A) The consumption requirements of sugar for continental United States, for the calendar year 1934, and for each succeeding calendar year, shall be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture. The consumption requirements so determined shall, at such intervals as the Secretary finds necessary to effectuate the declared policy and the purposes of this Act, be adjusted by him to meet the actual requirements of the consumer as determined by the Secretary.

(B) In the event that available statistics of the Department of Agriculture during the course of any calendar year indicate that the consumption requirements of sugar for continental United States for such calendar year will exceed the amount of the consumption requirements determined for that year, the Secretary of Agriculture may prorate such estimated excess amount on the basis of the respective quotas determined by and pursuant to subsection (1) of this section: Provided, however, That for each calendar year there shall be allotted to continental United States not less than 30 per centum of any amount of consumption requirements therefor above six million four hundred and fifty-two thousand short tons raw value.

(C) In the event that available statistics of the Department of Agriculture during the course of any calendar year indicate that the consumption requirements of sugar for continental United States for such year will be less than the amount of the consumption requirements determined for that year, the amount of such deficiency may be proportionately deducted from the respective quotas determined by and pursuant to paragraph (A) of subsection (1) of this section.

(D) If, during any calendar year, any producing area is unable to produce and deliver its full quota of sugar, the Secretary of Agriculture may prorate this deficiency among the other areas on the basis of their respective quotas and ability to supply the deficiency.

(E) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of subsection (1) of this section, the Secretary of Agriculture may, in order to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, from time to time, by orders or regulations, deduct from the quotas for production, importing, receiving, and/or marketing, and/or from the allotments thereof, established pursuant to said paragraphs, in any given year, an amount for each year, respectively, representing the surplus stocks of sugar produced in that area, or a portion of the total surplus stocks of sugar produced in that area, in whole or in part, which may have accumulated in the year next preceding, over and above the quotas established for such year.

(3) In order more fully to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, as set forth in its declaration of policy, and to insure the equitable division between producers and/or growers and/or the processors of sugar beets or sugarcane of any of the proceeds which may be derived from the growing, processing and/or marketing of such sugar beets or sugarcane, and the processing and/or marketing of the products and byproducts thereof, all agreements authorized by this Act relating to sugar beets, sugarcane, or the products thereof may contain provisions which will limit or regulate child labor, and will fix minimum wages for workers or growers employed by the producers and/or processors of sugar beets and/or sugarcane who are parties to such agreements; and the Secretary, upon the request of any producer, or grower, or worker, or of any association of producers, or growers, or workers, or of any processor, of sugar beets or sugarcane, is hereby authorized to adjudicate any dispute as to any of the terms under which sugar beets or sugarcane are grown or are to be grown and/or marketed, and the sugar and byproducts thereof are to be marketed. The decision and any determination of the Secretary shall be final.

(4) Any person willfully violating any order or regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture issued under this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $100.

(5) Any person willfully exceeding any quota or allotment fixed for him under this title by the Secretary of Agriculture, and any other person knowingly participating, or aiding, in the exceeding of said quota or allotment, shall forfeit to the United States a sum equal to three times the current market value of such excess, which forfeiture shall be recoverable in a civil suit brought in the name of the United States.

(6) The several district courts of the United States are hereby vested with jurisdiction specifically to enforce, and to prevent and restrain any person from violating, the provisions of this section, or of any order, regulation, agreement, or license heretofore or hereafter made or issued pursuant to this title, in any proceeding now pending or hereafter brought in said court.

(7) Upon the request of the Secretary of Agriculture, it shall be the duty of the several district attorneys of the United States, in their respective districts, under the directions of the Attorney General, to institute proceedings to enforce the remedies and to collect the forfeitures provided for in, or pursuant to, this title.

(8) The remedies provided for in this section shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, any of the remedies or penalties provided for elsewhere in this title or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity.

(9) The term "person" as used in this title includes an individual, partnership, corporation, association, and any other business unit.

SEC. 8a added by sec. 4 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public no. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

PROCESSING TAX

SEC. 9 (a) To obtain revenue for extraordinary expenses incurred by reason of the national economic emergency, there shall be levied processing taxes as hereinafter provided. When the Secretary of Agriculture determines that rental or benefit payments are to be made with respect to any basic agricultural commodity, he shall proclaim such determination, and a processing tax shall be in effect with respect to such commodity from the beginning of the marketing year therefor next following the date of such proclamation; except that, in the case of sugar beets and sugarcane, the Secretary of Agriculture shall, on or before the thirtieth day after the adoption of this amendment, proclaim that rental or benefit payments with respect to said commodities are to be made, and the processing tax shall be in effect on and after the thirtieth day after the date of the adoption of this amendment. In the case of sugar beets and sugarcane, the calendar year shall be considered to be the marketing year and for the year 1934 the marketing year shall begin January 1, 1934. The processing tax shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon the first domestic processing of the commodity, whether of domestic production or imported, and shall be paid by the processor. The rate of tax shall conform to the requirements of subsection (b). Such rate shall be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture as of the date the tax first takes effect, and the rate so determined shall, at such intervals as the Secretary finds necessary to effectuate the declared policy, be adjusted by him to conform to such requirements. The processing tax shall terminate at the end of the marketing year current at the time the Secretary proclaims that rental or benefit payments are to be discontinued with respect to such commodity. The marketing year for each commodity shall be ascertained and prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That upon any article upon which a manufacturers' sales tax is levied under the authority of the Revenue Act of 1932³ and which manufacturers' sales tax is computed on the basis of weight, such manufacturers' sales tax shall be computed on the basis of the weight of said finished article less the weight of the processed cotton contained therein on which a processing tax has been paid.

As amended by sec. 9 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(b) The processing tax shall be at such rate as equals the difference between the current average farm price for the commodity and the fair exchange value of the commodity; except that if the Secretary has reason to believe that the tax at such rate on the processing of the commodity generally or for any particular use or uses will cause such reduction in the quantity of the commodity or products thereof domestically consumed as to result in the accumulation of surplus stocks of the commodity or products thereof or in the depression of the farm price of the commodity, then he shall cause an appropriate investigation to be made and afford due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties.

³ Revenue Act of 1932, 47 Stat. 259; 26 U. S. C. 1481 note.

If thereupon the Secretary finds that any such result will occur, then the processing tax on the processing of the commodity generally, or for any designated use or uses, or as to any designated product or products thereof for any designated use or uses, shall be at such rate as will prevent such accumulation of surplus stocks and depression of the farm price of the commodity. In computing the current average farm price in the case of wheat, premiums paid producers for protein content shall not be taken into account. In the case of sugar beets or sugarcane the rate of tax shall be applied to the direct-consumption sugar, resulting from the first domestic processing, translated into terms of pounds of raw value according to regulations to be issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, and the rate of tax to be so applied shall be the higher of the two following quotients: The difference between the current average farm price and the fair exchange value (1) of a ton of sugar beets and (2) of a ton of sugarcane, divided in the case of each commodity by the average extraction therefrom of sugar in terms of pounds of raw value (which average extraction shall be determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture); except that such rate shall not exceed the amount of the reduction by the President on a pound of sugar raw value of the rate of duty in effect on January 1, 1934, under paragraph 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as adjusted to the treaty of commercial reciprocity concluded between the United States and the Republic of Cuba on December 11, 1902, and/or the provisions of the Act of December 17, 1903, chapter 1.

As amended by sec. 3 of the Jones-Coetigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

Section 3 (a) of that Act amends the first two sentences as shown above in italics; section 3 (b) of that Act inserts the new matter shown in italics in the last sentence above.

(c) For the purposes of part 2 of this title, the fair exchange value of a commodity shall be the price therefor that will give the commodity the same purchasing power, with respect to articles farmers buy, as such commodity had during the base period specified in section 2; and the current average farm price and the fair exchange value shall be ascertained by the Secretary of Agriculture from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture.

(d) As used in part 2 of this title—

(1) In case of wheat, rice, and corn, the term "processing" means the milling or other processing (except cleaning and drying) of wheat, rice, or corn for market, including custom milling for toll as well as commercial milling, but shall not include the grinding or cracking thereof not in the form of flour for feed purposes only.

(2) In case of cotton, the term "processing" means the spinning, manufacturing, or other processing (except ginning) of cotton; and the term "cotton" shall not include cotton linters.

(3) In case of tobacco, the term "processing" means the manufacturing or other processing (except drying or converting into insecticides and fertilizers) of tobacco.

(5) ⁴ In case of peanuts, the term "processing" means the cleaning, polishing, grading, shelling, crushing, or other processing thereof.

This paragraph was added by sec. 3 (a) of the Jones-Connally Cattle Act, Public, No. 142, 73d Congress approved April 7, 1934.

(6) In the case of sugar beets and sugarcane—

(A) The term "first domestic processing" means each domestic processing, including each processing of successive domestic processings, of sugar beets, sugarcane, or raw sugar, which directly results in direct-consumption sugar.

(B) The term "sugar" means sugar in any form whatsoever, derived from sugar beets or sugarcane, whether raw sugar or direct-consumption sugar, including also edible molasses, sirups and any mixture containing sugar (except blackstrap molasses and beet molasses).

(C) The term "blackstrap molasses" means the commercially so-designated "byproduct" of the cane-sugar industry, not used for human consumption or for the extraction of sugar.

(D) The term "beet molasses" means the commercially so-designated "byproduct" of the beet-sugar industry, not used for human consumption or for the extraction of sugar.

(E) The term "raw sugar" means any sugar, as defined above, manufactured or marketed in, or brought into, the United States, in any form whatsoever, for the purpose of being, or which shall be, further refined (or improved in quality, or further prepared for distribution or use).

⁴ Paragraph (4) of Sec. 9 (d) of the original Act was repealed by sec. 2 (a) of the Flannagan Amendment, Public, No. 478, 73d Congress, approved June 26, 1934. It read as follows:

"(4) In case of hogs, the term 'processing' means the slaughter of hogs for market."

(F) The term "direct-consumption sugar" means any sugar, as defined above, manufactured or marketed in, or brought into, the United States in any form whatsoever, for any purpose other than to be further refined (or improved in quality, or further prepared for distribution or use).

(G) The term "raw value" means a standard unit of sugar testing ninety-six sugar degrees by the polariscope. All taxes shall be imposed and all quotas shall be established in terms of "raw value" and for purposes of quota and tax measurements all sugar shall be translated into terms of "raw value" according to regulations to be issued by the Secretary, except that in the case of direct-consumption sugar produced in continental United States from sugar beets the raw value of such sugar shall be one and seven one-hundredths times the weight thereof.

Paragraph 6 added by sec. 2 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(7) ⁵ In the case of any other commodity, the term "processing" means any manufacturing or other processing involving a change in the form of the commodity or its preparation for distribution or use, as defined by regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture; and in prescribing such regulations the Secretary shall give due weight to the customs of the industry.

As amended by sec. 2 (b) of the Flannagan Amendment, Public, No. 476, 73d Congress, approved June 26, 1934.

A comparative print of this paragraph prior to and after its amendment is as follows:

[(6)] (7) In the case of any other commodity, the term "processing" means any manufacturing or other processing involving a change in the form of the commodity or its preparation for [market] distribution or use, as defined by regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture; and in prescribing such regulations the Secretary shall give due weight to the customs of the industry.

(e) When any processing tax, or increase or decrease therein, takes effect in respect of a commodity the Secretary of Agriculture, in order to prevent pyramiding of the processing tax and profiteering in the sale of the products derived from the commodity, shall make public such information as he deems necessary regarding (1) the relationship between the processing tax and the price paid to producers of the commodity, (2) the effect of the processing tax upon prices to consumers of products of the commodity, (3) the relationship, in previous periods, between prices paid to the producers of the commodity and prices to consumers of the products thereof, and (4) the situation in foreign countries relating to prices paid to producers of the commodity and prices to consumers of the products thereof.

(f) For the purposes of part 2 of this title, processing shall be held to include manufacturing.

Subsection (f) added by sec. 6 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 10. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture may appoint such officers and employees, subject to the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923 ⁶ and Acts amendatory thereof,⁷ and such experts as are necessary to execute the functions vested in him by this title; and the Secretary may make such appointments without regard to the civil service laws or regulations: Provided, That no salary in excess of $10,000 per annum shall be paid to any officer, employee, or expert of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, which the Secretary shall establish in the Department of Agriculture for the administration of the functions vested in him by this title: And provided further, That the State Administrator appointed to administer this Act in each State shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Title II of the Act entitled "An Act to maintain the credit of the United States Government",⁸ approved March 20, 1933, to the extent that it provides for the impoundment of appropriations on account of reductions in compensation, shall not operate to require such impoundment under appropriations contained in this Act.

As amended by sec. 86 of the Farm Credit Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 273, 7 U.S.C. § 610.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to establish, for the more effective administration of the functions vested in him by this title, State and local committees, or associations of producers, and to permit cooperative associations of producers, when in his judgment they are qualified to do so, to act as agents of their members and patrons in connection with the distribution of rental or benefit payments.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, with the approval of the President, to make such regulations with the force and effect of law as may be necessary to carry out the powers vested in him by this title, including regulations establishing conversion factors for any commodity and article processed therefrom to determine the amount of tax imposed or refunds to be made with respect thereto. Any violation of any regulation shall be subject to such penalty, not in excess of $100, as may be provided therein.

(d) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the powers vested in him by this title.

(e) The action of any officer, employee, or agent in determining the amount of and in making any rental or benefit payment shall not be subject to review by any officer of the Government other than the Secretary of Agriculture or Secretary of the Treasury.

(f) The provisions of this title shall be applicable to the United States and its possessions, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam; except that, in the case of sugar beets and sugarcane, the President, if he finds it necessary in order to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, is authorized by proclamation to make the provisions of this title applicable to the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and/or the island of Guam.

As amended by sec. 7 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(g) No person shall, while acting in any official capacity in the administration of this title, speculate, directly or indirectly, in any agricultural commodity or product thereof, to which this title applies, or in contracts relating thereto, or in the stock or membership interests of any association or corporation engaged in handling, processing, or disposing of any such commodity or product. Any person violating this subsection shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both.

(h) For the efficient administration of the provisions of part 2 of this title, the provisions, including penalties, of sections 8, 9, and 10 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, approved September 26, 1914, are made applicable to the jurisdiction, powers, and duties of the Secretary in administering the provisions of this title and to any person subject to the provisions of this title, whether or not a corporation. Hearings authorized or required under this title shall be conducted by the Secretary of Agriculture or such officer or employee of the Department as he may designate for the purpose. The Secretary may report any violation of any agreement entered into under part 2 of this title to the Attorney General of the United States, who shall cause appropriate proceedings to enforce such agreements to be commenced and prosecuted in the proper courts of the United States without delay.

COMMODITIES

SEC. 11. As used in this title, the term "basic agricultural commodity" means wheat, rye, flax, barley, cotton, field corn, grain sorghums, hogs, cattle, rice, tobacco, sugar beets and sugarcane, peanuts, and milk and its products, and any regional or market classification, type, or grade thereof; but the Secretary of Agriculture shall exclude from the operation of the provisions of this title, during any period, any such commodity or classification, type, or grade thereof if he finds, upon investigation at any time and after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, that the conditions of production, marketing, and consumption are such that during such period this title cannot be effectively administered to the end of effectuating the declared policy with respect to such commodity or classification, type, or grade thereof.

As amended by sec. 1 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934, which added the words: "sugar beets and sugarcane"; and by the Jones-Connally Cattle Act, Public No. 142, 73d Congress, approved April 7, 1934. Sec. 1 of that Act added the word "cattle"; sec. 3 (b) the word "peanuts"; sec. 4 the words "rye, flax, and barley"; sec. 5 the words "grain sorghums."

APPROPRIATION ⁹

SEC. 12. (a) There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $100,000,000 to be available to the Secretary of Agriculture for administrative expenses under this title and for rental and benefit payments made with respect to reduction in acreage or reduction in production for market under part 2 of this title. Such sum shall remain available until expended.

⁹ For authorization of allocation of $100,000,000 by sec. 220 of the National Industrial Recovery Act, see p. 329. For appropriation of an additional $150,000,000 made by Public Resolution No. 27, see p. 330.

For availability of proceeds of tax provided for by sec. 16 (c) of Bankhead Cotton Act, see p. 336.

For appropriation of $525,000,000 for emergency relief contained in Title II of Emergency Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1935, see p. 336.

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to finance, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, surplus reductions and production adjustments with respect to the dairy- and beef-cattle industries, and to carry out any of the purposes described in subsections (a) and (b) of this section (12) and to support and balance the markets for the dairy and beef cattle industries, there is authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $200,000,000: Provided, That not more than 60 per centum of such amount shall be used for either of such industries.

As amended by sec. 2 of the Jones-Connally Cattle Act, Public, No. 142, 73d Congress, approved April 7, 1934.

(b) In addition to the foregoing, the proceeds derived from all taxes imposed under this title are hereby appropriated to be available to the Secretary of Agriculture for expansion of markets and removal of surplus agricultural products and the following purposes under part 2 of this title: Administrative expenses, rental and benefit payments, and refunds on taxes. The Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury shall jointly estimate from time to time the amounts, in addition to any money available under subsection (a), currently required for such purposes; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, advance to the Secretary of Agriculture the amounts so estimated. The amount of any such advance shall be deducted from such tax proceeds as shall subsequently become available under this subsection.

(c) The administrative expenses provided for under this section shall include, among others, expenditures for personal services and rent in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, for law books and books of reference, for contract stenographic reporting services, and for printing and paper in addition to allotments under the existing law. The Secretary of Agriculture shall transfer to the Treasury Department, and is authorized to transfer to other agencies, out of funds available for administrative expenses under this title, such sums as are required to pay administrative expenses incurred and refunds made by such department or agencies in the administration of this title.

TERMINATION OF ACT

SEC. 13. This title shall cease to be in effect whenever the President finds and proclaims that the national economic emergency in relation to agriculture has been ended; and pending such time the President shall by proclamation terminate with respect to any basic agricultural commodity such provisions of this title as he finds are not requisite to carrying out the declared policy with respect to such commodity. In the case of sugar beets and sugarcane, the taxes provided by this title shall cease to be in effect, and the powers vested in the President or in the Secretary of Agriculture shall terminate at the end of three years after the adoption of this amendment unless this title ceases to be in effect at an earlier date, as hereinabove provided. The Secretary of Agriculture shall make such investigations and reports thereon to the President as may be necessary to aid him in executing this section.

As amended by sec. 15 of the Jones-Costigan Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

SEC. 14. If any provision of this title is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or commodity is held invalid the validity of the remainder of this title and the applicability thereof to other persons, circumstances, or commodities shall not be affected thereby.

SUPPLEMENTARY REVENUE PROVISIONS

EXEMPTIONS AND COMPENSATING TAXES

SEC. 15. (a) If at any time the Secretary of Agriculture finds, upon investigation and after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, that any class of products of any commodity is of such low value, considering the quantity of the commodity used for their manufacture, that the imposition of the processing tax would prevent in whole or in large part the use of the commodity in the manufacture of such products and thereby substantially reduce consumption and increase the surplus of the commodity, then the Secretary of Agriculture shall so certify to the Secretary of the Treasury, *specifying whether such result will in his judgment most effectively be prevented by a suspension of the imposition of the processing tax or a refund of the tax paid, with respect to such amount of the commodity or any product thereof as is used in the manufacture of such products, and thereafter, as shall be specified in such certification, (1) the imposition of the processing tax shall be suspended with respect to such amount of the commodity as is used in the manufacture of such products, and thereafter, as shall be specified in such certification, (2) the imposition of the processing tax shall be suspended with respect to such amount of the commodity as is used in the manufacture of such products*¹⁰ until such time as the Secretary of Agriculture, after further investigation and due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, revokes his certification to the Secretary of the Treasury, or (3) the Secretary of the Treasury shall refund (in accordance with the provisions of, to such persons and in such manner as shall be specified in, such certification) the amount of any tax paid (prior to the date of any revocation by the Secretary of Agriculture of his certification to the Secretary of the Treasury, upon further investigation and after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties) under this title with respect to such amount of the commodity or any product thereof as is used after the date of such certification in the manufacture of such products.

As amended by sec. II of the Flannagan Amendment, Public No. 476, 73d Congress, approved June 26, 1934.

A comparative print of subsection 15(a) prior to and after its amendment is as follows:

Sec. 15. (a) If at any time the Secretary of Agriculture finds, upon investigation [at any time] and after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, that any class of products of any commodity is of such low value [compared with], considering the quantity of the commodity used for their manufacture, that the imposition of the processing tax would prevent in whole or in large part the use of the commodity in the manufacture of such products and thereby substantially reduce consumption and increase the surplus of the commodity, then the Secretary of Agriculture shall so certify to the Secretary of the Treasury, specifying whether such result will in his judgment most effectively be prevented by a suspension of the imposition of the processing tax or a refund of the tax paid, with respect to such amount of the commodity or any product thereof as is used in the manufacture of such products, and thereafter, as shall be specified in such certification, (1) the imposition of the processing tax shall be suspended with respect to such amount of the commodity as is used in the manufacture of such products, and thereafter, as shall be specified in such certification, (2) the imposition of the processing tax shall be suspended with respect to such amount of the commodity as is used in the manufacture of such products until such time as the Secretary of Agriculture, after further investigation and due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, revokes his certification to the Secretary of the Treasury, or (3) [and] the Secretary of the Treasury shall [abate or] refund (in accordance with the provisions of, to such persons and in such manner as shall be specified in, such certification) the amount of any [processing] tax [assessed or] paid [after the date of such certification] (prior to the date of any revocation by the Secretary of Agriculture of his certification to the Secretary of the Treasury, upon further investigation and after due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties) under this title with respect to such amount of the commodity or any product thereof as is used after the date of such certification in the manufacture of such products.

(b) No tax shall be required to be paid on the processing of any commodity by or for the producer thereof for consumption by his own family, employees, or household; and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, by regulations, to exempt from the payment of the processing tax the processing of commodities by or for the producer thereof for sale by him where, in the judgment of the Secretary, the imposition of a processing tax with respect thereto is unnecessary to effectuate the declared policy.

(c) Any person, including any State or Federal organization or institution, delivering any product to any organization for charitable distribution, or use, including any State or Federal welfare organization, for its own use, whether the product is delivered as merchandise, or as a container for merchandise, or otherwise, shall, if such product or the commodity from which processed is under this title subject to tax, be entitled to a refund of the amount of any tax due and paid under this title with respect to such product so delivered, or to a credit against any tax due and payable under this title of the amount of tax which would be refundable under this section with respect to such product so delivered: Provided, however, That no tax shall be refunded or credited under this section, unless the person claiming the refund or credit establishes, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury (1) that he has not included the tax in the price of the product so delivered or collected the amount of the tax from the said organization, or (2) that he has repaid, or has agreed in writing to repay, the amount of the tax to the said organization. No refund shall be allowed under this section unless claim therefor is filed within six months after delivery of the products to the organization for charitable distribution, or use. The word "State" as used in this section shall include a State and any political subdivision thereof.

As amended by the Dieterich Amendment, Public, No. 367, 73d Congress, approved June 16, 1934.

¹⁰ So in original.

(d) The Secretary of Agriculture shall ascertain from time to time whether the payment of the processing tax upon any basic agricultural commodity is causing or will cause to the processors thereof disadvantages in competition from competing commodities by reason of excessive shifts in consumption between such commodities or products thereof. If the Secretary of Agriculture finds, after investigation and due notice and opportunity for hearing to interested parties, that such disadvantages in competition exist, or will exist, he shall proclaim such finding. The Secretary shall specify in this proclamation the competing commodity and the compensating rate of tax on the processing thereof necessary to prevent such disadvantages in competition. Thereafter there shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon the first domestic processing of such competing commodity a tax, to be paid by the processor, at the rate specified, until such rate is altered pursuant to a further finding under this section, or the tax or rate thereof on the basic agricultural commodity is altered or terminated. In no case shall the tax imposed upon such competing commodity exceed that imposed per equivalent unit, as determined by the Secretary, upon the basic agricultural commodity.

(e) During any period for which a processing tax is in effect with respect to any commodity there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon any article processed or manufactured wholly or partly from such commodity and imported into the United States or any possession thereof to which this title applies, from any foreign country or from any possession of the United States to which this title does not apply, whether imported as merchandise, or as a container of merchandise, or otherwise, a compensating tax equal to the amount of the processing tax in effect with respect to domestic processing of such commodity at the time of importation: Provided, That all taxes collected under this subsection upon articles coming from the possessions of the United States to which this title does not apply shall not be covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States but shall be held as a separate fund and paid into the Treasury of the said possessions, respectively, to be used and expended by the governments thereof for the benefit of agriculture. Such tax shall be paid prior to the release of the article from customs custody or control.

As amended by sec. 11 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

A comparative print of subsection 15 (e) prior to and after its amendment is as follows:

Sec. 15. (e) During any period for which a processing tax is in effect with respect to any commodity there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon any article processed or manufactured wholly or [in chief value] partly from such commodity and imported into the United States or any possession thereof to which this title applies, from any foreign country or from any possession of the United States to which this title does not apply, whether imported as merchandise, or as a container of merchandise, or otherwise, a compensating tax equal to the amount of the processing tax in effect with respect to domestic processing of such commodity at the time of importation: Provided, That all taxes collected under this subsection upon articles coming from the possessions of the United States to which this title does not apply shall not be covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States but shall be held as a separate fund and paid into the Treasury of the said possessions, respectively, to be used and expended by the governments thereof for the benefit of agriculture. Such tax shall be paid prior to the release of the article from customs custody or control.

(f) The President, in his discretion, is authorized by proclamation to decree that all or part of the taxes collected from the processing of sugar beets or sugarcane in Puerto Rico, the Territory of Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and/or the island of Guam (if the provisions of this title are made applicable thereto), and/or upon the processing in continental United States of sugar produced in, or coming from, said areas, shall not be covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States but shall be held as a separate fund, in the name of the respective area to which related, to be used and expended for the benefit of agriculture and/or paid as rental or benefit payments in connection with the reduction in the acreage, or reduction in the production for market, or both, of sugar beets and/or sugarcane, and/or used and expended for expansion of markets and for removal of surplus agricultural products in such areas, respectively, as the Secretary of Agriculture, with the approval of the President, shall direct.

Subsection (f) added by sec. 8 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

FLOOR STOCKS

Sec. 16.¹¹ (a) Upon the sale or other disposition of any article processed wholly or in chief value from any commodity with respect to which a processing tax is to be levied, that on the date the tax first takes effect or wholly terminates with respect to the commodity, is held for sale or other disposition (including articles in transit) by any person, there shall be made a tax adjustment as follows:

(1) Whenever the processing tax first takes effect, there shall be levied, assessed, and collected a tax to be paid by such person equivalent to the amount of the processing tax which would be payable with respect to the commodity from which processed if the processing had occurred on such date. Such tax upon articles imported prior to, but in customs custody or control on, the effective date, shall be paid prior to release therefrom. In the case of sugar, the tax on floor stocks, except the retail stocks of persons engaged in retail trade, shall be paid for the month in which the stocks are sold, or used in the manufacture of other articles, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

As amended by sec. 10 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(2) Whenever the processing tax is wholly terminated, there shall be refunded to such person a sum (or if it has not been paid, the tax shall be abated) in an amount equivalent to the processing tax with respect to the commodity from which processed.

(b) The tax imposed by subsection (a) shall not apply to the retail stocks of persons engaged in retail trade, held at the date the processing tax first takes effect; but such retail stocks shall not be deemed to include stocks held in a warehouse on such date, or such portion of other stocks held on such date as are not sold or otherwise disposed of within thirty days thereafter. The tax refund or abatement provided in subsection (a) shall not apply to the retail stocks of persons engaged in retail trade, held on the date the processing tax is wholly terminated.

(c) (1) Any sugar, imported prior to the effective date of a processing tax on sugar beets and sugarcane, with respect to which it is established (under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury) that there was paid at the time of importation a duty at the rate in effect on January 1, 1934, and (2) any sugar held on April 25, 1934, by, or to be delivered under a bona fide contract of sale entered into prior to April 25, 1934, to, any manufacturer or converter, for use in the production of any article (except sugar) and not for ultimate consumption as sugar, and (3) any article (except sugar) processed wholly or in chief value from sugar beets, sugarcane, or any product thereof, shall be exempt from taxation under subsection (a) of this section, but sugar held in customs custody or control on April 25, 1934, shall not be exempt from taxation under subsection (a) of this section, unless the rate of duty paid upon the withdrawal thereof was the rate of duty in effect on January 1, 1934. The provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of sugar beets or sugarcane or the products thereof.

Sec. 16 (c) was added by sec. 17 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(d) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to purchase, out of such proceeds of taxes as are available therefor, during the period this Act is in effect with respect to sugar beets and sugarcane, not in excess of three hundred thousand tons of sugar raw value from the surplus stocks of direct-consumption sugar produced in the United States beet-sugar area, at a price not in excess of the market price for direct-consumption sugar on the date of purchase, and to dispose of such sugar by sale or otherwise, including distribution to any organization for the relief of the unemployed, under such conditions and at such times as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of section 8a of this Act. The sugar so purchased shall not be included in the quota for the United States beet-sugar area. All proceeds received by the Secretary of Agriculture, in the exercise of the powers granted hereby, are appropriated to be available to the Secretary of Agriculture for the purposes described in subsections (a) and (b) of section 12 of this Act.

As amended by sec. 17 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

(C) ¹³ Upon the sale or other disposition of any article processed wholly or in chief value from any commodity with respect to which the existing rate of the processing tax is to be increased, or decreased, that on the date such increase, or decrease, first takes effect with respect to the commodity, is held for sale or other disposition (including articles in transit) by any person, and upon the production of any article from a commodity in process on the date on which the rate of the processing tax is to be increased or decreased, there shall be made a tax adjustment as follows:

¹³ So in original. Subsection (C) should have been lettered "(e)".

(1) Whenever the rate of the processing tax on the processing of the commodity generally or for any designated use or uses, or as to any designated product or products thereof for any designated use or uses, or as to any class of products, is decreased, there shall be credited or refunded to such person an amount equivalent to the difference between the rate of the processing tax payable or paid at the time immediately preceding the decrease in rate and the rate of the processing tax which would have been payable with respect to the commodity from which processed, if the processing had occurred on such date: Provided, however, That no such credit or refund shall be made unless the rate of the processing tax immediately preceding said decrease is equal to, or less than, the rate of the processing tax in effect on the date on which any floor stocks tax was paid prior to the adoption of this amendment.

(2) Whenever the rate of the processing tax on the processing of the commodity generally, or for any designated use or uses, or as to any designated product or products thereof for any designated use or uses, or as to any class of products, is increased, there shall be levied, assessed and collected a tax to be paid by such person equivalent to the difference between the rate of the processing tax payable or paid at the time immediately preceding the increase in rate and the rate of the processing tax which would be payable with respect to the commodity from which processed, if the processing had occurred on such date.

(3) Whenever the processing tax is suspended or is to be refunded pursuant to a certification of the Secretary of Agriculture to the Secretary of the Treasury, under section 15 (a) of this Act, the provisions of subdivision (1) of subsection (c) of this section shall become applicable.

(4) Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture revokes any certification to the Secretary of the Treasury under section 15 (a) of this Act, the provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection (c) shall become applicable.

(5) The provisions of this amendment shall be effective on and after June 1, 1934,

Subsection 16 (C) was added by sec. 1 of the Flannagan Amendment, Public, No. 476, 73d Congress, approved June 26, 1934.

EXPORTATIONS

SEC. 17. (a) Upon the exportation to any foreign country (and/or to the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam) of any product with respect to which a tax has been paid under this title, or of any product processed wholly or partly from a commodity with respect to which product or commodity a tax has been paid under this title, the tax due and paid shall be refunded. The refund shall be paid to the exporter or to the consignor named in the bill of lading under which the product is exported, as determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. In the case of sugar beets and sugar-cane, this subsection shall be applicable to exports of products thereof to the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and/or the island of Guam only if this title with respect to sugar beets and sugarcane is not made applicable thereto. The term "product" includes any product exported as merchandise, or as a container for merchandise, or otherwise.

As amended by sec. 12 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934. This amendment is effective as of the date of the enactment of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. A comparative print of subsection 17 (a) prior to and after its amendment is as follows:

SEC. 17. (a) Upon the exportation to any foreign country (including] and/or to the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam) of any product with respect to which a tax has been paid under this title, or of any product processed wholly or [in chief value] partly from a commodity with respect to which product or commodity a tax has been paid under this title, [the exporter thereof shall be entitled at the time of exportation to a refund of the amount of such tax] the tax due and paid shall be refunded. The refund shall be paid to the exporter or to the consignor named in the bill of lading under which the product is exported, as determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. In the case of sugar beets and sugarcane, this subsection shall be applicable to exports of products thereof to the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and/or the island of Guam only if this title with respect to sugar beets and sugarcane is not made applicable thereto. The term "product" includes any product exported as merchandise, or as a container for merchandise, or otherwise.

(b) Upon the giving of bond satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury for the faithful observance of the provisions of this title requiring the payment of taxes, any person shall be entitled, without payment of the tax, to process for such exportation any commodity with respect to which a tax is imposed by this title, or to hold for such exportation any article processed wholly or partly therefrom.

As amended by sec. 13 of the Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public, No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934. The amendment strikes out "in chief value" and inserts in lieu thereof "partly."

EXISTING CONTRACTS

SEC. 18. (a) If (1) any processor, jobber, or wholesaler has, prior to the date a tax with respect to any commodity is first imposed under this title, made a bona vide contract of sale for delivery on or after such date, of any article processed wholly or in chief value from such commodity, and if (2) such contract does not permit the addition to the amount to be paid thereunder of the whole of such tax, then (unless the contract prohibits such addition) the vendee shall pay so much of the tax as is not permitted to be added to the contract price.

(b) Taxes payable by the vendee shall be paid to the vendor at the time the sale is consummated and shall be collected and paid to the United States by the vendor in the same manner as other taxes under this title. In case of failure or refusal by the vendee to pay such taxes to the vendor, the vendor shall report the facts to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue who shall cause collections of such taxes to be made from the vendee.

COLLECTION OF TAXES

SEC. 19. (a) The taxes provided in this title shall be collected by the Bureau of Internal Revenue under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Such taxes shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States.

(b) All provisions of law, including penalties, applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1926,¹² and the provisions of section 626 of the Revenue Act of 1932, shall, in so far as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, be applicable in respect of taxes imposed by this title: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to permit postponement, for a period not exceeding one hundred and eighty days, of the payment of taxes covered by any return under this title.

As amended by sec. 3 of Flannagan Amendment, Public No. 478, 73d Congress, approved June 26, 1934. The amendment substituted "one hundred and eighty" for "ninety."

(c) In order that the payment of taxes under this title may not impose any immediate undue financial burden upon processors or distributors, any processor or distributor subject to such taxes shall be eligible for loans from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under section 5 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act.

SEC. 20. (a) Whoever in connection with the purchase of, or offer to purchase, any commodity, subject to any tax under this title, or which is to be subjected to any tax under this title, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any amount deducted from the market price or the agreed price of the commodity consists of a tax imposed under this title, or (2) ascribing a particular part of the deduction from the market price or the agreed price of the commodity, to a tax imposed under this title, knowing that such statement is false or that the tax is not so great as the amount deducted from the market price or the agreed price of the commodity, ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or both.

(b) Whoever in connection with the processing of any commodity subject to any tax under this title, whether commercially, for toll, upon an exchange, or otherwise, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any part of the charge for said processing, whether commercially, for toll, upon an exchange, or otherwise, consists of a tax imposed under this title, or (2) ascribing a particular part of the charge for processing, whether commercially, for toll, upon an exchange, or otherwise, to a tax imposed under this title, knowing that such statement is false, or that the tax is not so great as the amount charged for said processing ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or both.

(c) Whoever in connection with any settlement, under a contract to buy any commodity, and/or to sell such commodity, or any product or byproduct thereof, subject to any tax under this title, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any amount deducted from the gross sales price, in arriving at the basis of settlement under the contract, consists of a tax under this title, or (2) ascribing a particular amount deducted from the gross sales price, in arriving at the basis of settlement under the contract, to a tax imposed under this title, knowing that such statement is false, or that the tax is not so great as the amount so deducted and/or ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or both.

Sec. 20 added by sec. 16 of Jones-Costigan Sugar Act, Public No. 213, 73d Congress, approved May 9, 1934.

¹² 44 Stat. 116. Certain penalties with respect to the taxes imposed by sec. 600 of the Revenue Act of 1926 are provided by sec. 1114 of that Act. Secs. 3176, as amended, and 3184 of the Revised Statutes, relating to returns and payment of taxes, are also applicable.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 27—73D CONGRESS]

[H.J. Res. 345]

(Extract)

JOINT RESOLUTION

To provide funds to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out the purposes of the Acts approved April 21, 1934, and April 7, 1934, relating, respectively, to cotton and to cattle and dairy products, and for other purposes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out the purposes of the Act entitled "An Act to place the cotton industry on a sound commercial basis, to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting cotton into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, to provide funds for paying additional benefits under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes" (Public, Numbered 169, Seventy-third Congress), approved April 21, 1934, there is hereby appropriated and made available, pursuant to the authorizations contained in the said Act, the funds available for carrying into effect the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, which shall be available for administrative and other expenses, and in addition thereto, the proceeds derived from the tax levied under said Act of April 21, 1934, are hereby appropriated and made available for the purposes for which appropriations are authorized to be made under the provisions of Section 16 (c) of said Act: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall transfer to the Treasury Department and is authorized to transfer to other agencies out of funds hereby made available for carrying out said Act of April 21, 1934, such sums as are required to carry out the provisions of said Act, including administrative expenses and refunds of taxes.

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out the purposes of the Act entitled "An Act to amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act so as to include cattle and other products as basic agricultural commodities, and for other purposes" (Public, Numbered 142, Seventy-third Congress), approved April 7, 1934, there are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, pursuant to the authorizations contained in sections 2 and 6 of said Act of April 7, 1934, $100,000,000 for the purposes of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and $50,000,000 for the purposes specified in section 6 of said Act of April 7, 1934, including the employment of persons and means in the District of Columbia and elsewhere and other necessary expenses; in all, $150,000,000, to remain available until December 31, 1935.

(Extract)

EMERGENCY RELIEF

To meet the emergency and necessity for relief in stricken agricultural areas, to remain available until June 30, 1935, $525,000,000, to be allocated by the President to supplement the appropriations heretofore made for emergency purposes and in addition thereto for (1) making loans to farmers for, and/or (2) the purchase, sale, gift, or other disposition of, seed, feed, freight, summer fallowing and similar purposes; expenditures hereunder and the manner in which they shall be incurred, allowed, and paid, shall be determined by the President, and may include expenditures for personal services and rent in the District of Columbia and elsewhere and for printing and binding and may be made without regard to the provisions of section 3709 of the Revised Statutes.

If, during the present drought emergency, a carrier subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall, at the request of any agent of the United States, authorized so to do, establish special rates for the benefit of drought sufferers such a carrier shall not be deemed to have violated the Interstate Commerce Act with reference to undue preference or unjust discrimination by reason of the fact that it applies such special rates only to those designated as drought sufferers by the authorized agents of the United States or of any State.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is hereby authorized to purchase marketable securities, satisfactory to said Corporation, acquired or to be acquired by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, and any sums paid for such securities shall be available to said Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works for the making of additional loans (but not grants) under the provisions of title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act: Provided, That the amount that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may have invested at any one time in such securities shall not exceed $250,000,000. The amount of notes, debentures, and bonds or other such obligations which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to have outstanding at any one time pursuant to section 9 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, is hereby increased by the sums necessary for these purchases, not to exceed $250,000,000.

BANKHEAD COTTON ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

48 Stat. 598; 7 U.S.C. 701 et. seq.

[PUBLIC—No. 169—73D CONGRESS]

[H.R. 8402]

AN ACT

To place the cotton industry on a sound commercial basis, to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting cotton into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, to provide funds for paying additional benefits under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

DECLARATION OF POLICY

That in order to relieve the present acute economic emergency in that part of the agricultural industry devoted to cotton production and marketing by diminishing the disparity between prices paid to cotton producers and persons engaged in cotton marketing and prices of other commodities and by restoring purchasing power to such producers and persons so that the restoration of the normal exchange in interstate and foreign commerce of all commodities may be fostered, and to raise revenue to enable the payment of additional benefits to cotton producers under the Agricultural Adjustment Act—

It is hereby declared to be the policy of Congress to promote the orderly marketing of cotton in interstate and foreign commerce; to enable producers of such commodity to stabilize their markets against undue and excessive fluctuations, and to preserve advantageous markets for such commodity, and to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting cotton into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, and to more effectively balance production and consumption of cotton.

PERIOD OF APPLICABILITY

SEC. 2. The provisions of this Act shall be effective only with respect to the crop years 1934-1935, but if the President finds that the economic emergency in cotton production and marketing will continue or is likely to continue to exist so that the application of this Act with respect to the crop year 1935-1936 is imperative in order to carry out the policy declared in section 1, he shall so proclaim, and this Act shall be effective with respect to the crop year 1935-1936. If at any time prior to the end of the crop year 1935-1936, the President finds that the economic emergency in cotton production and marketing has ceased to exist, he shall so proclaim, and no tax under this Act shall be levied with respect to cotton harvested after the effective date of such proclamation.

SEC. 3. (a) When the Secretary of Agriculture finds, for the crop year 1935-1936, if the provisions of this Act are effective for such crop year, that two thirds of the persons who have the legal or equitable right as owner, tenant, share-cropper, or otherwise to produce cotton on any cotton farm, or part thereof, in the United States for such crop year favor a levy of a tax on the ginning of cotton in excess of an allotment made to meet the probable market requirements and determines that such a tax is required to carry out the policy declared in section 1, the Secretary shall ascertain from an investigation of the available supply of cotton and the probable market requirements the quantity of cotton that should be allotted, in accordance with the policy declared in section 1, for marketing in the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, from production of cotton during the succeeding cotton crop year, exempt from the payment of taxes thereon.

(b) The allotment so ascertained shall be proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture at least sixty days prior to the beginning of such succeeding crop year and shall be apportioned by him as herein provided.

(c) For the crop year 1934-1935 ten million bales is hereby fixed as the maximum amount of cotton of the crop harvested in the crop year 1934-1935, that may be marketed exempt from payment of the tax herein levied. Except as provided in section 2, the allotment plan and the tax is hereby declared to be in effect for the crop year 1934-1935.

TAX AND EXEMPTIONS

SEC. 4. (a) There is hereby levied and assessed on the ginning of cotton hereafter harvested during a crop year with respect to which this Act is in effect, a tax at the rate per pound of the lint cotton produced from ginning, of 50 per centum of the average central market price per pound of lint cotton, but in no event less than 5 cents per pound. If the cotton was harvested during a crop year with respect to which the tax is in effect, the tax shall apply even if the ginning occurs after the expiration of such crop year.

(b) The average central market price, per pound of lint cotton, shall be the average price per pound of basis seven-eighths-inch middling spot cotton on the ten spot cotton markets (designated by the Secretary of Agriculture) as determined and proclaimed from time to time by the Secretary of Agriculture. The average central market price determined and proclaimed shall be the base for determining the rate of the tax until a different average central market price for lint cotton is determined and proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(c) Every person ginning any cotton subject to tax under this Act (whether as agent of the owner or otherwise) and every other person liable for tax under this Act shall make monthly returns under oath in duplicate and pay the taxes imposed by this Act to the collector for the district in which the ginning is done, or to such other person as such collector may direct. Such returns shall contain such information and be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations prescribe. The tax shall, without assessment by the Commissioner or notice from the collector, be due and payable to the collector at the time so fixed for filing the return. If the tax is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time when the tax became due until paid.

(d) When the Secretary of Agriculture does not proclaim an allotment of cotton for a crop year as provided in section 3 of this Act, the tax shall not apply with respect to cotton harvested during such crop year but shall apply to cotton harvested during the next crop year for which, with the approval of the President, the Secretary makes an allotment under such section.

(e) No tax shall be imposed under this Act with respect to—

(1) Cotton harvested by any publicly owned experimental station or agricultural laboratory.

(2) An amount of cotton harvested in any crop year from each farm equal to its allotment.

(3) Cotton harvested prior to the crop year 1934-1935.

(4) Cotton having a staple of one and one half inches in length or longer.

(f) The tax shall not be collected upon the ginning of cotton which is to be stored by the producer thereof either on the farm or at such other place as may be permitted by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury. In such cases, the payment of the tax shall be postponed, but shall be paid at the time when bale tags are secured for such cotton. Bale tags may be secured for any of such cotton at any time after ginning (1) upon the payment to such person as the Commissioner may direct, of the amount of tax which would have been payable at the time of ginning, or (2) upon the surrender of certificates of exemption covering an amount of cotton not less than the amount of such cotton. Until bale tags are secured for such cotton, such cotton shall be subject to a lien in favor of the United States for the amount of the tax payable with respect to the ginning of such cotton. The right to postponement of the payment of the tax under this subsection shall be established in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe regulations providing for stamping the containers of such cotton so as to indicate the time of ginning and the amount of tax payable with respect thereto.

(g) The right to exemption under paragraph (2) of subsection (e) shall be evidenced by a certificate of exemption issued as herein provided, which certificate of exemption shall be conclusive proof of the right to such exemption.

APPORTIONMENT

SEC. 5. (a) When an allotment is made, in order to prevent unfair competition and unfair trade practices in marketing cotton in the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, the Secretary of Agriculture shall apportion to the several cotton-producing States the number of bales the marketing of which may be exempt from the tax herein levied, which shall be determined by the ratio of the average number of bales produced in each State during the five crop years preceding the passage of this Act to the average number of bales produced in all the States during the same period: Provided, however, That no State shall receive an allotment of less than two hundred thousand bales of cotton if in any one year of five years prior to this date the production of the State equalled two hundred and fifty thousand bales. It is prima facie presumed that all cotton and its processed products will move in interstate or foreign commerce.

(b) The amount allotted to each State (less the amounts allotted under section 8) shall be apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture to the several counties in such State on a basis and ratio, applied to such counties, similar to that set forth in subsection (a), except that, for the purposes of this subsection, there shall be excluded from the calculation of the average production of cotton in any county an amount of cotton produced in such county during any crop year or years during which the Secretary of Agriculture finds that production of cotton in such county was reduced so substantially by unusual drought, storm, flood, insect pests, or other uncontrollable natural cause that the inclusion of the cotton produced in such crop year or years would result in an apportionment to such county based upon an abnormally low production of such county, and in such cases the average production shall be calculated on the basis of the crop years and production of the years remaining of the period set forth in subsection (a).

APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES

SEC. 6. A producer of cotton desiring to secure a tax-exemption certificate may file an application therefor with the agent designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, accompanied by a statement under oath showing the approximate quantity of cotton produced on the lands presently owned, rented, share-cropped, or controlled by the applicant during a representative period fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture, and also the number of acres of land in said lands in actual cultivation for the three preceding years, and the quantity of cotton, in the best judgment of the applicant, said lands would have produced if all the cultivated land had been planted to cotton. Said application shall state any other facts which may be required by the Secretary of Agriculture. No certificate of exemption shall be issued and no allotment shall be made to any producer unless he agrees to comply with such conditions and limitations on the production of agricultural commodities by him as the Secretary of Agriculture may, from time to time, prescribe to assure the cooperation of such producer in the reduction programs of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and to prevent expansion on lands leased by the Government of competitive production by such producer of agricultural commodities other than cotton and the allotment of and certificates of exemption issued to any producer shall be subject to revocation on violation by him of such conditions and limitations, and no criminal penalties shall apply to the violation of this provision.

SEC. 7. (a) The amount of cotton allotted to any county pursuant to section 5 (b) shall be apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture to farms on which cotton has been grown within such county. Such allotments to any farm shall be made upon application therefor and may be made by the Secretary based upon—

(1) A percentage of the average annual cotton production of the farm for a fair representative period; or

(2) By ascertaining the amount of cotton the farm would have produced during a fair representative period if all the cultivated land had been planted to cotton, and then reducing such amount by such percentage (which shall be applied uniformly within the county to all farms to which the allotment is made under this paragraph) as will be sufficient to bring the total of the farm allotments within the county's allotment; or

(3) Upon such basis as the Secretary of Agriculture deems fair and just, and will apply to all farms to which the allotment is made under this paragraph uniformly, within the county, on the basis or classification adopted. The Secretary of Agriculture, in determining the manner of allotment to individual farmers, shall provide that the farmers who have voluntarily reduced their cotton acreage shall not be penalized in favor of those farmers who have not done so.

(b) After the crop year 1934-1935 the apportionment shall not be on the basis set out in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this section.

(c) The total allotment to farms in each county under this section shall not exceed the approximate number of bales allotted to that county under section 5 (b).

Sec. 8. Whenever an allotment is made pursuant to section 3, not to exceed 10 per centum of the number of bales allotted to each State shall be deducted from the number of bales allotted to such State, and allotted in such State—

(a) To producers of cotton on farms where for the preceding three years less than one third of the cultivated land on such farms has been planted to cotton;

(b) To producers of cotton on farms not previously used in cotton production;

(c) To producers of cotton on farms where, for the preceding five years, normal cotton production has been reduced by reason of drought, storm, flood, insect pests, or other uncontrollable natural cause; and

(d) To producers of cotton on farms where, for the preceding three years, acreage theretofore planted to cotton has been voluntarily reduced so that the amount of reduction in cotton production on such farms is greater than the amount which the Secretary finds would have been an equitable reduction applicable to such farms in carrying out a reasonable reduction program.

The allotments provided for in this section shall be in addition to the amounts apportioned to the counties under section 5 (b).

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATES

Sec. 9. (a) Exemption certificates shall be issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, upon application therefor, but only upon proof satisfactory to the Secretary that the producer is entitled thereto pursuant to this Act and the regulations thereunder. Any certificate erroneously issued shall be void upon a demand in writing for its return made by the Secretary of Agriculture to the person to whom such certificate was issued.

(b) The right to a certificate of exemption shall be evidenced in such manner as the Secretary of Agriculture may by regulations prescribe.

(c) The certificate of exemption shall specify the amount of cotton exempt from the tax under section 4 (e) (2).

(d) Any and all certificates of exemption may be transferred or assigned in whole or in part in such manner as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe and shall be issued with detachable coupons or in such other form or forms to be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture as will facilitate such transfer or assignment. Any person who, in violation of the regulations made by the Secretary of Agriculture, (1) secures certificates of exemption or bale tags from another by sharp practices, or (2) speculates in certificates of exemption or bale tags, and any person securing certificates of exemption or bale tags from another person by fraud or coercion shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000 or sentenced to not more than one year's imprisonment, or both.

IDENTIFICATION OF TAX-PAID OR EXEMPT COTTON

Sec. 10. (a) Upon the payment of the tax on any cotton, or the surrender of exemption certificates covering cotton, the collector receiving such payment or certificates shall deliver to the person so paying or surrendering an appropriate number of bale tags which shall be affixed to such cotton.

(b) All cotton imported from a foreign country (including the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam) shall be packed and stamped, tagged, or otherwise identified, in addition to any import stamp indicating inspection at the customhouse, before such cotton is withdrawn therefrom.

(c) Every person who, at the time the tax becomes effective in any crop year, holds for sale (or use in the manufacture or production of an article intended for sale) any lint cotton in bales harvested during a year with respect to which the tax was not in effect may, upon application within fifteen days after the tax becomes effective, and any publicly owned experimental station or agricultural laboratory may, upon application at the time of ginning cotton harvested by it, receive an appropriate number of bale tags. Such bale tags shall be promptly affixed to the bales of lint cotton so held.

(d) In the case of any cotton in existence at the beginning of any crop year with respect to which the tax becomes effective and owned, held, or controlled by the United States, or any department or agency thereof, the Commissioner shall supply bale tags therefor free of charge, upon application by the head of the department or agency. Upon application of the Secretary of Agriculture, bale tags shall be issued free of charge for cotton held in the 1933 Cotton Producers' Pool. Bale tags issued under this section shall be securely affixed to such cotton.

DESTRUCTION OF MEANS OF IDENTIFICATION

SEC. 11. Every person emptying or breaking any bale stamped, tagged, or otherwise identified under the provisions of this Act shall, at the time of emptying or breaking such bale, destroy the bale tag.

REGULATIONS BY THE COMMISSIONER

SEC. 12. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe (a) regulations with respect to the time and manner of applying for, issuing, affixing, and destroying bale tags, and the method of accounting for receipts from the sale of and for the use of such bale tags, and (b) such other regulations as he shall deem necessary for the enforcement of the taxing provisions of this Act.

INFORMATION RETURNS

SEC. 13. (a) All persons, in whatever capacity acting, including producers, ginners, processors of cotton, and common carriers, having information with respect to cotton produced, may be required to make a return in regard thereto, setting forth the amount of cotton delivered, the name and address of the person who delivered said cotton, the amount of lint cotton produced therefrom, and any other and further information which the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture, shall by regulations prescribe as necessary for the proper administration of the tax. Any person required to make such return shall render a true and accurate return to the Commissioner.

(b) Any person willfully failing or refusing to file such a return, or filing a willfully false return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

GENERAL AND PENAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 14. (a) All provisions of law, including penalties, applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by section 800 of the Revenue Act of 1926, shall, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be applicable with respect to taxes imposed by this Act.

(b) Except as may be permitted by regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, with due regard for the protection of the revenue, no person shall: (1) Transport, except for storing or warehousing, under the provisions of section 4 (f) beyond the boundaries of the county where produced any lint cotton to which a bale tag issued under this Act is not attached; or (2) sell, purchase, or open any bale of lint cotton to which a bale tag issued under this Act is not attached.

(c) No seed cotton harvested during a crop year with respect to which the tax is in effect shall be exported from the United States or any possession thereof to which this Act applies to any possession of the United States to which this Act does not apply or to any foreign country.

(d) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this Act, or who willfully fails to pay, when due, any tax imposed under this Act, or who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, forges, alters, or counterfeits any bale tag or certificate of exemption made or used under this Act, or who uses, sells, or has in his possession any such forged, altered, or counterfeited bale tag or certificate of exemption, or any plate or die used, or which may be used in the manufacture thereof, or has in his possession any bale tag which should have been destroyed as required by this Act, or who makes, uses, sells, or has in his possession any paper in imitation of the paper used in the manufacture of any such bale tag or certificate of exemption, or who reuses any bale tag required to be destroyed by this Act, or who places any cotton in any bale which has been filled and stamped, tagged, or otherwise identified under this Act, without destroying the bale tag previously affixed to such bale, or who affixes any bale tag issued under this Act to any bale of lint cotton on which any tax due is unpaid, or who makes any false statement in any application for bale tags or certificates of exemption under this Act, or who has in his possession any such bale tags or certificates of exemption obtained by him otherwise than as provided in this Act, shall on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for not exceeding 6 months, or both.

(e) Any person who willfully violates any regulation issued by the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury under this Act, for the violation of which a special penalty is not provided, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $200.

REGULATIONS BY THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

SEC. 15. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the powers vested in him by the provisions of this Act.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture may make regulations protecting the interests of share-croppers and tenants in the making of allotments and the issuance of tax-exemption certificates under this Act.

APPROPRIATIONS AUTHORIZED

SEC. 16. (a) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(b) Out of the sums available to the Secretary of Agriculture under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act are authorized to be made available.

(c) The proceeds derived from the tax are hereby authorized to be appropriated to be made available to the Secretary of Agriculture for the purposes of carrying out the cotton program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and for administrative expenses and refunds of taxes under this Act.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

SEC. 17. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, in order to carry out the provisions of this Act, to appoint, without regard to the provisions of the civil service laws, such officers, agents, and employees, and to utilize such Federal officers and employees, and with the consent of the State, such State and local officers and employees, as he may find necessary, to prescribe their authorities, duties, responsibilities, and tenure and, without regard to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, to fix the compensation of any officers and employees so appointed, except that rates so fixed shall not exceed the rates of compensation prescribed for comparable duties by such Act, as amended.

PURCHASES AND SERVICES

SEC. 18. The administrative expenses provided for under this Act shall include, among others, expenditures for personal services and rent in the District of Columbia and elsewhere for law books, periodicals, newspapers, and books of reference, for contract stenographic reporting services, and for printing and paper in addition to allotments under the existing law.

COLLECTION OF TAXES

SEC. 19. The taxes provided for by this Act shall be collected by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Taxes collected shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States.

REFUNDS

SEC. 20. (a) No refund of any tax, penalty, or sum of money paid shall be allowed under this Act unless claim therefor is presented within six months after the date of payment of such tax, penalty, or sum.

(b) No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any tax under this Act alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected until a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, according to the provisions of law in that regard, and the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, established in pursuance thereof; but such suit or proceeding may be maintained, whether or not such tax, penalty, or sum has been paid under protest or duress. No suit or proceeding shall be begun before the expiration of six months from the date of filing such claim, unless the Commissioner renders a decision therein within that time, nor after the expiration of two years from the date of the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum, unless such suit or proceeding is begun within two years after the disallowance of the part of such claim to which such suit or proceeding relates. The Commissioner shall, within ninety days after any such disallowance, notify the taxpayer thereof by registered mail.

SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

SEC. 21. If any provision of this Act, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of this Act and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

GEOGRAPHICAL APPLICATION OF ACT

SEC. 22. The provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the United States and its possessions, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam.

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 23. As used in this Act—

(a) The term "person" means an individual, a partnership, joint-stock company, a corporation, or a firm.

(b) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(c) The term "collector" means the collector of internal revenue.

(d) The term "ginning" means the separation of lint cotton from seed cotton.

(e) The term "tax" means the tax upon the ginning of cotton imposed by this Act.

(f) The term "lint cotton" means the fiber taken from seed cotton by ginning.

(g) The term "seed cotton" means the harvested fruit of the cotton plant.

(h) The term "bale tag" means nondetachable bale tag, stamp, or other means of identifying tax-paid or exempt cotton.

(i) The term "crop year" means the period from June 1 of one year to May 31 of the succeeding year, both dates inclusive.

The term "bale", when used in sections 3, 5, 7, and 8 to describe a quantity of cotton, means five hundred pounds of lint cotton.

SEC. 24. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to develop new and extended uses for cotton, and for such purpose there is authorized to be made available to the Secretary not to exceed $500,000 out of the funds available to him under section 12 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

SEC. 25. (a) No tax-exemption certificates shall be issued to any person not engaged in production of cotton in the crop year during which such certificates are issued.

(b) Whenever after apportionment under sections 7 and 8 any surplus number of bales remain of the amount allotted to any county under section 5 (b) such surplus bales shall be allotted, in such quantities as the Secretary of Agriculture determines, to such other counties within the State as the Secretary of Agriculture determines have an insufficient allotment. Said bales shall be apportioned, pursuant to sections 7 and 8, within the respective counties to which allotted, but in no case shall any farm receive any of such allotment so as to receive a total allotment in excess of its estimated production for the crop year in which such allotment is made.

(c) In computing the production of any State pursuant to section 5 (a) the total production of cotton for such State in the five-year period, 1928-1932, inclusive, shall be used regardless of the length of staple of such production.

Sec. 25 added by Pub. Res. No. 45, 73d Congress, approved June 20, 1934.

Approved, April 21, 1934.

OATHS UNDER BANKHEAD COTTON ACT

48 Stat. 911; 7 U.S.O. § 726

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 29—73D CONGRESS]

[S.J. Res. 123]

JOINT RESOLUTION

Empowering certain agents authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture to administer oaths to applicants for tax-exemption certificates under the Cotton Act of 1934.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That any county agent or member of a county committee or community committee of a cotton-production-control association who is authorized in writing by the Secretary of Agriculture to act as his agent in the administration of the Agricultural Adjustment Act shall, while he is acting as such agent, have power to administer oaths to persons making applications (if made within the county in which such agent is authorized to act) for tax-exemption certificates under section 6 of the Act of April 21, 1934, entitled "An Act to place the cotton industry on a sound commercial basis, to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting cotton into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, to provide funds for paying additional benefits under the Agriculture Adjustment Act, and for other purposes", but no fee or compensation shall be charged or received by any such agent for administering such an oath.

Approved, June 6, 1934.

KERR TOBACCO ACT

48 Stat. 1275

[PUBLIC—No. 483—73D CONGRESS]

[H.R. 9690]

AN ACT

To place the tobacco-growing industry on a sound financial and economic basis, to prevent unfair competition and practices in the production and marketing of tobacco entering into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. As used in this Act—

(a) The term "person" includes an individual, a partnership, association, joint-stock company, corporation, or a firm, and imports the plural as well as the singular, as the case demands.

(b) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(c) The term "collector" means the collector of internal revenue.

(d) The term "tobacco" means any type or types of tobacco specified in any agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and a contracting producer.

(e) The term "sale" means the first bona fide sale of each pound of tobacco harvested subsequent to the enactment of this Act.

(f) The term "tax" means the tax imposed by this Act upon the sale of tobacco.

(g) The term "contracting producer" means any person who (pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act) agrees in writing with the Secretary of Agriculture to plant not more than the number of acres of tobacco, and/or to market not more than the number of pounds of tobacco, permitted in such agreement.

- (h) The term "crop year" means the period May 1 to April 30.
- (i) The term "Maryland tobacco" means the kind of air-cured tobacco classified as type 32 in the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Service and Regulatory Announcements Numbered 118.
- (j) The term "cigar leaf tobacco" means all leaf tobacco classified in classes 4, 5, and 6 in the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Service and Regulatory Announcements Numbered 118.
- (k) The term "Virginia sun-cured tobacco" means all sun-cured tobacco classified as type 37 in the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Service and Regulatory Announcements Numbered 118.

DECLARED POLICY

SEC. 2. It is hereby declared to be the policy of Congress to promote the orderly marketing of tobacco in interstate and foreign commerce, to enable producers of tobacco to stabilize their markets against undue and excessive fluctuations, to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting tobacco into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, and to more effectively balance production and consumption of tobacco, and to relieve the present emergency with respect to tobacco.

IMPOSITION

SEC. 3. (a) There is hereby levied and assessed on the sale of tobacco with respect to which the tax is applicable a tax at the rate of 33½ per centum of the price for which such tobacco is sold: Provided, however, That if the Secretary of Agriculture determines and proclaims that the declared policy of this Act is best effectuated thereby, the rate of tax shall, for such period as the Secretary of Agriculture designates, be at such lower rate (not less than 25 per centum of the price for which such tobacco is sold) as he may prescribe.

(b) The tax provided for by subsection (a) of this section shall be applicable to all tobacco harvested in the crop year 1934-1935, except Maryland tobacco, Virginia sun-cured tobacco, and cigar leaf tobacco. Thereafter whenever the Secretary of Agriculture determines that the persons who own, rent, share crop, or control three fourths of the land customarily engaged in the production of any particular type of tobacco favor the levy of the tax thereon and that the imposition of the tax thereon is necessary for the orderly marketing of such tobacco in interstate and foreign commerce and to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, he shall proclaim such determination at least sixty days prior to the next succeeding crop year, and the tax shall thereafter apply to tobacco of such type harvested during the crop year next following the date of such proclamation. The tax provided for by subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to any tobacco harvested after April 30, 1936.

(c) The provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the United States and its possessions, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the island of Guam.

EXEMPTIONS

SEC. 4. (a) No tax shall be imposed under this Act—

(1) Upon the tobacco harvested by any publicly owned experimental station or agricultural laboratory; or

(2) Upon tobacco harvested prior to the crop year 1934-1935.

(b) Under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, every person who, at the time the tax becomes applicable with respect to any type of tobacco, holds for sale (or use in the manufacture or production of an article intended for sale) any tobacco of such type harvested prior to the crop year 1934-1935 shall cause such tobacco to be tagged, stamped, or otherwise identified as tax-exempt tobacco.

SEC. 5. (a) In addition to rental or benefit payments which under any provision of existing law the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make in connection with agreements with producers providing for reduction in the acreage or reduction in the production for market, or both, of any basic agricultural commodity, the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to issue (in each crop year wherein any type of tobacco is harvested to which the tax is applicable) to each contracting producer nontransferable tax-payment warrants (each such warrant to be expressed in pounds of tobacco of a particular type). Upon surrender of any warrant by any contracting producer to the collector, it shall be accepted by the collector and the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of the tax on any sale by such contracting producer of the type of tobacco specified in the warrant not exceeding in amount the amount of tobacco covered by such warrant. Any contracting producer shall be entitled to receive such warrants covering amounts of any type of tobacco produced by him equal (1) to the number of pounds of tobacco of such type which such contracting producer is permitted to market under any agreement between him and the Secretary of Agriculture, or (2) to the number of pounds of tobacco of such type which the Secretary of Agriculture estimates may be produced on a percentage of a base acreage, which percentage and base acreage shall be determined as provided in any agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and such contracting producer.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture may issue in any county further warrants, covering an amount of tobacco of any type not in excess of 6 per centum of the amount of tobacco of such type covered by the warrants issued to all contracting producers in such county, to persons engaged in the production of tobacco of such type in such county as to whom the Secretary determines that no equitable allotment of tobacco acreage or production is possible under tobacco-reduction contracts offered pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act: Provided, That warrants covering two-thirds of the amount of tobacco allotted under the subsection in any county shall be issued to growers whose allotments are 1,500 pounds or less. Warrants issued under this subsection shall be accepted by the collector and the Secretary of the Treasury, upon surrender thereof by the person to whom issued, in payment of the tax on any sale by such person of the type of tobacco specified in the warrant not exceeding in amount the amount of tobacco covered by such warrant.

(c) Upon application therefor, the warrants provided for by subsections (a) and (b) of this section may be issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, or his duly authorized agent, in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places, and in such form as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe.

(d) Any tax-payment warrant erroneously issued shall be void upon demand in writing for its return made by the Secretary of Agriculture to the person to whom such warrant was issued.

(e) The right to a tax-payment warrant under this section shall be evidenced in such manner as the Secretary of Agriculture may by regulations prescribe.

(f) The Secretary of Agriculture may make regulations protecting the interests of share-croppers and tenants in the issuance of tax-payment warrants under this Act.

COLLECTION OF TAXES

Sec. 6. (a) The taxes provided for in this Act shall be paid by the seller and collected by the Bureau of Internal Revenue under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Such taxes shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States.

(b) All provisions of law, including penalties (except section 1121 of the Revenue Act of 1926), applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1926, and the provisions of section 626 of the Revenue Act of 1932, shall, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be applicable in regard to all taxes imposed by this Act.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Sec. 7. (a) The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem needful for the collection of the tax.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the powers vested in him by the provisions of this Act.

INFORMATION RETURNS

Sec. 8. (a) All producers, warehousemen, processors of tobacco, and common carriers, having information with respect to tobacco produced or sold, may be required to make a return in regard thereto, setting forth the amount of tobacco produced, sold, or delivered, the name and address of the person who produced, sold, or delivered said tobacco, or to whom said tobacco was sold or delivered, the price paid on such sale, and any other and further information which the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury shall by regulations prescribe as necessary for the collection of the tax. Any person required to make such return shall render a true and accurate return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(b) Any person willfully failing or refusing to file such a return, or filing a willfully false return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000.

GENERAL AND PENAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 9. (a) No tax-payment warrant issued in accordance with this Act may be transferred or assigned either in whole or in part, except by the executor or other legal representative of a deceased producer to whom a tax-payment warrant has been issued under this Act. Any person who acquires a tax-payment warrant from another person or who transfers a tax-payment warrant to another person in violation of the provisions of this Act, or who violates any provision of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000 or sentenced to not more than six months' imprisonment, or both.

(b) Any person who, with intent to defraud, forges, makes, or counterfeits any tax-payment warrant or any stamp, tag, or other means of identification made or used under this Act, or makes any false entry upon such warrant or any false statement in any application for the issuance of such warrant, or who uses, sells, lends, or has in his possession any such altered, forged, or counterfeited warrant, stamp, tag, or other means of identification, or who makes, uses, sells, or has in his possession any material in imitation of the material used in the manufacture of such warrants, stamps, tags, or other means of identification, or who makes any false statement in any application with respect to the levying and collection of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both.

APPROPRIATIONS AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

SEC. 10. (a) The proceeds derived from the tax are hereby appropriated to be available to the Secretary of Agriculture for administrative expenses and refunds of taxes and other payments under this Act. The Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury shall estimate from time to time the amount of the tax which will be collected during a period following any such estimate not in excess of four months, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, advance to the Secretary of Agriculture the amounts so estimated. The amount of any such advance shall be deducted from such tax proceeds as shall subsequently become available under this subsection.

(b) Out of the sums available to the Secretary of Agriculture under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, such sums as may be necessary for administrative expenses, refunds of taxes, and other payments under this Act are hereby made available.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized in order to carry out the provisions of this Act to appoint, without regard to the provisions of the civil-service laws, such officers, agents, and employees, and to utilize such Federal officers and employees and, with the consent of the State, such State and local officers and employees, as he may find necessary, to prescribe their authorities, duties, responsibilities, and tenure, and, without regard to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, to fix the compensation of any officers, agents, and employees so appointed.

(d) The administrative expenses provided for under this section shall include, among others, expenditures for personal services and rent in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, for law books, periodicals, newspapers, and books of reference, for contract stenographic reporting services, and for printing and paper in addition to allotments under the existing law.

(e) The Secretary of Agriculture shall transfer to the Treasury Department, and is authorized to transfer to other agencies, out of funds available for administrative expenses under this Act, such sums as are required to pay administrative expenses incurred and refunds made by such Department or agencies in the administration of this Act.

REFUNDS

SEC. 11. (a) No refund of any tax, penalty, or interest paid under this Act shall be allowed unless claim therefor is presented within six months after the date of payment of such tax, penalty, or interest.

(b) No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any tax under this Act alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority, until a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, according to the provisions of law in that regard, and the regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, under this Act; but such suit or proceeding may be maintained whether or not such tax, penalty, or interest has been paid under protest or duress. No suit or proceeding shall be begun before the expiration of six months from the date of filing such claim, unless the Commissioner renders a decision thereon within that time, nor after the expiration of two years from the date of the payment of such tax, penalty, or interest, unless such suit or proceeding is begun within two years after the disallowance of the claim or of the part of such claim to which such suit or proceeding relates. The Commissioner shall, within ninety days after any such disallowance, notify the taxpayer thereof by mail.

SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

SEC. 12. If any provision of this Act, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid the remainder of this Act and the applicability thereof and of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

TERMINATION

SEC. 13. The tax shall terminate with respect to any type of tobacco at the end of the crop year current at the time the Secretary of Agriculture proclaims that rental and/or benefit payments under the Agricultural Adjustment Act are to be discontinued with respect to such type of tobacco or whenever the President finds and proclaims that the national economic emergency with respect to such type of tobacco has ended, whichever is the earlier.

SEC. 14. The Secretary of Agriculture is directed not to refuse on the ground of lateness any offer by a tobacco producer to become a contracting producer, if such offer is filed with the Secretary of Agriculture within thirty days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 15. Having due regard to the welfare of domestic producers of tobacco and to the protection of domestic consumers thereof and to a just relation between the price received by such domestic producers and the price paid by such domestic consumers and in other respects to effectuate the declared policy of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture may from time to time, by orders or regulations:

(A) For each crop year in which any type of tobacco is harvested to which the tax is applicable, or for any part of such crop year, establish quotas for the importation into continental United States of cigar-leaf types of tobacco, and during such crop year readjust any such quotas. Such quotas shall be based on average quantities of such tobacco imported into continental United States during the crop years 1932-1933 and 1933-1934, except that in the case of tobacco imported from the Republic of Cuba, such quotas shall be based on average quantities of tobacco so imported during the crop years 1928-1933.¹⁸

(B) Allot the quotas provided for by subsection (A) to the importers of such tobacco in the United States in such manner as he may deem fair and equitable having due regard to the respective amounts of tobacco imported during the crop years 1932-1933 and 1933-1934 by such persons.

SEC. 16. After importation quotas therefor have been established, all cigar-leaf tobacco of any type imported into continental United States in excess of the quota for such type shall be subject to an import tax. The rate of the import tax, expressed in cents per pound, shall be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture as hereinafter provided. On May 1 of each crop year for which quotas are to be established pursuant to section 15, the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine (from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture) the average sales price per pound, during the preceding twelve months, of all domestic cigar-leaf tobacco the sale of which is to be taxed during the ensuing crop year under this Act. This average sales price, times the average per centum tax rate then current under this Act on the sale of such domestic cigar-leaf tobacco, shall be the rate per pound of the import tax and shall be proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture. The import tax shall be paid prior to the release of the tobacco subject thereto from customs custody or control.

¹⁸ Passed Senate as 1928-1933, but was engrossed as 1928-1933. The House adopted the provision as engrossed.

As used in this and the preceding section "cigar-leaf types of tobacco" shall include cigars, which for the purposes of the quotas, allotments, and import tax provided for by said sections shall be translated into terms of raw cigar-leaf tobacco of the respective types from which such cigars are produced, pursuant to conversion factors established and proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Approved, June 28, 1934.

CROP PRODUCTION LOANS, FEED FOR LIVESTOCK IN DROUGHT AND STORM-STRICKEN AREAS

48 Stat. 354

[PUBLIC—No. 97—73D CONGRESS]

(Extract)

SEC. 2. (c) No loan shall be made under this Act to any applicant who shall not have first established to the satisfaction of the proper officer or employee of the Farm Credit Administration, under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe (1) that such applicant is unable to procure from other sources a loan in an amount reasonably adequate to meet his needs for the purposes for which loans may be made under this Act; and (2) that such applicant is cooperating directly in the crop production control program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration or is not proposing to increase his 1934 production of basic agricultural commodities in a manner detrimental to the success of such program.
