

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-002190

THE PLATFORM
ITS RISE AND PROGRESS

THE PLATFORM

ITS RISE AND PROGRESS

BY

HENRY JEPHSON

IN TWO VOLUMES

VOL. II

London

MACMILLAN AND CO.

AND NEW YORK

1892

All rights reserved

V3:54.M9

C2.2

2190

CONTENTS

VOLUME II

PART III

¹
CHAP.

XIV. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC EMANCIPATION AGITATION.

XV. THE FIRST REFORM ACT AGITATION.

XVI. THE PLATFORM AFTER THE REFORM ACT.

PART IV

XVII. THE FIRST CRISIS OF CHARTISM.

XVIII. THE ANTI-CORN-LAW AGITATION.

XIX. THE SECOND CRISIS OF CHARTISM.

PART V

XX. THE SECOND REFORM ACT AGITATION.

XXI. THE BULGARIAN ATROCITY AGITATION.

XXII. THE PLATFORM AT THE GENERAL ELECTION OF 1880.

XXIII. THE THIRD REFORM ACT AGITATION.

PART VI

XXIV. CONCLUDING CONSIDERATIONS.

PART III

CHAPTER XIV

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC EMANCIPATION AGITATION

	PAGE
Deficiencies of Platform Organisation hitherto	3
The Platform in Ireland	5
Public Opinion in England and Ireland	5
The origin of the Catholic Association	7
The Catholic Rent	8
The Constitution of the Catholic Association	9
The Suppression of the Association	10
A new Association formed	12
Simultaneous Meetings	13
Roman Catholic Census	13
Provincial Conventions and Meetings	14
O'Connell at Waterford Convention	16
The Revolt of the 40s. Freeholders	16
The Clare Election	18
The power of the Association	21
Sir Robert Peel on the Catholic Question	21
Dawson's Speech at Londonderry	22
Government Proclamation against Provincial Meetings	27
Kent County Meeting at Penenden Heath	27
George IV. and the Catholic Claims	29
The Government Policy	31
The Dissolution of the Catholic Association	31
The Government Concessions	38
The Disfranchisement of the 40s. Freeholders	33
Wyse on the Catholic Association	34
Sir Henry Parnell on Irish Agitation	36
The Moral of the Agitation	37

CHAPTER XV

THE FIRST REFORM ACT AGITATION

A principle of Platform Agitation	39
The quiescence of the Platform	40
The teaching of the Platform	40
Parliament and Reform Proposals	43
Distress awakens the Platform	45
The Birmingham Political Union	48
Its First Meeting	50

CONTENTS

vii

	PAGE
The System of Parliamentary Representation	53
Accession of William IV.	54
The General Election of 1830.	55
The French Revolution of 1830	57
The Results of the General Election	61
Popular sympathy with France	62
Comparison of 1830 with 1792	63
The Duke of Wellington's Speech on Reform	65
Lord Grey Prime Minister	67
Meetings for Reform	67
The Times and the Platform	69
The King on Reform	72
The Platform on Reform	73
The Annual Register's Criticism on the Platform	74
The Reform Bill	76
The Platform and the Bill	77
The Defeat of the Bill	82
The First Ministerial Manifesto	83
The General Election of 1831	84
The last of Old Sarum	86
The Agitation in Scotland	87
The Reform Bill again introduced into Parliament	90
The Platform and the Lords	91
Lord Brougham's Speech in the House of Lords	95
The rejection of the Bill by the Lords	97
Popular Indignation	97
Midnight Deputation to Lord Grey	102
The Bristol Riots	104
The Political Unions	105
The National Political Union	108
Political Union Organisation	115
Government Proclamation against Organisation	116
The Reform Bill again introduced	117
Platform Speech by the Prime Minister	117
Meeting at Birmingham	119
The final Crisis	122
The Platform triumphant	123

CHAPTER XVI

THE PLATFORM AFTER THE REFORM ACT

The Effects of the Reform Act	125
The Triumph due to the Platform	127
The installation of the Platform as a great Political Institution	128
The Problem of popular Government	129
The principles of Representation	133

	PAGE
The solution of the Problem by the Platform	135
The dependence of Representatives on their Constituents	135
The Tory View of the independence of Representatives	139
Candidates' Pledges	142
The Edinburgh Review on Public Meetings	147
Increased popular interest in Politics	149
The General Election of 1832	150
Electoral Corruption	151
The Reform Agitation and Organisation	152
The Birmingham Political Union	153
The King and the Political Unions	156
The Decline of the Political Unions	157
The National Union of the Working Classes	158
Cold Bath Fields Meeting	160
The end of the Political Unions	161
Adoption of the Platform by Cabinet Ministers	162
Principal Effects of the Reform Agitation on the Platform	164
Lord Brougham's Platform Tour in Scotland	166
An ex-Prime Minister's Platform Tour	167
Dismissal of the Whig Government	170
Sir Robert Peel's Tamworth Address	173
Party Leaders and the Platform	174
The General Election of 1835	176
The Prime Minister on the Platform	176
Lord Melbourne Prime Minister	178
Sir Robert Peel on the Platform	178
O'Connell's Platform Tour	180
Party Platformings in 1836-37	181
Sir Robert Peel's Platform Speech at Glasgow	184
The growing need for the Platform	185
Sir Robert Peel's "Register, Register, Register" Speech	186

PART IV

CHAPTER XVII

THE FIRST CRISIS OF CHARTISM

Popular Dissatisfaction with the Reform Act	191
Condition of the Civic Industrial Population	192
Trades Unions	194
A leaderless People	195
The Platform and Chartism	197
Working-Class Oratory	198
The Poor Law Amendment Act Grievance	198

CONTENTS

ix

	PAGE
Popular Platformers—Oastler, Stephens	199
Carlyle on Chartism	201
The origin of the Movement—the London Working Men's Association	202
The origin of "The People's Charter"	205
The General Election of 1837	206
The Misery of the People	207
The Activity of the Platform	208
Feargus O'Connor	209
The Revival of the Birmingham Political Union	211
Chartist Platform Speeches—Stephens, Beaumont, Oastler	215
Thom of Canterbury	220
Meeting of Women at Birmingham	220
The Publication of "The People's Charter"	223
The National Petition	224
Meeting at Glasgow	227
Meeting at Newcastle	230
Feargus O'Connor at Birmingham	233
Chartist Meeting at Westminster	234
Universal Suffrage as defined by Stephens	239
The Government Policy	249
"Physical Force" and "Moral Force"	244
Torchlight Meetings	245
Violent Speeches	247
Government Proclamation against Torchlight Meetings	249
Prosecution of Stephens	250
Review of Chartist Platform Speeches	251
O'Connell on Chartist Meetings	253
Chartist Leaders—Vincent, Hartwell, Stephens, Feargus O'Connor	254
The Chartists and the Anti-Corn-Law Agitation	258
The Chartist National Convention	261
Proceedings against Feargus O'Connor	266
The Presentation of the National Petition	268
The Removal of the National Convention to Birmingham	269
The Simultaneous Meetings	271
Parliament and the National Petition	275
The Birmingham Riots	276
Government Measures against the Chartists	277
Lord John Russell on the causes of Chartism	279
The Sacred Month	281
Prosecutions of Chartists	282
The Dissolution of the National Convention	284
The Rising at Newport	285
Conviction of Feargus O'Connor	288
The Decline of Chartism	291

CONTENTS

CHAPTER XVIII

THE ANTI-CORN-LAW AGITATION

	PAGE
The Corn Law of 1815	293
The Corn Law of 1828	294
The evils of the Corn Laws	295
Carlyle on the Corn Laws	296
The Anti-Corn-Law Association	297
The Platform and the Association	298
The Anti-Corn-Law League	301
The Campaign of 1840	302
The "didactic" use of the Platform	304
The General Election of 1841	305
Sir Robert Peel Prime Minister	309
A Conference of Ministers of Religion	309
The Activity of the Platform	311
The Corn Law of 1842	312
Petitions in 1842	313
Anti-Corn-Law League Deputation to Prime Minister	313
The £50,000 subscription	315
The inner working of the League	316
Drury Lane Theatre Meetings	317
Platform discussion	319
The League's work in 1843	321
The League and the Electorate	321
The £100,000 subscription	322
The Progress of the Platform	323
Covent Garden Theatre Meetings	327
The creation of Voters	329
The League and the Chartists—Meeting at Northampton—Cobden and Feargus O'Connor	331
Agitation in Parliament	338
The bad Harvest of 1845	338
The Crisis	339
Sir Robert Peel's Views	339
The Platform and the Crisis	341
The Activity of the League	343
The £250,000 subscription	345
A Labourers' Meeting on the Corn Laws	346
The Repeal of the Corn Laws	350
The Dissolution of the League	351
The Agitation and the Platform	352
The Causes of Success	353
The Organisation of the Platform	358
The Financial Resources	354
The Singleness of Aim	355
The Unanimity of the Leaders	356
The Justice of the Cause	356

CONTENTS

	xi
	PAGE
The Means of Success	357
Platform influence on House of Commons	358
Platform Agitation in Ireland and England	358
The peaceableness of the Agitation	361
The moderation of the Agitation	362
The high tone of the Platform	364
The character of the Leaders	367
The lessons of the Agitation	367
The educational influence of the Agitation	369

CHAPTER XIX

THE SECOND CRISIS OF CHARTISM

The Platform and the Chartists	370
The National Charter Association	371
Lovett on Chartist Meetings	372
The Chartists and the General Election of 1841	373
The "endless divisions" of the Chartists	374
The Second great National Petition (1842)	375
The strike or "turn out" of 1842	378
The degradation of the Platform	379
Bright on the Chartist Platformers	380
Chartist Dissensions	381
The Repeal of the Corn Law and the Chartists	382
The General Election of 1847	382
The Third great National Petition	383
The Revolution in France, 1848	384
Its Effects in Great Britain	384
The National Convention	387
The Kennington Common Meeting of 10th April 1848	389
The Chartist Fiasco	392
The Third great National Petition	395
The Duke of Wellington and Lord Brougham on Public Meetings	396
The Crown and Government Security Bill	397
The Decline of Chartism	406
The end of the National Assembly	408
The causes of the Chartist Failure	410
Services rendered by the Platform in the Agitation	416
Effects of the Agitation on Parliament	417
Chartist Eloquence	419

PART V

CHAPTER XX

THE SECOND REFORM ACT AGITATION

	PAGE
Steady Growth of the Platform from 1848 to 1864	423
Its increasing Power over the House of Commons	424
The independence of Representatives	425
Parliamentary Reform Agitation in 1858	426
Bright's Platform Tour of 1858	427
Defeat of Conservative Government on Reform Bill, 1859	430
General Election of 1859	430
Government Resignation announced from the Platform	430
The Conservative Leaders and the Platform	430
Mr. Gladstone on Working-Class Agitation (1864)	433
Platform Agitation for Parliamentary Reform, 1864	434
The General Election of 1865	435
The Reform Bill of 1866	437
The Platform and the Bill	437
Resignation of the Liberal Government	440
New Ministers and the Platform	440
Meetings in Trafalgar Square	442
The Riots in Hyde Park	443
Platform Agitation in Autumn of 1866	447
The Times on the Platform	451
The Reform Bill of 1867	458
The Platform on the Bill	458
Deputation to Mr. Gladstone	461
The Reform Act of 1867	462
Effect of the Platform on Parliament	463
Effect of the Reform Act on the Platform	464
Views of leading Statesmen on Public Meetings	465
Political Banquet at Manchester	470
Disraeli's "Education" Speech at Edinburgh	471
The General Election of 1868	473

CHAPTER XXI

THE BULGARIAN ATROCITY AGITATION

The Ballot Act, 1872	477
The General Election of 1874	479
The Insurrection in Herzegovina	479
The Moslem Atrocities in Bulgaria	480

CONTENTS

xiii

	PAGE
Meeting at Willis's Rooms	481
The Platform and the Atrocities	483
Mr. Gladstone's Pamphlet, The Bulgarian Horrors	485
Meeting at Blackheath	487
Ministerial Criticism on Meetings	489
Mr. Fawcett on Public Meetings	490
Lord Beaconsfield's Aylesbury Speech	491
Summary of the Meetings	492
Cessation of the Meetings	495
Review of the Platform Agitation	495
The Platform and Foreign Politics	498
The effects abroad	500
Eastern Question Association	502
The Autumn Agitation of 1877	503
The Vote for £6,000,000	504
The Platform ignored by Government	505
The Platform's Failure	506

CHAPTER XXII

THE PLATFORM AT THE GENERAL ELECTION OF 1880

Issues now defined by the Platform	508
Mr. Gladstone at Southwark and Greenwich	509
Lord Hartington at Liverpool	510
Preliminary Election Campaign of 1879	511
Mr. Gladstone's first Midlothian Campaign	512
Dissolution of Parliament, 1880	519
Liberal Leaders on the Platform	520
Conservative Ministers on the Platform	521
Summary of Speeches	523
The Platform and the Election	524

CHAPTER XXIII

THE THIRD REFORM ACT AGITATION

Borough and County Franchises	524
Conference at Exeter Hall in 1877	525
National Liberal Federation Meeting, 1883	526
Meeting at Leeds	526
The Reform Bill of 1884	527
Lord Salisbury's Appeal to the People	527
The Appeal to the Platform	528
Demonstration in Hyde Park	528
Lord Salisbury on Demonstrations	531

The Conservative Caucus	535
Meeting at Manchester	536
The Prime Minister's Platform Speeches	537
The Autumn Campaign	542
Mr. Chamberlain on the Agitation	546
Summary of the Work of the Platform	549

PART VI

CHAPTER XXIV

CONCLUDING CONSIDERATIONS

	PAGE
Freedom of Speech	555
The Functions of the Platform	557
The Expressive Function	557
The Discussing Function	560
The Controlling Function	565
The Power of the House of Commons	573
The Power of the Platform	573
De Quincey's Prophecy	574
The inevitability of the Platform	576
The Dangers of the Platform	577
The remedy of Education	590
The need for Leaders	593
The Leaders of the Past	597
The Progress of the Platform	599
The Popularity of the Platform	601
The Press and the Platform	602
Parliament and the Platform	604
The Benefits of the Platform	607
 INDEX	 611

INDEX

ACT—ACT

A

ACTS AND BILLS—Charles II. against tumultuous petitioning, i. 14, 172, 173; Cider and Perry, Act for taxing, 32; Economy Bill, Burke's, 112, 113, 139; Catholic Relief Act, Scotland, 1778, 120; to exclude contractors from House of Commons, 1781, 138; to disfranchise Revenue officers, 1781, 138; Coalition Government India Bill, 152; Riot Act, 173; Libel Bill of 1771, 182; Fox's Libel Bill, 1791, 184; Libel Act of 1792, 185; suspension of Habeas Corpus Act, 1794, 229, 1795, 1798, and 1799, 279, 1801, 282, 297, 305, 1817, 404, 427; "The Two Acts," 251; Act for safety and preservation of His Majesty's person and Government, 251; Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 1795, 252, 1801, 282, 305; Corresponding Societies Act, 279-281; revival of whole Acts by a section, 282; Peace Preservation Act, 1812, 345; Corn Law of 1815, 352-361; Property Tax Act, 368; the Four Acts, 1817, 403; Act for safety of Regent's person and Government, 403; Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 1817, 405-409; Indemnity Act of 1818, 432; the Six Acts, 1819, 503; Seditious Meetings Prevention Act, 1819, 504, 514, expiration of, 584; suppression of Unlawful Societies, Ireland, ii. 10, 31; removal of Catholic disabilities, 33; disfranchisement of 40a. freeholders, 33; the Reform Bill of 1831, 76, 77; second Reform Bill of 1831, 90; third Reform Bill, 116; the Reform Act of 1832, 123, 142, effects of, 125-185, disappointment with, 191; the Poor Law of 1834, 198, 199, 418; Crown and Government Security Bill of 1848, 399-405;

ADD—ALB

Reform Bill, 1866, 437; Redistribution of Seats Bill, 1866, 439; Reform Bill, 1867, 458, 463; Meetings in Royal Parks Bill, 465, 470; Ballot Act, 477, 479; Reform Bill, 1884, 527, 551; Redistribution of Seats Act, 551
Addington, Henry (afterwards Lord Sidmouth), Prime Minister, i. 303. See also Sidmouth, Lord
Addresses, practice of, i. 16, 23; called for by Government, 17; to George III., 24, 95; on American War, 95; to William IV., ii. 54
Agitation—the first Platform agitation, i. 32-36; the Cider Tax agitation, 32-36, 283; the first great agitation, 42, 71; the Middlesex Election agitation, 42-71, 185, 283; the Economy agitation, 89-119, 185, 283; "The Two Acts," 272; the Melville scandal, 311; the Slave Trade, 319-321; the Duke of York scandal, 327, 330; Lord Grey on outdoor, 341; against the Corn Law of 1815, 355; against the Property (or Income) Tax, 1815, 361, 1816, 367; for Parliamentary reform, 1816, 371, 381, 1819, 469; the Peterloo agitation, 484; for Parliamentary reform, 1822-23, 569, 579; the Roman Catholic Emancipation agitation, ii. 4-38; Reform agitation of 1830-32, 39-124, peaceableness of, due to Platform, 127; Chartist agitation, 191-292; nature of successive agitations, 192; the Chartist agitation, 370-397, 405-420; Anti-Corn-Law agitation, 293-369; Mr. Gladstone on working-classes agitation, 433; Reform agitation, 1866-67, 434-462; Bulgarian Atrocity agitation, 480-507; Reform agitation, 1884, 528, 551
Agricultural population, distress among, 1820-21, i. 565, 1822, 567
Albemarle, Earl of, on Property Tax and public meetings, 1815, i. 362

ALT—ASS

Althorp, Lord, ii. 163
 America, government by popular opinion in, ii. 129
 American colonies, war with, i. 95; influence on England of war with, 95
 Annual Register, i. 24, 32, 116, 126, 268; ii. 74, 550
 Ashworth, Henry, ii. 339, 361
 Associations, political—precedent set by Methodist Associations, i. 7; an example of, in 1745, 11; first real formation of, 1769-70, 84, 85; Yorkshire Association for Economy, 100, 101; General Association for Economy, 102; a National Association, 113, 119, 134; Sheridan on the Association, 114; Protestant Association, 1778-80, 121; antipathy to all associations, 126; effectiveness of, 189. Society for promoting Constitutional Information, 189, 194; votes address to Jacobins in Paris, 196, 199; petitions, 202; Report of Parliamentary Committees on proceedings of, 228; Act against, 1799, 280. The Revolution (of 1688) Society, 190; Constitutional Club, 191; Whig Club, 191; Fox's speech at, 293. London Corresponding Society, 192; Thomas Hardy founds it, 193; its first meeting, 193; resolutions of, 196; address to the National Convention of France, 199; on petitioning, 202; first open-air meeting, Hackney, 217; meeting at Chalk Farm, 223; proposed convention, 227; arrest of members of, 227; St. George's Fields meeting, 242; Copenhagen Fields meeting, 246; decline of, 277; Act against, of 1799, 280; good effects of, 288. Society of Friends of the People, 194-196, moves in Parliamentary reform question, 197; the celebrated Petition for reform, 204-206. "Loyal" associations, 198; Act against Corresponding Societies, 281; Anti-Slave-Trade Association, 319-321; political clubs, revival of, 1816, 372; Hampden Clubs, 372, 391, 400; convention in 1817, 391; Trades Clubs, 1817, 397; London Union Society, 400, 401; Catholic Association, Ireland, ii. 7; political associations and Parliament, 11; Political Unions, the (see Unions); the Working-men's Association, 202; the Chartist Conventions (see Chartism); the Anti-Corn-Law Association, the Anti-Corn-Law League (see Corn Laws); the National Reform Union, 437; the Reform League, 443; the Eastern Question Association, 502; National Liberal Federation, 526, 545;

ATT—BRI

Conservative caucus, 535; Liberal caucus, 571, 572
 Attwood, Thomas, on London electors, i. 446; and Birmingham Political Union, and Parliamentary reform, ii. 50-63, 69, 77, 94, 116, 120, 124, 154, 155; and Chartism, 211, 213, 218, 229, 232, 267-269; character of speeches, 366; his work, 536, 597

B

BAGGOT, WALTER, ii. 573, 592
 Ballot, agitation for, and Ballot Act, ii. 477-479
 Bamford, Samuel—passages in his life, i. 381; on Trades Clubs, 397; at Rochdale meeting, 412; at Peterloo, 481; trial of, 523
 Beach, Sir M. Hicks, ii. 536, 537, 546
 Beaconsfield, Lord (see Disraeli)—Aylesbury speech, ii. 491; at the Guildhall, 503
 Beales, E., ii. 446, 455, 460
 Beaumont, H., ii. 217
 Beckford, Alderman, speech of, i. 20, 25, 53, 141
 Belgium, revolution in, 1830, ii. 61, 62
 Bentham, J., on public meetings, ii. 303
 Birmingham—meeting in 1819 to elect a representative, i. 471; trial of the leaders of this meeting, 526-528; and Parliamentary representation, ii. 43, 52, 58; the Political Union (see Unions); Reform meetings at, 50, 52, 70, 77, 94, 119, 124, 447, 458; the Political Union (revived) and Chartism, 211, 213, 214, 218, 224, 227; women's meeting at, 220; Chartist riots at, 275
Blackwood's Magazine, i. 532; ii. 519
 Blanketeers, the march of the, 1817, i. 414
 Boroughs, Parliamentary. See Representation
 Bribery at elections. See Corruption
 Briellat, Thomas, prosecution of, for seditious words, i. 210
 Bright, John, elected for Durham, ii. 320; and the Chartists, 331, 379; Platform speeches against Corn Laws, 296, 317-320, 323-325, 339, 344, 351, 357, 361, 368; Platform speeches, Parliamentary reform, 427-429, 434, 438, 448, 450, 454, 456, 525-527, 533, 549; on independence of representatives, 425, 426; on meetings in Hyde Park, 465; Platform speeches, elections, 473, 522; Bulgarian atrocities, 495, 503; effects of Platform work of, 447, 597
 Bristol, Edmund Burke's speeches at, i.

BRO—BUT

- 91-94, 130-134; Reform meeting at, 1807, 325; riots at, 1831, ii. 104
- Brougham, Henry (afterwards Lord), contests Liverpool, 1812, i. 347; on petitioning, 394; contests Westmoreland, 1818, 448; on meetings, 491-495, 521; ii. 397, 562; on influence of the Crown, i. 571; Yorkshire election, 1830, ii. 56; and the French Revolution, 62; and Parliamentary reform, 71; speech in House of Lords on Reform, 96; on the principles of representation, 133, 566; Scotch Platform tour, 166; cause of dismissal of Lord Melbourne's government, 169, 170; on the necessity of education, 591-595
- Bryce, J., The American Commonwealth, ii. 129
- Bulgarian Atrocity Agitation, ii. 480-507
- Burdett, Sir Francis, on libels, i. 178; contests Middlesex, 1804, 306; moves for Parliamentary reform; 1809, 335; committed to the Tower for seditious libel in the British Forum Debating Society case, 338; on the General Election of 1812, 347; on distress in 1816, 375, 376, 380; on petitioning, 396; Parliamentary reform, 423, 468; on "Peterloo," 485, 486; on right of meeting, 522; Reform agitation of 1831, ii. 108
- Burgh, T. de, on General Warrants, i. 43, note; on Middlesex Election agitation, 57; on electors, 141; on restraints on freedom of speech, 176; ii. 590
- Burke, Edmund, supports the Middlesex Election agitation, i. 48, 57; describes a meeting at Guildhall, 52, 54; on petitioning, 55; on the Middlesex Election agitation, 66, 70, 72, 75; on the power of the Crown, 74, 143; speeches at Bristol Election, 1774, 91-94, 1780, 130-134; on relationship of candidates and representatives, 92-94; on Economy agitation, 101; Bills for economical reform, 112, 113; on the Gordon riots in London in 1780, 123; a Platform speech by, 154-156; on law of libel, 181; opposes Parliamentary reform, 1792, 197; as a Platform speaker, 289; on necessity of leaders, ii. 593; on self-education, 590
- Burritt, Elihu, on the Birmingham Political Union, ii. 154; on the Anti-Corn-Law agitation, 351; on the Reform agitation, 600
- Bute, Lord, Prime Minister, i. 17; the Cider Tax, 32, 33; resignation of, 35

CAM—CHA

C

- CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY, Pitt returned member for, i. 162; rule as to electioneering at, 162
- Camden, Lord, i. 60
- Canning, George, Foreign Secretary, i. 322; as a Platform speaker, 348; at Liverpool Election, 1812, 348; on Seditious Meetings Bill, 1817, 411; at Liverpool Election, 1818, 438, 453, 455, 456; on Peterloo, 499; on public meetings, 508; on the sufficiency of Parliament, 540; on the Constitution 541; ii. 132; on the effect of public opinion in Parliament, i. 544; on relationship of representatives and electors, 557; a foreign policy Platform speech, 581; on the Catholic Association, ii. 10
- Carlyle, Thomas, on Chartism, ii. 201, 202, 280; on Corn Laws, 296; on condition of working classes, 310; on leadership, 594
- Caroline, Queen (of George IV.), divorce proceedings against, i. 558, 565
- Carrington, Sir C. E., popular claims to public meetings, i. 504
- Cartwright, Major, i. 324, 372, 380, 471, 526, 548
- Castlereagh, Lord, disposal of seats in Parliament, i. 330; on the "ignorant impatience of the people," 368; on Seditious Meetings Bill, 1817, 404; speech at General Election of 1818, 437; on public meetings, 507; Seditious Meetings Prevention Act, 1819, 516, 520, 554; on influence of public opinion on Parliament, 545
- Catholic Association, the, in Ireland, origin of, ii. 7; the national rent, 9; organisation of, 9-11, 13, 17, 18-34, 36; suppressed in 1825, 10; new Association, 12; provincial meetings, 12, 14, 15, 26; simultaneous meetings, 13; Roman Catholic census, 13; County Clare Election, 18-21; dissolution of, 31; Act removing disabilities, 33
- Catholic Emancipation, the Platform in England on, ii. 27
- Catholics—Anti-Catholic riots in Scotland, i. 120, 121; Gordon riots in London, 121-124
- Cato Street Conspiracy, i. 555
- Censorship of the Platform, i. 257, 258, 406, 407, 515, 516
- Chamberlain, Right Hon. J., Platform speeches, ii. 533, 545, 547
- Charles II., Act of, 1661, against tumultuous petitioning, i. 14, 172, 173; ii. 390

CHA—CID

Charlotte, Princess, grant to, i. 374
 Chartism, ii. 109, 192-292; the Chartist appeal to the Platform, 195; History of the Chartist Movement, by R. G. Ganimage, 197; Chartist oratory, 198, 231, 240, 251, 291, 418-420; Poor Law of 1834, 194; Carlyle on, 201, 202, 280; definitions of, 201; "The Working-men's Association," 202-205, 207; "The People's Charter," 205, 223; "five points" and "six points," 225; Feargus O'Connor (see O'Connor); Birmingham Political Union, revival of, 211; violent speeches, 215-218; First National Petition, 221, 224, 225, 273-276; Second National Petition, 375-378; Third National Petition, 383-389, 395, 409; the National Conventions, 227, 261-271, 281-284, 387, 405, 406; the National Charter Association, 371; meetings, 204, 210, 213, 215-220, 222-227, 230-241, 244, 245, 265, 271, 331, 372, 375, 384, 385, 406; the National Assembly, 407, 408; physical force and moral force, 234, 257, 258; the sacred week, 232; the sacred month, 281; torchlight meetings, 245, 246, Proclamation against, 249; O'Connell on Chartist meetings, 253; leaders, characters of, 254; and Anti-Corn-Law agitation, 258-261, 297, 300, 381; simultaneous meetings, 271; and the Press, 272, 273; riots at Birmingham, 275-277; the justification of, 279, 280; nature of Government prosecutions of Chartists, 284; rising at Newport, 285; decline of, 291; contest at public meeting between Feargus O'Connor and Cobden and Bright, 331; at General Election of 1841, 373; dissensions, 374, 375, 381, 412; encouraged by revolutions in 1848, 384-386; meeting at Kennington Common, 10th April 1848, 389-393; Proclamation against procession, 389; character of Platform in, 370, 410-417, 419; effects on Parliament, 417
 Chatham, Lord (see also Pitt, William), on Middlesex Election agitation, i. 59, 72; on Parliamentary reform, 82, 141
 Childers, Right Hon. 'H., ii. 548
Chronicle, The Morning, i. 107, 130
 Church of England, the, prayer of, on George III.'s escape, i. 275; F. Place on, ii. 128; its neglect of the people, 279, 280
 Church of Ireland, meetings relative to disestablishment of, ii. 473
 Cider Tax, agitation against, i. 32-35, 288

CIV—COM

Civic industrial population (see also Chartism) ignored by State, 1790, i. 192; first organisation, London Corresponding Society, 192; difference from previous reformers, 194; intrusion into politics, 197; on Corn Law of 1815, 356; agitation by, 1819, 467; their need for the Platform, 536; condition of, 537; need for leaders, 551; distress of, ii. 45; increase of, 192-199; condition of, 207, 208
 Clare County Election, 1828, ii. 18
 Coalition, the, Ministry, i. 151
 Cobbett, William, on elections in 1802, i. 302; on General Elections, 315; contests Honiton, 317; on the Platform and the Duke of York scandal, 329, 371, 381, 382, 389, 417, 532, 549, 574, 577-579; ii. 60, 303
 Cobden, Richard, and the Chartists, ii. 331; speeches, 295, 300-315, 319-321, 323-325, 327-329, 333, 335-337, 338, 351, 352, 355, 361, 363, 365; his dream, 365; "Qualify, qualify, qualify" speech, 333; on agitation in Parliament, 338, 337; character of, 365, 367; work of, 447, 597
 Cochrane, Lord, presents Petitions for reform, 1817, i. 392
 Cockburn, Lord, on political state of Scotland at beginning of nineteenth century, i. 298; on the Scotch State Trial cases, 299; on the first election in Edinburgh, ii. 150
 Coke of Norfolk, i. 450, 521
 Cold Bath Fields Meeting, ii. 160
 Commonalty, growth of, in eighteenth century, i. 8, 9
 Commons, House of, condition of, on accession of George III., i. 28; constitution of, 29; sale of seats in, 21; sale of representation of Oxford, 36-38; the Parliament of 1761-68, 38, 39; proceedings in Middlesex Election—J. Wilkes's case, 44-47, 57, 61; charged with "betraying the rights of their constituents," 64; brought into subjection by the Crown, 73, 74; corruption of members, Burke on, 75; a control on the people, 75; publication of debates, 76-78; views of, on system of government, 79; Lord Chatham on rotten boroughs, 82, 83; corruption in, Burke on, 112; House of Commons of 1780, 134; debate on Petition of Associated Counties, 135, 136; expunges record of its proceedings in Middlesex Election case, and J. Wilkes, 138; Burke on, 140; Jenkinson (Lord Liverpool) on what it ought to be, 207; Secret Committee on Societies, 1794, 228; debate in, on

CON—COR

"The Two Acts," 1795, 259; Secret Committee of, 1801, 281; sale of seats in, 1809, 331; and the British Forum Debating Society, 338; Secret Committee on state of country, 1812, 343; Select Committees on Corn Laws, 1813-14, 354; Property Tax, 1815, 1816, debates on, 363, 367-370; Secret Committee, 1817, 392, report of, 399-425; treatment of Petitions, 394; debates on Seditious Meetings Bill, 1817, 404; on Peterloo, 498; on "The Six Acts," 507; Causing on its sufficiency, 540-542; increased susceptibility to Platform influence, 544; on Catholic Association, ii. 10-12, 31; on concessions to Catholics, 31, 33; and Parliamentary reform, 1827-28, 43, 44; and Chartist National Petition, 273-276; and the condition of England question, 278; Cobden on agitation in, 336; effects of Chartist agitation on, 417; power of, 573; Parliament and the Platform, 604-607

Constituents and representatives, relationship of. See Representatives.

Constitution, English, i. 3, 4; position of Crown, 74; William Pitt, junior, on, 149; Charles Fox on, 302; G. Canning on, 541; ii. 132; effect of Platform on, 180-185, 573, 574

Constitutional Information, Society for. See Associations

Conventions. See Organisation

Cooper, Thomas, ii. 379

Corn Law—Anti-Corn-Law agitation, ii. 293-369; Chartism and, 258, 331; the Corn Law of 1815, i. 352-357, ii. 293, of 1828, 294, of 1842, 312; evil consequences of the law, 295; Anti-Corn-Law Association, 297; funds for agitation, 299, 315, 322, 345, 346, 354. Anti-Corn-Law League, 301, 316, 321-323, 326; endeavour to influence composition of electorata, 322; creation of voters, 329-334; gives up petitioning, 322; causes of its success, 353; meetings, 293, 299, 301-303, 311, 313, 317-320, 321, 338, 343, 345-349; organisation, 316, 353; conference of ministers of religion, 309; bazaars, 311; conferences, 300, 302, 311, 313. Corn Law of 1842, 312; Petitions, 300-302, 313-322, 328; deputations to Ministers, 313; Drury Lane Theatre meetings, 317; Covent Garden Theatre meetings, 321, 327, 335; The League newspaper, 330, 343, 350, 358, 360; dissolution of the League, 351, 352; lessons learned from the League, 367-369, character of Platform in, 360, 370, 416

COR—EDI

Corresponding Society, London. See Associations

Corruption at elections—representation of Oxford borough, i. 36. See Elections

Corruption in Parliament. See Commons, House of Council, orders in, agitation against, i. 346

County elections. See Elections

County representation. See Representation

Croker, J. W., i. 568; ii. 40, 41, 137

Cross, Right Hon. R. A., ii. 521, 536, 542, 547

Crown and Government Security Bill, ii. 398-405

Crown, the, and the Middlesex Election agitation, i. 57; Burke on power and influence of, 74, 143; Erskine on, 74; Dunning's resolution relative to influence of, 115-117; Lord Rockingham on influence of, 142; Grey on influence of, 1793, 206; Brougham on influence of, 571

Curwen, J. C., Bill relative to Parliamentary corruption, i. 335

Daily News, The, and the Bulgarian atrocities, ii. 480 et seq.

Dawson, G., speech at Londonderry, ii. 23

Debating Societies, prohibited (except licensed), 1795, i. 254-258; 1817, 407; 1819, 516; William Pitt at, 258; Sheridan on, 254; the British Forum, 338

Democracy, progress towards, i. 564

Derby, Lord (fourteenth Earl), Platform speeches, ii. 430, 431, 470, 480, 493; on public meetings, 444

Dilke, Right Hon. Sir C., ii. 547

Dinners, political, i. 583; ii. 169

Disraeli, B. (afterwards Lord Beaconsfield; see also Beaconsfield), on Reform, 1858, ii. 426, 429; on effect of Reform meetings, 463; on agitation, 462; Platform speeches by, 426, 430, 432, 435, 441, 471, 472, 474-476, 491, 507; his "education" speech, 471; on meetings in Hyde Park, and on public meetings generally, 466, 469

Distress, a cause of Platform agitation, ii. 524, ii. 39, 45, 64

Dunning, John (Lord Ashburton), Platform speeches, ii. influence of the Crown, i. 524, 533, on Economy agitation, 13f

Durham, Lord, ii. 169

Economy of, for

ECONOMY AGITATION, the Press, i. 119

Edinburgh, first Parliament, ii. 99, 183, 401, at, after Reform Act,

EDI—ELE

Edinburgh Review, i. 321, 533, 549, 550; on public meetings, 453; ii. 147; on the Platform, 604

Education, necessity of popular, ii. 591

Eldon, Lord, i. 571

Elections, Parliamentary, the Platform at, never interfered with by Government, i. 18; hustings, the, middle of eighteenth century, 18-23; early use of, in the metropolis, 18; speeches not reported, 19; Alderman Beckford's speech, 20; preliminary meetings, 22; contests, advantages of, 30, 315; speeches at, 90, 91

Elections not so frequent in eighteenth century, i. 19, corruption at, 19; General Election of 1761, contests at, 21, Lord Stanhope on, of 1761, 21, corruption at, 21, George III. interferes in, 28; General Election of 1768, 39-41, corruption at, 39-41, contests at, 41; Middlesex elections and John Wilkes, 42-71; Dr. Johnson on General Elections, 86; General Election, 1774, 87, contests at, 87, corruption at, 87; General Election of 1780, 127-131, contests at, 129; Sir G. Savile on General Elections, 133; General Election of 1784, 159, 161, Wraxall on, 161, contests at, 161; General Election of 1790, 188, contests at, 188, Lord Stanhope on, 188; General Election of 1796, 278, contests at, 278, Jean Jacques Rousseau on, 301; General Election of 1802, 301, contests at, 301; Middlesex, 1804, 307; Cobbett on General Elections, 315, 452; General Election of 1806, 315; General Election of 1807, 322, corruption at, 322, contests at, 323; General Election of 1812, 346, contests at, 346, Sir F. Burdett on, 347; Brougham on the Liverpool Election, 1812, 347; the General Election of 1818, 431, Ministers at, 436-461, contests at, 441, the Platform at, 431; Bamford on General Elections, 452; Cobbett on, 452; General Election of 1820, 566; General Election of 1826, Chatham, 42, of 1830, 54, of 1831, 34, 137, 138, of 1832, 151, of 1835, 176, of 1836, 206, of 1841, 292-305, 373, of reform, 383, of 1859, 430, of 1865, Childers, Riv. 1868, 479, of 1880, 503-523, Chronicle, T. 551

Church of Parliament, and their representation, George III.—instructions to representation, ii. 128; 34; Burke on instructions, 279, 280; relationship of, 91-94, 130

Church of Ireland on relationship of, 303; disestablishment Election of 1818, 435 et seq.

Cider Tax, agitation on independence of 283

ELL—FOX

and independence of representatives in 1818 election, 455; dependence of representatives, ii. 135-149; necessity of meetings to keep up control over representatives, 147; instructions to members, 148; the dependence of representatives, 425; the Platform's controlling function, 565-573

Elliot, Ebenezer, ii. 220, 235-240

Ellis, Welbore, i. 80

Erskine, Thomas (afterwards Lord), on the influence of the Crown, i. 74; pleas for freedom of speech, 177; on trials for high treason, 184; on separation of higher and lower orders, 232; defence of Thomas Hardy, 236; on points at issue in case of Hardy, 238; Lord Chancellor, 1806, 315; on public meetings, 511; on separation of upper and lower classes, 550

Examiner, The, on the progress of popular opinion, i. 533; the harangues of the Ministers, ii. 164

Ex-officio informations, i. 182-184

Eyre, Chief Justice, on freedom of speech, i. 174

F

FACTORY LAWS, ii. 199

Fawcett, Right Hon. H., on meetings, ii. 490

Fielding, Henry, on the growth of the commonalty, i. 8, 9

Fitzwilliam, Earl, dismissal of, from Lord-Lieutenancy of Yorkshire, West Riding, i. 493, 551

Foreign policy and the Platform—the first foreign policy Platform speech by Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, i. 581; Sir S. Northcote on the Platform and Foreign Affairs, ii. 499; extension of Platform to, 498-501

Forster, Right Hon. W. E., ii. 438, 501, 503, 549

Forum, the British Debating Society, i. 336

Four Acts, the, 1817, i. 403

Fox, Charles James, first Platform speech, i. 105; participation in Economy agitation, 105, 107, 111-115; adopted as candidate for Westminster, 107; at Westminster Election, 1780, 129; on Parliamentary Reform, 144; in Coalition Ministry, 152; Westminster Election, 1784, 159-161; "Fox's martyrs," 160; political banquet at Manchester, 1785, 166; opposes suspension of Habeas Corpus Act, 1794, 230; on right of public discussion, 230; leads Opposition—the Two Acts, 259; Westminster Election, 1796, 278; speech at banquet, 1798, 279; the first genuine

FOX—GOR

- Platform speaker, 289; his defence of Platform speaking, 291; Westminster Election, 1802, 302; declaration of his principles, 302; becomes Foreign Secretary, 1806, 315; Slave Trade agitation, 320; death, 320
- Fox, W. J., ii. 327, 335, 355, 362, 400, 597
- France, War with, i. 202, 306
- French Revolution, the, of 1789-93, at first popular in England, i. 187; subsequent effects of, 191, 192, 196, 371, of 1830, ii. 57, 58, 64, of 1848, 384-387
- Frost, John, prosecuted for seditious words, i. 200
- Frost, John (of Newport), ii. 270, 287

G

- GAMMAGE, R. G., History of the Chartist Movement, ii. 197
- George III., accession of, i. 24; his autocratic ideas, 25, 26; opposed to the Platform, 26; views on Middlesex Election agitation, 45, 46, 58-67; publication of Parliamentary debates, 76, 77; views on Government, 79, 80; views on General Election, 1774, 88, 94; views on the Economy agitation, 108; on Dunning's resolution, 116, 117; the Gordon riots, 124; Windsor Election, 1780, 131; on the Coalition Ministry, 152-154; outrage on, 1795, 249; Act for his safety, etc., 251; addresses to, thereon, 274; his death, 529; progress of Platform during his reign, 530
- George IV., accession of, i. 554; divorce proceedings against the Queen, 558; opposition to Liberalism, 570; Catholic emancipation, ii. 29, 30
- Gladstone, Right Hon. W. E., opposes repeal of Corn Laws, ii. 318; on agitation by working classes, 433; Reform Bill, 1866, 437; rumoured retirement, 461; on effect of Reform meetings, 464; The Bulgarian Horrors, 485, 486; Platform speeches, 435-439, 449, 473, 487, 503, 509, 510, 512-519, 520-522, 542, 543; in Midlothian, 512-519, 521, 537-542; on meetings, 439, 467
- Glasgow, i. 378; ii. 227, 454
- Gordon, Lord George, President of Protestant Association, i. 121; speech at Coachmaker's Hall, 121; proceedings in connection with the riots, 122, 124
- Gordon Riots, the, i. 122-124; effect of, on the Platform, 124-126; misconduct of Ministers, 122-124, 126; cited for argument, 1795, 266

GRE—HUM

- Greville, Charles C., on Catholic Emancipation agitation, ii. 34; on distress in 1830, 45, 66; on Parliamentary Reform agitation, 79, 82, 90-105; on General Election, 1831, 86; on control of electors over representatives, 141-146; on dismissal of Lord Melbourne's government, 170-172
- Grey, Mr. (afterwards Earl), i. 195; moves in question of Parliamentary Reform, 1792, 197; motion for Parliamentary Reform, 1793, 202, 208, 205, 209; on trial of T. Hardy, 236; at Westminster meeting, 1795, 272; on outdoor agitation, 341; on Habeas Corpus Suspension Act, 1817, 423; Prime Minister, ii. 66; on Parliamentary Reform, 67-72, 76-118; on General Election, 1831, 88; midnight deputation to, 102; Political Unions, 111-116, 156; speech at Mansion House dinner, 117; Platform speech, 163; resignation, 1834, 167; reception in Scotland and Platform speeches, 167
- Grey, Sir George, ii. 398
- Gurney, Hudson, i. 404

H

- HABEAS CORPUS SUSPENSION ACT, 1794, i. 229; arrests under, 233; repeal moved by Sheridan, 1795, 237; renewed to 1st July 1795, 239; inaccuracy of Sir Erskine May as to period of suspension, 279, note, of 1798, 279, of 1799, 279, of 1801, 282, 297, 305, of 1817, 404; its effects, 418; renewal of suspension in 1817, 427; arrests under, 427-430; suspension repealed, 1818, 431
- Hallam, Henry, state of public opinion, middle of eighteenth century, i. 8
- Hampden Clubs, i. 372, 400
- Harcourt, Right Hon. Sir Wm., ii. 522, 546, 547
- Hardy, Thomas, founder of London Corresponding Society, i. 193; character of, 193; arrest of, 227; trial of, for high treason, 234
- Harrison, Rev. Mr., i. 475-477, 524, 549
- Hartington, Lord—Platform speeches, ii. 485, 501, 510, 511, 520, 524, 533, 536, 546, 547
- Hobhouse, Sir J., ii. 145
- Houghton, Lord, ii. 438
- Hudson, William, prosecution of, for seditious words, i. 210
- Hume, D., on liberty of the Press, i. 119
- Hume, Joseph, i. 459; ii. 99, 183, 401, 409

HUN—LEC

Hunt, Henry—Reform meeting at Bristol, 1807, i. 325; at Westminster, 1816, 376, 380, description of, 383; at Spa Fields, 383, 384, 388, 389; at Manchester, 1819, 464; at Smithfield, 474; at Peterloo (Manchester, 1819), 480; arrest of, 480; reception in London, 486; trial of, 523; at Somerset, 578, 579; character of, 549; ii. 248

Hustings, the, i. 18

Hyde Park riots, ii. 443, 445; meetings in, 459; 1884, 528

I

INCOME TAX, agitations against. See Property Tax

Industrial population. See Civic Industrial Population

Ireland, the Platform in, ii. 5; public opinion in, 5; Roman Catholic Emancipation agitation, 7; the 40s. freeholders, 16, 17; Platform agitation in, 358

J

JEFFREY, MR. (afterwards Lord), on state of feeling in 1793, i. 221; on right of petitioning and free discussion, 421; on Ministers, 563; pro rogation of Parliament, 1831, ii. 82

Jenkinson (afterwards Lord Liverpool; see Liverpool); speech on reform, i. 207

Johnson, Dr., on petitioning, i. 15; on Middlesex Election agitation, 70; on General Elections, 86

Jones, Ernest, ii. 386, 408

Jones, John Gale, i. 242, 277, 336-341

K

KENNINGTON COMMON, Chartist meeting of 10th April 1848, ii. 390

Kent county meeting in 1822 described, 572

"King's friends," i. 61

L

LABOURERS, Agricultural, meeting at Saxmundham, ii. 330; at Goatsacre, 346

Lamb, William (afterwards Lord Melbourne), on Reform Petitions, 1817, 393; on Parliamentary Reform, 1817, 423. See also Melbourne

Landed interest, the, i. 353

Lascelles, Lord, on petitioning, i. 395

Leader, J. T., ii. 236

Lectures prohibited, except licensed, i. 254, 407, 516

LEE—LUD

Leeds—Anti-Corn-Law meeting, ii. 346; Reform meetings at, 453, 459

Legal position of the Platform. See Platform

Libels, Sir F. Burdett on, i. 173; Lord Chief Baron Comyns on, 178; Sir J. Fitzjames Stephen on, 179; truth of statement no defence, 179, 180; Blackstone on, 180; on Government authorities more heinous, 180; question of, not left to a jury, but decided by judge, 180, 181; Libel Bill, 1771, 182; ex officio informations in libel cases, 183; Fox's Libel Bill, 1791, 184; Libel Act, 1792, 185; seditious, conviction of Thomas Paine for, 199; Sir Francis Burdett committed to the Tower for, 338; Sir F. Burdett and seditious libel relative to Peterloo, 486; seditious libels and Chartists, ii. 284; Sir J. Fitzjames Stephen on seditious libels, 585, 586

Liverpool, Earl (see also Jenkinson), Prime Minister, on the Corn Law of 1815, i. 355, 360; on the Peace madness of the country, 1815, 363; his cabinet in 1818, 436; suppresses the Platform, 1817, 428, 1819, 526

Locke on the anomalies of Parliamentary representation, i. 140

London city and the Cider Tax agitation, i. 32, 33; Middlesex Election agitation, meeting at the Guildhall, 52; on publication of Parliamentary debates, 76-78; on the American War, 1781, 137; on Sir F. Burdett's and Gale Jones's committals, 340; Corn Law of 1815, 353; meeting relative to distress in 1816, 374, 375, 388, 387; on Peterloo, 488; on the Royal Scandal, 1820, 560; meetings in, ii. 51; great Reform demonstration, 1831, 100

London Corresponding Society. See Associations

Lords, House of, condition of, on accession of George III., i. 28; on Middlesex Election agitation, 59-61; Secret Select Committee on Societies, 1794, 228; Secret Committee on state of country, 1812, 343; Corn Law of 1815, 361; Secret Committee, 1817, 392, report of, 399, 425; second Reform Bill of 1831, 92, reject second reading, 96, 97; third Reform Bill, 118-124; agitation against, 1884, 537, 551

Lovett, William, ii. 108-110, 202; frames "The People's Charter," 205, 207, 209, 223, 235, 258, 262, 272, 275

Luddite disturbances, 1811-12, i. 342

MAN—MEE

M

MANCHESTER, Political Banquet at, to Fox, i. 166; meeting of weavers, 1807, 325; meetings at, 1819, 464; Peterloo meeting at, 479; progress of labouring classes, 534; Canning at, 540; and Parliamentary representation, ii. 43, 52, 53; Chamber of Commerce and the Corn Laws, 298; Free Trade Hall, opening of, 316; and the Corn Laws, 345; Reform meetings at Pomona Gardens, 1884, 533, 536

Mansfield, Lord, on the Middlesex Election agitation, i. 60

Meetings, religious revival, i. 5-7; early cases of public meetings, 10-12; election meetings never interfered with by Government, 18; in Cider Tax agitation, 32-36; in Middlesex Election agitation, 48-57; Sir J. Cavendish on, 57; in Economy agitation, 96-107; convened by other persons than the High Sheriff, 103-169; as to convening of, 167, 168; only freeholders had right to attend, 170; illegal meetings, 171-173; legal meetings, 172, 173; legality of language used at, 174; of London Corresponding Society—Hackney, 217; Chalk Farm, 223; St. George's Fields, 242; Copenhagen Fields, 246, 269; St. Marylebone Fields, 276; Sheffield, 1794, 224; prohibited by Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 1795, 252; lectures and debating society meetings, 254; Fox on, 266, 291; Lord Stanhope on county meetings, 324; prohibited by Seditious Meetings Act of 1817, 405-409; Edinburgh Review on election meetings, 453; character of, in Peterloo agitation, 1819, 497; the people's claims to, 1819, 504; Canning on public meetings, 508; Plunket on law regarding, 1819, 517; growth of, 543; prohibited by Seditious Meetings Prevention Act of 1819, 504-514; description of a county meeting, 1822, 573; realisation of right of free meeting in Ireland, 585; Catholic Emancipation agitation, ii. 4-38; Penenden Heath meeting, 27; Reform agitation meetings, 48-124; necessity of, for control of electors over representatives, 147; in Chartist agitation (see Chartism); in Anti-Corn-Law agitation (see Corn Laws); in Reform agitation, 1858, 1865-67, 427-429, 434-462; in Bulgarian Atrocity agitation, 480-507; in General Election of 1860, 522; in Reform agitation, 1884, 550

MEL—OBR

Melbourne, Lord (see also Lamb, William), on Political Unions, ii. 106-110; on pledges by Parliamentary candidates, 145; Prime Minister, 1834, 167; dismissal of, 167; explains by Platform speeches causes of dismissal, 171; Prime Minister, 1835, 178; on Newport rising, 287; on Corn Laws, 297; resignation, 309; on the ballot, 478

Melville, Lord, charged with misappropriation of public funds, i. 309; resigns his office, 311; the Platform on his case, 311; acquitted by House of Lords, 314

Middle class, increase of, i. 535; position in the Constitution, 533

Middlesex Election agitation and John Wilkes' agitation, i. 42-71, 185; participation in Economy agitation, 102; proceedings of House of Commons expunged from journals, 138; contest for representation of, 1804, 306; meeting of freeholders, 1811, Sir F. Burdett's case, 339

Mill, John Stuart, ii. 444, 446; on public meetings, 467; on dependence of representatives, 567, 568

Ministers or ex-Ministers and the Platform—first Platform speech by an ex-Minister, i. 105, 209; ii. 162, 164, 178, 440-442, 509-523, 533-551; first instance of Platform manifesto before general election, 83; number of Platform speeches, 1884, Reform agitation of 1884, 550

Molesworth, Sir William, ii. 182

Morley, Right Hon. John, ii. 526

Muir, Thomas, arrest of, for Platform speech, i. 201; trial, 211

Muntz, P., ii. 257

N

NEWPORT, Chartist rising at, ii. 285

Norfolk county meeting, 1823, i. 575

North, Lord, i. 45, 65, 67; Prime Minister, 68-77, 86, 88, 94-111, 137; speaks against Parliamentary Reform, 148; in Coalition Ministry, 152

Northbrook, Lord, ii. 535

Northcote, Sir Stafford—Platform speeches, ii. 488, 499, 503, 511, 521, 522, 534-536, 542, 543; on public meetings, 488; on the people and foreign policy, 498

Nottingham, Petition from, 1816, 379; rising in, 425

O

CASTLER, RICHARD, ii. 199, 214, 219

O'Brien, J. Bronterre, ii. 210

OCO—PEE

PEN—PLA

O'Connell, Daniel, and the Catholic Association, ii. 7-12, 16, 34; elected for County Clare, 18, 19; Platform tour in England, 180, 447

O'Connor, Feargus, ii. 204, 209, 211, 214, 222, 241, 253, 255, 333, 410; speeches of, 233-237, 248, 249, 266-268, 270, 274, 374, 388, 402, 405; proceedings against, 266, 288, 379, 381; character of, 374, 411, 413; at Kennington Common, 10th April 1848, 391

Old Sarum, the last of, ii. 86

Organisation of Platform, want of, in George III.'s reign, i. 548; at Reform agitation, ii. 152. See also Associations, Political

Owen, Robert, doctrines of, ii. 160, 161, 196

Oxford, borough of, corrupt sale of seat, i. 36-38

Oxford University, rule as to Parliamentary elections, i. 162; Petition against Catholic Emancipation, 394; resignation of representation of, by Sir R. Peel, ii. 137

P

PAINÉ, THOMAS, prosecution of, for seditious libel, i. 199

Palmer, Rev. T. F., i. 216

Palmerston, Viscount, ii. 435

Parks, meetings in Royal, London, ii. 444, 459; Bill relative to, 465-470

Parliament—House of Lords (see Lords, House of); House of Commons (see Commons, House of); insufficiency of, for public requirements, i. 30, 31; ii. 576. See also Representative Government

Parliamentary candidates, 1774, i. 86

Parliamentary elections. See Elections

Parnell, Sir Henry, on the Irish population, ii. 36

Peace, 1801, i. 306, 1814, 350, 351, 1815, 364

Peel, Sir Robert, on the growth of public opinion, i. 545; on the Catholic Association in Ireland, ii. 10; on the County Clare Election, 21, 22; and George IV. on Catholic claims, 29, 30; and Catholic emancipation, 30; resignation of representation of Oxford University, 136, 570; as a Platform speaker, 162; Prime Minister, 1834, Tamworth Address, 173; Platform speeches, 174, 176, 178, 184; resignation, 178; "Register, register, register" speech, 186; speeches at General Election of 1841, 307, 308; Prime Minister, 1841, 309; Corn

Laws, 312, 330, 339, 344, 349, 350, 395; on the condition of the labouring classes, 418

Penenden Heath meeting, 1828, ii. 27

"Peterloo," i. 479-483

Petitions—right of petitioning, i. 12-15, 23; Act of Charles II. against tumultuous, 14; Dr. Johnson on, 15; Cider Tax agitation, 33, 35; Middlesex Election agitation Petitions, 48-57; Burke on petitioning, 55; Yorkshire Economy Petition, 97, 98, 111; from Convention of Associated Counties, 1781, 134, 136; for and against Reform, 1784, 165; Lord Loughborough on right of, 172; London Corresponding Society on petitioning, 202; impeded by Seditious Meetings Act of 1795, 252; Petitions for and against this Act, 273; Pitt on the Petitions, 276; the Westminster electors and Petitions, 339; against Corn Law of 1815, 356; against the Property Tax, 361, 366-369; for Parliamentary Reform, 1816, 389, 392, 393; treatment of, by Parliament, 394; the suppression of, in 1817, 416; Lord Castle-reagh on, 416; attempted suppression of, through law courts, 419; for Parliamentary Reform, 1822-23, 569, 579; against Corn Laws, ii. 300-302, 313; the Chartist National Petitions. See Chartist

Pitt, William (the elder), Prime Minister, i. 24; dismissed, 26, 27. See Chatham, Earl of

Pitt, William (junior), enters Parliament, 1780, i. 134; brings Parliamentary Reform before Parliament, 1782, 144; attends Thatched House Tavern meeting, 145; brings Parliamentary Reform for second time before Parliament, 1783, 146; on the English Constitution, 149; Prime Minister, 153; contests Cambridge University, 161; brings Parliamentary Reform for third time before Parliament, 1784, 165; opposes motions for Reform, 1792, 197; opposes Grey's motion for Reform, 1793, 208, 209; moves for suspension of Habeas Corpus Act, 1794, 229; criticism of the policy of his government, 1794, 232; on Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 252, 264; on the Petitions against that Act, 276; suspensions of Habeas Corpus Act, 1793 and 1799, 279; on Corresponding Societies Act, 1799, 279; as a Platform speaker, 292; death of, 315

Place, Francis, character of his writings, i. 193

PLA—PLA

Platform, the, non-existent till middle of eighteenth century, i. 4-7; influence of the religious revival towards the Platform, 5-7; not an extraneous growth—seeds lay in the Constitution, 10; encouraged by system of county government, 10, by practice of petitioning, 12, by practice of "Addresses," 16; at elections (see Elections); summary of position of Platform at beginning of reign of George III., 22, 23; the forces against the Platform, 24, 29; the need for it, 30, 31; its appearance in public life, 31; the Cider Tax agitation, the first Platform agitation, 32-35; its first success, 35; its abiding object, 36; the first great appeal to it—Middlesex Election agitation, 47-55; effect on House of Commons, 58; Platform agitation, Tory views on, 61-64; its first great victory, 71; review of first resort to, 71; a new factor in political life, 73; didactic phase, 89-94; expressive phase, 89-94; speeches at elections, 90; first Platform speech by an ex-Cabinet Minister, 105, by a sub-Minister, Charles J. Fox, 105, 108; characteristics of, in Economy agitation, 107, 108, 119; supported by organisation, 100-102, 119; triumph of Platform in success of Dunning's resolution on influence of the Crown, 116; causes of subsequent disappointment, 117; the Gordon riots, 1780, effect of, on the Platform, 124-126; makes Parliamentary Reform its principal object, 139, 142; its legal position in latter part of eighteenth century, 167 et seq.; freedom of speech on, 175; "loyal" associations, 198; first prosecution for a Platform speech, 211; first open-air meeting of London Corresponding Society, 217; prohibited by Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 1795, 252; censorship of, 257, 258; great activity against the "Two Acts," 1795, 272; suppressed, 282; review of first period of, 282-288; revival of, after first suppression, 297; a lady platformer, 305; on the Melville scandal, 311; the Slave Trade agitation, 319-321; the incentive of distress, 325; the Duke of York scandal, 327; the Platform awakened, 329-332; causes of its revival, 1805-1810, 332; Perceval on, 333; on "The British Forum" Debating Society case, 339, 340; not used by Luddites, 344; on the Orders in Council, 1812, 346; and the Corn Laws, 1814-15, 352-361; and the Property

PLA—PLA

Tax, 1815, 1816, 361, 365; and Parliamentary Reform, 1816, 371; decrease of rioting resulting from use of, 381, 382; its position in 1817, 398; suppressed in 1817, 414, 428; at General Election of 1818, 431; the power of, 454; agitation of, 1819, 466-469; Peterloo agitation, 484, 499; the people's claims to, 505; suppressed in 1819, 513, 526; progress during George III.'s reign, 529; want of organisation, 548; absence of speakers from upper classes, 549; the causes of its power, 530; increased pertinacity of, 543; review of forces in favour of, 551; in 1820, 553; revival of, in 1820, 558; on the Royal Scandal, 1820, 559; first speech on foreign policy by Foreign Secretary, 581; expiration of Seditious Meetings Prevention Act in 1825, 584; triumph of the Platform, 584; organisation of, ii. 3; Roman Catholic Emancipation agitation in Ireland, 4-38, in England, 27; lessons deduced from this agitation, 36, 37; agitation caused by distress or foreign revolutions, 39; teaching of Platform on Parliamentary Reform, 40; adopted by the people for obtaining Parliamentary Reform, 55; agitation for Parliamentary reform, 67-124; The Annual Register on, 74, 75; first instance of Ministerial manifesto on eve of General Election, 1831, 83; and the Reform Act of 1832, 127, 149; installed among political institutions of the country, 128, 165; effect of, on English Constitution, 130; organisation of Reform agitation, 152; adopted by Cabinet Ministers, 162-164, 178; first instances of Platform being used by Prime Minister to make public the causes of his leaving office, 171; adopted by party politicians, 1837, 182; need for the, 185; the Chartists appeal to the Platform, 195; the sole exponent of Chartist views, 197; activity of the Platform, 208; the Platform and Chartism (see Chartism); Government policy towards the Chartist Platform, 243; prosecutions of Chartist speakers, 284; comments by judges on, 290; Platform and Anti-Corn-Law agitation, 298-369; Bentham, J., on, 304; didactic phase of Platform, 304; discussion at Anti-Corn-Law meetings, 319, 320; success of Anti-Corn-Law agitation due to the Platform, 352; Platform agitation in England and Ireland, 358; character of, during Anti-Corn-Law agitation, 360, 370; character of, in Chartist agitation, 370, 410-415; Crown and Government Security Act, 398-405; Platform services during Chartist agitation, 417; progress of 1848-64, 423, 428; resignation of Ministers announced from, 1859, 430; and Reform agitation of 1865-67, 434-465; at appointment of Ministers, 440-442; The Times and the Platform, 451; and the Bulgarian atrocities, 481-507; and foreign politics, 498, 500; its functions, 557-572, expressive function, 557-560, discussing function, 560-564, controlling function, 565-572; power of, 573; its dangers, 577-590; popularity of, 601; the Platform and the Press, 602-604; Parliament and the Platform, 604-607; its services and benefits, 607-609

PLE—FRE

Pledges by candidates at Parliamentary elections, ii. 142-145. See also Electors and Representatives

Plunket, W., on public meetings, i. 510, 517; on increased power of public opinion on Parliament, 544

Political Associations, Clubs, Societies, Unions. See Associations, Political

Political organisation. See Associations, Political

Popular, agitation—(see Agitation)—opinion, state of, in middle of eighteenth century, i. 8; tendencies towards the Platform, 23, 31; advantages from publication of Parliamentary debates, 78; growth of popular forces, 81; progress before the French Revolution, 188; people deserted by the Whigs on French Revolution, 201; unfortunate effect of separation of higher and lower orders, 232; progress up to 1816, 371, 372; progress in George III.'s reign, 530; opinion in England and Ireland, ii. 5; government, the problem of, 129-136; Quarterly Review on popular opinion, 131

Prayer ordered by State Church on George III.'s escape, i. 275

Prentice's History of the Anti-Corn-Law League, ii. 302

Press, the, only partly fulfils public requirements of discussion, i. 31; ii. 576; quarrel with Parliament relative to publication of debates, i. 76-78; Blackstone on freedom of, 175, 178; stands on same grounds as freedom of speech, 175; Erskine's claims for, 186; at beginning of nineteenth century, 297; increased publicity given to Platform speeches, 546; provincial reports of Platform proceedings, 547; and the Platform in Reform agitation,

PRI—REG

1830-32, ii. 77, 78; and Chartism, 272, 273; and the Anti-Corn-Law League, 326; and Parliament, 451; and the Platform, 564; Roebuck on the Press, 602, Bright, 603; comparison with the Platform, 602-604

Prime Minister, first Platform speech by a, i. 293

Proclamations against seditious writings, 1792, i. 197, assemblies, 1795, 250, speeches, 1819, 477, proposed organisation of Political Unions, ii. 116

Property Tax, 1815, 1816, agitation against, i. 361, 365

Public opinion, government by, in America and Great Britain, i. 130. See also Popular

Q

Quarterly Review, i. 532; ii. 131, 173

Queen, the, Address to, by Workingmen's Association, ii. 207

Quincey, Da, his prophecy, ii. 574-576

R

RASHLEIGH, MR., speech by, i. 377

Reform, Parliamentary, early Platform speech relative to, i. 20, 21; the only remedy for misgovernment, 81; Lord Chatham on, 82; made the principal object of the Platform, 139; history of struggle for, was outside Parliament, 142; Pitt's first motion for, 1782, 144; Thatched House Tavern meeting, 145; meetings for, 146; Pitt's second motion for, 1783, 146; Duke of Richmond's letter on, 150; Pitt's third motion for, 1784, 165; Society of Friends, action by, 196; Grey's motion for reform, 197; effects on Government of demand for, 200; Petition of Society of Friends, 202; meeting for, at Bristol, 1807, 325; inciting causes to, 332-334; moved for by Sir F. Burdett, 1809, 335; agitation for, 1816, 371, 381; Petitions for, 1817, 392, 393; debate in Parliament on, 1817, 423; debates in Parliament, 1821, 566; Platform agitation for, 1822, 568; debate in Parliament, 1822, 569; meetings and petitions for, 1823, 578, 579; the agitation of 1830-32, ii. 39-124; the Reform Bill of 1831, 76, 77; the Reform Act, effects of, 124; agitation in 1858, 426, in 1865-67, 434-462, in 1884, 528-551

Regent, Prince, the (afterwards George IV.), outrage on, 1817, 392; speech dissolving Parliament, 1818, 436;

REL—SAL

- thanks authorities for conduct at Peterloo, 483
- Religious revival, influence of, towards the Platform, i. 5, 7; meetings, religious, 5-7; organisation, 7
- Rent, the Catholic, ii. 9
- Representation, Parliamentary, Beckford on, i. 20; Lord Chatham on, 82; Locke on, 140; Oldfield on, 141; statement of representation in 1792-93 by the Society of Friends of the People, 204, 206; in Scotland, 451; attempt of Birmingham to obtain representation, 471; anomalies of, ii. 53; virtual and direct representation, 137-141, 146
- Representative government — insufficiency of system for public requirements, i. 30, 31, 531; Tory views on, 61-64, 80, 81; system of, 141; Canning on sufficiency of the system, 540-542; principles of, ii. 133, 149; the Platform's control over, 565
- Representatives and constituents, relationship of. See Electors
- Revolution, Platform agitation at home caused by foreign, ii. 39; French, of 1792, 187, 191, 192, 196, 371, of 1830, 57, 58, 64, of 1848, 384-387
- Richmond, Duke of—letter on Parliamentary Reform, i. 150
- Riot Act, i. 173
- Rioting, decrease of, consequent on use of Platform, i. 381, 282; ii. 580
- Riots, ii. 47, 65, 101-104, 275, 579, 580
- Riots, the Gordon, i. 122
- Robinson, F. J. (afterwards Lord Goderich), on influence of public opinion on Parliament, i. 545
- Rockingham, Marquess of, i. 52, 54, 55, 72, 137, 143
- Roman Catholic Emancipation agitation, ii. 3
- Rousseau, Jean Jacques, on English freedom, i. 301
- Russell, Lord John—Parliamentary Reform, ii. 40; General Elections of 1831, 1841, 83, 305, 306; as a Platform speaker, 163; Platform speeches by, 164-175, 181; finality speech in Parliament, 213; announces Government policy towards the Platform, 243; on Chartist, 277-279, 409, 418; on the Corn Laws, 341, 342, 344; on Crown and Government Security Bill, 401, 403, 404; on the Ballot, 478; on Parliamentary Reform, 567, 569, 579

S

- SALISBURY, LORD—Parliamentary Reform, 1834, ii. 527; Platform speeches, 503, 511, 531, 534, 536, 544, 545, 547-549

SAL—SPE

- Salt, T. C., ii. 220, 265
- Savile, Sir George, i. 55, 56; on the conduct of the House of Commons in the Middlesex Election case, 64; Economy agitation, 109-111; election address of 1780, 128, 129; on General Elections, 133
- Scarlett, Mr., on public meetings, i. 511
- Scotland, first use of Platform in, i. 200; convention at Edinburgh, 1792, 1793, 201, 218, 219; meeting in Edinburgh against the "Two Acts," 1795, 273; political state of, at beginning of nineteenth century, 298; the Platform at Scotch elections, 1818, 451; the Platform in, 1823, 579; Parliamentary representation of, 580; ii. 53; agitation in, for Parliamentary Reform, 69; General Election, 1831, 87; Chartism in, 227, 230, 257
- Scoteman, The, i. 534
- Seditious Libels. See Libels
- Seditious Meetings and Assemblies Act, 1795, i. 252; opposition to, in Parliament, 259; Platform opposition to, 268; Seditious Meetings Act of 1817, 403, of 1819, 514
- Sheil, R. L., and the Catholic Association, ii. 6-8, 12, 17, 26, 32, 35, 36; Clare Election, 19; at Penenden Heath meeting, 27
- Shelburne, Lord, first ex-Cabinet Minister who used the Platform, i. 105, 209
- Sheridan, R. B., on the Economy Agitation Convention, i. 114; at election of 1780, 130; at Westminster meeting, 1795, 272; on debating societies, 254, 258; on Pitt and the Platform, 292
- Sidmouth, Viscount (see also Addington), on public meetings, i. 506-513, 518; 539-554
- Six Acts, the, i. 503, 586
- Slave Trade agitation, i. 317-321
- Smith, Right Hon. W. H., ii. 521, 522, 533, 536, 544
- Smithfield, London, meeting at, i. 474
- Societies, political. See Associations
- Southey, Robert, on organisation of Methodism, i. 7
- Spa Fields meetings, 1816, i. 383, 386-388, 399
- Speech, freedom of, Lord Chief Justice Eyre on, i. 174; stood on same grounds as freedom of the Press, 175; restraints on, 176, 177, 184; Burgh on restraints on, 176; Erskine's pleas for, 177; law of libel, 178-184; great powers of Government to suppress, 185; Fox on right of, 1794, 1795, 230, 259; dependent on issue

SPE—TIE

- of Thomas Hardy's trial, 236; drawing by Woodward illustrating, 262; suppressed in 1817, 417, 428; non-existent in eighteenth century, 556-557; ii. 555; suppressed in 1818, i. 528; conquest of, 583-585; ii. 556, 557; in Parliament, 556
- Spenceans, the, i. 401
- Stael Holstein, Baron A. de—description of a county meeting, 1822, i. 572; on county meetings, 575
- Stanhope, Lord, on General Elections of 1761, 1768, 1784, 1790, i. 21, 39, 160, 188
- Stanley, Lord (afterwards Earl Derby), ii. 175
- State prosecutions—J. Frost, i. 200; Rev. Mr. Winterbotham, 210; Thomas Briellat, 210; Dr. W. Hudson, 210; Thomas Muir, 211; W. Skirving, 219; M. Margarot, 220; Joseph Gerrald, 221; Robert Watt, 234; David Downie, 234; Henry Yorke, 239; Lord Cockburn on the Scotch sedition trials, 299; Alex. McLaren and Baird, 419; Henry Hunt, 523; Samuel Bamford, 523; Sir C. Wolseley, 524; Rev. J. Harrison, 524; Birmingham electors of Sir C. Wolseley, 524-526; Feargus O'Connor and Chartists, ii. 250 et seq.; Daniel O'Connell, 586
- Stephens, Rev. J., ii. 200, 214, 248, 255; speeches of, 215, 216, 238, 239-247; arrest of, 250; trial of, 263
- Strike in 1842, ii. 378
- T
- TAYLOR, DR., ii. 217
- Taylor, Sir Herbert, ii. 80, 81
- Thatched House Tavern meeting, 1782, i. 145
- The Times*—"Peterloo," i. 480, 500; Reform agitation of 1830-32, ii. 51, 67, 69, 70, 78, 82, 88, 95, 98, 107; on Reform Act, 125; Reform agitation of 1864-65, 437, 441, 445, 447, 455; on the position of the Platform, 451; on the Bulgarian Atrocity agitation, 485, 493-497, 503; on the third Reform agitation, 530, 547
- Thelwall, John, arrest of, 1794, i. 227; trial of, 237; lectures, 254; on Reform, ii. 108
- Thistlewood, A., i. 389, 507, 555
- Thom of Canterbury, ii. 219
- Thurlow, Lord, on freedom of speech and freedom of the Press, i. 175; on Seditious Meetings Act and liberty of speech, 263
- Tierney, G., on the Property Tax, i. 368

TOO—WES

- Tooke, Rev. Horne, i. 49-85; arrest of, 1794, 227; trial, 237
- Tory views on Platform agitation and representative government, i. 61-64
- Toryism, spirit of, in 1817, i. 409
- Trades Clubs, meetings of, 1817, i. 397
- Trades Unions, ii. 161-194
- Trafalgar Square riots, ii. 442, 445
- Treason, high, law as to, i. 184
- Trevelyan, Right Hon. G. O., ii. 525
- "Two Acts," the, i. 251

U

- UNIONS, Political, the Birmingham, ii. 48, 49, 52, 63, 69, 70, 94, 101, 106, 115, 153, 157; spread of, 69, 114; Northern Political Union, 103; progress of, 105-107; National Political Union, 103, 157; on pledges of Parliamentary candidates, 144; National Union of the Working Classes, 110, 158; organisation of, 152-154; services of, 154, 155; decline of, 157; end of, 161
- Universal Suffrage agitated for in French Revolution agitation, i. 241; one of the six points of the Charter, ii. 205; Stephens's definition of, 239

V

- VICTORIA, Her Majesty Queen, Address to, from Working-men's Association, ii. 207
- Villiers, C., ii. 300, 312, 313, 330, 336, 340, 341, 350, 397
- Vincent, Henry, ii. 211, 254, 268, 285, 374, 418-420
- Virtual representation. See Representation

W

- WALPOLE, HORACE, on Middlesex Election agitation, i. 53-68, 71; on the Economy agitation, 108, 119; on Dunning's motion relative to influence of the Crown, 115; on the Gordon riots, 121-123; on the Parliament of 1780, 134
- War with France, i. 202, 306, 363
- Warrants, General, description of, i. 43
- Waterford county election, 1826, ii. 16
- Watson, Dr., at Spa Fields, i. 387, 389
- Wellington, Duke of—Parliamentary Reform, ii. 65, 123; resignation, 66; on pledges of candidates, 145; as a Platform speaker, 182, 180; on public meetings, 396
- Wesley, Rev. John, i. 5-7
- Westminster, meetings in, 1769, i. 54, 1780, 107, 115, 1781, 187, 1795, 271,

WHI—WIL

272; elections, 1780, 129, 1784, 159, 161, 1796, 278, 1802, 302; Petition for release of Sir F. Burdett, 339; Corn Law of 1815, 358; Property Tax, 1815, 1816, 362, 367; distress in 1816, 375; meeting relative to "Peterloo," 1819, 485; on the Royal Scandal, 1820, 560; members' annual speech to electors, ii. 148; Chartist meeting at, 234

Whigs—the Whig Club, i. 191-268, 279-291; desertion of the people by the Whig party on French Revolution, 201; coalesce with the Tories, 1794, 231; "Peterloo," 491; return to the Platform, 563; and Parliamentary Reform, 1830, ii. 71

Whitefield, Rev. George, i. 5-7

Wilberforce, William, at Yorkshire meeting, i. 157; on Seditious Meetings Act, 265; speeches at Yorkshire Election, 1802, 303; Slave Trade agitation, 319

Wilkes, John, and the Middlesex Election agitation, i. 42-71; "that devil," 77; takes part in the Economy agitation, 107; supports Pitt in 1784, 159

William IV., accession of, ii. 54; addresses to, 54; Parliamentary Reform agitation, 72, 80-83, 89; Political Unions, 106, 107, 111-114, 156; on political dinners and Ministers platforming, 169; death of, 185

WIN—YOR

Winterbotham, Rev. Mr., prosecution for seditious words, i. 210

Wolseley, Sir Charles, chosen as representative for Birmingham, i. 472; at Stockport, 476-490; trial of, 524

Women's meeting at Birmingham, ii. 220

Woodward, G., "Liberty of Speech," i. 262

Working classes. See Civil Industrial Population

Working-men's Association, the, ii. 202, 203, 211, 212, 223

Wyse, Thomas, history of Catholic Association in Ireland, ii. 5-37

Wyvill, Rev. C., and the Economy agitation, i. 97, 114, 118

Y

York, Meeting at, 1769, i. 56

York, the Duke of, scandal, the Platform on, i. 327; Cobbett on, 330

Yorke, C. P., complains in Parliament of the British Forum Debating Society, i. 338; unseated for Cambridgeshire, 338

Yorke, Henry, Platform speech at Sheffield, i. 224, 226; trial of, 240

Yorkshire, the Economy agitation in, i. 96-100, 109, 110; the Coalition Ministry—a Yorkshire meeting, 157; meeting relative to Peterloo, 493

THE END

MESSRS. MACMILLAN AND CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

By JAMES BRYCE, D.C.L., M.P.
Two Volumes. Extra Crown 8vo, 25s.

THE AMERICAN COMMONWEALTH. By JAMES BRYCE, M.P., D.C.L.,
Regius Professor of Civil Law in the University of Oxford.

Part I. THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Part IV. PUBLIC OPINION.

Part II. THE STATE GOVERNMENTS.

Part V. ILLUSTRATIONS AND REFLECTIONS.

Part III. THE PARTY SYSTEM.

Part VI. SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

TIMES—"Mr. Bryce's volumes belong to a very small and rare class. They challenge, and they merit, the most careful examination . . . for a long time to come, we are confident, this will be the classical work upon a subject the interest in which cannot diminish."

ST. JAMES'S GAZETTE—"After much labour and long preparation Professor Bryce's great work—for it deserves the epithet—on the constitution, government, and politics of the United States is at last before us. It is a work which its author was well fitted to undertake, a work nonnum presumit in annum—which both Englishmen and Americans can turn to as authoritative, sober, impartial, and impressive."

PALL MALL GAZETTE—"Mr. Bryce has produced a work remarkable alike for penetration of judgment, for felicity of style, and for solidity of research."

By M. EMILE BOUTMY.

Just published. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

STUDIES IN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—FRANCE, ENGLAND,
UNITED STATES. By EMILE BOUTMY, Member of the Institute of France, Principal of the School of Political Science. Translated from the second French Edition by E. M. DICEY. With an Introduction by A. V. DICEY, B.C.L.; Vinerian Professor of English Law, Oxford.

DUBLIN MAIL—"Unquestionably a marvel of lucidity and conciseness, combined with critical power and intimate knowledge of the English, American, and French constitutions. . . . It is the result of a careful study of the foremost writers on Constitutional Law in America, England, and France."

COMPANION VOLUME.

Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION. By EMILE BOUTMY, Member of the Institute. Translated from the French by ISABEL M. EADEN. With Preface by Sir
FREDERICK POLLOCK, Bart.

SCOTTISH LEADER—"A brief and masterly sketch of our constitutional history from a French point of view."

By SIR CHARLES W. DILKE.

Fourth and Cheaper Edition, Revised. Extra Crown 8vo, 12s. 6d.

PROBLEMS OF GREATER BRITAIN. By the Right Hon. Sir CHARLES
W. DILKE, Bart. Fourth and Cheaper Edition, Revised. With Maps.

*. In this edition the author has made some small corrections and added some notes to meet changes in the constitution of colonial governments which have occurred during the last ten months.

SPECTATOR—"Sir Charles Dilke's very able book. . . . To deal adequately with a book so stuffed with facts, and occupied with so vast a variety of subjects, is utterly impossible even in the course of two notices. All we can do is to fasten upon one or two of the most interesting features."

Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d. each.

THE ENGLISH CITIZEN:

HIS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

Edited by HENRY CRAIK, C.B.

THE PUNISHMENT AND PREVEN-
TION OF CRIME. By Col. Sir EDMUND
DU CANE.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT. By M. D.

CHALMERS.

COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES.

Part I. INDIA. By J. S. COTTON, M.A.—

II. THE COLONIES. By E. J. PAVNE.

THE STATE IN ITS RELATION TO EDUCATION. By HENRY CRAIK, C.B.

THE STATE AND THE CHURCH.

By Hon. ARTHUR ELLIOTT, M.P.

THE STATE IN ITS RELATION TO
TRADE. By Sir T. H. FARRER, Bart.

THE POOR LAW. By the Rev. T. W.

FOWLE.

THE STATE IN RELATION TO LABOUR. By W. STANLEY JEVONS.

JUSTICE AND POLICE. By F. W.

MAITLAND.

THE NATIONAL DEFENCES. By Col.

MAURICE, R.A. [In the Press.]

THE LAND LAWS. By Sir F. POLLOCK,

Bart. Second Edition.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. By H. D.

TRAILL.

THE ELECTORATE AND THE LEG-ISLATURE. By SPENCER WALPOLE.

FOREIGN RELATIONS. By S. WALPOLE

THE NATIONAL BUDGET; THE NATIONAL DEBT; TAXES AND RATES. By A. J. WILSON.

MACMILLAN AND CO., LONDON.

MESSRS. MACMILLAN AND CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

ENGLISH MEN OF ACTION SERIES.

Crown 8vo, cloth. 2s. 6d. each.

GENERAL GORDON. By Colonel Sir WILLIAM BUTLER.

SPECTATOR—"This is beyond all question the best of the narratives of the career of General Gordon that have yet been published."

HENRY THE FIFTH. By the Rev. A. J. CHURCH.

LIVINGSTONE. By Mr. THOMAS HUGHES.

SPECTATOR—"The volume is an excellent instance of miniature biography."

LORD LAWRENCE. By Sir RICHARD TEMPLE.

LEEDS MERCURY—"A lucid, temperate, and impressive summary."

WELLINGTON. By Mr. GEORGE HOOPER.

SCOTSMAN—"The story of the great Duke's life is admirably told by Mr. Hooper."

DAMPIER. By Mr. W. CLARK RUSSELL.

ATHENÆUM—"Mr. Clark Russell's practical knowledge of the sea enables him to discuss the seafaring life of two centuries ago with intelligence and vigour. As a commentary on Dampier's voyages this little book is among the best."

MONK. By Mr. JULIAN CORBETT.

SATURDAY REVIEW—"Mr. Corbett indeed gives you the real man."

STRAFFORD. By Mr. H. D. TRAILL.

ATHENÆUM—"A clear and accurate summary of Strafford's life, especially as regards his Irish government."

WARREN HASTINGS. By Sir ALFRED LYALL.

DAILY NEWS—"May be pronounced without hesitation as the final and decisive verdict of history on the conduct and career of Hastings."

PETERBOROUGH. By Mr. W. STEBBING.

SATURDAY REVIEW—"An excellent piece of work."

CAPTAIN COOK. By Mr. WALTER BESANT.

SCOTTISH LEADER—"It is simply the best and most readable account of the great navigator yet published."

SIR HENRY HAVELOCK. By Mr. ARCHIBALD FORBES.

SPEAKER—"There is no lack of good writing in this book, and the narrative is sympathetic as well as spirited."

CLIVE. By Colonel Sir CHARLES WILSON.

TIMES—"Sir Charles Wilson, whose literary skill is unquestionable, does ample justice to a great and congenial theme."

SIR CHARLES NAPIER. By Colonel Sir WILLIAM BUTLER.

DAILY NEWS—"The 'English Men of Action' series contains no volume more fascinating, both in matter and in style."

WARWICK, THE KING-MAKER. By Mr. C. W. C. OMAN.

ANTI-JACOBIN—"The most valuable of the excellent series to which it belongs. . . Beyond question the best book which has yet appeared on the Wars of the Roses."

GLASGOW HERALD—"One of the best and most discerning word-pictures of the Wars of the Two Roses to be found in the whole range of English literature."

DRAKE. By Mr. JULIAN CORBETT.

SCOTTISH LEADER—"Perhaps the most fascinating of all the fifteen that have so far appeared. . . . Written really with excellent judgment, in a breezy and buoyant style."

RODNEY. By Mr. DAVID G. HANNAY.

MONTROSE. By Mr. MOWBRAY MORRIS.

MARLBOROUGH. By Colonel Sir WILLIAM BUTLER.

[In preparation.

SIR JOHN MOORE. By Colonel MAURICE.

[In the Press.

MACMILLAN AND CO., LONDON.