

M. Godi GIPE-PUNE-000447 at Guise is one of the _____ examples of the practical application of Co-partnership in the world. . . . The figures tell their own eloquent tale, and will repay the most careful attention.

From the Introduction by the Rt. Hon. Thomas Burt, M.P.

The Labour Co-partnership Association,

6, BLOOMSBURY SQUARE, LONDON, W.C.

Is an Educational, Advisory, and Propagandist Body.

THE object of the Association is to bring about an Organisation of Industry based on the principle of Labour Co-partnership—that is to say, a system in which all those engaged shall share in the profit, capital, control, and responsibility. With this view it seeks (1) in the co-operative movement to aid by its propaganda and advice all forms of production based on the above principle. (2) In other businesses to induce employers and employed to adopt schemes of profit-sharing and investment tending in the same direction.

It works by means of Lectures, Conferences,

Literature, and Correspondence.

ITS MEMBERSHIP CONSISTS OF:—

- (1) Individuals who subscribe from 1/- a year and upwards to its funds (2/6 and upwards entitles subscribers to have all the Association's Literature sent post free as it is published, including its monthly organ, Labour Co-partnership).
- (2) Labour Co-partnership Productive Societies, and their Educational Departments, which subscribe One Penny per member per year.
- (3) Distributive Stores, Educational Departments, Trade Unions, and Employers' Associations, which subscribe £1 and upwards a year and receive, post free (1) 13 copies of Labour Co-partnership, each month, and (2) 13 copies of any other publications from time to time during the year.
