

INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

The statistical tables in this volume have been reproduced from the Report on the Scheme of Preferences resulting from the Ottawa Trade Agreement for the year 1934-35, with later figures inserted, as far as possible, up to the end of October 1935. Tables II and V in the Introductory Chapter and some of the tables on pages 22, 25, 31, 33, 78, 88 and 103 of Chapter II of the Report dealing with exports from India have not been included in this volume as no later figures are available. No changes have been made in the abstract statements on pages 133 to 150 of Chapter II and pages 178 to 189 of Chapter III showing the course of Indian export and import trade and the U. K. import trade in the articles enjoying preference, or in Appendices II to VI to the Report. These statements and Appendices also therefore do not appear in this volume.

The references at the head of the tables in the volume are to the pages of the main Report.

Total (all countries) ..	95,04	99,34	+4,30	94,41	-4,93	54,99	58,51	+3,52

NOTE.—Exports of oir manufactures, spices, castor seed and groundnuts from the Indian States enjoying preferences have been taken into account so far as statistics are available.

* This head includes only that portion of the trade with the Colonies on which India actually receives preferences, the rest of the trade being shown under "Other Countries". For example, in regard to cotton piece-goods India enjoys no preference in Ceylon, while some other British Colonies grant preference to India. The exports from British India to Ceylon of cotton manufactures have therefore been credited to "Other Countries".

(b) Imports of articles into India which are subject to preferential duties.
