ERNAKULAM,
10th September 1919.

From

M. R. Ry. T. S. NARAYANA IYER Avl., M. A. & B. L.,
President of the Cochin Nair
Regulation Committee.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE DIWAN,
Local and Legislative Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith the Report of the Cochin Nair Regulation Committee appointed by the Darbar in Diwan's Proceedings in the Local and Legislative Department, R. O. C. No. 2725/91, dated 9th September 1917, together with the Draft Cochin Nair Regulation framed by the Committee in the light of its findings on the evidence collected by it.

2. I regret very much that, owing to the sudden and unexpected death of our colleague Mr. K. P. Padmanabha Menon, his signature to the fair copies of the Report and the Draft Regulation could not be obtained, though he had generally approved of the same, differing only on a few provisions of the Draft Regulation. A separate Memorandum drawn up by him to supplement the Committee's report and furnished to me by the executor of his will is enclosed. Both on behalf of myself and my colleagues in the Committee, I wish to acknowledge the valuable services rendered by Mr. Padmanabha Menon at the numerous sittings of the Committee. His profound learning, ripe experience and calm judgment were of considerable help to the Committee in the execution of a very important task committed to it.

3. Statistical statements Nos. 1 to 21 prepared by the Committee in arriving at its conclusions and a printed copy of the depositions and written answers of the witnesses, etc., also form enclosures to the Committee's report. The Draft Bill of the memorialists forwarded with the Diwan's Proceedings under reference is also returned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
T. S. NARAYANA IYER,
President.

APPENDIX II.

Questionnaire.

General Constituencies.

1. Is it necessary to make any addition to the existing qualifications for voters as defined in Schedule II of the Legislative Council Electoral Rules and if so, what addition do you recommend?

N. B.—The present qualifications are as follows.--

A person shall be qualified as an elector for a general constituency who—

- (a) is a pattadar of the State whose land is charged to a land revenue assessment of Rs. 5 or more; or
- (b) is a State Devaswam tenant holding land charged to a land revenue assessment of Rs. 5 or more; or
- (c) is a tenant of a landholder or landholders holding land in the State on kanam, adima, anubhogam, inam and other cognate tenures charged to a land revenue assessment of Rs. 5 or more; or
- (d) is a holder of land in the State under any two or more of the heads referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (c) above whose holding is in the aggregate charged to a land revenue assessment of Rs. 5 or more; or
- (e) pays a Municipal tax of Rs. 2 or more per annum to a Municipal Council in the State, or
- (f) is a tenant of premises assessed by a Municipal Council in the State on an annual rental value of Rs. 30 or more; or
- (g) is a registered owner of fishing stakes in the State paying an annual revenue of Rs. 5 or more; or
- (h) is a graduate of any recognised Indian or British University; or
- (i) is a Barrister-at-Law or legal practitioner recognised by the Chief Court of Cochin, the High Court of Travancore or any British Indian High Court; or
- (j) is a qualified medical practitioner not below the grade of L. M. P. or is an Ayurvedic medical practitioner recognised by the Diwan in this behalf; or
- (k) is in receipt of a pension of not less than Rs. 10 per mensem for service under any Government, or local or special body constituted by law; or
- (l) pays anything by way of Income-tax.

Note—The term 'Cognate tenures' in clause (c) above includes Panayams or usufructuary mortgages subject under the terms of the document to renewal at fixed periods on payment of renewal fees.

If property is held or payments are made jointly by the members of a joint family or by joint pattadars the family or joint holding shall be adopted as the unit for deciding whether under this schedule the requisite qualification exists; and, if it does exist, the person qualified shall be the member authorised, in writing by a majority of the joint holders, or in the case of a joint family either a member so authorised, or in the absence of such authorisation, the manager thereof.

A person may be qualified either in his personal capacity or in the capacity of a representative of a joint family or of joint pattadars, but not in both capacities.

Save as hereinbefore provided, no person shall be qualified as an elector for a general constituency in respect of any property unless he possesses the prescribed property qualification in his own personal right and not in a fiduciary capacity.

1. (a) Are you for enfranchising Verumpattom tenants? Do you propose any limitation in such a case?

2. Should any or all the qualifications mentioned in rule 4 be lowered or modified and if so, to what extent?

3. Do you advocate adult franchise at present?

Special Constituencies.

4. Are you in favour of continuing all the existing special constituencies?

N. B.—The Special Constituencies now existing are:—

- (1) Landholders,
- (2) Planters,
- (3) Commerce and Industry,
- (4) Ezhuvas (South),
- (5) Ezhuvas (North),
- (6) Muslims and
- (7) Jews.

5. Is it necessary to make any changes regarding special constituencies either in relation to their general nature or their number?

6. Do you recommend any modification of the existing qualifications prescribed for voters in the various special constituencies and if you do, on what lines would you modify the present rules?

N. B.—The present qualifications are as follows.—

1. LANDHOLDERS' CONSTITUENCY.

A person shall be qualified as an elector for the Landholders' constituency if he has resided in the Cochin State for not less than 120 days in the previous year and if he is a pattadar of the State owning lands charged to a land revenue assessment of rupees five hundred or more.

(a) Where lands are registered in the name of a single holder the name of that holder alone shall be entered in the electoral roll.

(b) Where lands are held by several persons as members of a joint family or as trustees of a Devaswam, the person qualified shall be the member or trustee nominated in writing by a majority of the adult members of such family or of such trustees as the case may be, provided however that in the absence of such authorisation in the said manner in regard to a joint family, the manager thereof shall be the person qualified.

2. PLANTERS' CONSTITUENCY.

A person shall be qualified as an elector for the Planters' constituency if he has resided in the Cochin State for not less than 120 days in the previous year and if he holds or is the recognised manager or a nominee in this behalf in writing of a company or association holding not less than 150 acres of land in the Cochin State, for the purpose of cultivating coffee, tea, rubber or the like or a combination of one or more of such plants.

3. EZHUVAS', MUSLIMS' AND JEWS' CONSTITUENCIES.

A person shall be qualified as an elector for an Ezhuvas', Muslims' or Jews' constituency if he is an Ezhuvan, Muslim or Jew, respectively, and he is qualified as an elector for a general constituency.

4. COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY CONSTITUENCY.

A person shall be qualified as an elector for the Commerce and Industry constituency who has resided in the Cochin State for not less than 120 days in the previous year and who —

(a) is the owner of a factory which falls within the definition of a factory as defined in the Cochin Factories Regulation, VII of 1933, which is situated in the Cochin State and in which work has been carried on during the previous year; or

(b) is a partner in a firm owning such a factory or is the representative of such a firm and has been nominated in writing by the firm for the purpose of voting in its behalf; or

(c) is a director or representative of a company as defined in the Indian Companies Act, VII of 1913, as made applicable to Cochin, having a place of business in the Cochin State and a paid-up capital of not less than Rs. 5,000 and who has been nominated in writing for the purpose of voting in its behalf by a majority of the directors; or

(d) is a person whose annual income from Commerce or Industry or both together is assessed at Rs. 2,000 or more for the purpose of Income-tax; or

(e) is a partner in or representative of a firm having a place of business in the Cochin State and is assessed at Rs. 2,000 or more for the purpose of Income-tax and has been nominated in writing by the firm for the purpose of voting in its behalf.

Communal Electorates.

7. Which are the communities that deserve special representation?

8. Do you consider it necessary to continue communal electorates?

9. Will reservation of seats for communities in general constituencies be a satisfactory substitute in place of the existing system of communal representation?

Redistribution of Constituencies.

10. Without affecting the total number of the existing elected seats, is any redistribution of constituencies necessary in your opinion in the

(a) General constituencies,

(b) Special constituencies?

If you recommend any redistribution of constituencies give particulars regarding your proposal.

N. B.—Redistribution in this question would also include the abolition of any one existing constituency, and the creation in its place of another constituency, general or special.

10. (a) Do you think it necessary to make any change or changes in the mode of exercise of the franchise, following any redistribution or reservation?
