

Published by order of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja Gaekwar.

Baroda Banking Inquiry Committee

1929-30

REPORT

BARODA STATE PRESS

1930

Baroda Banking Inquiry Committee, 1929-30.

President :

MANILAL BALABHAI NANAVATI, ESQR., B.A., LL.B.,
M.A. (Penn., U.S.A.).

Members :

SHANKERRAO MADHAVRAO PAGAR, B.A., (Wis.)
A.M., Ph.D. (Columbia).

MATUBHAI H. KANTAWALLA, ESQR., M.A.

SHETH MAHASUKHBHAI CHUNILAL.

SHETH CHHOTALAL KILACHAND.

RAMCHANDRARAO RAOJI PAWAR, ESQR., BA., LL.B.,
M.A., A.M.

RAJ RATNA SHETH DINSHAW RATANJI DABU.

PROF. J. M. MEHTA, M.A. (Oxford), Bar-at-Law., Ph.D., (London).

PROF. K. H. KAMDAR, M.A.

Secretary :

A. B. PANDYA, ESQR., B.A., LL.B.

Joint Secretary :

PROF. K. H. KAMDAR, M.A.

Published by order of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja Gaekwar.

Baroda Banking Inquiry Committee

1929-30

REPORT

BARODA STATE PRESS

1930

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.		Pages.
Introduction.		1 - 9
Appointment of the Committee 1-3, Terms of Reference 4, Working of the Committee 5-11, Plan of the Report 12, Bibliography 13 and Acknowledgments 14.
CHAPTER II.
Economic Conditions of the State (Descriptive). ...		10-39
Geography of the State 15-17, Soil 18, Rainfall 19-20, Climate 21-22, Agriculture and Land 23-24, Irrigation 25-26, Population 27, Agricultural population 28, Occupational statistics 29, Density of population 30, Urban and rural population 31, Religions and Castes 32, Literacy 33-34, Mineral Resources of the State 35, Forests 36, Crops 37-39, Dairy Produce 40, Livestock 41, Land Tenure 42, Khatedars 43-44, Transfer of land 45, Size of holdings 46, Old hand-industries 47, Industrial Revival 48, Technical Education, etc. 49-50, Swadeshi movement 51, Joint-stock Companies 52, Industries in the State 53, Department of Agriculture 54, Railways 55, Ports 56, Export and Import statistics 57, Revenues and expenditure of the State 58, Financial position of the State 59, Statement of the problem 60.
CHAPTER III.
Banking by the Baroda State (Historical)		40-52
Preliminary 61, The Potedari system 62, Banking houses or Dukans 63, Changes 64, Beginning of modern banking 65, Commercial banks or Pedhis 66-67, Departmental banks 68, Industrial Commission of 1894 69, Seed Depots 70, Agricultural banks or वैदेशिक बैंक 71, Inquiries into agricultural and industrial finance 72, Tagavi 73, Co-operative banking 74, Industrial banking 75, The Bank of Baroda Ltd. 76, Department of Commerce and Industries and the Development Commissioner 77, Recommendation.
CHAPTER IV.
Agricultural Finance		53-138
Plan of the chapter 73, I Financing Agencies 79-134
(1) Private Money-lenders 80-102		53-65
Their classification 80, City or Town banker 81, Village merchants 82, Cultivators 83, Their dealings 84, Money-lenders

	Pages.
as local men 85, The Pathan 86, Reliable data not available 87, Rates of interest in the State 88-90, Contracts between the farmers and Sahukars 91, Commissions, discounts and other charges 92-93, Relations between Kheduts and Sahukars 94-95, Causes of distrust 96, Sahukars in the State 97-98, Financial requirements of the agriculturists 99, Sahukars' importance 100, Disadvantages of the system 101, Improving the Sahukar's business 102.
(2) Co-operative Societies 103-138	65-98
Legislation 103, Objects of the inquiry 104, General progress 105, Agricultural societies 106, Their constitution and working 107, Ideal of a credit society 108, Its defects 109, Its achievements 110, Inadequate finance: remedies and suggestions 111, Loans and securities 112, Savings Accounts 113, Deposits 114, Compulsory deposits and share system 115, Reserve funds 116, Thrift societies 117, The Group secretary 118, Central financing agencies 119-121, Need for more co-operative banks 122, Primary societies and banks 123, Government aid to banks 124, Conferences of co-operative bank managers 125, Agricultural Pedhis 126, An Apex Bank 127, The Bank of Baroda and Co-operative Banking 128, Societies for backward tracts 129, Non-credit co-operation 130, Rural and urban surveys 131, Strength of Co-operative Department 132-134, Training of the Staff 135, Co-operation between (1) Government (2) Co-operative Institute and (3) Central Banks 136, Training of workers 137, Recommend a committee of investigation 138, Recommendations.
(3) Agricultural Banks 139-148	98-106
History of Agricultural Pedhis 139, Constitution and concessions from Government 140, Their working. Changes 141, Their financial position 142, Their problems. Four issues 143, (1) Loans to individuals 144, (2) Long-term loans 145, (3) Transference of shares to co-operative societies 146, (4) Organisation of more Pedhis 147, Their scope 148, Recommendations.
(4) Tagavi 149-154	106-110
The State as financier 149, Old and new forms of Tagavi 150, Forms and purposes of Tagavi 151, Drawbacks of the system 152, Changes suggested 153, Concession rates in rates of interest 154, Recommendations.
II. Agricultural Indebtedness 155-177	111-125
Description 155-157, Effect of change in tenure 158, Full right of alienation 159, Laws and procedure 160, Village community; loss of its prestige 161, Increase in population 162, Effects of changes: increased credit and easy borrowings 163, Increase of indebtedness 164, Effects of the famine of 1899 and of Tagavi 165, Surveys undertaken 166, Amount and extent of indebtedness 167, Its causes 167 A, Productive and unproductive debts 168, Remedies 169-171, Conciliation proceedings 172, Legislation 173, The Deccan Agriculturist Relief Act 174, The Punjab Land Alienation Act 175, Adjudication of debts 176, Liquidation through co-operative societies 177, Recommendations .

	Pages.
III. Land Mortgage Bank 178-182	125-137
Inadequacy of credit societies 178-180, Government's inability to finance 181, Land mortgage bank overdue. Record of land rights 182, Recommendations . Summary of the Recommendations of the Land Mortgage Bank Committee 1925.
IV. Co-ordination in Agricultural Finance 183-185 ...	137-138
Lack of Organisation 183. Co-ordination of various methods 184, Strengthening co-operative movement 185, Recommendations .
CHAPTER V.
Marketing.	139-163
Advantages of Marketing 186, Important crops in the State 187, How they are marketed 188, Cotton 189, Investigation of the Indian Central Cotton Committee 190, Advances and how they are obtained 191, Rates of interest and amounts borrowed 192, Conclusions from the investigation 193, Amount and place of sales 194, Methods of sales 195-196, Conclusions of the Indian Central Cotton Committee 197, Co-operative sale societies for cotton 198, Sale of vegetables 199, Sale of tobacco 200, Sale of dairy produce 201, Weights and measures 202, Brokers, weighers etc. and their commissions 203, Warehousing 204, Markets in the State 205, Marketing organisation 206, Marketing law 207, Means of Communication 208, Marketing surveys 209, Recommendations .
CHAPTER VI.
Indigenous Banking: The Shroff	164-184
The Shroff 210, His history 211, The Ant 212, An old agreement between the State and Shroff 213, His decline and its causes 214, His change of profession 215, Gujaratis as bankers 216, The Shroff to-day 217, The Shroff in the State 218, Description of his business 219, Its elasticity 220, Hundis etc. 221, The Shroff's needs. The Agency system 222, Shroff as a bill broker 223, Shroff as guarantee broker 224, Concessions in remittance through treasuries 225, Legal protection not needed 226, A Shroff Association needed 227, Conclusion 228, Recommendations .
CHAPTER VII.
Joint-stock Banking: The Bank of Baroda Ltd. ...	185-213
Only one joint-stock bank in Baroda 229, Banking and modern industrialism in Baroda 230, History of the foundation of the Bank of Baroda 231-233, The Bank of Baroda Ltd and agreements with Government 234-238, Latest balance-sheet of the Bank 239, The position of the Bank, 1910 to 1929, 240, The Bank at work 241, Complaints against the Bank 242, Branch banking by the Bank of Baroda 243, Foreign business through Port Okha 244, Association of local committees with branches 245, Keeping of sufficient funds for the use of business at branches 246, Shroffs as agents of the Bank 247, A more representative directorate 248, Small joint-stock banks and more branches of the Bank of Baroda in the State 249, System of loans 250, Popularising banking 251, The future 252, Recommendations.

CHAPTER VIII.

Trade and Remittances 214-218

Financing Export and Import trade 253-254, Export of Commercial Crops 255, Export of Seeds from Kadi 256, Export of Tobacco 257, Share of the banks 258, Export of manufactured goods 259, Import trade 260, Import trade in food stuffs 261, Import from overseas 262-263, Conclusion 264, Lines for future development 265, Shroff's position 266, Remove stamp duty on hundis 267, Sale of uniform Hundi papers 268, Treasury remittances 269, Recommendations.

CHAPTER IX.

Industrial Finance 219-242

Preliminary 270, Classification of industries 271, Large-scale Industries, Their finance 272, Finance through share capital 273, Finance through banks 274, Finance through deposits 275, Bank's finance 276, Loans 277, Debentures 278, Loans for raw materials 279, State's share in industrial finance 280-83, State loans through banks 284, Details of financial aid from the State 285, Small Industries, Description 286, Their finance 287, Bank's share therein 288, State aid 289, Shroff's share therein 290, Cottage Industries, Defined 291, Industrial Census 292, Statistics of cottage industries 293, Industrial Surveys 294, Their financing 295, Suggestions 296, Exhibitions and fairs 297, Subsidiary industries, A Cottage Industries Institute 298, Dry farming leaves leisure for cottage industries 299, Subsidiary industries for farmers 300, Dairying 301, Hypothek Bank 302, Recommendations.

CHAPTER X.

Investment Banking 243-264

Investment banking explained 303, Investment banking in the State 304, Bank of Baroda as investment banker 305, Shroff as investment banker 305, Co-operative Societies as investment bankers 307, Savings banks as investment bankers 308, Savings bank in the State 309, Public Trust Office 310, Thrift Societies as investment bankers 311, Mutual savings banks as investment bankers 312, Deposits received by joint-stock companies 313, Government of India Post Offices as investment bankers 314, Postal Cash Certificates 315, Gilt-edged securities, municipal and other bonds 316, Insurance Societies 317, Usefulness of an insurance organisation 318, History of State Insurance in the State 319-321, Other forms of Investment Banking 322, Investment Banking is of slow growth 323, Conclusion 324, Recommendations.

CHAPTER XI.

Regulation of Banking 265-279

Regulation of banking in several forms 325, Proposed restrictions on money-lenders 326, Legal measures to protect the farmer 327, The Interest Act 328, Jalap or forward contracts 329, Dam Dupat 330, Inspection of accounts 331, Suits for accounts by farmer debtors 332, Uniformity of accounts discussed 333, Law's delays 334, Exempting maintenance means from execution proceeding 335, Difficulties of the problem 336, Co-operative Banks 337, The Shroff 338, Deposits in joint-stock companies 339, Banking Law 340, Publication of the balance-sheets of the Bank of Baroda 341, Larger representation on the Board of Directors of the Bank 342, Bank not to be officialised 343, Recommendations.

CHAPTER XII.

Banking Education: 280-285

Banking Education 344, The Kala Bhavan: Difficulties 345, Institute for training in co-operative banking 346, Kala Bhavan staff requires strengthening 347, Help from the Bank of Baroda 348, Training of the staff of co-operative department and co-operative banking 349, A central college for co-operative banking in India 350, Other suggestions 351, Library 352, Publication of special periodicals 353, Departmental co-operation 355, Indigenous banking 356. Recommendations.

CHAPTER XIII.

Concluding Remarks 286-293

The view-point of the report 357, Resume 358, Lines for development, ways and means 359, The Development Board, its constitution and functions 360, Statistics and surveys 361, Banking, Tariff and Currency 362, Recommendations.

Conclusion 363.

Minute of Dissent by Mr. M. H. Kantavala	294-300
Note by the President on the above minute	301
APPENDIX I	303-310
APPENDIX II	311-313
APPENDIX III	314
APPENDIX IV-V	315-320
APPENDIX VI	321-324
BIBLIOGRAPHY	325-327
