

M. K. GANDHI

SONGS FROM PRISON

TRANSLATIONS

OF INDIAN LYRICS

MADE IN-JAIL

SONGS FROM PRISON

POEMS BY RABINDRANATH TAGORE

THE CHILD

Cr. 8vo.

2s. 6d. net

“The poet retells this ancient but eternally new story with a quiet and beautiful simplicity.”—Times Literary Supplement

“The whole is a poet’s conception, a mystic’s vision; and it has images as sterling and stellar as ever came from him.”—Manchester Guardian

THE GOLDEN BOAT

TRANSLATED BY BHABANI BHATTACHARYA

Cr. 8vo.

Second Impression

4s. 6d. net

“Humanity, humour, religious mysticism and philosophy are intermingled in these beautifully wrought poems. . . . The whole is a precious cargo of poetry.”—Scotsman

SONGS FROM PRISON

TRANSLATIONS

OF INDIAN LYRICS

MADE IN JAIL

BY

M. K. GANDHI

Adapted for the Press

by

JOHN S. HOYLAND

LONDON

GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN LTD

MUSEUM STREET

FIRST PUBLISHED IN 1934

All rights reserved

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN BY
UNWIN BROTHERS LTD., WOKING

NOTICE

All royalties accruing from the sale of this book will go to the funds of Mr. Gandhi's work for the removal of Untouchability in India.
