

Dange (S.A.) : Statement in the Court of the Additional Sessions Judge, Meerut
Conspiracy Case, Meerut.

V. 2. 1932.

PART III

No. of pages		Name of Heading.
1	Section 1	106. The growth of the Bombay textile bourgeois - its profits which were the bases of the Bombay strikes.
11		107. No rise in wages though prices and profits rose and real wages fell - the resulting strikes and increase in wages.
17		108. The depression in industry and attack on wages - the strikes of 1924 and 1925.
27		109. The Japanese competition and Tariff Board - rationalisation and attack on wages - partial strikes and their failure.
36	Section 2	110. The failure of partial strikes necessitated a general strike - direct causes of the 1928 strike.
45		111. The attitude of the B.T.L. Union and Mr. N.M. Joshi - the G.K. Mahamandal's changing attitude - general strike complete.
52		112. B.T.L. Union joins the strike - was the G.K.M. controlled by the S.P.P.? - how it was pushed into the general strike by the rank and file.
60		113. Did we prolong the strike? - negotiation and classes - how the bourgeoisie uses the different general strikes - strikes becoming longer and fought harder since 1917 - compromise with the B.T.L. Union and formation of the Joint Strike Committee.
69		114. P.W. Hassan Ali's mistakes - the Governor's visit, 27th April - the mill-owners' communiques in May - our reply - Sir Cowasji Jehangir's visit - mill-owners refuse negotiations, 15th May.
75		115. Mill-owners' plank of rationalisation in January - the Governor's speech and Mr. Joshi's reply - picketing troubles - the conflict of two duties of an Honorary Magistrate and strike leader.

- 82 116. The Russian textile workers' help - the nationalist attack on this help - Municipal Corporation refuses relief - the exodus of 80,000 workers.
- 89 117. Making way for negotiations - registration of the Girni Kamgar Union.
- 93 118. Pandit Malaviya's visit and our "sins" - Khilafat Committee's communal help rejected - The Police arrest me and Nigbkar - mill-owners open talks in June.
- 104 119. Relief begun - attempt to open mills under armed protection in August - The Hidayatullah Conference and its failure (15/8/28).
- 113 120. Mill-owners' admission about wage-cut - the Assembly letter - the Mayor fund.
- 127 121. The Mayor's efforts at negotiations - M. Shaukat Ali comes out to break the strike - alternative proposals - our standard scheme.
- 138 122. More proposals for compromise - discussions with mill-owners broke down again in Sept: 1928 - settlement of October 1928 and the end of the general strike.
- 148 123. Did we "use" the strike meetings and speeches during the strike - their relation to strike matters and educative function.
- 158 124. Our meetings did not incite violence - fall in the cases of damage to property and crime in the mill area during the strike period - the evidence of speeches and the Riots Inquiry Committee.
- 168 125. My three strike meeting speeches - Exhibits P 1701M3, P 2242 and P 2245.
- 177 126. The help of the international proletariat to the strike.
- 186 127. Inland help to the strike - collections in Bombay, Poona, Ahmedabad etc. the Congress help.

- 193 Section 3 128. Small revolt against the October agreement - Ex. P 966 - the task after the strike - competitors of the G.K.U. - volunteers and the Union - Ex. P 967 and P 929.
- 202 129. The functions of Red Trade Union Volunteers.
- 212 130. Complaints about violation of the agreement by the mill-owners - the 71 individual mill strikes after October - were they incited by us?
- 219 131. The agreements and wage increases secured through the small strikes - the formation of mill committees.
- 225 132. Millowners' move against mill committees & G.K.U. collections inside the mills - The Pearson Court of Inquiry for the 1929 General Strike - My evidence refuse
- 232 133. Why we formed Mill Committees.
- 238 134. Participation in Fawcett Committee's work - Ex. P 967 - friction with the B.T.L.U. and B.M.W.U.
- 242 135. The attack of 11th and firing of 12th December 1928 - the cause of handbill P 929 - the second attack which went wrong.
- 251 136. The consolidation of the G.K.U. - the programme of funds and volunteers as worked out - the G.K.U. finances - Exhibits P 949, 959, 971 and 982.
- 271 137. The Pearl Mill murder case - (references Exhibits P 958, resolutions of the G.K.U. Managing Committee).
- 280 138. The G.K.U. and the February communal riots - Exs. P 702, P 858 and G.K.U. resolutions in Ex. P 958.
- 307 139. The false statements of Messrs Alwe, Kasle and Kishori Lal Ghosh regarding myself, the G.K.U. and the Bombay workers with their references to Exs. P 958, P 395(1), P 966, P 967 etc.

- 330 140. The Tramwaymen's Union.
- 337 141. The All-India Trade Union Congress - its formation and the attitude of the National Congress towards it.
- 347 Section 4 142. The T.U.C. and its early political ideal - the Second International's efforts to capture the T.U.C. and the Cawnpore Session of 1927 - Exts. P 545(8), P 545(6) - P.Ws. 111 & 119.
- 355 143. The Delhi E.C. T.U.C. Meeting - Jharia Congress- the T.U.C. must not cooperate with the surrenders of the I.N.C.
- 363 144. The W.P.P. and C.P.I. Exhibits.
- 367 145. Exhibit Letters.
- 372 146. Refusal of the Court here and at Cawnpore, and the District Magistrate to permit me to obtain information on the "Foreign exhibits" when I was taken as a Defence witness in the Roy Case.
- 378 147. Exhs: P 507 "Gandhi Vs. Lenin" - Our meetings - Ex. P 2512.
- 383 148. One year and 13 days! "delaying tactics" of the Prosecution - 471 useless exhibits - 49 unnecessary witnesses - 880 pages wastefully printed.
- 393 149. Misinterpretation of our attitude on the question of violence and non-violence - Are our statements Defence or Defiance - It is defence of the right of every Indian to be a Communist and to belong to a Communist Party.