PREFACE

The first edition of the Bombay Education Manual was compiled in 1932 in the office of the Director of Public Instruction and was issued under his authority. Since then it has not been possible, for various reasons, to revise the manual and to bring out an up-to-date edition. The revision of the manual was undertaken towards the end of 1947 and was completed early in 1948 ; but due to the pressure of work in the Government Central Press, Bombay, it was not possible to publish the second edition earlier. There have been momentous changes since the advent of independence which have affected and are affecting the educational set-up, and it has not been possible to incorporate in this edition all the instructions, orders, etc., issued from time to time as a result of these changes, due to the time-lag between the preparation of the revised edition and its publication. It is hoped, however, that the present edition, though not quite up-to-date, will prove useful in the day-to-day administration of the Department.

2. The rules in the manual against which no reference to Government orders or circulars has been cited have the same authority as circulars, executive instructions, other orders, etc., issued by the Director. The manual does not claim to include all the orders, instructions, etc. issued from time to time, so that the omission of any circulars, orders, or executive instructions from this edition should not be taken to imply that such circulars, orders, or executive instructions have been cancelled or deleted, unless they have been definitely superseded by orders of competent authority. The rules in the manual should not be quoted to Government or to officers of other Departments as authority for any practice not consistent with the Bombay Civil Services Rules, other manuals, publications, orders, etc., issued from time to time under the authority of Government.

3. Officers of the Department are requested to bring to the notice of the Director any omissions from, as well as additions to, or alterations in the rules in this edition which appear to them necessary or desirable.

4. The rules in this manual are not applicable to Anglo-Indian Schools which are governed by a separate code of regulations for such schools.

Director of Public Instruction.
