Shakespeare's Chart of Life :

BEING STUDIES OF

HAMLET, KING LEAR, OTHELLO & MACBETH.

the Rev. Dr. William Miller, C.I.E.,

Principal, Madras Christian College.

Dr. Miller does not appear as an annotator or critic. He fixes his student's attention especially on the ethical side of Shakespeare's teaching. According to him, the plays of Shakespeare, whether designedly or not, are not calculated merely to amuse. They have each "an inner meaning," & "central idea," which it does the student good to search out and assimilate.

The Madras Mail.—Dr. Miller has taught Shakespeare for over 40 years to hundreds of students, who have passed through the Christian College. And in his classes, if he has enforced one lesson more than another, it has been that these plays must have been written with the object, among others, of making plain the moral principles, which underlie the ordinary occurrences in human life, and that it is this feature of Shakespeare's plays which makes them not only an intellectual discipline but a means of real benefit to those upon whom they have their full and proper influence.

MAITREYI.

A VEDIC STORY IN SIX CHAPTERS.

BY PANDIT SITANATH TATTVABHUSHAN.

Indian Mirror.—The author has recalled to life the dead bones of a very ancient and classical anecdote, and embellished it with his own imagination and philosophical disquisition. Pandit Sitanath has made the Maitreyi of the Vedic age as she should be—catholic, stout-hearted and intellectual and has through her mouth introduced and discussed many intricate philosophical and social topics. We wish this little book every success.

SPEECHES OF
THE HON. MR. GOKHALE, C.I.E.

THIS is the first collection of his speeches and may claim to be fairly exhaustive, no important pronouncement of his having been omitted. The book contains four parts and an appendix. The first part includes all his utterances in the Supreme Legislative Council and in the Bombay Legislative Council; the second, all his Congress speeches, including his Presidential Address at Benares; the third, speeches in appreciation of Hume, Naoroji, Ranade, Mehta and Bonnerjee; the fourth, miscellaneous speeches delivered in England and India. The appendix contains the full text of his evidence both in chief and in cross-examination before the Welby Commission and various papers. These cover nearly a quarter of a century of a most strenuous, selfless and active public life and embrace the whole range of topics that have engaged and are still engaging the attention of the public. Full of instruction on every point and breathing in every line the moral fervour which is Mr. Gokhale's supreme characteristic, this volume, the publishers venture to hope will command wide popularity.

The Empire, Calcutta.

Mr Gokhale's speeches call up visions of a library instead of a mere volume, and it reflects all the greater credit on Messrs. Natesan and Co., Madras, that they should have managed to compress the main utterances of so voluminous a speaker and writer as Mr. Gokhale into one volume of about a thousand pages. One doesn't realise until one turns over this book what an extraordinary area these speeches cover—politics, finance, economics, legislation, morals, history, biography and literature. Considering that Mr. Gokhale is still in the early forties his record of performance is a wonderful one, and as he still has, we trust, a long life before him, his career is still full of immense possibilities. This book will prove invaluable to any one who desires to become acquainted with the political history of India during the last twenty years. Crown 8vo., 1,100 pages, Cloth Gilt. Price Rs. 3. To Subscribers of the Indian Review, Rs. 2-8.
