

THE BOERS IN EUROPE

G. W. F. Gmond

THE BOERS IN EUROPE

THE
BOERS IN EUROPE

A Sidelight on History

BY

G. W. T. OMOND

LONDON

ADAM & CHARLES BLACK

1903

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
I. THE WAR OF THE PEN	1
II. THE FIRST DAYS OF THE PEACE	36
III. CORONATION FESTIVITIES	56
IV. ARRIVALS FROM THE SEAT OF WAR	69
V. GENERALS BOTHA, DELAREY, AND DE WET ARRIVE	90
VI. THE LETTER FROM THE HAGUE	111
VII. MEETING AT THE COLONIAL OFFICE, SEPTEMBER 5TH	148
VIII. THE "APPEAL TO THE CIVILIZED WORLD"	175
IX. IN THE NETHERLANDS	190
X. PARIS AND THE GENERALS	208
XI. GERMANY	216
XII. FAS EST AB HOSTE DOCERI	252

INDEX

- ADDRESS to the Boers by the three Generals, July 1902, 93.
- Afrikander Bond, programme, 256, 257, 258; changes its name, 259.
- Allegiance, oath of, 131, 132, 133, 134.
- Allgemeen Handelsbad*, view of the future in South Africa, 73; describes Dr Poutsma's calumnies as preposterous, 118.
- Allgemeine Zeitung* (Munich) on the Boer Generals' Appeal, 184.
- Alost, M. de Backer, Deputy for, 66.
- American War of Independence compared to the Anglo-Boer war, 50.
- American Civil War, large districts laid waste, 138.
- Amnesty, 121 et seq.; charge of bad faith relating to, brought by Mr Stead and Mr Reitz, 124; article by Mr T. Shaw, M.P., on, 128; discussed at the Colonial Office meeting, 162, 163, 164.
- Amsterdam, Boer Generals visit, Sept. 11, 1902, 175.
- Antrick, Herr, in the Reichstag, 241.
- Antwerp, Boer Generals visit, 175.
- Appeal of the Boer Generals, 175 et seq.; appears Sept. 25, 1902, 178; gives offence in England, 183; how received on the Continent, 184 et seq.; a failure, 247; amount of money collected, 255 note.
- Armistice asked for by the Boers during the negotiations, 76; the peace said to be only, 129.
- Assiette au Beurre* (French illustrated paper) on the King's illness, 67, 68.
- Asquith, Mr, M.P., 21, 23.
- Austria, Government prosecutes authors of anti-British libels, 58.
- BACKER, M. de, Deputy for Alost, 66.
- Bannerman, Sir Henry Campbell-, answered by the Handelsbad, 10; alluded to in the Belgian Chamber of Deputies, 200.
- Bassermann, Herr, 224; speech to Liberals at Eisenach, 224.
- Bebel, Herr, accuses German army of brutality in China and during the war of 1870, 223; on the bad feeling between Great Britain and Germany, 267.
- Berlin, bad effects of Boer Generals' visit to, 222; moderate speeches of the Generals, 244; position in which Generals found themselves, 243.
- Berliner Neueste Nachrichten*, 34.
- Bismarck, Prince, 219.

- Bismarck, Prince Herbert, 241.
- Boers in Europe, headquarters in Brussels, 17; causes of their confidence, 9 et seq.
- Boer delegates, their names, 2.
- Boer Generals (Botha, Delarey, and De Wet) leave Capetown, 94; arrive at Southampton, but decline to attend the Naval Review, 99; welcomed to London, and received by the King, 100; leave London suddenly, 103; reach Holland, 105; visit Mr Steyn at Scheveningen, 108; speeches at The Hague and at Scheveningen, 107, 108; visit Mr Kruger, Aug. 20, 1902, 111; statement issued that they are in agreement with the Kruger-Leyds party, 113; return to England, 147; see Mr Chamberlain at the Colonial office, 162 et seq.; disappointed at the result of their interview, 171; at Amsterdam, Sept. 11, 175; postpone their visit to Belgium on the death of Queen Marie-Henriette, 177; issue their Appeal, 178; try to prevent demonstrations against Great Britain, 187 et seq.; in the Netherlands, 190; go to Paris, 207; contemplate abandoning their German tour, 225; said to have been promised an audience by the Kaiser, 226, 227; the Imperial audience given up, 233; visit to Berlin, 238; return to London, Oct. 22, 247; leave for South Africa, 252.
- Boer-Hollander party, hopes of intervention, 17; their present attitude, 259.
- Boissevain, M., his opinion of Dr Kuyper, 53.
- Bonn, Corps Borussia at, 221.
- Botha, General Louis, opposes the Kruger policy before the war, 17; speaks at Vereeniging on inter-vention, 17; message to the Commandants in Dec. 1901, 23; said to have been bribed, 46; speech at Pietermaritzburg, 69; objects to annexation to Natal of Vryheid district, 71; plan formed to intercept him at Southampton, 84; leaves Capetown, 93, 94; speech at Capetown, 93; speech at The Hague, 107; goes to Brussels with his wife and son, 114, 115; is waited on by the Boer Legation staff, and visits the mortuary at Ixelles, 116; explains his feelings to the British, 148; at the Colonial Office, 162 et seq.; reported words at Antwerp, 177; Leeuwarden speech, 190; statement in Holland as to Mr Kruger's money transactions, 194; entry made by him in the books of the Hotel du Grand Monarque, 203; goes to Utrecht with General Delarey and Dr Leyds, Oct. 9, 1902, 205; speech in Paris, 214; Mr Chamberlain's remarks on it, 214 note; statement as to the Imperial audience, 236; publishes a conciliatory article in the Contemporary Review, 248; visits the House of Commons, 248; leaves England, Dec. 13, 1902, 252.
- Botha, Mrs Botha (wife of the General), receives a letter from South Africa, 70.
- Botha, Miss Helen (daughter of the General), 199.
- Brasserie Flamande, Pro-Boer meeting in, 59, 65.
- Brebner, Mr, secretary to the Boer Generals, 148.
- Broeksma, Mr, trial of, 19.
- Brussels, Boer Legation at, 1; Boer councils held at, 3; arrival of Boer Generals at, Oct. 1902, 196 et seq.
- Bülow, Graf von, 223, 267.

- Burghers, question of their return to South Africa, 129, 130; question of those who were made burghers for the war, 130, 131; discussion on, at the Colonial Office, 165.
- Burenkrieg, Der* (a German Pro-Boer work), 57, 264.
- Burns, Robert, translated into the Taal by Mr Reitz, 145.
- CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN, Sir Henry, mentioned in Belgian Chamber of Deputies, 200; answered by the Handelsblad, 9.
- Cape Colony, Commandant Smuts' reason for invading, 8.
- Chamberlain, Rt. Hon. J., speech in the Debate on the Address, Jan. 1902, 21; German caricature of, 68; speech in House of Commons, July 29, 1902, 75; refers to Dr Leyds' return to South Africa, 76; receives telegram from Boer Generals, 112; personal attacks on him by British Pro-Boers, 151, 152; they make him more powerful, 153; replies to the letter from The Hague, 159; at the Colonial Office meeting, 162 et seq.; speech at the end of the meeting, 171; writes to General Botha in reference to the Appeal, 190; speech on the grant in aid of the Boers, 249, 250; calls the German agitation of 1901-1902 'artificial,' 216; agitation which followed his Edinburgh speech, 219.
- Chancellerie de la République Sud-africaine, 1.
- Clerq, Mr de (delegate at Vereeniging), 139.
- Clifford, Dr John, letter despairing of success in the war, 23.
- Cologne, Mr Kruger at, 16; Boer Generals at, 235.
- Colonial Office, meeting at, 148 et seq.
- Combes, M., 212.
- Commandants request return of Boer delegates in Europe, 76.
- Commons, House of, in Committee of Supply on a grant in aid of the Boers, 248.
- Concentration camps, cost of, 181; education of Boer children in, 182; report on by committee of ladies, Dec. 1901, 182; Boers anxious to send their women to, 191; referred to in Belgian Chamber of Deputies, 200.
- Concordia, taken by the Boers, 38.
- Contemporary Review*, article in by General Botha, 149.
- Coronation of King Edward VII., 56 et seq.
- Coutrai, Congress at, in August 1902, 142, 143, 144.
- DAILY NEWS (London) on the duration of the war, 29; suggests that Government are educating the Boer children as a punishment, 182.
- Débats*, on the Boer Generals' Appeal, 185.
- De Bruyn, Mr, secretary to the Boer delegates in Europe, 2, 111.
- Delarey, General, never believed foreign powers would intervene, 17; opposed the Kruger policy before the war, 17; said to have been bribed, 46; speech in Brussels, 201; anecdote told by him in Berlin, 242; in the House of Commons, 248; leaves Europe, 252; was in favour of surrender at Vereeniging, 8.
- Delarey, Miss (the General's daughter), married to Mr Ferreira, 94.
- Delcasse, M., suppresses L'Assiette au Beurre in June 1902, 68; visited by the three Boer Generals, 212.
- Delegates, Boer, in Europe, 2; re-

- cognized by Holland only, 3 ; advise the burghers in 1901 to continue the war, 8 ; letter from them read at Vereeniging, 9 ; question of their return to South Africa, 83.
- Demolder, M. Eugene, 42.
- Derby, Liberal Federation meeting at, 20.
- Deutsche Zeitung*, advises the devastation of the Boer States in the interests of Germany, 266.
- De Wet, General Christian, as to chances of intervention, 4 ; speech at Vereeniging, 18 ; is against surrender, 44 ; is cheered at Queen's Hall meeting, 19 ; said to have been bribed, 46 ; speech at Winburg (Orange River Colony), 79 ; leaves South Africa for Europe, 93 ; at Scheveningen, 108 ; speech at Antwerp, 176 ; at Amsterdam, writing his book, 186 ; at the Colonial Office, 161 ; as to farms sold under the Proclamation of Aug. 7, 1901, 168, 169 ; entry in the book of Hotel du Grand Monarque, 203 ; speeches in Brussels, 199, 201, 202, 204 ; telegram as to Imperial audience, 229 note ; statement as to Imperial audience, 237 ; speech at Berlin, 242 ; sails for South Africa, Nov. 1, 1902, 248 ; speaks of the women and children, 139, note ; dislike to public meetings, 177.
- De Wet, Mr, advocate at Pretoria, 80.
- Die Patriot* (Bond paper), 144, 257.
- "Duncan Gray," song of, translated by Mr Reitz, 145.
- Dunkirk, Commandant Maritz-Botha lands at, 90.
- Dutch Note of January 1902, 52.
- EDUCATION of Boer children in concentration camps, 182.
- Edward VII., recognition of, required by terms of peace, 54 ; news of his illness reaches Brussels, 61 ; Pro-Boers (foreign) and the Coronation, 56 et seq. ; German caricature of, 68 ; receives the Boer Generals, 100.
- Eisenach, meeting of German Liberal Associations at, 224.
- Embassy, Boer (at Brussels), 1, 7 ; Mr Schreiner's opinion of, 253.
- Etoile Belge*, regrets the King's illness, 61.
- European Express*, quoted, 205.
- Elysée, visit of Generals to, 212.
- FAVEREAU, M. de (Belgian Foreign Minister), 200.
- Ferreira, Secretary to General Delarey, marries Miss Delarey, 94.
- Fillingham, Rév. R. C., 48, 49.
- Financial question (in the Boer States after the war), how treated in the letter from The Hague, 135.
- Fischer, Mr Abraham, Boer delegate in Europe, 2 ; returns from Paris in June 1902, 33 ; meets Mr Steyn at Southampton, 85 ; goes to Southampton to meet the Boer Generals, 98, 99 ; accompanies them to Rotterdam, 103 ; to London, 148 ; consultation with the Generals in London, 159.
- France, Government of, does not countenance the Pro-Boer movement, 16 ; Generals in, 208.
- Fredericq, Professor, of Ghent, 204.
- Fremdenblatt*, view of the future in South Africa, 75.
- French, General, at Waterloo, 91.
- Frere, Sir Bartle, 256.
- Funchal, Boer Generals at, 97.
- GHEENT, meeting at, Oct. 18, 1902, 204.
- Germany, help from, expected by the Boers, 14, 15 ; Boer Generals

- visit, 216 et seq.; descriptions of British soldiers current in, 217; disappointed at result of the war, 260; believes that Britain plotted for war, 262; opinion of Great Britain as a military power, 263.
- "Gilpin, John," translated by Mr Reitz, 145.
- Gladstone, Rt. Hon. W. E., 152.
- Graham, Mr, at Colonial Office, 162.
- Grande-Harmonie, meeting in Brussels, 200 et seq.
- Grant, General, 138.
- Groebler, Mr, one of the Boer delegates, 2.
- Guyot, M. Yves, article on the Boer Appeal, 179.
- HANDELSBAD (of Amsterdam), a Pro-Boer paper, 10.
- Harcourt, Sir William Vernon, 248.
- Henry, M. René, 65.
- Hobhouse, Miss, at Southampton, 99.
- Horrex's Hotel, London, Boer Generals at, 102.
- Hotel du Grand Monarque, entry in the books of, 203.
- Hugomont, 198.
- Huysmans, M. Camille, 209.
- INDÉPENDANCE BELGE, sees only one end to the war, 26; says attacks on England must cease, 33; expresses regret for the King's illness, 61; warns the Generals against the Irreconcilables, 105; condemns Mr Reitz's speech at Coutrai, 146; on the Boer Generals' Appeal, 186.
- Intervention, General De Wet on, 4; hope of amongst the Boers, 14; General Botha alludes to at Vereeniging, 17; General Delarey never believed in, 17.
- Irreconcilables, relations with the Boer Generals, 112, 113, 114.
- JACOBSY, MR, Advocate at Pretoria, 80.
- Johannesburg, trouble with the mine owners expected in June 1902, 71.
- Journal des Débats*, on the British reception of the Boer Generals, 101.
- Journal de Bruxelles* (Belgian Government paper), 65.
- Judicial Commission, under terms of peace, 135.
- KABEL-CORRESPONDENZ, a Pro-Boer press agency, 5, 6.
- Kaiser Wilhelm I., receives President Kruger, 15.
- Kaiser Wilhelm II., decorates President Kruger, 15; telegraphs to him, 228; refuses to receive him, 16; expected to receive the Boer Generals, 226; refuses to receive them, 233.
- Kersausan, Marquis de, 38, 39, 40.
- Kimberley, Lord, view of President Kruger's 'big clothes' speech, 15.
- Kitchener, Lord, his dispatches not believed on the Continent, 12; cartoon of, in L'Assiette au Beurre, 68; declines to allow Boer delegates to return to South Africa, 76; at the Colonial Office, 162.
- Kladderadatsch*, German comic paper, 217.
- Kölnische Zeitung*, on the Boer Generals' Appeal, 185; opposes visit of the Boer Generals to Germany, 225.
- Komati-Poort, parting of Mr Kruger and Mr Steyn at, in Sept. 1900, 86.
- Krause, Dr, 19.
- Kruger, Mr, his position in Europe, 1, 3; warned against Dr Leyds, 7; advises the burghers to continue the war in 1901, 8; speech to Germans at Pretoria, 15; visit to Berlin in 1884, 15; decorated

- by the Kaiser, 15 ; receives a telegram of congratulation from the Kaiser, 228 ; leaves South Africa, 16 ; arrival in France, 16 ; not allowed to live in Belgium, 16 ; terms of peace telegraphed to him, 33 ; visits Mr Steyn at Scheveningen, 86 ; statement as the expenses of the war, 195 ; his birthday at Utrecht, Oct. 1902, 205 ; alleged dealings with public funds of the Transvaal, 191 ; system of ruling the Transvaal by Hollanders, 256 ; goes to Mentone for the winter of 1902-03, 260.
- Kruger, Mrs (wife of ex-President), cartoon of, in L'Assiette au Beurre, 211.
- Kuyper, Dr (Dutch Prime Minister) conduct in connection with the peace preliminaries, 52 ; interview with Boer Generals, Sept. 10, 1902, 174 ; said to have arranged for Imperial audience, 227.
- L'AGONIE D'ALBION, 42.
- "Laird o' Cockpen," translated by Mr Reitz, 145.
- La Panne, Commandant Maritz-Botha and his family at, 90, 91.
- L'Assiette au Beurre*, caricatures in, 211.
- Laurier, Sir Wilfred, on the cause of the war, 157.
- Legation, Boer, in Brussels, 3, 7, 253.
- Lee-Metfords, Mr Reitz says surrendered, not Mausers, 146 ; alleged statement by General Botha as to, 177.
- Letter from The Hague, 110 et seq.
- Leopold II. (King of the Belgians), 16.
- Leader* (Johannesburg), letters as to the Boers in Europe, 191.
- Le Rire*, pictures in, 211.
- Leeuwarden, meeting at, 190, 196.
- Leyds, Dr J. W., Transvaal Minister in Europe, 2 ; his policy condemned in England, 7 ; said to be instigating schemes against England after the peace, 57 ; assisted the authors of Der Burenkrieg, 57 ; question of allowing him to return to South Africa, 76 ; said to have advised the Generals to avoid English society, 150 ; at Amsterdam with the Boer Generals, 175 ; his tactics understood in Belgium, 186 ; statement as to the expenses of the war, 195 ; speech at the Restaurant Marguery, 213 ; blamed for the fiasco of the Imperial audience, 237.
- Liberal (British) leaders, how spoken of on the Continent, 220.
- Liberal Federation at Derby, effect on the Leyds party, 20 et seq.
- Liberal Party, position of, during the war, 154 et seq. ; attacked by the Leyds press, 157.
- Liebermann von Sonnenberg, on the British army, 223 ; abuse of Mr Chamberlain, 232 ; takes the Boer Generals into the Reichstag, 244.
- Loubet, M., 212.
- Louw, Veldt-Cornet, 27, 143.
- Lückhoff, President of Berlin Boer Reception Committee, 240 ; chairman of meeting in Berlin, 241.
- MADAGASCAR, Mr Reitz speaks of going there, 87 ; changes his mind, 88.
- Majuba Hill, verses on, by Mr Reitz, 145.
- Malan, Isie, saying of, 182.
- Marie-Henriette, Queen of the Belgians, 177.
- Maritz, Commandant, in Cape Colony, 38 ; hears that peace is made, 39.
- Maritz-Botha, Commandant, comes to Europe, 90.

- Marguery Restaurant (Paris), dinner and speeches at, 213.
- Mausers, surrender of, 146, 177.
- Maximoff, Colonel, returns to Europe to see Mr Kruger, 92.
- Merve, Andrew van der, 191.
- Merve, J. van der, 6, 7.
- Methuen, Lord, General Delarey's reasons for releasing him, 242.
- Methuen, Mr, book on Peace or War in South Africa, 50.
- Meyer, General Lucas, arrival in Europe, 81; sees Mr Chamberlain, 82; his death, 81.
- Milner, Lord, Pro-Boer policy of recalling him, 22; his opinion on the Proclamation of 7th August, 1901, 168; accusations against him, 147; reluctance to substitute declaration for oath of allegiance, 132; statement as to the Boer demand for repayment of monies borrowed for the war, 195.
- Moltke, Graf von, 241.
- Mommsen, Professor, 216, 221.
- NAMAQUALAND, Boer commandos in, 38.
- National Scouts, unpopularity of, 7; Mr Reitz attacks them, 146, 147.
- Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant*, Dutch Pro-Boer paper, 5; says peace negotiations have failed, 28; as to the oath of allegiance, 133; Appeal appears on Sept. 25, 1902, 178; admits being paid by Dr Leyds, 225; announces that the Generals will go to Berlin, 226.
- Neues Wiener Tageblatt*, on the Boer Generals' tour, 235.
- 'Nigeria,' s.s., Boer generals on board of, 99.
- Nineteenth Century*, article by Mr Shaw, M.P., 128.
- North American Review*, article by Mr Reitz, 89.
- OATH of allegiance, 131 et seq.; explanation at Colonial Office, 167.
- Ons Land* (Afrikander paper), 74, 257.
- Onslow, Lord, at the Colonial Office meeting, 162.
- Orphans, Chamber of (Weeskamer), 192.
- Ostdeutsche Rundschau*, on the peace, 41.
- PAN-GERMANS, supplied with news by Kabel-Correspondenz, 6; their aims, 264 et seq.; arrange for visit of Boer Generals to Berlin, 226; give a lunch to the Generals, 242; their policy, 264 et seq.
- Paris, visit of the Boer Generals to, 208 et seq.; meeting in the Nouveau Théâtre, 213; subscription to the Boer Fund, 215.
- Paris Nouvelles* (news agency), 5; says Lord Kitchener has given up all hopes of success, 28; M. Pauliat a director of, 212.
- Patrie, La*, French Pro-Boer paper, 5.
- Pauliat, M., 212, 213.
- Petit Bleu* (Brussels), official paper of the Boers in Europe, 4, 5; confident of Boer victory, 10; on the peace negotiations, 29 et seq.; Coronation supplement, 61; on the King's illness, 67; misunderstands the Review of Reviews, 136; article when the Generals leave Brussels for Paris, 209.
- Place Rogier, scene in, when the Generals reach Brussels, 197.
- Philharmonic Hall (Berlin), meeting in, 241.
- Phipps, Mr Henry, donation to the Boer Fund, 179.
- Prinz Albrecht Hotel (Berlin), 240.
- Presse, La*, French Pro-Boer paper, 5.

- Pretorius, Mr, at Coutrai, 144.
 Pietermaritzburg, speech by General Botha at, 67.
 Pro-Boers (English), General De Wet's allusion to, 18; message to the Transvaal and Orange State, 49; cause of their want of influence, 150 et seq.; disregarded by the Boers in Europe after the peace, 154; calumnies in the British army, their effect in Germany, 218.
 Pro-Boers (foreign) Coronation meeting in Brussels, 65; address to Boer Generals in Berlin, 243; prepare for a political campaign, 178.
 Proclamation of Aug. 7th, 1901, 168.
 Poplar Grove, President Steyn's speech at, 4.
 Postmaster-General of Transvaal, receives the estates of the orphans, 193.
 Poutsma, Dr, spreads calumnies against the British army, 118.
 QUEEN'S HALL Meeting (London), 19.
 REICHSTAG, visit of Boer Generals to, 240.
 Reitz, Mr W. F. (ex-State Secretary of the Transvaal), conversation with Mr Theophilus Schreiner in 1882, 14; reaches Europe and sees Mr Kruger, 87; hostility to England, 88; article in North American Review, 89; pamphlet on the Anglo-Boer question, 89; accuses British Ministers of bad faith on the amnesty question, 124; at Coutrai, 142; volume of songs, 145; statements against British at Brussels, 146; his conduct referred to at the Colonial Office, 165; describes his relations with the three Generals, 166; at Amsterdam, Sept. 11, 1902, 175; defends Mr Kruger, 192; sails for America, 180; his agitation there, 245.
 Rennenkampf, Dr, returns to Europe, 92.
 Requisition notes (British) said to be destroyed by British officers, 136; to be paid in full, 136.
 Requisition notes (Boer) to be evidence of war losses, 135, 136.
 Review, Naval, Boers decline to attend, 99.
Review of Reviews, edited by Mr Stead, 152; on the Queen's Hall meeting, 19; misunderstood by the Petit Bleu, 136.
 Rhodes, Cecil, 266.
 Richthofen, Freiherr von, quoted, 222.
 Rosebery, Lord, abused with Mr Asquith, 22; at Leeds, 36.
 'SAXON,' s.s., brings the Boer Generals to Europe, 97.
 Schalk-Burger, Mr, appointed Vice-President, 3; orders the war to continue in 1901, 8; in Europe, 248; leaves for Africa, 252.
 Schowalter, Pastor, 227.
 Schreiner, Mr Theophilus, 14.
 Scheveningen, Mr Steyn at, 85; Boer Generals at, 108.
 Shaw, Mr T., M.P., article in Nineteenth Century, 128.
 Sheffield, delegate from, at Derby meeting of Liberal Federation, 23.
 Sheridan, General, 138.
Siccle, article in the Appeal, 179.
Simplicissimus, 217, 223.
 Slegtkamp, Mijnheer, 91, 92.
 Smuts, Commandant, speaks at Vereeniging, 8, 9, 40; in Cape Colony, 38, 40; returns to the bar, 79, 80.
 Stead, Mr (editor of Review of Reviews), attacks on Mr Chamber-

- lain and the Ministers destroy his own influence, 153 ; on the charge of stealing requisition notes, 135 ; accuses Ministers of bad faith, 124.
- Steyn (President of Orange State), speech at Poplar Grove, 4 ; orders war to continue in 1901, 8 ; visited by Mr Kruger, 86.
- St Omer, seminary of, 55.
- St Paul's Cathedral, thanksgiving for peace, 46.
- Subscriptions to Boer Fund, lists used to insult Great Britain, 181.
- Subscriptions, total amount collected in 1902, 255.
- TAAL, question of, discussed at Coutraï, 142 et seq.
- Tagelblatt* (Berlin), attacks Dr Leyds, 234 ; on the result of the Generals' visit to Berlin, 247.
- Tiergarten station, at Berlin, 240.
- Times* (London), quoted, 229.
- The Hague, letter from, to Mr Chamberlain, 142 ; interview between Dr Kuyper and the Boer Generals, 174.
- Thiers, M., 83.
- Thoma, Dr Ludwig, editor of Der Burenkrieg, 57.
- Toit, Rev. J. S. du, 89.
- Transvaal Legation at Brussels, 1.
- "Transvaalse Oorlog" (Dutch pamphlet), 89.
- Trojan, Dr Johannes, editor of Kladderadatsch, 232, 244.
- Trotha, General, visits the prisoners' camp in Ceylon, 222.
- Tynan, Patrick (the Fenian), 245.
- ULK (German paper), 217.
- Utrecht, conferences at, in 1902, 111, 112 ; Mr Kruger's birthday kept at in 1902, 205.
- VAN BROCKHUIZEN, Dutch pastor, 57.
- Vandervelde, M. (Belgian Deputy), 200.
- Vereeniging, speeches at, 4, 8, 17, 18 ; letter from Europe read at, 24.
- Victoria, Queen, attacks on, 56, 57 ; caricature of, 211.
- Vienna, British Embassy at, 58.
- Vijftig Uitgesogte Afrikaanse Gedigte*, by Mr Reitz, 145.
- Viljoen, Commandant, 45, 92, 178.
- Villebois-Mareuil, Colonel de, 38, 92, 101.
- Villiers, Mr J. H. de, 162, 169.
- Visscher, Dr, 175.
- Vorwärts* (German Socialist paper), 223.
- Vryheid to be annexed to Natal, 71, 121.
- WATERLOO, General French visits, 139.
- Wessels, Mr Cornelius, Orange State delegate in Europe, 2 ; returns from a journey to America, 26 ; leaves for South Africa, 252.
- Weeskamer, Government department in the Transvaal, 192.
- White, Mr Montague, Transvaal Consul in London, 6.
- Wilhelm I., Kaiser, receives President Kruger, 15.
- Wilhelm II., Kaiser, decorates President Kruger, 15 ; telegraphs to him, 15 ; refuses to receive him, 16 ; refuses to receive the Boer Generals unless presented by the British Ambassador, 233.
- Wolmarans, Mr Daniel, Transvaal delegate in Europe, 2 ; returns from America, 26 ; meets Mr Steyn at the Hook of Holland, 85 ; sails for South Africa, 252.
- Wright, Mr Thomas, of Bedford, 64.
- YMUIDEN, village in Holland, 91.

• • WAR • •
IMPRESSIONS
BEING A RECORD IN COLOUR
BY MORTIMER MENPES

CONTAINING 99 FULL-PAGE ILLUSTRATIONS IN COLOUR, SIX FACSIMILE LETTERS FROM GENERALS, AND A BOER PLAN OF MAGERSFONTEIN

PRICE
20s.
NET.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS

Daily Telegraph.—"One hardly knows which to admire the more—the skill of the artist or the skill with which his studies have been reproduced, for the colours of the originals are shown with marvellous fidelity, and the delicate art of the impressionist loses nothing in the process. The book, therefore, is a double triumph, and will doubtless be prized by collectors."

The Times.—"The general views of incidents—troops on the march, and so forth—are extremely clever. The portraits are mostly very good, especially those of Lord Roberts, Mr Rhodes, and General Macdonald."

Scotsman.—"This is in many ways the most attractive book on the South African War that has yet been published."

Black and White.—"Of all the recent books which have reached our hands, none has given us so much pleasure, both on account of letterpress and illustrations, as War Impressions."

Daily Chronicle.—"Of all the many pictures of the South African campaign, we have seen none to compare with these for poetic worth or for beauty of drawing and colour."

Glasgow Herald.—"The most beautiful book the War has produced. . . . One does not recall any book which stands in the same category; certainly the War has brought forth nothing so lovely."

The Athenæum.—"An excellent illustrated record of the War."

DETAILED PROSPECTUSES CONTAINING SPECIMEN ILLUSTRATIONS WILL BE SENT ON APPLICATION TO THE PUBLISHERS
A. & C. BLACK · SOHO SQUARE · LONDON, W.

WAR NOTES

THE DIARY OF
COLONEL DE VILLEBOIS-MAREUIL
FROM NOVEMBER 24, 1899, TO APRIL 4, 1900

TRANSLATED FROM THE "PARIS LIBERTÉ" BY FREDERIC LEES

SECOND EDITION. CROWN 8vo. Price 6s.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS

Daily Chronicle.—"By far the most valuable account we have yet received of the war from the Boer side."

St James's Gazette.—"The notes of the French free lance will find many interested readers. Written during marches and counter marches, and in the hurry of bivouac, they approve him an able writer; and if his bias against our country displays at times gratuitous bitterness, we can easily forgive him for the interesting story he has to tell us."

Scotsman.—"Has a strong personal interest, as the record of the experience of a brave French soldier, whose life might well have been spared for a better cause."

Academy.—"It is French in every line, and an Englishman experiences that curious mixture of admiration and astonishment which French sentiment and French actions so often inspire."

Globe.—"It is a record which should be read by all who have Army reform and the study of modern weapons at heart."

World.—"However heavily the torrent of South African war books may continue to descend, it is not likely to bring us anything of greater interest or high instructive value than the diary of Colonel de Villebois-Mareuil."

A. & C. BLACK · 4 SOHO SQUARE · LONDON, W.