SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

REPORT.

*[Forwarded to the High Commissioner in a Letter from the President, dated
3 February, 1909.]*

The delegates to the South African National Convention have the honour to report to the respective Parliaments which appointed them as follows:—

Having been instructed to consider and report on the most desirable form of Union, they consider that these instructions could be most conveniently carried out by embodying the resolutions adopted by them in the form of a Draft Act which will clearly convey the exact nature of the Constitution recommended by the Convention.

The Draft Act is annexed to this Report.

The delegates having also been instructed in consultation with the Governments of the self-governing Colonies to determine the further steps to be taken in reference to the Draft Constitution beg to make the following recommendations:—

- I. The Parliaments to meet on the 30th March for the purpose of discussing the Draft Act.
- II. The Convention to re-assemble, if necessary, in Bloemfontein on a day in May to be fixed by the President of the Convention in consultation with the Prime Ministers of the Colonies.
- III. In June the final draft to be submitted to the Parliaments to pass the addresses for Union. This submission to be as far as practicable simultaneous.
- IV. As soon as possible thereafter a Committee, consisting of delegates appointed by the Governments of the Colonies which have passed such addresses to proceed to England for the purpose of affording information to His Majesty's Government and facilitating the passing of the Act.

DRAFT SOUTH AFRICA ACT.

Whereas it is desirable for the welfare and future progress of South Africa that the several British Colonies therein should be united under one Government in a legislative union under the Crown of Great Britain and Ireland;

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the union of those Colonies which may assent thereto and to define the executive legislative and judicial powers to be exercised in the government of the Union;

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of Provinces with powers of legislation and administration in local matters and in such other matters as may be specially reserved for provincial legislation and administration;

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the eventual admission into the Union as Provinces or Territories of such parts of South Africa as are not originally included therein:

Be it therefore enacted, &c.

I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as the South Africa Act, 19

2. In this Act the words "the Union" shall, unless it is otherwise expressed or implied, be taken to mean South Africa as constituted under this Act.

3. The provisions of this Act referring to the King shall extend to His Majesty's heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

II.—THE UNION.

4. It shall be lawful for the King, with the advice of the Privy Council, to declare by proclamation that, on and after a day therein appointed, not being later than one year after the passing of this Act, any two or more of the Colonies of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, the Transvaal, and the Orange River Colony, hereinafter called the Colonies, which shall, before the passing of this Act or thereafter before the date of such proclamation, have agreed thereto either by Act of Parliament or by resolutions of both Houses of Parliament shall be united in a legislative union under one Government under the name of South Africa. On and after the day appointed by such proclamation the Government and Parliament of the Union shall have full power and authority within the limits of the Colonies which shall have so agreed, but the King may at any time after the proclamation appoint a Governor-General for the Union.

5. The provisions of this Act shall, unless it is otherwise expressed or implied, take effect on and after the day so appointed.

6. Such of the Colonies as shall have agreed to enter the Union before the date of the proclamation mentioned in section four shall become original Provinces of the Union under the names of Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Transvaal, and Orange Free State, as the case may be. The original Provinces shall have the same limits as the respective Colonies at the establishment of the Union. If any of the Colonies do not become original Provinces all provisions in respect of them contained in this Act shall be inoperative, and it shall not be competent for them to enter the Union except in the manner hereinafter provided for the admission into the Union of new Provinces.

III.—EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT.

7. The Executive Government of South Africa is vested in the King and shall be administered by His Majesty in person or by a Governor-General as his representative.

8. The Governor-General shall be appointed by the King and shall have and may exercise in the Union during the King's pleasure, but subject to this Act, such powers and functions of the King as His Majesty may be pleased to assign to him.

9. There shall be payable to the King out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Union for the salary of the Governor-General an annual sum of ten thousand pounds. The salary of the Governor-General shall not be altered during his continuance in office.

10. The provisions of this Act relating to the Governor-General extend and apply to the Governor-General for the time being or such person as the King may appoint to administer the Government of the Union.

11. There shall be an Executive Council to advise the Governor-General in the government of the Union and the members of the Council shall be chosen and summoned by the Governor-General and sworn as Executive Councillors and shall hold office during his pleasure.

12. The provisions of this Act referring to the Governor-General in Council shall be construed as referring to the Governor-General acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

13. The Governor-General may appoint officers not exceeding ten in number to administer such departments of state of the Union as the Governor-General in Council may establish; such officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General. They shall be members of the Executive Council and shall be the King's Ministers of State for the Union. After the first general election of members of the House of Assembly as hereinafter provided no Minister shall hold office for a longer period than three months unless he is or becomes a member of either House of Parliament.

14. The appointment and removal of all officers of the public service of the Union shall be vested in the Governor-General in Council, unless the appointment is delegated by the Governor-General in Council or by this Act or by a law of Parliament to some other authority.

15. All powers, authorities, and functions which at the establishment of the Union are in any of the Colonies vested in the Governor or in the Governor in Council or in any authority of the Colony shall as far as the same continue in existence and are capable of being exercised after the establishment of the Union be vested in the Governor-General or in the Governor-General in Council or in the authority exercising similar powers under the Union, as the case may be, except such powers and functions as are by this Act or may by a law of Parliament be vested in some other authority.

17. Save as in section twenty-two excepted Pretoria shall be the seat of Government of the Union.

IV.—PARLIAMENT.

18. The legislative power of the Union shall be vested in the Parliament of the Union, herein called Parliament, which shall consist of the King, a Senate, and a House of Assembly.

19. The Governor-General may appoint such times for holding the sessions of Parliament as he thinks fit and may also from time to time, by proclamation or otherwise, prorogue Parliament and may in like manner dissolve the Senate and the House of Assembly simultaneously or the House of Assembly alone: provided that the Senate shall not be dissolved within a period of ten years after the establishment of the Union and provided further that the dissolution of the Senate shall not affect any senators nominated by the Governor-General in Council.

20. Parliament shall be summoned to meet not later than six months after the establishment of the Union.

21. There shall be a session of Parliament once at least in every year so that a period of twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting of Parliament in one session and its first sitting in the next session.

22. Cape Town shall be the seat of the Legislature of the Union.

Senate.

23. For ten years after the establishment of the Union the constitution of the Senate shall be as follows:—

- (i) Eight senators shall be nominated by the Governor-General in Council and for each original Province eight senators shall be elected in the manner hereinafter provided.
- (ii) The senators to be nominated by the Governor-General in Council shall hold their seats for ten years. One half of their number shall be selected on the ground mainly of their thorough acquaintance by reason of their official experience or otherwise with the reasonable wants and wishes of the coloured races in South Africa. If the seat of a senator so nominated shall become vacant the Governor-General in Council shall nominate another person to be a senator who shall hold his seat for ten years.

- (iii) After the passing of this Act and before the day appointed for the establishment of the Union the Governor of each of the Colonies shall summon a special sitting of both Houses of the Legislature and the two Houses sitting together as one body and presided over by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly shall elect eight persons to be senators for the Province. Such senators shall hold their seats for ten years. If the seat of a senator so elected shall become vacant the Provincial Council of the Province for which such senator has been elected shall choose a person to hold the seat until the completion of the period for which the person in whose stead he is elected would have held his seat.

24. Parliament may provide for the manner in which the Senate shall be constituted after the expiration of ten years and unless and until such provision shall have been made

- (i) the provisions of the last preceding section with regard to nominated senators shall continue to have effect;
- (ii) eight senators for each Province shall be elected by the members of the Provincial Council of such Province together with the members of the House of Assembly elected for such Province. Such senators shall hold their seats for ten years unless the Senate be sooner dissolved. If the seat of an elected senator shall become vacant, the members of the Provincial Council of the Province together with the members of the House of Assembly elected for such Province shall choose a person to hold the seat until the completion of the period for which the person in whose stead he is elected would have held his seat. The Governor-General in Council shall make regulations for the joint election of senators prescribed in this section.

25. The qualifications of a senator shall be as follows :—

He must—

- (a) be not less than thirty years of age;
- (b) be qualified to be registered as a voter for the election of members of the House of Assembly in one of the Provinces;

The President shall cease to hold office if he ceases to be a senator. He may be removed from office by a vote of the Senate or he may resign his office by writing addressed to the Governor-General.

27. Prior to or during any absence of the President the Senate may choose a senator to perform his duties in his absence.

28. A senator may, by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor-General, resign his seat, which thereupon shall become vacant. The Governor-General shall as soon as practicable cause steps to be taken to have the vacancy filled.

29. The presence of at least twelve senators shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the Senate for the exercise of its powers.

30. All questions in the Senate shall be determined by a majority of votes of senators present other than the President or the presiding senator, who shall, however, have and exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

31. The House of Assembly shall be composed of members directly chosen by the voters of the Union in electoral divisions delimited as hereinafter provided.

32. The number of members to be elected in the original Provinces at the first election and until the number is altered in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be as follows:—

Cape of Good Hope	...	...	fifty-one
Natal	...	...	seventeen
Transvaal	...	...	thirty-six
Orange Free State	...	...	seventeen

These numbers may be increased as provided in the next succeeding section but shall not in the case of any original Province be diminished until the total number of members of the House of Assembly in respect of the Provinces herein provided for reaches one hundred and fifty, or until a period of ten years has elapsed after the establishment of the Union, whichever is the longer period.

33. The number of members to be elected in each Province as provided in section thirty-two shall be increased from time to time as may be necessary in accordance with the following provisions:—

- (i) The quota of the Union shall be obtained by dividing the total number of European male adults in the Union, not being members of His Majesty's regular forces on full pay, as ascertained at the census of 1904 by the total number of members of the House of Assembly as constituted at the establishment of the Union.
- (ii) In 1911 and every five years thereafter a census of the European population of the Union shall be taken for the purposes of this Act.
- (iii) After every such census the number of European male adults in each Province shall be compared with the number of European male adults as ascertained at the census of 1904 and in the case of any Province where an increase is shown, as compared with the census of 1904, equal to the quota of the Union or any multiple thereof, the number of members allotted to such Province in the last preceding section shall be increased by an additional member or an additional number of members equal to such multiple as the case may be.
- (iv) Notwithstanding anything herein contained no additional member shall be allotted to any Province until the total number of European male adults in such Province exceeds the quota of the Union multiplied by the number of members allotted to such Province for the time being and thereupon additional members shall be allotted to such Province in respect only of such excess.
- (v) As soon as the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected in the original Provinces in accordance with the preceding sub-sections reaches the total of one hundred and fifty such total shall not be further increased unless and until Parliament otherwise provides; and subject to the provisions of the last preceding section the distribution of members among the Provinces shall be such that the proportion between the number of members to be elected at any time in each Province and the number of European male adults in such Province as ascertained at the last preceding census shall as far as possible be identical throughout the Union.
- (vi) "Male Adults" in this Act shall be taken to mean males of twenty-one years of age or upwards.
- (vii) For the purposes of this Act the number of European male adults, not being members of His Majesty's regular forces on full pay, as ascertained at the census of 1904 shall be taken to be for the Cape of Good Hope	...	167,546

for Natal	...	34,784
for the Transvaal	...	106,493
for the Orange Free State	...	41,014

34. If any of the Colonies does not become an original Province the number of members to which the House of Assembly may be increased shall be reduced by the number of members assigned to the corresponding Province in section thirty-two.

35.—(i) Parliament may by law prescribe the qualifications which shall be necessary to entitle persons to vote at the election of members of the House of Assembly, but no such law shall disqualify any person in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope who under the laws existing in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope at the establishment of the Union is or may become capable of being registered as a voter from being so registered by reason of his race or colour only, unless the bill be passed by both Houses of Parliament sitting together and at the third reading be agreed to by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of both Houses. A Bill so passed at such joint sitting shall be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of Parliament.

(ii) No person who at the passing of any such law is registered as a voter in any Province shall be removed from the register by reason only of any disqualification based on race or colour.

36. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section the qualifications of parliamentary voters as existing in the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall be the qualifications necessary to entitle persons in the corresponding Provinces to vote for the election of members of the House of Assembly: provided that no member of His Majesty's regular forces on full pay shall be entitled to be registered as a voter.

37.—(i) Subject to the provisions of this Act the laws in force in the Colonies at the establishment of the Union relating to elections for the more numerous Houses of Parliament in such Colonies respectively, the registration of voters, the oaths or declarations to be taken by voters, returning officers, the powers and duties of such officers, the proceedings at elections, the hearing of election petitions and the proceedings incident thereto, the vacating of seats of members and the proceedings necessary for filling such vacancies shall mutatis mutandis apply to the elections in the respective Provinces of members of the House of Assembly.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any of the said laws contained, at any general election of members of the House of Assembly all polls shall be taken on one and the same day in all the electoral divisions throughout the Union, such day to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.

38. Between the date of the passing of this Act and the date fixed for the establishment of the Union the Governor in Council of each of the Colonies shall nominate a Judge of any of the Supreme or High Courts of the Colonies, and the Judges so nominated shall, upon acceptance by them respectively of such nomination, form a joint commission, without any further appointment, for the purpose of the first division of the Provinces into electoral divisions. The High Commissioner for South Africa shall forthwith convene a meeting of such commission at such time and place in one of the Colonies as he shall fix and determine. At such meeting the commissioners shall elect one of their number as chairman of such commission. They shall thereupon proceed with the discharge of their duties under this Act, and may appoint persons in any Province to assist them or to act as assessors to the commission or with individual members thereof for the purpose of inquiring into matters connected with the duties of the commission. All moneys required for the payment of the expenses of such commission before the establishment of the Union in any of the Colonies shall be provided by the Governor in Council of such Colony. In case of the death, resignation, or other disability of any of the commissioners before the establishment of the Union the Governor in Council who nominated him shall forthwith nominate another Judge to fill the vacancy. After the establishment of the Union the expenses of the commission shall be defrayed by the Governor-General in Council and any vacancies shall be filled by him.

39. The commission shall divide each Province into electoral divisions each returning three or more members: provided that in special cases of sparsely populated areas the commission may delimit divisions in which less than three members shall be returned.

40.—(i) For the purpose of such division as is in the last preceding section mentioned the quota of each Province shall be obtained by dividing the total number of voters in the Province as ascertained at the last registration of voters by the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected therein.

(ii) Each Province shall be divided into electoral divisions so that the number of voters in each division shall subject to the provisions of sub-section (iii) be a multiple of the quota and the number of members to be elected therein shall be equal to such multiple.

(iii) The commissioners shall give due consideration to

- (a) community or diversity of interests;
- (b) means of communication;
- (c) physical features;
- (d) existing electoral boundaries;
- (e) sparsity or density of population; in such manner that while taking the quota of voters as the basis of division the commissioners may whenever they deem it necessary depart therefrom but in no case to any greater extent than fifteen per centum more or fifteen per centum less than the quota.

41. As soon as may be after every quinquennial census the Governor-General in Council shall appoint a commission consisting of three Judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa to carry out any redivision which may have become necessary as between the different electoral divisions in each Province, and to provide for the allocation of the number of members to which such Province may have become entitled under the provisions of this Act. In carrying out such redivision and allocation the commission shall have the same powers and proceed upon the same principles as are by this Act provided in regard to the original division.

42.—(i) The joint commission constituted under section thirty-eight and any subsequent commission appointed under the provisions of the last preceding section shall submit to the Governor-General in Council:—

(a) a list of electoral divisions, with the names given to them by the commission and a description of the boundaries of and the number of members assigned to every such division;

(b) a map or maps showing the electoral divisions into which the Provinces have been divided;

(c) such further particulars as they consider necessary.

(ii) The Governor-General in Council may refer to the commission for its consideration any matter relating to such list or arising out of the powers or duties of the commission.

(iii) The Governor-General in Council shall proclaim the names and boundaries of the electoral divisions and the number of members assigned to each division as finally settled and certified by the commission or a majority thereof and thereafter until there shall be a redivision the electoral divisions as named and defined shall be the electoral divisions of the Union in the Provinces.

(iv) If any discrepancy shall arise between the description of the divisions and the aforesaid map or maps the description shall prevail.

43. Any alteration in the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected in the several Provinces and any redivision of the Provinces into electoral divisions shall in respect of the election of members of the House of Assembly come into operation at the next general election held after the completion of the redivision or of any allocation consequent upon such alteration and not earlier.

44. The qualifications of a member of the House of Assembly shall be as follows:—

He must:—

(a) be qualified to be registered as a voter for the election of members of the House of Assembly in one of the Provinces;

(b) have resided for five years within the limits of the Union as existing at the time when he is elected;

(c) be a British subject of European descent.

45. Every House of Assembly shall continue for five years from the first meeting thereof and no longer, but may be sooner dissolved by the Governor-General.

46. The House of Assembly shall, before proceeding to the dispatch of any other business, choose a member to be the Speaker of the House and as often as the office of Speaker becomes vacant the House shall again choose a member to be the Speaker. The Speaker shall cease to hold his office if he ceases to be a member. He may be removed from office by a vote of the House, or he may resign his office or his seat by writing addressed to the Governor-General.

47. Prior to or during the absence of the Speaker the House of Assembly may choose a member to perform his duties in his absence.

48. A member may by writing under his hand addressed to the Speaker or, if there is no Speaker or if the Speaker is absent from the Union, to the Governor-General, resign his seat which shall thereupon become vacant.

49. The presence of at least thirty members of the House of Assembly shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the House for the exercise of its powers.

50. All questions in the House of Assembly shall be determined by a majority of votes of members present other than the Speaker or the presiding member, who shall, however, have and exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.

Both Houses of Parliament.

51. Every senator and every member of the House of Assembly shall before taking his seat make and subscribe before the Governor-General or some person authorized by him an oath or affirmation of allegiance in the following form:—

Oath.

I, A.B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Edward the Seventh his heirs and successors according to law. So help me God.

Affirmation.

I, A.B., do solemnly and sincerely affirm and declare that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Edward the Seventh his heirs and successors according to law.

52. A member of either House of Parliament shall be incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a member of the other House: provided that every minister of state who is a member of either House of Parliament shall have the right to sit and speak in the Senate and the House of Assembly but shall vote only in the House of which he is a member.

53. No person shall be capable of being chosen or of sitting as a senator or as a member of the House of Assembly who:—

- (a) has been at any time convicted of treason, murder, or any offence for which he shall have been sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine for a term of not less than twelve months, unless he shall have received a free pardon or unless such imprisonment shall have expired at least five years before the date of his election; or
- (b) is an unrehabilitated insolvent; or
- (c) is of unsound mind and has been so declared by a competent court; or
- (d) holds any office of profit under the Crown within the Union: provided that the following persons shall not be deemed to hold an office of profit under the Crown for the purposes of this sub-section.

  - (2) a person in receipt of a pension from the Crown;
  - (3) an officer or member of His Majesty's naval or military forces on retired or half-pay or an officer or member of the naval or military forces of the Union whose services are not wholly employed by the Union.

54. If a senator or member of the House of Assembly

- (a) becomes subject to any of the disabilities mentioned in the last preceding section; or
  - (b) ceases to be qualified as required by law; or
  - (c) fails for a whole ordinary session to attend without the special leave of the Senate or the House of Assembly, as the case may be;
- his seat shall thereupon become vacant.

55. If any person who is by law incapable of sitting as a senator or member of the House of Assembly shall, while so disqualified and knowing or having reasonable grounds for knowing that he is so disqualified, sit or vote as a member of the Senate or the House of Assembly, he shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds for each day on which he shall so sit or vote, to be recovered on behalf of the Treasury of the Union by action in any Superior Court of the Union.

56. Each senator and each member of the House of Assembly shall, under such rules as shall be framed by Parliament, receive an allowance of three hundred pounds a year to be reckoned from the date on which he takes his seat: provided that for every day of the session on which he is absent there shall be deducted from such allowance the sum of two pounds: provided further that no such allowance shall be paid to a minister receiving a salary under the Crown or to the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Assembly. A day of the session shall mean in respect of a member any day during a session on which the House of which he is a member or any committee of which he is a member meets.

57. The powers privileges and immunities of the Senate and of the House of Assembly and of the members and committees of each House shall subject to the provisions of this Act be such as are declared by Parliament and until declared shall be those of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope and of its members and committees at the establishment of the Union.

58. Each House of Parliament may make rules and orders with respect to the order and conduct of its business and proceedings. Until such rules and orders shall have been made the rules and orders of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope at the establishment of the Union shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Senate and House of Assembly respectively. If a joint sitting of both Houses of Parliament is required under the provisions of this Act it shall be convened by the Governor-General by message to both Houses. At any such joint sitting the Speaker of the House of Assembly shall preside and the rules of the House of Assembly shall as far as practicable apply.

Powers of Parliament.

59. Parliament shall have full power to make laws for the peace order and good government of South Africa.

60.—(i) Bills appropriating revenue or moneys or imposing taxation shall originate only in the House of Assembly. But a Bill shall not be taken to appropriate revenue or moneys or to impose taxation by reason only of its containing provisions for the imposition or appropriation of fines or other pecuniary penalties.

(ii) The Senate may not amend any Bills so far as they impose taxation or appropriate revenue or moneys for the services of the Government.

(iii) The Senate may not amend any Bill so as to increase any proposed charges or burden on the people.

61. Any bill which appropriates revenue or moneys for the ordinary annual services of the Government shall deal only with such appropriation.

62. The House of Assembly shall not originate or pass any vote, resolution, address or Bill for the appropriation of any part of the public revenue or of any tax or impost to any purpose unless such appropriation has been recommended by message from the Governor-General during the session in which such vote, resolution, address, or Bill is proposed.

63. If the House of Assembly passes any Bill, and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with amendments to which the House of Assembly will not agree, and if the House of Assembly in the next session again passes the Bill with or without any amendments which have been made or agreed to by the Senate, and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with amendments to which the House of Assembly will not agree, the Governor-General may during that session convene a joint sitting of the members of the Senate and House of Assembly. The members present at any such joint sitting may deliberate and shall vote together upon the Bill as last proposed by the House of Assembly and upon amendments, if any, which have been made therein by one House of Parliament and not agreed to by the other; and any such amendments which are affirmed by a majority of the total number of members of the Senate and House of Assembly present at such sitting shall be taken to have been carried, and if the Bill with the amendments, if any, is affirmed by a majority of the members of the Senate and House of Assembly present at such sitting, it shall be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of Parliament. Provided that, if the Senate shall reject or fail to pass any Bill dealing with the appropriation of revenue or moneys for the public service, such joint sitting may be convened during the same session in which the Senate so rejects or fails to pass such Bill.

64. When a Bill is presented to the Governor-General for the King's assent, he shall declare according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of this Act, that he assents in the King's name, or that he withholds assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the King's pleasure. The Governor-General may return to the House in which it originated any Bill so presented to him, and may transmit therewith any amendments which he may recommend and the House may deal with the recommendation.

65. The King may disallow any law within one year after it has been assented to by the Governor-General and such disallowance on being made known by the Governor-General by speech or message to each of the Houses of Parliament or by proclamation shall annul the law from the day when the disallowance is so made known.

66. A Bill reserved for the King's pleasure shall not have any force unless and until within one year from the day on which it was presented to the Governor-

General for the King's assent the Governor-General makes known by speech or message to each of the Houses of Parliament or by proclamation that it has received the King's assent.

67. As soon as may be after any law shall have been assented to in the King's name by the Governor-General or having been reserved for the King's pleasure shall have received his assent, the Clerk of the House of Assembly shall cause two fair copies of such law, one being in the English and the other in the Dutch language, one of which copies shall be signed by the Governor-General, to be enrolled of record in the office of the Registrar of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa; and such copies shall be conclusive evidence as to the provisions of every such law and in case of conflict between the two copies thus deposited that signed by the Governor-General shall prevail.

V.—THE PROVINCES.

68.—(i) In each Province there shall be a chief executive officer appointed by the Governor-General in Council who shall be styled the Administrator of the Province and in whose name all executive acts relating to provincial affairs therein shall be done.

(ii) In the appointment of the Administrator of any Province the Governor-General in Council shall as far as practicable give preference to persons resident in such Province.

(iii) Such Administrator shall hold office for a term of five years, and shall not be removed before the expiration thereof except by the Governor-General in Council for cause assigned which shall be communicated by message to both Houses of Parliament within one week after the removal if Parliament be then sitting or if Parliament be not sitting then within one week after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

(iv) The Governor-General in Council may from time to time appoint a Deputy Administrator to execute the office and functions of the Administrator during his absence illness or other inability.

69. The salaries of the Administrators shall be fixed and provided by Parliament, and shall not be reduced during their respective terms of office.
