

CZECHOSLOVAKIA ENSLAVED:
The Story of the Communist Coup d'État

CZECHOSLOVAKIA
ENSLAVED:

The Story of the Communist Coup d'État

by

HUBERT RIPKA

LONDON
VICTOR GOLLANCZ LTD

1950

Copyright 1950 by Hubert Ripka

TO MY WIFE

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN BY RICHARD CLAY AND COMPANY, LTD., BUNGAY, SUFFOLK.

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

From Hitler to Stalin page 7

BOOK ONE

Weathering the Great Storm

Chapter I.	Two Protectorates in Ten Years	13
II.	After Munich: The Restoration	18
III.	Return to the National Territory: First Dis- agreements	25
IV.	The Liberation of Prague	34
V.	The Fight for Freedom Begins Again	41

BOOK TWO

The Soviets Interfere

·VI.	Prague Accepts the Marshall Plan	51
VII.	Stalin's Ultimatum	56
VIII.	Interview at the Kremlin	63
IX.	Moscow Frowns on the Franco-Czechoslovak Alliance	72
X.	Difficulties between Paris and Prague	79
XI.	The Bridges to the West are Cut	86

BOOK THREE

Prelude to the Crisis

XII.	The First Communist Offensive is Broken	96
XIII.	Agitation in Czechoslovakia	105
XIV.	The Defeat of Fierlinger	120
XV.	Russian Wheat: The Gift that Wasn't	126
XVI.	Moscow's Suspicions Mount	133
XVII.	At Loggerheads with the Communists	137

BOOK FOUR

Two Conceptions: Democracy vs. Totalitarianism

Chapter	XVIII. Multiplying Conflicts	page 142
	XIX. The Seizure of the Police	148
	XX. The Krajina Case	156
	XXI. The Jack-in-the-Box	162
	XXII. The Scandal of the False Spies	172
	XXIII. The Fight for a Democratic Constitution	177
	XXIV. The Defeat of the Trade Unions	187

BOOK FIVE

The Crisis

	XXV. A Communist Check on the Police	193
	XXVI. The Democratic Parties Take the Offensive	199
	XXVII. We Consult Benes	208
	XXVIII. Twelve Ministers Resign	221

BOOK SIX

The Coup d'État

	XXIX. Threats from Gottwald	229
	XXX. "The End of Your Independence is Near"	237
	XXXI. Prague is Occupied	244
	XXXII. Benes: "I won't be an Accomplice of the Communists"	250
	XXXIII. Police Terrorism Within, Soviet Threats Without	259
	XXXIV. The Students in the Van	268
	XXXV. Uncertainty Among the Social Democrats	270
	XXXVI. The National Front: Revised Edition	277
	XXXVII. The Putsch	283
	XXXVIII. The National Socialists Stand Firm	286
	XXXIX. Gottwald's Victory	290
	XL. Two Victims: Drtina and Masaryk	296
	XLI. The Decisive Factor: Moscow	304
	XLII. My Flight	313
	XLIII. The New Day	319

	323
--	-----

INDEX

Note.—All subject entries refer to Czechoslovakia unless otherwise stated

- AGRARIAN Reform, in Czechoslovakia, 26, 28, 47, 146-7, 201, 281
Alois, Hora, 159
Alphand, Hervé, 79
Army, Czech, 279-80
Atlantic Pact, 331
Attlee, Rt. Hon. Clement, 124
Auriol, Vincent, 85, 89
Austria, 21, 91, 307, 330
"Banderistas", 111-13
Barthou, Louis, 75
Bartik, General, 153-4
Bata Works, 236
Benes, Eduard: ability in foreign diplomacy, 13; organizes government in exile, 18-33; under Soviet surveillance at Koscice, 34-7; returns to Prague, 38-9, 45; views on the inevitability of European War after Munich, 73; confidence of General de Gaulle in, 80; prestige in Western Europe, 84; urges signing of treaty with France, 84-5, 88-91; attacks of apoplexy, 95-6, 102-3, 256; condemns Czech Communists, 102; urges Social Democrats to dismiss Fierlinger, 102, 120, 124; message to Social Democrats, 121; believes agreement between Russia and the West no longer possible, 136, 217-18, 257; encourages resistance to the Communists, 141; and Krajina Case, 155-7; refuses to credit Gottwald's charge against the non-Communist Ministers, 205; consulted by the National Socialist Ministers, 208-20; refuses to accept resignation of the anti-Communist Ministers, 227, 233-5; considers appeasing Gottwald, 245; shows signs of uncertainty, 243; stands firm against Gottwald, 250-5; message to the people, 255; expects a second Munich, 256-7; yields to the Communists and approves new Cabinet, 294-6; resigns, 323; death, 324; writings disappear from circulation, 321, 326
Benes, Vojta, 122
Bernard, Deputy, 273
Bidault, Georges, 79-82, 84, 88, 93, 321, 330
Blum, René, 124
Bocek, General, 30, 267, 278-80
Bodrov, 54, 65
Bogomolov, 21
Boy Scouts, Czechoslovak, 185
Bratislava, 259, 262
British Broadcasting Corporation, 35, 37
Brno Congress, 119-25, 205, 216
Brussels Pact, 331
Brzord, 56-7
Bugar, Milos, 113-14
Bulgaria, 87-8, 127, 138-41, 235
Byrnes, Mr., 49, 51
"Cabinet of Technicians", 205-12, 233-5
Catholic Popular Party, 28, 45-9
Cepicka, Alexej, 114, 137-8, 143-4, 281
Cerny, Frantisek, 185
Churchill, Rt. Hon. Winston, 15, 37, 39-40
Civil Servants, Czechoslovak, 65, 185, 187-90, 216
Cizek, 159
Clementis, Vlado, 29-30, 58, 60, 86, 89
Collaborationists, Czechoslovak, 46, 107, 169, 183
Cominform: attacks Socialists of Western Europe, 103; creation of, embarrasses Czech Communists and antagonizes Social Democrats, 103-4; attitude of National Socialist Party to, 118; defeated at Brno Congress, 123; working for merging of Social Democrats and Communists in Roumania, Poland and Hungary, 123; campaign in favour of provisional Greek Government of General Markos, 140; instructs Czech Communist Party, 200, 203
Committees of Action, 232-3, 235, 275, 277, 297, 299-300, 327; peasant committees, 199, 207; unit committees, 189, 199-200, 207, 236-7, 242, 283, 297, 299-300
Communist Party of Czechoslovakia: destroys Czech freedom, 16-17; accuses Benes of being in the pay of the Western democracies, 19; leaders spend war years in Moscow, 25; refuses to join Benes's cabinet, Dec. 1943, 25; plot to seize control after liberation, 25-6; promises autonomy to the "Slovak Nation", 27, 105-6; attitude to other political parties, 28-9; Programme, 28-9, 32, 42 et seq.; seizes Cabinet portfolios, 29-30; success in elections of 1946, 46-8; now opposes Slovak autonomy, 48, 107; does not voice objections to Marshall

Communist Party of Czechoslovakia—

continued

aid, 51, 54; opposes Treaty with France, 55; opposes Marshall aid, 58-62; attempted assassination of National Socialist Ministers, 98 et seq.; first offensive broken, 96-104; attack on Slovak Democrats, 107 et seq.; faked Slovak plot, 112 et seq.; invites non-political organisations to join National Front, 116-19; obliged to give way, 119; Fierlinger's defeat at Brno a set-back to it, 123-5; loses ground, 126; calls Soviet Russia to its assistance, 127; change in Communist representation on the Cabinet, 137; seeks nationalization of private enterprises, 143 et seq.; seizes control of the police, 148-55; stages the Krajina case, 156-9; opposes formation of central intelligence service, 160; accuses National Socialists of attempting assassination of the three Ministers, 162 et seq.; the Most espionage case, 172 et seq.; frames new Constitution, 177 et seq.; and Slovak autonomy, 180-1; defeated on question of the Civil Servants' wages, 187 et seq.; yields to Drtina's proposals for an enquiry into police, 193-8; threatens non-Communist workers, 201; seeks to create new National Front, 205-7; supported by U.S.S.R., 224 et seq.; attempts to win over Social Democrats, 229; violent attacks on National Socialists, 229-32; forms committees of action, 232; demands oath of allegiance from police, and distributes arms to workers, 236; congress of unit committees demands radical socialization, 239; inaugurates police terrorism, 259-67; undermines Social Democrats, 272 et seq.; sets up new National Front, 277 et seq.; putsch, 283-5; reign of terror, 293 et seq.; Russian help to, 304-12; Communist regime since coup d'état, 325 et seq.

Concentration camps in Czechoslovakia, 39, 325-6

Co-operatives, Czech, 277, 327

Council of Commissioners, 119

Cyraniewicz, Premier, 53-4

Czechoslovakia: Foreign Affairs see under France, Great Britain, Hungary, Poland, U.S.A., U.S.S.R.; Home Affairs see under Subject Entries.

Daladier, Edouard, 19

David, M., 48

Dejean, Maurice, 75-6, 79, 92-3

Derer, Ivan, 122-3

Dimitrov, 127, 140

Dolezal, Frantisek, 164, 170

Drabek, 157-8

Drtina, Prokop: fights Communists, 27; Minister of Justice, 46, 48, 148; on delegation to Moscow, 55-8, 60, 64-5, 68; attempted assassination of, 99, 102, 110, 162, 172; investigates "Slovak Plot", 114; investigates Krajina case, 157-8; investigates Most espionage case, 166-70, 173-5; fights Communist attempt to gain control of the police before the elections, 193-7, 223; attacked by Zapotocky, 238; attempted suicide, 298-302; early career, 298; mentioned, 181-2, 191, 202, 244-5, 247-9, 250, 271, 273-4, 286, 293

Eden, Rt. Hon. Anthony, 23

Education in Czechoslovakia, 320

Eisenhower, General, 38

Elections, 40, 46-8, 96, 177-86, 203, 207, 216-17, 219, 224, 323-4

Espionage, political, 154

Erban, E., 42, 281, 290

Exports, Czechoslovak, 68, 130-2

Farmers Union, Czech, 116, 277

Feierabend, Ladislav, 26

Ferencik, General, 29

Fierlinger, Zdenek: Soviets ask him to resign from post as Ambassador to Moscow, 19; ignores instructions of Benes and the London government in favour of those of Gottwald, 31; becomes Premier, 30, 32; ousts former leaders of the Social Democrat Party, 42; declares obedience to Stalin on question of Marshall aid, 58; sends telegram criticising signing of Franco-Czechoslovak Treaty of 1944 without consultation with Moscow, 77; first opinion of property tax, 97; pact with Gottwald, 100; position weakened by creation of the Cominform, 103; defeated at Brno Congress, 119-125; resigns from Cabinet, 125; comes to an understanding with Communists on nationalization, etc., 200; defeat attributed to National Socialist Party, 205; a tool in hands of Cominform, 206; understanding with Lausman, assumes effective control of the Social Democrat Party, 274-6; becomes member of the Cabinet, 290; mentioned, 48, 134-5, 216, 284

Firt, Julius, 110, 161, 215, 243, 285, 293

Flanderka, 166

Foreign Trade, 68, 130-2; see also U.S.A., U.S.S.R.

France: and Czech emigrés, 18-19; abrogation of Munich, 20-1; National Committee of Liberation, 20-1, 74-6; Treaty of Alliance with

France—continued

Czechoslovakia, 24, 55, 66-95;
Treaty with U.S.S.R., 77, 87, 92;
Communists in, 310; Treaty of Alliance with Great Britain, 87; see also Poland

Franeck, Mikulas, 112

Frank, Karl Hermann, 157

Frinta, 166-7

Gaulle, General de, 40, 74-6, 80

Germany, 59, 75, 86, 89, 133-4, 139,
244, 308-9

Gestapo, 154-9

Goerner, Dr., 162-4, 195

Government in Exile, Czech, 19-20, 25-6, 31-3, 156-8, 302

Great Britain, and Czechoslovakia, 19-21, 23, 35-9, 73-4, 139-40, 217, 331;
and France, 82-3; and U.S.S.R., 87,
92, 139-40, 331

Greece, 139-40

Gottwald, Klement: in Moscow during the war, 25; Premier, 47; and Paris
Conference on Marshall aid, 54,
56-71; and Franco-Czechoslovak
Treaty, 66, 86 et seq.; views on Communist prospects at elections, 96;
and attempted assassination of the National Socialist Ministers, 99-101;
enlarges National Front, 116-19;
agreement with Fierlinger, 122, 125; exchange of letters with Stalin with regard to Russian wheat shipments,
128-9; abuses his political opponents,
137; appoints Cepicka Minister of Justice, 170; visits Tatras for health reasons, 180; interview with Ripka, 181-5, 202; defeated, with U.R.O.,
on question of status of Civil Servants,
190-1; denounces non-communist
Ministers, 204-5, 207-15, 222;
threatens opponents, 229-36; prepares coup d'état, 237 et seq.; interview with Benes, 250-4; victorious, forms new government, 293-4; hears news of Masaryk's suicide, 301;
becomes President, 324

Hala, Postmaster General, 230, 245,
248

Hasal, General, 29

Heidrich, Arnost, 65

Herber, Ivan, 160

Hodza, Fedor, 111, 116, 263

Hora, Dr., 162, 195

Horak, Jiri, 65, 128

Hracha, Frantisek, 285

Hull, Mr. Cordell, 23

Hungary: Czechoslovakia has no territorial claims against, 21; considered as a potential aggressor, 82, 86, 91;
Cominform seeks merging of Social Democrat and Communist Parties in, 123, 235; Communist terrorism in, 127; Hungarian Communists predict change of government in

Czechoslovakia, 185, 202, 307;
Soviet allows free elections in, 305

Husak, Gustav, 115, 262

Imports, Czechoslovak, 68, 130-2

Ingr, General Sejoj, 26, 30 n.

Intelligence Services, Czech, 153-4

Italy, 94, 310

Jancova, Mme. Ludmila, 125, 146, 191,
216, 226, 290

Janousek, General Karel, 37

Jina, 208, 211, 244-7, 250

Joekl, Heinrich, 158

Judiciary, Czechoslovak, 138, 178-9,
238, 325

Keller, Count de, 79

Kempny, Jan, 113-14

Kirska, 172

Kladsko, region of, 21

Klapalek, General, 279

Klatil, 195

Kocvara, Stefan, 125, 225

Kolarov, 139-40

"Kolkhozcs", 147

Komandera, Rudolf, 113-14

Konier, General, 38

Kopecky, Vaclav, 25, 154, 182, 188,
204, 212, 229, 307

Kopka, Jan, 163-7, 182

Kosice Government, 32, 34-5, 38, 150

Kousova, Mme., 272

Krbeck, Karel, 161

Kroupa, Vlastimil, 173, 175

Kvetko, 117

Kralove, Hradec, 137

Krajina, Vladimir: traces attempted assassination of the three Ministers to the Communist Party, 100, 126, 163-4, 170; falsely accused of having betrayed his comrades in the Resistance Movement, 113; accuses Communists of using Gestapo methods, 155; activity as a leader of the Resistance Movement, 156;
accused by Communists, the "Krajina Case", 156-61; implicated by false spies, 173-4; addresses students,
269; mentioned, 195, 202-3, 245,
248

Land Collectivization in Czechoslovakia, 327-8

Lausman, Bohumil: Minister of the Interior and tool of the Communists,
30; with Fierlinger, ousts former Social Democrat leaders, 42; becomes less co-operative with Communists, 49; an opportunist, owing his position to the Communists, 120;

Lausman, Bohumil—continued

defeats Fierlinger and becomes President of the Social Democrat Party, 122-3; resigns from Cabinet, 125; Benes's hopes of, 216; his uncertain policy, 270-5; his agreement with Fierlinger in support of the Communists, 275-6; becomes a member of Government of New National Front, 290; mentioned, 202, 248
Lebediev, Ambassador, 75, 77, 134-5
Lettrich, Josef, 111, 117
Lidova Democracie, 200, 264, 284
Liska, 161
Lockhart, Sir Bruce, 36, 331

Majer, Vaclav: Minister of Provisioning in Government in exile, 26; isolated in his opposition to the Communists, 27, 42; position improves, 49, 101; attends Paris Food Conference, 58; Benes refuses to accept his resignation, 101; works for defeat of Fierlinger and Communist wing of Social Democrats, 101-3; supported by National Socialists, 103, 120; cannot rely on support of colleagues in the Cabinet, 125, 146; submits project on Civil Service question in place of that of the U.R.O., 189-91; attacked by Communists, 197, 216; supports non-Communist Ministers in refusing to attend Cabinet meeting, 225; refused permission to broadcast, 230; not received by Benes, 250; proposes to his colleagues that they resign, 272; dropped by Communists from new government, 290

Mandel, Georges, 15

Maniu, Julius, 126, 222

Marjanko, 170

Markos, 140

Marshall aid for Czechoslovakia, 49-53

Masaryk, Jan: resigns from post as Ambassador to Great Britain, 18; Minister for Foreign Affairs, 29, 48; opposes appointment of Fierlinger as Ambassador to Moscow, 31; attends San Francisco Conference, 34; proposes acceptance of invitation to the Paris Conference, 54; on mission to Moscow to discuss Franco-Czechoslovak Treaty, 55-62, 92; describes humiliating interviews with Stalin and Gottwald's arrogance, 64-70; his views on Soviet war policy, 70; defends Ministers who had voted against the Property Tax, 98; attempted assassination of, 99; considers that Moscow would not risk armed intervention in Czechoslovakia, 141; called "Palestine Jew Jan" by Nazis, 163; gives dinner to Yugoslav and Polish delegates, 205, 212; views on Zorin's mission, 224; suicide, 300-3; character, 194, 303

Masaryk, Tomas, 13, 38, 40, 142, 298
Meisner, Alfred, 122
Melantrich, Publishing House of, 285
Mikolajczyk, 22, 126-7, 222
Mikoyan, A. J., 124, 130, 133-4
Minc, Hilary, 52-3
Mlade, Fronta, 285
Modzelewsky, 53, 90
Molotov, 22-3, 52, 56-7, 133
Munich, 14-18; abrogation of, 20-1, 74, 76; Benes accuses Gottwald of preparing a second Munich, 251, 257-8, 296
Muller, 173, 175

National Socialist Party of Czechoslovakia: organizes first public demonstration after Liberation, 39-40; a minority in opposition, 42; second largest party after elections of 1946, 47-8; obliged to follow Communist lead in refusing Marshall aid, 59-61; joins Socialist bloc, 100-1; resolves to support Majer's wing of the Social Democrat Party, 102; decides to cooperate with Slovene Democrats, 110, 112; refuses to attend meeting of National Front, 117; declaration of policy warning country against Communist dictatorship, 118; letter to Brno Congress, 121; opposes nationalization of private trade and land collectivization, 143, 147; protests against communization of the police, 155; proposes formation of a central intelligence service, 160; seeks safeguards for civil liberties in new Constitution, 177 et seq.; on Slovak-Czech relations, 179-80; defeats U.R.O. proposal on wages of Civil Servants, 187 et seq.; accused by Gottwald of seeking a Cabinet of Technicians, 205; consults Benes, 209-16; Ministers decide to resign, 203, 219, 221-7; opposes Committees of Action, 232; enthusiasm of, in N. Bohemia, 241; secretariat of Party occupied, 259; alleged discovery by Communists of National Socialist "Plot", 260 et seq.; last attempts to resist Communists, 286-9; Benes obliged to accept resignation of Ministers, 293; see also Drtina, Prokop; Ripka, Hubert; Svobodne Slavo; Zenkl, Petr
Nationalization, in Czechoslovakia, 26, 28, 42-5, 49; of industry and banking, 143, 146; of textile trade, 143-5; of small businesses, 200, 297; and National Socialist Party, 179
Nejedly, Zdenek, 29, 48
Nemco, Frantisek, 26, 121

Neuman, Alois, 221, 287-8, 290
Nichols, Sir Philip, 36, 75
Nosek, Vaclav: in Moscow during war years, 25; ambassador to Paris, 54; Minister of the Interior, 156; takes no action to investigate the attempted assassinations of the Ministers, 164 et seq.; and Krajina case, 156-7; insists that Benes should form a government without the anti-Communist Ministers, 227; police required to take an oath of loyalty to Gottwald and Nosek, 237; inaugurates police terrorism, 259-67; reports National Socialist "conspiracy" to Benes, 260-2; weeps when breaks news to Benes of Masaryk's death, 302; declares that Masaryk was not threatened, 301-2

Obuch, Otto, 112, 263
Oplustil, Vladimir, 166
Orion Factory, 238

Papanek, Ambassador, 308
Paris Conference on Marshall Plan, 52-62

Patton, General, 37
Pauker, Anna, 118, 126
Peroutka, Ferdinand, 284
Petkov, 22, 127
Peyer, Karolyi, 127
Pfeiffer, Zoltan, 127
Pictor, Ivan, 249
Pika, General, 212
Pilar, Stanislav, 162-3, 182
Pitchblende deposits, 9
Podivin, Vladislav, 173-5
Pokorny, Capt., 113, 154-5, 157-9

Poland: dependent on Soviet Army for frontier defence, 21; abortive plan for Polish-Czechoslovak Confederation, 22; attitude to Soviet Russia, 22; Commercial Treaty with Czechoslovakia, 52; desire for Marshall aid, 52-3; decides to send delegation to Paris Conference, 55; revokes this decision under Soviet pressure, 56; treaty of alliance with Czechoslovakia, 52, 88, 90-2; desire for treaty with France, 90; Cominform works for merging of Social Democrats and Communists in, 123; Communists prepare to liquidate Peasant Party in, 126; delegates from, attend Prague Conference on German problem, 205-6

Police: Communists seize control of, 148-55; Communists create Corps of Security Police (S.N.B.), 151-2; mobile detachments, 152; "Security Commissions", 152; Law on National Security Police, 153; Democratic Parties succeed in stopping communization of, 193-7; Communist police officials distribute arms to workers, 236; many members of, demonstrate sympathy with the National Socialists, 242; formations of mobile police concentrated in Prague, 248-9; detachments of gendarmerie concentrated in Prague, 259; terrorist methods of, 259-67; alleged discovery of Democratic "plots" in Prague and Bratislava, 260-3; U.R.O. congress would oppose totalitarian methods of, 270

Populist Party, 28, 49, 107, 203, 204, 208, 219, 226, 236
Pospisil, 159
Postal Service, Communists tamper with, 325
Potsdam Conference, 21
Prace, 199, 264
Prague, liberation of, 34-40
Prawda, 265-7
Pravo Lidu, 200, 236, 272-3, 275-6
Prazak, Albert, 117
Prchala, General, 173
Press, Communist censorship of, 230, 320
Property Tax Act, 97-98
Provisional National Government of Czechoslovakia, 44, 81

Raczynski, 22
Radio, Communist control of, 229-31, 255-6, 260, 321
Rakosi, Matyas, 82
Ramadier, M., 94
Reichel, Pravomil, 172-5
Reicin, 15
Reiman, 64-5
Resistance Movement, 35, 244, 249, 299
Reynaud, Paul, 15
Ripka, Hubert: an emigré in England, 18 et seq., 27, 34; prefers Gottwald to Fierlinger as Premier, 31; appeals for Allied help for Prague, 36-7; telegram of thanks to Churchill, 39; returns to Prague, 39; Minister of Foreign Trade, 42; views on nationalization, 43-4, 46; visits Warsaw, 1947, 52-3; prevented by illness from going to Moscow, 54-5; learns of Stalin's opposition to Czech participation in the Marshall plan, 56-71; on importance of Franco-Czechoslovak friendship, 72-3 et seq.; relations with M. Dejean, 75; goes to Paris to sign Franco-Czech Trade Treaty, 79 et seq.; visits Benes after the latter's illness, 101 et seq.; supports Majer's wing of the Social Democrat Party, 102-3; and re-appearance of the Comintern, 104; draws up party programme at Karlovy Vary, 110; visits Moscow,

Ripka, Hubert—continued

Nov. 1947, 123-4, 128-36; answers Gottwald's speech at Hradec Králové, 137; views on nationalization of private trade, 144-7; interview with Gottwald, 180-5; proposes resignation of National Socialist Ministers, 203 et seq.; consults Benes, 208; views on Zorin's mission, 225; resigns, 225; visits constituency, 241-3; conference at Drtina's house, 244-8; house guarded by Communists, 248; consults with Benes, 250-8; visits Lausman, 271-5; views on General Svoboda and the Czech army, 279-80; resignation accepted by Benes, 293-6; advises friends to stand firm, 297; under police surveillance, 297; friendship with Drtina, 298-9; belief that Masaryk committed suicide, 301; friendship with Masaryk, 302; former views on co-operation with U.S.S.R., 304; on his own responsibility, 311-12, 322; flees the country and escapes to France, 313-18

Roosevelt, F. D., 21, 23, 40

Roumania, 56, 66-7, 88, 118, 123, 126, 305, 307

Rude Pravo, 98, 199, 211, 279, 285, 292

Ruhr, 82-3

Rysanek, 159

Saar, 83

Sames, 151

Schlechta, Emanuel, 211, 221, 227, 287, 290

Schoenfeld, Rudolf, 35

Sembera, Col., 151

Sidor, Karol, 107, 112

Sikorski, General, 22

Sila, Jiri, 189

Slansky, Rudolf, 25, 50, 96-9, 119, 162, 169, 181, 190, 200, 203

Slavik, Geraj, 26

Slovak Democratic Party, 47-8, 60, 107-9, 115, 203, 204, 208

Slovak Liberty Party, 47, 108, 119

Slovakia, resistance movement in, 27-8; autonomy of, 27, 29, 32, 48, 105-7, 179-80; parties in, 28-9, 42, 47-8, 186; and Soviet Russia, 106-7; alleged plot of Slovak Democratic Party, 262-3; crisis in, 306

Smutny, Chancellor, 269, 296

Social Democrat Party of Czechoslovakia: supports Communists, 30, 42; Fierlinger and Lausman assume control, 42; fusion with Communist party in Slovakia, 42; seeks to free itself from Communist domination, 48-9; follows Communists in refusing to participate in Paris Conference, 60; attempts to free itself from Communist control, 100-1;

Fierlinger's pact with Communists causes split within the party, 103; attacks Communists after creation of the Cominform, 103-4; represented on new Council of Commissioners, 119; Fierlinger defeated at Brno, 120-5; does not associate itself with opposition to nationalization of private trade, 145; approves enquiry into police, 193-8; unable to reject radical socialization of the Communists, 219; threatened with liquidation by Gottwald, 225; Majer's wing not received by Benes, 250; divided opinion in party, 270-6; agreement between Fierlinger and Gottwald marks end of independence of, 276; agreement between Fierlinger and Communists, 290

Social Insurance, 36, 194, 281

"Sokols", 28, 45, 116, 185

Spurna, Mme. Hodinova, 169

Sramek, Msgr. Jan, 27, 204, 208, 225, 227

Stalin, Josef, 11, 16, 50, 56-71, 87, 90-4, 106, 128-9, 139-40, 280, 304, 309, 311, 319

Steinhardt, Laurence, 44, 81, 311

Stepanek, Josef, 165

Strallen, M. van, 83

Stransky, Jaroslav, 26-7, 31-2, 46-8, 110, 118, 165, 202-5, 241, 245, 248-9, 250, 257, 286, 293, 301

Students and Communism, 268-9, 284, 294-5, 327

Stukavec, 151

Sudeten Germans, and Munich, 14, 16; deported to Germany, 20-1, 26; Moscow accuses Western powers of encouraging irredentism of, 241; possibility that Moscow would consent to their return to Czechoslovakia, 309

Sverma, 25

Svoboda, General Ludvik, 29-30, 48, 60, 229, 266, 278-80

Svobodne Noviny, 284

Svobodne Slovo, 223, 227, 245-9, 265, 285

Sweden, 68

Switzerland, 68

Sychrava, 117

Tatarescu, 66-7, 126

Teschen, 21-2

Tillon, 80

Tiso, Msgr., 19, 28, 107, 109, 112

Tito, Marshal, 118, 305, 310

Trade Unions, see U.R.O. (Unified Trade Unions)

Truman, President, 2, 37

Tuka, 107, 109

Turkey, 139-40

Tusa, 284

Tymes, Frantisek, 100, 125, 146, 191, 290

- Ukraine, the, 21, 150
 Union of Czech Youths, 45
 Union of Soviet-Czechoslovak Friendship, 240
 United Nations Organization, 20, 308
 U.N.R.R.A., 5, 26, 49, 131, see also Marshall aid.
 U.R.O. (Unified Trade Unions), 42, 115-17, 123, 185, 187-92, 200, 210, 219, 238-9, 240, 270, 277, 283
 Ursiny, Jan, 112, 114, 125, 263
 U.S.A.: American Army, 35, 42, 44, 305; declines to conclude agreement with Czechoslovakia on administration of liberated territories, 35-6; and liberation of Prague, 37-9, 155; growing tension with Russia, 50, 82, 133; Russia organizes satellites against, 139-40; and Greek rebel Government, 140; Benes of the opinion that understanding between Russia and U.S.A. now impossible, 217; Communists denounce American "intrigues" in Czechoslovakia, 265; refuses commercial credits to Czechoslovakia, 311. See also Marshall aid; Stalin, Josef.
 U.S.S.R.: the natural ally of Czechoslovakia, 7-8; Treaties of alliance with Czechoslovakia, 1935 and 1943, 8, 22-4; reasons why Czechoslovakia succumbs to Russian imperialism, 10-12, 15-17; asks Fierlinger to resign, 19; plans Communist control of Czechoslovakia immediately after liberation, 25 et seq.; Benes visits Moscow, 27; new Czech government formed in Moscow, 27; prepares programmes for all central European countries, 28-9; sponsors Slovak autonomy, 27-8, 32; refuses foreign diplomats access to Kosice, 34; liberates Prague, 38; refuses to allow Czech participation in the Marshall plan, 56-70; Gottwald, Drtina, and Masaryk interviewed at the Kremlin, 56-71; promised deliveries of Russian wheat, 69, 128-31, 224, 306, 311; Franco-Soviet treaty of alliance, 77; prevents conclusion of Franco-Slovak treaty, 72-94; trade treaty with Czechoslovakia, 55, 128-32; suspicions of Czech National Socialist Party, 133-5; Pravda article reveals open interference of Moscow in Czech domestic affairs, 265-7; author's conclusions that Communists could not have enslaved Czechoslovakia without direct intervention of Moscow, 304-12; the Red Army, 26, 38, 42, 44, 47, 81, 106-7, 150, 203, 225, 240, 256, 265, 305, 307, 330; see also Cominform; Communist Party of Czechoslovakia; France; Great Britain; Poland; Stalin, Josef; the Ukraine; U.S.A.
 Vishinsky, 133
 Vilim, 100-3, 273
 Vlassov, General, 37
 Wheat shipments; see U.S.S.R.
 Youth Unions, 185, 277
 Yugoslavia, 66-7, 88, 139-40, 205, 235, 305, 307, 310
 Zapletal, 163
 Zapotocky, Antonin: President of the U.R.O., 42; Premier, 42, 211 n.; threatens country with General Strike, 117; views on status of Civil Servants, 188-91; attacks reactionaries, 199-200; announces socialization through unit committees, 207; aggressive speech at congress of unit committees, 237-8; attacks Drtina, 238; estimate of number of Communists in the U.R.O., 240; overtures to Lausman, 271; member of Central Committee of Action of New National Front, 281; mentioned 126, 239, 277, 293
 Zenkl, Petr: returns from Buchenwald and becomes President of the National Socialist Party, 36; arrives in Prague, 39; becomes a vice-president of the Cabinet, 48; protests against Russian dictation on question of Marshall aid, 58-9; attempted assassination of, 98-9; accused of having falsely attributed assassination attempt to the Communists, 170 et seq.; fighting spirit, 208; visits Benes and asks him for a clear statement of his attitude, 208-15; in Moravia, 245; his optimism regarding position there, 249; interview with Benes, 250-2; attacked by Gottwald, 251-2; resignation accepted by Benes, 193-4; under police surveillance, 297; mentioned, 86, 110, 116, 157, 162, 181, 191, 225-6, 254, 268-9, 286-7
 Zhdanov, 200, 203
 Zmrhal, 137
 Zorin, 240, 306