NOTE

The 1951 Census Report for Hyderabad State consists of four parts, namely Part I-A, Part I-B, Part II-A and Part II-B. Part I-A contains the Report and Part I-B the subsidiary tables prepared for the Report. Part II-A and Part II-B contain the main tables. In all the following 23 main tables have been prepared for this State in connection with the 1951 Census :—

A SERIES—GENERAL POPULATION TABLES

- I Area, Houses and Population
- II Variation in Population during Fifty Years
- III Towns and Villages Classified by Population
- ✓IV Towns Classified by Population with Variations since 1901
- V Towns arranged Territorially with Population by Livelihood Classes

B SERIES—ECONOMIC TABLES

- I Livelihood Classes and Sub-Classes
- II Secondary Means of Livelihood
- III Employers, Employees and Independent Workers in Industries and Services by Divisions and Sub-Divisions

C SERIES—HOUSEHOLD AND AGE (SAMPLE) TABLES

- I Household (size and composition)
- II Livelihood Classes by Age Groups
- III Age and Civil Condition
- IV Age and Literacy
- V Single Year Age Returns

D SERIES—SOCIAL AND CULTURAL TABLES

- I (i) Languages—Mother Tongue
- I (ii) Languages—Bilingualism
- II Religion
- III Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes
- IV Migrants
- V (i) Displaced Persons by Year of Arrival
- V (ii) Displaced Persons by Livelihood Classes
- VI Non-Indian Nationals
- VII Livelihood Classes by Educational Standards

E-SUMMARY FIGURES BY DISTRICTS AND TAHSILS

This part of the Census Report contains the A and D Series of tables as well as Table E referred to above. The other tables along with the Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations are given in Part II-B.

TABLE A—I

AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

This table gives the area, the number of villages, towns and occupied houses and the population for each district of the State. The figures for occupied houses are split up between rural and urban areas. The figures for population are split up sexwise with break up by rural and urban areas.

2. The area figures given in column (2) are as furnished by the Surveyor-General of India, except that they have been adjusted to the nearest square mile. The exact areas given for Parbhani and Gulbarga Districts by the Surveyor-General of India are 4,854.5 and 7,131.5 square miles respectively. The area of Parbhani District has been rounded off to 4,855 while the area of Gulbarga District has been rounded off to 7,131 square miles. This has been done in order to tally the total of the areas of all the districts adjusted as indicated above with the adjusted State area of 82,168 square miles. The actual area given by the Surveyor-General is 82,168.3 square miles for the State. Details regarding the differences in the area figures as supplied by the Surveyor-General and the Commissioner, Settlement and Land Records Department, Hyderabad State, are given in the flyleaf to Table E—Summary Figures by Districts.

3. The term 'Village' used in column (3) of the table is identical with the basic territorial and administrative unit in the State, i.e., the revenue village. It covers not only the main population unit, which may have ceased to exist in a few cases, but also all the subsidiary units called 'Mazras' (hamlets) and scattered dwellings situated within the limits of the revenue village.

4. Revenue villages which lie entirely within the limits of towns, or are deserted, are excluded from this table (and Table A-III as well), but revenue villages which lie only partially within the limits of towns and whose rural portions are populated are included in this table (and in Table A-III as well) as constituting independent villages. Consequently, figures in column (3) of the table do not represent the total number of revenue villages in the State. The number of revenue villages in the State is 21,815 as based on Revenue Department's Notification No. 21 dated 23rd April, 1950, amended subsequently in the light of the corrigenda sent by the Collectors. Further details in this regard are given in paragraph 3 of the flyleaf to Table A-II. The total number of census units in the State is 20,149. The difference between the two figures is explained in the statement given below:—

District	No. of Revenue Villages	No. of Revenue Villages wrongly treated as hamlets	No. of deserted Revenue Villages which fall entirely outside town limits	No. of Revenue Villages which fall partially within the town limits and whose rural portions are deserted	No. of Revenue Villages which fall wholly under town limits	No. of hamlets wrongly treated as independent Revenue Villages	No. of towns and Tungabhadra Project Camps	Total No. of Census Units

The figure under column (9) for any district or the State corresponds to the figure under column (2) after the subtraction of the figures under columns (3), (4), (5) and (6) and addition of the figures under columns (7) and (8).

5. The definition of the term 'Town' has always been a problem to census authorities. It is impossible to separate meticulously the rural from the urban population because of the arbitrary definition which will have necessarily to be framed for the purpose at the very outset. The difference in the approach to this question during the present census and the previous censuses is explained in the relevant chapter of the Report Volume. During the present census, however, urban units have been selected from the points of view of available civic amenities, contiguity of habitation, and the composition and size of population. All the places notified by Government as falling under the jurisdiction of Town Committees or declared to be Municipalities have been automatically treated as towns. In addition to this, eighteen Tungabhadra Project Camps whose population varies from 18,555 to 94 have been treated as constituting independent urban units. The net result has been the inclusion of 240 population units as towns. The 222 towns, excluding the 18 Tungabhadra Project Camps, include within their limits 318 revenue villages wholly and 55 revenue villages partly.

6. The term 'Occupied House' used in columns (5), (6) and (7) of the table means every dwelling with a separate main entrance. The criterion for judging a separate main entrance has been the availability of an independent access to outside. Shops, places of worship, institutions, etc., where no human beings dwelt have not been included in the category of 'Occupied Houses' whereas structures consisting of a number of residential flats, or quarters opening on to a common courtyard, have been treated as containing a number of 'Occupied Houses'. During the present census the conception of a 'Household', i.e., a set of persons living together in the same house and having a common mess has also been introduced. Figures for households are given in Table C—I. A structure may thus consist of more than one 'Occupied House', and an 'Occupied House' of more than one 'Household'.

7. The total urban population is 3,476,159 and urban/rural ratio 19:81.

TABLE A-II

VARIATION IN POPULATION DURING FIFTY YEARS

This table indicates the variation in the population of the State and of each district during the last fifty years. The figures for the previous five censuses, as given in this table, differ from those given in the report pertaining to the concerned census. This is due to subsequent changes in the territorial composition of the State and the districts. In the preparation of this table, the effect of all the territorial changes on the population of the State and of each district has been calculated and the previous census figures have been adjusted on lines indicated in paragraph 5.

2. The decade 1941-1951 witnessed realignment of district and tahsil boundaries within the State on a very extensive scale. Prior to 13th September, 1948, the date on which the Government of India moved Indian forces into the State in response to the call of the people, some territorial changes had been made in order to cope up with the disturbed conditions then prevailing in the State. These changes were, however, of a transitory nature. But subsequently, on the abolition of the feudal system prevalent in the State, territorial readjustments were made on a scale perhaps unsurpassed by even Sir Salaṅ Jung's Zilabandi scheme of 1865 or its revision later on in 1905. In addition to these internal readjustments, certain enclave villages were exchanged between Hyderabad State on the one hand and the States of Bombay and Madras on the other. The details of these changes are indicated in paragraphs 3 and 4.

3. In accordance with the Firman dated 5th February, 1949, the Sarf-e-Khas Illaqas or territories, scattered all over the State, were taken over by Hyderabad Government. These Illaqas, consisting of about two thousand villages and covering roughly ten per cent of the area of the State, had previously been under the personal management of the ruler of the State, and constituted virtually 'a State within a State.' Consequent on the taking over of the Sarf-e-Khas Illaqas, Hyderabad Government through their Notification No. 7, dated the 3rd May, 1949, abolished the Sarf-e-Khas District of Atraf-e-Balda and the Diwani (State) District of Baghat and created instead the Hyderabad District with 797 villages. The remaining 265 villages of the abolished districts were merged with other districts within whose geographical limits they lay. Subsequently, in accordance with the Hyderabad (Abolition of Jagirs) Regulation of 1358 Fasli, the management of all Jagirs including Paigahs, Samsthans, etc., in the State was also taken over by Hyderabad Government. There were in all about 1,500 Jagirs consisting of about 6,500 villages dispersed all over the State. These Jagirs were of varying sizes ranging from a single village to territories as large as many of the former 'full-fledged States' of India. The villages of many a Jagir were scattered not only over various Diwani tahsils within a Diwani district but quite often over various Diwani districts. Consequently, the abolition of these Jagirs had to be followed by their assimilation into well defined and regular administrative units of the State. Prior to the integration of all these feudatory territories, the State consisted of 17 districts and 111 tahsils including the Sarf-e-Khas District of Atraf-e-Balda and all the Sarf-e-Khas Tahsils, but excluding the Jagir tahsils. In April, 1950, the Government of Hyderabad

(Revenue Department) through their Notification Nos. 19 and 20, dated the 21st April, 1950, and Number 21, dated the 23rd April, 1950, announced the division of Hyderabad State into 16 districts, 44 revenue sub-divisions and 138 tahsils (including 9 Mahals) and also specified the composition of each tahsil in terms of revenue villages. The districtwise details are given below :—

District	Number of Revenue Sub-divisions	Number of Tahsils	Number of Revenue Villages	District	Number of Revenue Sub-divisions	Number of Tahsils	Number of Revenue Villages
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
State	44	138	21,815	Raichur	4	11	1,733
Aurangabad	2	11	1,999	Gulbarga	3	12	1,679
Parbhani	3	8	1,585	Adilabad	3	11	2,048

Bidar	2	9	1,483	Medak	3	7	1,160
Bhir	2	7	1,043	Karimnagar	3	8	1,228
Osmanabad	2	8	864	Warangal	4	9	1,454
Hyderabad	2	5	615	Nalgonda	3	8	1,330
Mahbubnagar	3	10	1,330

The number of revenue villages indicated in column (4) above is based on Notification No. 21, dated the 23rd April, 1950, as amended in the light of the corrigenda sent by the Collectors. The position with regard to the treatment of units as hamlets or revenue villages seems to be still hazy in a few isolated areas of the State.

4. In pursuance of the agreement made on the 23rd of January, 1950, between the Governor-General of India and the Nizam of Hyderabad, the India and Hyderabad (Exchange of Enclaves) Order, 1950, promulgated by the Government of India, and the subsequent orders issued in this regard by the Governments of Hyderabad, Bombay and Madras, 90 villages were transferred from Hyderabad State to Bombay State; 10 from Hyderabad State to Madras State; 69 villages were transferred to Hyderabad State from Bombay State; and 9 to Hyderabad State from Madras State. The details are given below :—

5. (1) The procedure adopted for adjusting the population of the State as recorded at each of the five preceding censuses to conform to the present territory of the State was (a) to add to the population of the State at each census the total of the population (as recorded at the same census) of all the villages transferred to the State; and (b) to subtract from the resultant figure the corresponding total of the population of all the villages transferred from the State. But the 1901 population of 24 villages transferred to Hyderabad State from Bombay State and of 87 villages transferred from Hyderabad State to Bombay State and the 1931 population of one village transferred from Hyderabad State to Madras State had to be computed as actual figures were not available.

(2) The procedure indicated above could not be followed for adjusting the population of the districts as recorded at each of the preceding censuses to conform to their present territories. This was due, among other reasons, to (a) lack of detailed records for the numerous inter-district transfers of villages that have taken place since 1901; (b) the difficulty in determining the districtwise location of a number of transferred villages—particularly of those belonging to scattered Jagir Illaqaas at the previous censuses; (c) the creation, in the past, of jurisdictions purely for census purposes as distinct from the jurisdictions in vogue for revenue administration; and (d) various defects in the printed village lists of the previous censuses like errors in totalling, the omission altogether of the population-figures of some villages, the inclusion of the figures of some villages in more than one tahsil, etc. In view of all this, the following procedure had to be adopted for the adjustment of the district population figures for the previous censuses :—

(i) The population of each district for the preceding five censuses, as given in the relevant table of the 1941 Census Report, was adjusted to conform to the inter-state transfers of villages made during the decade 1941-1951. This adjustment was based on the population of the transferred villages as recorded at the relevant censuses except that, as indicated in sub-paragraph (1) above, the 1901 population of 111 villages and the 1931 population of one village were computed as actual figures were not available.

(ii) The net loss or gain in the population of each district at the 1951 Census, because of the inter-district transfers of villages during the decade 1941-1951, was determined on the basis of the 1951 population of the transferred villages.

(iii) The net loss or gain in the population of each district for the preceding five censuses because of the 1941-1951 inter-district transfers of villages, was calculated by applying to the net loss or gain in the 1951 population of the district concerned (determined as indicated in sub-paragraph (2) (ii) above) the ratio of the population of the State at the concerned census to its population in 1951. The population of the State for each of the previous censuses taken for purposes of this calculation was as adjusted for the inter-state transfers of villages on lines indicated in sub-paragraph (1) above.

(iv) Lastly, the population of every district for each of the preceding five censuses (adjusted as indicated in sub-paragraph (2) (i) above to conform to the inter-state transfers of villages during 1941-1951) was decreased or increased, as the case may be, in accordance with the net loss or gain in its population for the census concerned (determined as indicated in sub-paragraph (2) (iii) above). The resultant figure was adopted as the final adjusted population of the district for the census concerned.

The total of the population of all districts for the 1931, 1921, 1911 and 1901 Censuses as given in the relevant table of the 1941 Report does not tally with the total population of the State for the census concerned as given in the same table. The difference between the figures given for the State and the total of the figures given for all the districts in the 1941 table is +8,240 for 1931, +16,456 for 1921, —70,744 for 1911 and —21,599 for 1901. These discrepancies affect the present table as well. The extent of these discrepancies is, however, only +0.06 per cent for the 1931 population of the State, +0.13 per cent for the 1921 population, —0.53 per cent for the 1911 population and —0.19 per cent for the 1901 population. The Census Tabulation Office had to follow this procedure as there was no alternative. The figures pertaining to the population of the State for the preceding five censuses, however, have been adjusted, as indicated in sub-paragraph (1) above, on the basis of the population figures of the villages involved in the inter-state transfers.

TABLE A—III

TOWNS AND VILLAGES CLASSIFIED BY POPULATION

This table gives the total number of towns and villages as classified under three main and nine subsidiary population groups as indicated below:—

- I Towns and Villages with less than 2,000 population.
 - (a) Less than 500.
 - (b) 500 and above but less than 1,000.
 - (c) 1,000 and above but less than 2,000.
- II Towns and Villages with a population of 2,000-10,000.
 - (a) 2,000 and above but less than 5,000.
 - (b) 5,000 and above but less than 10,000.
- III Towns and Villages with a population of 10,000 and above.
 - (a) 10,000 and above but less than 20,000.
 - (b) 20,000 and above but less than 50,000.
 - (c) 50,000 and above but less than 100,000.
 - (d) 100,000 and above.

The table also furnishes the population under each of these groups with break up of the figures by males and females. No distinction, however, is made in this table between villages and towns. Their figures are given together.

2. The terms 'Town' and 'Village' are defined in the flyleaf to Table A—I. For reasons detailed in that flyleaf, the figures given in column (2) of this table do not represent the total number of revenue villages in the State or the district concerned.

TABLE A—IV

TOWNS CLASSIFIED BY POPULATION WITH VARIATIONS SINCE 1901

In this table towns are divided into the following six classes :—

Class I 100,000 and above	Class IV 10,000 to 20,000
Class II 50,000 to 100,000	Class V 5,000 to 10,000
Class III 20,000 to 50,000	Class VI Less than 5,000

In each class, the towns are arranged according to the natural divisions of the State in which they are located and within each division according to their 1951 population.

2. This table gives the population, with break up by sex, of each town for all the censuses from 1901 to 1951. It also gives for each town (i) the variation in the population with break up by sex for every decade and (ii) the net variation in the population during the last five decades. But where the 1901 figures for any town are not available, the net variation has not been worked out and column (5) is left blank.

The term 'Town' is defined in paragraph 5 of the flyleaf to Table A—I. The constituents of each town, in terms of revenue villages, are given in paragraph 4 of the flyleaf to Table A—V.

3. No figures relating to any of the previous censuses are given for the 18 Tungabhadra Camp units, as they came into existence during the decade 1941-1951.

4. The decennial figures for each town have been taken, wherever available, from the concerned census report. Where such figures are not available in the reports, they have been taken from the district village lists except for 1901 for which such lists could not be traced. The 1901 figures for some of the towns not given in the 1901 Report, have been taken from the Imperial Gazetteer of India for Hyderabad State published in 1909. As sex figures are not given in the Gazetteer, they have been computed on the basis of the sex-ratio for the district concerned in 1901. A similar procedure has been adopted for a few towns for which the 1941 sex figures are not available. Such figures are marked with an asterisk. Where the previous census figures are not available from any source, the relevant columns are left blank.

5. The population figures of towns for the previous censuses have not been adjusted on the basis of their present areas. In case the figures were adjusted, the previous population of a town would generally be greater than that given in the table if the town has increased in area and smaller if it has decreased. For example, Hingoli Town in 1941 Census consisted only of the revenue village of Hingoli but now it has expanded and includes the revenue villages of Malaharwadi and Ganeshwadi as well.

If the 1941 population of Hingoli were to be adjusted according to its present constituents, it would be greater than the figure given in this table. Similarly, Huzurabad Town in 1941 consisted of the entire Huzurabad revenue village with all its hamlets. But now it is confined only to the main population unit of the revenue village. If adjusted to its present area, the 1941 population would be considerably less than that indicated in the table.

The population totals indicated for each class of towns for the previous censuses are also unadjusted and are as given in the concerned census report. They do not take into account the population of towns added or omitted in subsequent censuses.

6. There are in all twenty-nine towns in the State which do not cover the whole of the population residing within the jurisdiction of the revenue villages bearing corresponding names. This is because only portions of the areas of such revenue villages have been treated as urban. All such towns are marked with the letter 'U' (urban) in the table. The population of the rural portions of each of these revenue villages, as ascertained at the 1951 Census, is indicated below :—

TOWNS ARRANGED TERRITORIALLY WITH POPULATION BY LIVELIHOOD CLASSES

In this table the towns in the State are arranged districtwise and within each district they are arranged in order of population. This table gives the population of each of the towns split up according to livelihood classes and sex.

2. There are in all 29 towns in the State, which do not cover the whole of the population residing within the jurisdiction of the revenue villages bearing corresponding names. This is because only portions of the areas of such revenue villages have been treated as urban. Such towns are marked with the letter 'U' (urban). The population of the rural portions of these revenue villages is given in paragraph 6 of the flyleaf to Table A-IV. The details of the population figures for each of these rural units in terms of livelihood classes are given in the District Census Handbooks.

3. The towns which have been notified as falling under the jurisdiction of 'Town Committees' or have been declared as Municipalities or Cantonments are indicated in the table by the insertion, in brackets, of the letters 'T.C.' or 'M' or 'C', as the case may be, immediately after their names.

Consequent on the abolition of Hyderabad Cantonment, the whole of the area falling within its jurisdiction has been merged with Hyderabad Municipality on 1st April, 1951.

4. Some of the towns consist of more than one revenue village. Such towns are marked with an asterisk. The constituents of each of these towns, in terms of revenue villages, are indicated below:—

5. In the earlier censuses, the population of each town or village was initially classified according to the religions followed by the people. This classification remained the basis on which census data were subsequently built up and presented. In this census, however, this manner of classification has been discarded. Instead, the division of the population in terms of eight broad livelihood classes has been adopted. These eight classes, of which four are agricultural and four non-agricultural, are as follows :—

Agricultural Classes.

- I. Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly owned, and their dependants.
- II. Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly unowned, and their dependants.
- III. Cultivating labourers and their dependants.
- IV. Non-cultivating owners of land, agricultural rent receivers and their dependants.

Non-Agricultural Classes.

Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from :—

- V. Production (other than cultivation).
- VI. Commerce.
- VII. Transport.
- VIII. Other services and miscellaneous sources.

Self-supporting persons have been classified, under one or the other of the above eight classes, on the basis of their principal means of livelihood. Thus, if a pattedar cultivating his own lands happened also to be a Qualdar (protected or otherwise) and he had returned his principal means of livelihood as cultivation of his Patta lands and his secondary means of livelihood as cultivation of his Qual lands, then he has been classified under Livelihood Class I, namely as an owner cultivator. Dependants, whether earning or non-earning, have been classified according to the principal means of livelihood of the self-supporting person on whom they are dependant.

Further, in case of non-agricultural classes, the classification of each individual, amongst one or the other of the first three non-agricultural classes, namely 'V. Production' or 'VI. Commerce' or 'VII. Transport' has been based primarily on the nature of the work done by the individual. For example, a truck driver of a factory has been classified under 'Transport' and not under 'Production'. Similarly, a Road Transport Department or Railway mechanic has gone under 'Production' and not 'Transport'. When an individual happened to be an employee and he could not possibly be classified under any of the three non-agricultural classes mentioned above on the merits of his own work, then he has been classified on the basis of the work turned out by his employer—except that all domestic servants have been invariably classified under the last of the livelihood classes, namely 'VIII. Other services and miscellaneous sources.'

Livelihood Class 'V. Production' covers both the making and the repairing of movable property of any kind. 'VI. Commerce' covers the buying and selling of movable or immovable property and includes services like Insurance, Money lending, Banking, etc. When any person happened to be both a producer and a seller, as was quite often the case, he has been treated only as a producer. 'VII. Transport' covers the movement from one place to another of people or goods. The last of the livelihood classes, namely 'VIII. Other services and miscellaneous sources', is a residuary class. The details of the industries and services falling under these four non-agricultural livelihood classes are given in the flyleaf to Economic Table III.

6. As the numbers of owner cultivators, tenant cultivators and agricultural labourers, i.e., Livelihood Classes I, II and III, are not very significant in urban areas, they are clubbed together in this table. Detailed figures, however, are available in the District Census Handbooks.

TABLE D-I—LANGUAGES

(i) MOTHER TONGUE

This table indicates the sex-wise distribution of population according to mother-tongues. In the table the figures for each mother-tongue are further split up district-wise. The totals for each mother-tongue along with the figures for the subsidiary languages returned are given in Table D-I (ii).

2. In the instructions issued to enumerators, the mother-tongue of a person was defined as the language spoken by him from the cradle. It was, however, added that the mother-tongue of infants and deaf-mutes should be presumed to be the same as that of the mother.

3. In the table, returns for Andhra Bhasha have been combined with returns for Telugu, Lamani and Labhani with Lambadi, Arvi and Arvam with Tamil, Rajputani with Rajasthani and Pittala Bhasha with Pardhi. In addition to these, the returns for 67 mother-tongues have been combined in the table with other mother-tongues. As the aim, however, is to preserve the identity of the mother-tongue as actually returned by the people irrespective of whether it happens to be a language, or a dialect, or a caste-dialect, the districtwise figures for these 67 mother-tongues are also given in para 4 below. The grouping of dialects and caste dialects under separate languages cannot always be effected in a non-controversial manner. Such grouping is likely to be particularly controversial in a State like Hyderabad which has numerous non-indigenous castes or classes drawn both from outside the State and from one linguistic region to another within the State. The dialects 'developed' by these castes or classes pass under different names in the different linguistic regions and represent various stages of assimilation of the regional language. For example, the degree of the present assimilation of Marathi by Kaikadi, of Kannada by Korava Bhasha and of Telugu by Yerukala Bhasha may be enough justification for some persons to group them under the respective regional languages, but philologists may prefer to treat all of them as constituting a Tamil or a distinct Dravidian dialect. And again, the 'Bhoi' mother-tongue returned from Parbhani and Bhir Districts may be corrupt Telugu if the Bhois are immigrant Bestas from the Telugu districts, or a dialect of Hindi if they are descendants of Kahars or Dhimars from northern States, who are also called 'Bhois.' Mondri reported from Mahbubnagar, Adilabad, Karimnagar and Warangal Districts may be a corrupt form of either Telugu or Tamil. Similar difficulties will arise with regard to many dialects mentioned in the table if a combination is now attempted.

4. Returns for sixty seven mother-tongues have been combined with the returns of other mother-tongues as indicated below in order to make the table more 'readable.' The places indicated against each mother-tongue represent the districts from which they were returned.

5. The figures for all the mother-tongues in the State, with more than one lakh of speakers, as recorded in the 1921, 1931, 1941 and 1951 censuses, along with their percentage variation from the corresponding figure of the preceding census, are given below :—

Census Year	Telugu		Marathi		Urdu		Kannada		Lambadi		Hindi

For purposes of uniformity, returns in all censuses for Waddari and Chenchu have been deducted from Telugu ; Are, Goanese, Konkani, Panchali, Kathodi, Dhangari and Rangari have been deducted from Marathi ; Hindustani from Urdu ; and Bondili, Lodhi and Pardesi from Hindi. The decreases recorded by all the languages during the decade 1911-1921 is in conformity with the decrease in the population of the State itself by 6.8 per cent.

*NOTE :—In 1951 Census, 13,890 persons returned their mother-tongue as Pardesi, 673 persons as Kahari, 122 as Bondili, 85 as Brij Bhasha, 67 as Bundeli, 19 as Purbi, 10 as Magadhi, 6 as Bihari, 1 each as Tirhutiya, Chhattisgarhi, and Lodhi. In 1941 Census, 828 persons returned their mother-tongue as Pardesi, 634 as Lodhi and 269 as Bondili. In 1931 Census, 540 returned their mother-tongue as Pardesi, 168 as Bondili and 309 as Lodhi. In 1921 Census, 6 persons returned their mother-tongue as Pardesi, 178 as Brij Bhasha, 17 as Bondili and 99 as Lodhi. If all these languages were included under Hindi the percentage variation figures for 1921 to 1951 would be -45.5 + 347.6, + 198.6 and + 5.9 respectively.

6. A comparative statement indicating the returns for the languages of the Gondi and Kolami groups for the State in 1901, 1911, 1921, 1931, 1941 and 1951 Censuses is given below as it may be of interest to philologists.

Census Year	Gondi	Koya	Manne Bhasha	Kolami	Naik Podi	Gotte	Total
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)	(6)	(7)	(8)
1901	59,669	15,895	159	75,723
1911	65,896	8,043	73,939
1921	57,016	11,184	68,200
1931	62,938	13,149	76,087
1941	109,391	82,295	141,686
1951	90,816	33,708	2,561	8,325	268	4	135,682

In addition to these, Bhili was returned by 2,836 persons in 1901, 7,012 in 1911, 3,915 in 1921, 9,619 in 1931, 17,602 in 1941 and 7,965 in 1951. In 1951, Andhi was also returned as the mother-tongue by 5 persons. Thus, out of 354,933 persons in the State belonging to Scheduled Tribes, 143,652 or 40.5 per cent returned tribal languages as their mother-tongue. The percentage of the speakers of these tribal languages to the total population of the State is 0.8.

7. The percentage of the number of speakers of each of the more important languages of this State to the total population as recorded at the 1921, 1931, 1941 and 1951 Censuses is given in para 3 of the flyleaf to Table D-I (ii).

TABLE D-I-LANGUAGES

(ii) BILINGUALISM

This table gives figures pertaining to bilingual returns for Hyderabad State. In the instructions issued to enumerators in this regard, they were asked to ascertain with reference to each person enumerated by them as to whether the person spoke any Indian language in his daily or domestic life in addition to his mother-tongue, and if so, to record the name of the language. The insistence, therefore, was on the language being used in the daily or domestic life of the person concerned and not on the mere fact of his knowledge of the language, however thorough it might be. During the 1941 and 1931 Censuses, the coverage of this question seems to have been wider. The enumerators were then asked to record all languages which a person spoke in addition to his mother-tongue. There were thus no restrictions regarding (1) the recording of only one language as subsidiary and (2) the limiting of the returns to Indian languages. Bilingual statistics were not collected in any census prior to 1931.

2. During the 1931 and 1941 Censuses tabulation of bilingual returns was restricted to Telugu, Marathi, Urdu and Kannada. During the present Census, however, all bilingual returns have been tabulated as returned by the people and the relevant figures are given in this Table.

3. The percentage of the number of speakers of each language in the State, with more than one lakh of speakers, to the total State population as recorded at the 1921, 1931, 1941 and 1951 Censuses is given below:—

Census Year	TELUGU		MARATHI		URDU		KANNADA		LAMBADI		HINDI
	Percentage of returns as *M.T. (2)	Percentage of returns as @S.L. (3)	Percentage of returns as M.T. (4)	Percentage of returns as S.L. (5)	Percentage of returns as M.T. (6)	Percentage of returns as S.L. (7)	Percentage of returns as M.T. (8)	Percentage of returns as S.L. (9)	Percentage of returns as M.T. (10)	Percentage of returns as S.L. (11)	Percentage of returns as M.T. (12)	Percentage of returns as S.L. (13)
1921	..	43.2	..	26.4	..	10.4	..	12.3	..	1.1	..	0.1	..
1931	..	43.2	1.6	26.2	0.9	10.4	3.1	11.2	1.7	1.5	..	0.3	..
1941	..	46.0	5.2	24.1	4.0	13.2	13.7	10.6	2.3	2.6	..	0.8	..
1951	..	47.8	5.4	24.3	3.1	11.6	2.5	10.5	2.3	3.0	0.02	0.7	0.8

With a view to preserving uniformity for all censuses, in calculating these percentages, returns (if any) for Waddari and Chenchu have been deducted from Telugu; Are, Goanese, Konkani, Panchali, Kathodi, Dhangari and Rangari have been deducted from Marathi; and Hindustani from Urdu; and Bondili, Lodhi and Pardesi from Hindi. These deductions do not materially affect the respective percentages.

*M.T. = Mother Tongue

@S.L. = Subsidiary Language

This table indicates districtwise the distribution of population by religion. In the instructions issued to enumerators with regard to the question pertaining to religion, they were asked to note and, if necessary, to explain to the persons enumerated that the question did not pertain to caste or sect. The enumerators were, however, directed to record the answer only as returned by the persons enumerated.

2. The table furnishes figures for Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, Buddhists, Zoroastrians, Muslims, Christians, Jews and 'Other Religions.' The last category is further subdivided into 'Tribal' and 'Non-Tribal.' Tribal Religions were returned only from Adilabad District of the State. Details of the 24,503 persons returned as following tribal religions are indicated in the statement given below :—

Religion	Males	Females	Religion	Males	Females
(1)	(2)	(3)	(1)	(2)	(3)

TABLE D-III

SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES

This table gives districtwise figures for (a) Scheduled Castes (exclusive of persons returned as Harijans or Dheds); (b) persons returned as Harijans or Dheds; and (c) Scheduled Tribes. In accordance with the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, the following castes have been declared to be scheduled in so far as Hyderabad State is concerned :—

1. Anamik	10. Dhor	18. Mala Dasari	26. Manne
2. Aray (Are) Mala	11. Ellamalwar (Yellammala-wandlu)	19. Mala Hannai	27. Mashti
3. Arwa Mala	12. Holey a	20. Mala Jangam	28. Mehtar
4. Beda (Budga) Jangam	13. Holey a Dasari	21. Mala Mashti	29. Mitha Ayyawar
5. Bindla	14. Kolupuwandlu	22. Mala Sale (Netakani)	30. Mochi
6. Byagara	15. Madiga	23. Mala Sanyasi	31. Samagara
7. Chalvadi	16. Mahar	24. Mang	32. Sindhollu (Chindollu)
8. Chambhar	17. Mala	25. Mang Garodi
9. Dakkal (Dokkalwar)

2. It may be observed that the above list of Scheduled Castes does not include vague terms like Dhed, Harijan, etc., which do not represent any specific caste. Prior to census enumeration, the enumerators had been instructed to see that as far as possible such vague terms were avoided. On an examination of the enumeration slips in the Tabulation Office before the commencement of sorting operations, it was, however, noticed that a large number of persons had returned themselves as Harijans or Dheds. An insignificant number had returned themselves as Adi-Dravida, Adi-Andhra, Adi-Hindu, Adi-Karnataka, Adi-Jana and Panchama. Considering the conditions prevailing in this State, it was obvious that these returns pertained almost exclusively to castes like Madiga, Mala, Holey a, Mahar and Mang included in the list of Scheduled Castes. In view of this, the number of slips returned for these categories were sorted and tabulated separately. The figures in columns (5), (6) and (7) of the table represent the total number returned as Harijans or Dheds. Included in this number are 2,531 Adi-Dravida, 832 Panchama, 288 Adi-Andhra, 241 Adi-Hindu, 11 Adi-Jana and 5 Adi-Karnataka, totaling 3,908.

3. In accordance with the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950, the following tribes have been declared to be scheduled in so far as Hyderabad State is concerned :—

1. Andh	4. Gond (including Naikpod and Rajgond)	7. Koya (including Bhine Koya and Rajkoya)
2. Bhil	5. Hill Reddis	8. Pardhan
3. Chenchu or Chenchwar	6. Kolam (including Mannervaru)	9. Thoti

The figures in columns (8), (9) and (10) represent the total number returned for these tribes.

4. There were no authorised lists of Scheduled Castes (or Scheduled Tribes) in the State during the previous censuses. The corresponding lists of 'Depressed Classes', 'Adi-Hindus', or 'Harijans' varied from census to census and do not seem to have had any legal or other sanction. The lists also included a number of 'touchable' castes. Sometimes castes of a particular linguistic region used to be included among 'untouchable' castes and the corresponding castes in the other linguistic regions used to be included among the tribes or the 'touchable' castes. In view of this, comparative figures for Scheduled Castes (and Scheduled Tribes) as recorded at the previous censuses cannot be furnished on any reliable basis. Some figures, however, have been extracted from the previous censuses and are given in the succeeding sub-paragraphs for what they are worth.

(a) The 1911 Census Report gives figures for 7 castes now scheduled, namely Chambhar, Dhor, Madiga, Mahar, Mala, Mang and Mochi. The 1921 Census Report furnishes figures for these 7 castes and gives in addition figures for 22 other castes, namely Anamik, Aray (Are) Mala, Budga Jangam, Bindla, Byagara, Ellamalwar, Kolupuwandlu, Mala Dasari, Mala Hannai, Mala Jangam, Mala Mashti, Mala Sale, Mala Sanyasi, Dakkal, Manne, Mashti, Mehtar, Mitha Ayyawar, Samagara, Sindhollu and also Dhed and Panchama. The 1931 Census Report furnishes figures for all the castes for which figures are available in the 1921 Census Report except for Aray (Are) Mala, Budga Jangam, Kolupuwandlu, Mala Dasari, Mala Sale, Mitha Ayyawar and Panchama, i.e., it gives figures in all for 22 castes. In the 1941 Census Report figures for individual castes classified under 'Harijan' are not available. But as many as 97 'castes' were clubbed together as such which included a number of castes which were not 'untouchable' or which were merely names of professions followed by members of both 'touchable' and 'untouchable' castes. For example, these 97 castes included Arwa, Attar, Bukka, Bala Santosh, Channevar, Dasari, Dommara, Kaikadi, Kamati, Niradi, Maskoori, Pachhabotla, Sunkari, Talhari, etc. The 1941 figures for 'Harijans' are, therefore, appreciably exaggerated. Subject to all the limitations indicated above, comparative figures pertaining to Scheduled Castes and Harijans and Dheds are given below :—

Census Year	Persons returned as Scheduled Castes and Harijans and Dheds	Percentage variation	Percentage to total population of the State	Percentage variation of State population
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)
1911	2,373,823	..	17.75	..
1921	2,157,336	- 9.12	17.30	- 6.75
1931	2,419,953	+12.17	16.76	+15.75
1941	2,928,040	+21.00	17.92	+13.18
1951	3,088,843	+ 5.49	16.56	+14.18

The figures in column (5) pertain to the percentage variation of the total population of the State as against the corresponding population recorded at the preceding census. Compared with 1931 figures, persons returned as Scheduled Castes and Harijans and Dheds in the State have increased by 27.6 per cent, whereas the total population of the State has increased by 29.2 per cent. The Scheduled Castes and Harijans and Dheds lose appreciable numbers to Christianity. It may be interesting to note here that the percentage of Christians in the State to the total population has steadily increased. It was 0.4 in 1911, 0.5 in 1921, 1.0 in 1931, 1.3 in 1941 and is now 1.6.

(b) As regards the Scheduled Tribes, figures are available only for Andhs, Bhils, Chenchus, Gonds, Kolams, Koyas and Pardhans in 1921. In 1931, figures are available only for Andhs, Bhils, Chenchus, Gonds and Koyas. In 1941, figures are available for all the Scheduled Tribes except for Thoti. Comparative figures pertaining to Scheduled

Tribes are given in the following table:—

Census Year	Population of Scheduled Tribes	Percentage to total population of the State	Census Year	Population of Scheduled Tribes	Percentage to total population of the State
(1)	(2)	(3)	(1)	(2)	(3)
1911	136,887	1.02	1941	218,482	1.34
1921	158,207	1.27	1951	354,933	1.90
1931	170,334	1.18

The increase in the population of Scheduled Tribes in 1951 is perhaps due to a better enumeration of tribes like Andhs, Kolams, Koyas, etc.

NOTE:—The figures given above are not adjusted to correspond to the inter-state transfers of villages made during the decade 1941-1951. But the population of the villages involved is so small, that the percentages given above are not likely to be materially altered, even if it were possible to adjust the figures accordingly.

5. The number of Anglo-Indians in this State was also ascertained separately. Their number districtwise is given below:—

District	Persons	Males	Females	District	Persons	Males	Females
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
State	3,919	1,881	2,038	Mahbubnagar

TABLE D-IV

MIGRANTS

This table indicates districtwise the number of persons enumerated in Hyderabad State according to their place of birth. In case of persons born within Hyderabad State the figures are split up into those born in (i) the district of enumeration and (ii) other districts of the State. In case of persons born beyond Hyderabad State but within India the figures are split up into (i) the states adjacent to the state of enumeration, (ii) other states of the Indian Union and (iii) elsewhere in India. In case of persons born outside India, the figures are split up according to the continents (with U. S. S. R. included in Asia). Figures under each continent are further sub-divided into a few specific countries and 'elsewhere' in the Continent.

2. In the instructions issued to enumerators in this regard, they were asked to ascertain and record the place of birth of every person, districtwise in case of persons born in Hyderabad State, statewise in case of persons born outside Hyderabad State but within the Indian Union and countrywise in case of all the rest. The number of persons grouped in the table under 'Elsewhere in India,' 'Elsewhere in Asia,' 'Elsewhere in Europe,' 'Elsewhere in Africa' and 'Elsewhere in America,' with break-up by the specific countries where they were born, is given below:—

TABLE D-V (i)

DISPLACED PERSONS BY YEAR OF ARRIVAL

This table gives districtwise figures for displaced persons from Pakistan with their break-up according to the year of arrival in India. In the instructions issued to enumerators with regard to the question pertaining to displaced persons, a 'displaced person' was defined as follows:—

“ Displaced Person ’ means any person who has entered India having left or been compelled to leave his home in Western Pakistan on or after the 1st March, 1947, or his home in Eastern Pakistan on or after the 15th October, 1946, on account of civil disturbances or the fear of such disturbances or on account of the setting up of the two Dominions of India and Pakistan.”

The enumerators were, however, directed to explain the term only when required to do so by the persons enumerated. Ordinarily, they were merely to ascertain (and record) with regard to each person enumerated by them as to whether he came to India leaving his home in Pakistan on account of civil disturbances, or the fear of such disturbances, or on account of setting up of India and Pakistan, and if so, the date of his arrival in India and the district of Pakistan from which he came. But at the tabulation stage, the slips of all the persons returned as displaced, whose dates of entry into India were beyond the specified dates, were excluded from this category. This procedure was adopted with a view to eliminate the return of wrong dates.

2. Of the total number of displaced persons in the State, 3,982 or about 96 per cent were from West Pakistan and 174 or about 4 per cent were from East Pakistan. Of the total number almost 56 per cent were from Sindh. Over 64 per cent of the displaced persons returned from this State were in Hyderabad District. Over 26 per cent of them were from the districts of Aurangabad, Parbhani, Nanded and Nizamabad. Thus, 90 per cent of the displaced persons in this State were concentrated in the districts lying across the meter gauge line running between Manmad and Hyderabad City. Obviously, the infiltration is from Bombay City.

3. Of the total number of displaced persons, 2,575 or 61.96 per cent entered India during the year 1947, 1,121 or 26.97 per cent during 1948, 287 or 6.90 per cent during 1949, 159 or 3.83 per cent during 1950 and 14 persons or 0.34 per cent during the first two months of 1951.

TABLE D-V (ii)

DISPLACED PERSONS BY LIVELIHOOD CLASSES

This table furnishes districtwise figures for displaced persons from Pakistan with their break-up according to the eight livelihood classes. The procedure adopted in respect of the classification of persons among these eight livelihood classes is given in paragraph 5 of the flyleaf to Table A-V.

2. Of the total number of displaced persons, about 99 per cent depend for their principal means of livelihood on non-agricultural occupations and only about one per cent on agricultural occupations. The percentage distribution of the displaced persons among the eight livelihood classes is given below:—

ALL AGRICULTURAL CLASSES		ALL NON-AGRICULTURAL CLASSES
	1.1		98.9
I. Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly owned and their dependants ..	0.5	V. Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from production other than cultivation ..	9.3
II. Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly unowned and their dependants ..	0.3	VI. Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from commerce ..	53.3
III. Cultivating Labourers and their dependants ..	0.1	VII. Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from transport ..	2.4
IV. Non-cultivating owners of land, agricultural rent receivers and their dependants ..	0.2	VIII. Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from other services and miscellaneous sources ..	33.9

TABLE D-VI

NON-INDIAN NATIONALS

This table gives districtwise the figures for Non-Indian Nationals in the State. The enumerators were instructed to ascertain and record the nationality of each person enumerated by them. If in any case the enumerators were asked for clarification of the question, they were directed simply to ascertain the country to which the person belonged and to record the entry on the basis of the answer so given. Thus, census enumeration does not provide any legal evidence of nationality.

2. In quite a number of cases persons born in one country have returned themselves as the nationals of a different country. For example, a person born in Russia returned his nationality as American; another born in Scotland returned his nationality as Canadian. A person born in Calcutta returned his nationality as British. In a large number of cases persons born in Nepal, Afghanistan, etc., returned their nationality as Indian. In view of the above, the figures relating to persons born in any particular country as given in Table D-IV (Migrants) are not likely to tally with the figures relating to the nationals of that country as given in this table.

LIVELIHOOD CLASSES BY EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS

This table indicates the districtwise distribution of educated population among the different livelihood classes. In the instructions issued to enumerators about the question pertaining to literacy and education, they were directed to make requisite enquiries with regard to each person and to classify him according to his ability (a) both to read and write, or (b) only to read, or (c) neither to read nor to write, as the case may be. In case of a person able both to read and write, the enumerators were further instructed to ascertain and record the highest examination, if any, passed by the person. 'Ability to read' was defined as ability to read any simple letter, either in print or in manuscript, in any language, and 'ability to write' as ability to write a simple letter in any language. The last two categories of persons, namely those who are able only to read and those who are able neither to read nor to write are excluded from the purview of this table.

2. In the table all persons who are able both to read and write but have not passed any examination at all or have read upto third form or seventh class (i. e., those who have not passed the middle standard) are classed as literates only. The others are classed according to the following thirteen educational standards:—

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| (1) Middle School | (3) Intermediate in Arts or Science |
| (2) Matriculate or Higher Secondary | |

Degrees or Diplomas

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|----------------|
| (4) Graduate in Arts or Science | (9) Veterinary |
| (5) Post-Graduate in Arts or Science | (10) Commerce |
| (6) Teaching | (11) Legal |
| (7) Engineering | (12) Medical |
| (8) Agriculture | (13) Others |

For purposes of the above classification, 'examination' includes any type of examination, irrespective of whether a degree or a diploma is awarded for passing it. Further, 'Engineering' includes all branches of engineering like civil, mechanical, electrical, textile, etc., and 'Medical' covers all systems of medicine like Allopathic, Ayurvedic, Unani, etc., and includes diplomas or degrees relating to 'Public Health'.

3. Districtwise figures for the number of persons who have completed only the primary standard of education, i. e., the fourth class, are indicated below with break-up by sex and livelihood classes :—

4 In case the figures pertaining to displaced persons from Pakistan are excluded from this table, the percentage of literacy for the total population works out to 9.1. The percentage of literacy among the 4,156 displaced persons is 67.1. Classwise, the percentage of literacy in the State is as follows:—

Livelihood Class	PERCENTAGE OF LITERACY
	Total	Males	Females
	(2)	(3)	(4)
All Agricultural Classes	5.3	9.4	1.0
I. Cultivators of land wholly or mainly owned	6.8	12.2	1.3

VII. Persons who derive their principal means of livelihood from transport	18.5	25.5	11.0
VIII. Persons who derive their principal means of livelihood from other services and miscellaneous sources	22.3	32.1	12.1

The figures under columns 9 and 10 of the table, relating to Livelihood Class III, namely cultivating labourers and their dependants, include the figures pertaining to employees of large scale farm establishments other than the Research Farms of the Agricultural Department. Employees of sugarcane farms in Bodhan and Banswada Tahsils alone account for the following figures:—

TABLE—E

SUMMARY FIGURES BY DISTRICTS AND TAHSILS

This table gives figures, districtwise and tahsilwise, pertaining to (1) area, (2) population as ascertained at the 1951 and 1941 Censuses, (3) percentage variation in population during the decades 1941-1951 and 1931-1941, (4) density of population as ascertained at the 1951 and 1941 Censuses and lastly (5) the number of males and females in each of the eight livelihood classes. This table also gives the rural and urban break-up for all the figures.

The procedure adopted in respect of the classification of the population according to the eight livelihood classes is explained in paragraph 5 of the flyleaf to Table A-V.

2. The 1941 population of each of the districts given in column (6) is as adjusted to conform to the districts as now constituted and, therefore, takes into account the inter-state and inter-district transfers of territories effected during the decade 1941-1951. The manner in which these adjustments have been made is explained in paragraph 5 of the flyleaf to Table A-II. Corresponding figures for the 1941 population of the existing tahsils have not been given in the table. It has not been possible to work out the 1941 tahsil figures on account of the vast changes in the boundaries of many tahsils, the creation of many new tahsils and the abolition of many old tahsils and the non-availability of the requisite records.

3. The areas for the districts, given in column (2) of this table are as furnished by the Surveyor General of India. These figures, however, do not tally with the area figures supplied by the Commissioner, Settlement and Land Records Department, Hyderabad State. The differences between the two sets of figures are given in the following statement:—

District	AREA IN SQUARE MILES AS SUPPLIED BY			Difference
	Surveyor General of India	Settlement Commissioner, Hyderabad
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
Aurangabad	6,318.3	6,455.0	136.7
Parbhani	4,854.5	4,846.7	7.8
Nanded	3,901.7	3,875.8	25.9
Bidar	4,721.2	4,742.0	20.8
Bhir	4,278.7	4,217.0	61.7
Osmanabad	3,707.1	3,732.5	25.4
Hyderabad	1,648.1	1,720.3	72.2
Mahbubnagar	5,749.8	5,957.1	207.3
Raichur	6,684.3	6,388.5	295.8
Gulbarga	7,131.5	7,103.3	28.2
Adilabad	7,358.7	7,392.0	33.3

District	AREA IN SQUARE MILES AS SUPPLIED BY		Difference
	Surveyor General of India	Settlement Commissioner, Hyderabad
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
Nizamabad	2,957.6	2,780.8	176.8
Medak	3,409.1	3,401.0	8.1
Karimnagar	5,050.0	5,145.0	95.0
Warangal	8,139.4	7,659.2	480.2
Nalgonda	6,258.3	6,252.2	6.1

In furnishing the above data, the Commissioner, Settlement and Land Records, stated that the area figures did not include 'the areas of the rivers on the boundaries of the State.' In order not to upset the All-India figures, the area figures for the State, the divisions and the districts as supplied by the Surveyor General of India have been adopted for purposes of this table. But the area figures for all the tahsils given in this table are as supplied by the Commissioner, Settlement and Land Records Department, Hyderabad State. Corresponding figures were not available with the Surveyor General of India. Consequently, the total of the area figures for all the tahsils in a district as given in this table does not tally with the district area figure given in it.

4. The figures for urban areas given in column (2) of this table are as furnished by the Collectors concerned. But these figures are generally based on old records and do not take into consideration the present extent of the urban units. The urban area for the district as a whole was obtained by totalling the areas (furnished in acres and guntas) of all the towns in the district and converting it into square miles to the second decimal place. The urban area for the tahsil was similarly obtained by totalling and converting the area figures of all the urban units in the tahsil. Due to these rounding of the relevant figures at different stages, in the case of some districts the urban area for the district does not exactly tally with the total of the urban areas for all the tahsils concerned. These differences, which are, however, very insignificant, are indicated in the following statement :—

District	District urban area as obtained by totalling and rounding the areas of all towns in the district	District urban area as obtained by totalling the rounded tahsil urban areas	Difference
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)

The district urban areas given in Table E correspond to the figures under column (2) of the above statement.

The figures for rural areas given in column (2) of the table were obtained, in case of districts, by subtracting the district urban area from the district area as supplied by the Surveyor General of India, and in case of tahsils by subtracting the tahsil urban area from the tahsil area as supplied by the Commissioner, Settlement and Land Records, Hyderabad State.
