

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

THE PROBLEM OF
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

PLANNING COMMISSION

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

THE PROBLEM OF
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

PLANNING COMMISSION

PRINTED IN INDIA BY THE MANAGER, GOVT. OF INDIA PRESS, NEW DELHI
AND PUBLISHED BY THE MANAGER OF PUBLICATIONS, DELHI, 1954

Explanatory Note

The expressions 'lakh' and 'crore', which are frequently used signify 100,000 and 10 million respectively.

Price Rs. 1/4/- or 2sh.

INTRODUCTION

With the object of assisting study and implementation, the First Five Year Plan is being made available in the following sections:

- I. The Problem of Economic Development.
- II. Administration and Public Co-operation.
- III. Agriculture and Community Development.
- IV. Village and Small-Scale Industries.
- V. Irrigation and Power.
- VI. Development of Mineral Resources.
- VII. Industry and Communications.
- VIII. Social Services.

The numbering of pages in the different sections is in accordance with the text of the Plan.

CONTENTS

PAGE:

PART ONE

THE PLAN

CHAPTER I	The Problem of Development
- Planning economic and social aspects		7
- The determinants of economic development		11
Investment, income and economic development in India : a broad outline		20
Employment in relation to development		23
External resources for development		26
CHAPTER II	Objectives, Techniques and Priorities in Planning
- Institutional and structural factors in development		28
- Democratic planning and the role of the State		31
Relative shares of the public and private sectors in ownership of productive capital		32
Relations between the public and the private sector		33
- Organisational aspects economic change		34
Allocation of resources and price policy		36
Working capital requirements and organisation of the credit system		37
Fiscal policy as an instrument of planning		39
Sources of savings in the economy		41
Prices, production and controls		42
The pattern of priorities		43
CHAPTER III	Assessment of Resources
Taxation and public savings as a source of development finance		47
Magnitude of savings in the economy		47
Narrow coverage of tax revenue		49
Scope for higher taxation		51

	PAGE
Budgetary resources of the Central and State Governments	52
Classification of sources	52
Growth of public savings and capital receipts	53
Responsibility of raising resources : division between Centre and States	54
The borrowing programme	56
Sharing of resources between the Centre and the States	58
Deficit financing	59
External resources and the problem of foreign exchange	62
The gap in internal resources	62
Foreign exchange requirements and foreign exchange savings	62
Likely movements in terms of trade and their effects	64
Foreign exchange deficits and balance of payments policy during the Plan	65
The problem of mobilising financial and physical resources	66
Statement 'A' — Production, imports and exports of certain major commodities entering India's foreign trade	68

CHAPTER IV

The Five Year Plan in Outline

Priorities and the pattern of outlay	70
Distribution and phasing of expenditure	72
Appraisal of the programme in the Plan	75
Agriculture and community development	77
Irrigation and power programmes	78
Industrial development	80
Transport and communications	82
Social services and rehabilitation	83
Assessment of the Plan in terms of income and employment	84
Statement I—Development expenditure under the Plan : Centre and States	88
Statement II—Development expenditure under the Plan : Part 'A' States	90
Statement III—Development expenditure under the Plan : Part 'B' States and Jammu and Kashmir	92
Statement IV—Development expenditure under the Plan : Part 'C' States	94
Statement V—Progress of development expenditure : Central Government	96
Statement VI—Progress of development expenditure in States by heads of development	98
Statement VII—Progress of development expenditure by States	99
APPENDIX—National budgeting and the Plan	100