PREFATORY NOTE

This publication contains the Statistical Statements relating to the Co-operative movement in India for 1943-44 and 1944-45. We regret that the publication has been inevitably delayed on account of the pre-occupation of the Agricultural Credit Department of the Reserve Bank of India with the work of the Agricultural Finance Sub-Committee and the Co-operative Planning Committee both appointed by the Government of India, and further by the non-receipt of the statistics from the various provinces and states in time.

2. The Agricultural Credit Department submitted certain proposals for the revision of the Statistical Statements to the 14th Registrars' Conference held in July-August 1944; the Conference appointed a Sub-Committee to examine the proposals. The views of the Sub-Committee have since been communicated to the Government of India. The Government of India, however, have not so far given their final views on the Report of the Sub-Committee. The Statistical Statements have, therefore, been compiled in the usual manner.

3. Up to now, statistics in respect of the Co-operative movement in British India and only nine Indian states were included in the publication. Inquiries made by the Reserve Bank of India, however, revealed that Co-operation occupied an equally important place in the rural economy of many other Indian states as well. Inclusion of statistics relating to the more important among such states, besides helping to enhance the value of a publication of this type by making it more comprehensive, would also serve to implement a Resolution of the 5th All-India Co-operative Conference held in April 1942 in connection with the publication. We, therefore, desired to include in this publication statistics relating to at least those states where hundred or more co-operative organizations existed.

We accordingly issued a circular to all the states through the Residents-in-Charge and on an examination of the returns received we found that sixteen states came under the purview of such a proposal. Statistics from all these states have been received. For purposes of this publication, however, it has been decided to show separately statistics only in respect of states having three hundred and more co-operative institutions and consolidated figures for the other states.

The compilation is based on the statistics supplied by the Registrars. Every possible effort has been made to check and correct the data.

4. Explanatory Notes :—The Abstract Tables indicate some of the main features of the progress of the Co-operative movement during 1943-44 and 1944-45. They show the total number of societies, their membership and the amount of working capital.

In these Tables, while comparing figures for 1915-16 and subsequent years with those for earlier years the following points should be borne in mind :

(2) Table II—In the case of supervising and guaranteeing unions, the number of members represents the number of affiliated societies and not the number of individual members of such societies. From 1917-18 onwards, individual members of central and provincial banks, banking unions and supervising and guaranteeing unions are not included in the total number of members, for the assumption—which may not be true in all cases—is that they have already once been counted as members of a primary society, agricultural or non-agricultural.

(ii) Table III—The figures do not include the working capital of unions and insurance societies as they are not furnished in statements D and E respectively. From 1915-16 onwards, loans and deposits of society-members have been transferred from the head “loans and deposits held at the end of the year from members” to the head “loans and deposits held at the end of the year from societies” and the latter no longer includes loans and deposits from provincial or central banks for which a separate head has been provided. Again, from 1915-16 onwards the head “loans and deposits held at the end of the year from non-members and other sources” includes loans and deposits held by provincial and central banks from individuals, joint-stock banks and other sources not included in the preceding headings.

The General Statements give the main statistics relating to co-operative societies in the various provinces (except Baluchistan) and states for 1943-44 and 1944-45. The dates of co-operative year closing are not uniform, and are as given below :—

Provinces or States.	Dates

Statement A shows the operations of banks both provincial and central, the latter including district banks, banking unions other than supervising and guaranteeing unions, and all other institutions constituted with the object of lending to individual societies and tapping deposits from areas larger than those of primary societies, agricultural or non-agricultural. The number of the provincial and central banks was 611 in 1943-44 and 613 in 1944-45 as against 599 in 1942-43. Their membership increased from 215 thousands in 1942-43 to 224 thousands in 1943-44 and to 226 thousands in 1944-45. Their working capital also rose from Rs. 50,33 lakhs in 1942-43 to Rs. 55,33 lakhs in 1943-44 and to Rs. 60,40 lakhs in 1944-45.

The operations of agricultural societies are shown in statement B. Agricultural societies numbered 134,801 in 1943-44 and 136,358 in 1944-45 as against 126,034 in 1942-43. Their members numbered 4815 thousands in 1943-44 and 5013 thousands in 1944-45 as against 4493 thousands in 1942-43. Against Rs. 29,08 lakhs in 1942-43, these societies had a working capital of Rs. 29,85 lakhs and Rs. 30,53 lakhs in 1943-44 and 1944-45 respectively.

Statement B-1 shows the operations of land mortgage banks and societies. They numbered 285 in 1943-44 and 289 in 1944-45 as against 271 in 1942-43. Their membership stood at 126 thousands in 1943-44 and 139 thousands in 1944-45 as against 120 thousands in 1942-43, while their working capital amounted to Rs. 7,52 lakhs in 1943-44 and Rs. 7,80 lakhs in 1944-45 as against Rs. 7,78 lakhs in 1942-43.

In statement C are shown the operations of non-agricultural societies numbering 19,567 in 1943-44 and 21,924 in 1944-45 as against 18,802 in 1942-43. There was an increase in membership from 2246 thousands in 1942-43 to 2683 thousands in 1943-44 and 3131 thousands in 1944-45; their working capital amounted to Rs. 39,52 lakhs and Rs. 47,90 lakhs in 1943-44 and 1944-45 respectively as against Rs. 33,95 lakhs in 1942-43.

The net results of the operations of the above four classes of banks and societies during the years under reference are indicated below:—

Net Profits

	1942-43	1943-44	1944-45
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Provincial & central banks .. .. .	53,43,674	61,69,044	67,07,224
Agricultural societies .. .. .	72,88,812	78,26,272	81,76,189
Land mortgage banks and societies .. .. .	4,99,266	4,43,023	4,98,539
Non-agricultural societies .. .. .	88,83,276	1,15,91,227	1,48,34,481
Total..	2,20,15,028	2,60,29,566	3,02,16,433

Statement D shows the operations of unions (other than banking unions) which supervise or supervise and guarantee.

Statement E shows the operations of non-agricultural insurance societies. It will be seen that such societies are distributed over Bombay, Bengal, Madras, United Provinces, Indore, Hyderabad and Baroda. Cattle insurance societies as such have ceased to exist in India.

5. We have been thinking as to how best the publication of these tables can be improved to make it more intelligible to the lay reader. It may be difficult for an ordinary individual to arrive at a proper understanding and appreciation of the part played by the Movement in the agricultural economy of the country and also in the general uplift of the people—rural as well as urban—merely from a perusal of the number of statements printed in this issue. We are accordingly issuing a supplement to this publication containing some essential figures relating to the Movement and have endeavoured to illustrate them by suitable graphs, diagrams and pictures.
