ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was taken up under the guidance of Prof. Nilakantha Rath, Joint Director, Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics. It would not have taken the present shape but for the inspiring guidance and tenacious supervision of Prof. Rath. I benefited immensely from the critical comments he made in relation to the drafts submitted to him from time to time. (Mere words would not be sufficient to record my deep sense of gratitude to him,

I am highly grateful to Prof. B.S.R.Rao for his constant encouragement.

My thanks are also due to Prof. K.G.Pathan, Mr. K.P.R. Sheshgiri Rao, Mr. Dayakar Rao and Mr. Y.S.R.Murthy who have helped me in various ways.

I thank the authorities of Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics for awarding me a Teacher Fellowship under the U.G.C. Faculty Improvement Programme. I will be failing in my duty, if I do not express my thanks to Dr. Dinkar Desai, Chairman, Kanara Welfare Trust, Ankola and Shri G.V.Bhat, Principal, Divekar College of Commerce, Karwar (Karnataka) for granting me the necessary leave for this period.

I thank Shri S. K. Athale for typing the dissertation neatly.
