ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply grateful to my guide, Dr. S.V. Bokil for the motivation he gave me at every stage. It was a pleasure to work under his "democratic vigilance". Without his guidance on the choice of readings and on the several strenuous but interesting points they invariably contained the dissertation would have been very much more difficult.

I must also thank Shri S.M. Kulkarni who patiently typed a manuscript containing several equations in variables with many superscripts and subscripts.
