

BOOMBAY METROPOLITAN REGIONAL PLANNING BOARD

---

REPORT OF THE
STUDY GROUP ON SOCIAL PLANNING

---

C O N T E N T S

INTRODUCTION; Formation of the Study Group, its terms of references etc.
PART (I) : SOCIAL ASPECTS OF URBAN AND METROPOLITAN DEVELOPMENT.	3
1. Social Aspects most important part of metropolitan planning-	3
3. Development should be comprehensive & balanced	3
4. Welfare needs of vulnerable sections of citizens-	4
5. Preventive aspect of Social Engineering:	4
6. Main objective of the Regional Plan	4
7. Bombay Metropolitan Region not standing by itself	5
8. Per Acre density	5
9. Remedy for overcongestion of the island part-dispersal	6
10. Immediate stoppage of further structural expansion in the island part.	6
11. Per square mile density of the metropolitan region	7
12. Danger of strangulation	7
13. Provision of adequate housing for all income groups and community ownership of land therefor	8
14. Sufficient land area to be reserved for Housing of Low Income groups.	8
15. Community ownership of land vital	9
16. Limiting the size of cities.	9
17. Size of cities and metropolitan areas.	10
18. A gallon can not be squeezed into a pint-pot.	10
19. Per acre density of the metropolitan region.	10
20. Alternative Commercial Complex in the northern part of the city.	11
21. Industrial Development in the northern part of the Region and Traffic congestion.	11
22. Maintenance of established primary industries in the region.	12

Y: 8117. 2311. N7t