

CONTENTS

(PART I)

Section One : INTRODUCTION

CHAPTERS

| | |
|--|-------|
| I Introduction | 1—5 |
| II Terms and Phrases | 6—14 |
| III Dry and Wet Regions and Prevailing Proof Strengths | 15—27 |

Section Two : DRINKING IN ANCIENT SOCIETIES & MODERN INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

| | |
|---|-------|
| IV Drinking in Ancient Societies with Particular Reference to India | 31—38 |
| V History of Temperance and Prohibition in America | 39—53 |
| VI Experiment in Liquor Control in Scandinavian and Other Countries | 54—60 |

Section Three : BASIC CONSIDERATIONS ABOUT ALCOHOL AND ITS DETECTION

| | |
|---|---------|
| VII Alcohol Raises Several Problems | 63—67 |
| VIII Alcoholism | 68—74 |
| IX Alcohol and the Armed Forces | 75—83 |
| X The Drinking Driver and the Machinist | 84—89 |
| XI Alcohol and Medical Science | 90—104 |
| XII Action of Alcohol and Detection of Inebriety | 105—113 |
| XIII The Appliances for Determining Alcoholic Content | 114—133 |

Section Four : ILLICIT ACTIVITY IN RELATION TO LIQUOR

| | |
|--|---------|
| XIV The Problem of Illicit Distillation and Illicit Tapping | 137—149 |
| XV The Problem of Smuggling | 150—155 |
| XVI Bootlegging and Gangsterism | 156—159 |
| XVII Racketeering, Graft and Corruption | 160—166 |
| XVIII Impact of Drinking by the World of Fashion and Officials | 167—171 |
| XIX Diversion and Misuse of Duty-free Imported Liquor Intended for Embassies and Missions in India | 172—176 |
| XX The Problem of Toddy and Neera | 177—187 |
| XXI Misuse of Spirituous, Medicinal, Toilet and Other Preparations | 188—203 |
| XXII Prevention of Misuse of Molasses | 204—208 |
| XXIII The Control of Other Raw Materials | 209—210 |
| XXIV The Relative Success of Prohibition in Gujrat and Madras | 211—212 |
| XXV The Attitude of Wet States towards Liquor Revenue | 213—220 |
| XXVI Liquor Strength Reduced to Increase Consumption | 221—222 |

Section Five : ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL ANALYSIS

| | | |
|--------|---|---------|
| XXVII | The Nature and Pattern of Drinking in India | 23—238 |
| XXVIII | The Magnitude of Illicit Distillation and the Drinking Bill | 239—251 |
| XXIX | Financial Losses and Gains | 252—283 |

Section Six : IMPLEMENTATION OF PROHIBITION POLICY

| | | |
|---------|--|---------|
| XXX | The Nature of Remedies | 287—288 |
| XXXI | Problems of Law Enforcement | 289—295 |
| XXXII | Law and Liquor | 6—327 |
| XXXIII | Public Opinion and Human Nature—Some Misconceptions : | 8—331 |
| XXXIV | Role of the Press | 2—336 |
| XXXV | Prohibition Through Mass Education and Publicity | 1—356 |
| XXXVI | The Role of Voluntary Organisations | 3—365 |
| XXXVII | Administrative set up | 36—380 |
| XXXVIII | The Economics of Intoxicating Liquor in Wet Areas | 381—390 |
| XXXIX | Policy for Wet Areas | 391—399 |
| XL | Foreign Visitors and Prohibition | 400—402 |
| XLI | The Basis of Permit System for Hard Liquors | 403—408 |
| XLII | The Economic Containment of Illicit Distillation—Case for Mild Liquors | 409—413 |
| XLIII | Case for Liberalization of Toddy | 414—419 |
| XLIV | A Critique of the Recent Liquor Policy Announced in Maharashtra | 420—428 |
| XLV | Conclusions | 429—438 |
| | SUMMARY | 433—518 |
| | SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS | 519—548 |