

REPORT
OF
THE HIGH COURTS ARREARS
COMMITTEE 1972

VOL. I

CONTENTS
VOLUME—1

CHAPTER		PAGES No.
I	(1) INTRODUCTORY
	(a) Reasons for setting up of the Committee	1
	(b) Setting up of the Committee	2
	(c) Terms of reference	2
	(d) Sittings of the Committee	2
	(2) Previous Committees and Summary of the Reports and Recommendations made by them:	4
	(i) Recommendations of the Civil Justice Committee
	(ii) Recommendations of the High Courts Arrears Committee, 1949	8
	(iii) Recommendations of other committees—	10
	(a) Uttar Pradesh Law Reforms Committee	10
	(b) Judicial Reforms Committee, West Bengal	13
II	Recommendations of the Law Commission's Report	15
	(a) Regarding appointment, service conditions of judges	15
	(b) Regarding Civil Appeals	19
	(c) Regarding Civil Revisions	23
	(d) Regarding Execution matters	24
	(e) Regarding Writ Petitions	25
	(f) Regarding administrative authorities	26
	(g) Regarding Criminal Appeals	27
	(h) Regarding Criminal Revisions	28
III	Position of arrears:	30
	(i) Statistical Annexures	30
	(ii) Norms for determining arrears	31
IV	Causes for arrears:	36
	(1) Population explosion	36
	(2) Increase in Legislation activities	36
	(3) Erosion in the value of the rupee	36
	(4) Change in the pattern of Litigation	36
	(5) Investment of Special Jurisdiction	37
	(6) Inadequacy of Judge strength	38
	(7) Unsatisfactory appointment of judges	41
	(8) Filing of large No. of Appeals from the decisions of Criminal Courts	43

(9) Failure to provide forum of appeal against orders and decisions of executive and quasi-Judicial authorities	44
(10) Inadequacy of staff of High Courts	44
(11) Failure to make optimum use of Judge strength	45
(12) Other causes for arrears—	45
(i) Want of proper perspective of the scope of Revisions under Section 115 C.P.C.	45
(ii) Long arguments and Lengthy judgments	47
(iii) Lack of proper list and proper notice of ready cases and priority not being given to old cases	47
(iv) Failure to utilize grouping of cases	47
(v) Failure to select and dispose of batch cases and cases covered by authorities	47
(vi) Leave procedure which holds up disposals	47
(vii) Corrupt and improper practices in the Office which hold cases	47
(viii) Adjournments	47
(ix) Procedural delays	48
(13) Inadequacy of accommodation	48
(14) Concentration of work in the hands of few lawyers	48
V Measures for clearing arrears:	49
(i) Reducing delays which occur in making the proceeding case ready for hearing	51
(ii) Printing of records	53
(iii) Stay orders and Injunctions	55
(iv) Filing of Caveats	56
(v) Writ Petitions	56
(vi) Printing of paper books in Civil Causes	58
(vii) Tax Cases	58
(viii) Preparation of the records	62
(ix) First Appeals	62
(x) Letters Patent Appeals	66
(xi) Revision Petitions	67
(xii) Appeals to the Supreme Court	68
(xiii) Jurisdiction under Indian Divorce Act, Parsi Marriages and Divorce Act, Representation of People Act	68
(xiv) Tax Cases	69
(xv) Service Cases	70
(xvi) Labour disputes and Election to Panchayats	70
(xvii) Company matters, Jurisdiction under Indian Lunacy Act, Guardian and Wards Act, Insolvency Act	70

CHAPTER	PAGES No.
(xviii) Appeals against orders of acquittal	71
(xix) Criminal References	71
(xx) Reducing length of time in hearing cases	71
(xxi) Grouping and Classification of cases	72
(xxii) Lengthy arguments	72
(xxiii) Second Appeals	73
(xxiv) Stay orders	74
(xxv) Remands	75
(xxvi) Criminal Appeals	75
(xxvii) Criminal Revisions	75
(xxviii) Writ Petitions	76
(xxix) Enrolment of Senior Advocates	78
(xxx) Provision of adequate judge strength	80
(xxxi) Provision of adequate staff for the High Court	81
(xxxii) Optimum utilisation of Judge strength	83
VI Other measures	84
VII Judges of the High Court	87
VIII Circuit Benches	88
IX Relations of Chief Justice with Puisne Judges	90
X Conclusions	91
