

REPORT OF THE INDIAN COALFIELDS' COMMITTEE

1946

VOLUME I

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A.—THE REPORT

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

Para.		Page
1	Composition Of The Committee And Terms of Reference	1
2	Comments On The Terms Of Reference	2
5	Our Approach To The Enquiry	3
7	Plan Of The Report	4
10	Acknowledgements	5

PART I

Chapter II

INDIA'S COAL RESOURCES

1	The Occurrence Of Coal	6
5	Geological Survey Of India Estimates Of Reserves	7
13	Our Estimate Of Reserves	14
15	Reserves Of Different Classes Of Coal	15
	Conclusions And Recommendations	18

Chapter III

COAL RAISINGS AND CONSUMPTION

1	Early History Of Coal Mining In India	19
5	Coal Production From 1920 To 1945	20
11	Sizes Of The Units Of Production	23
12	Coal Consumption Trends	23
	Conclusions And Recommendations	24

Chapter IV

ESTIMATE OF FUTURE REQUIREMENTS

1	Coal Consumption : 1943 To 1946	25
11	Estimate Of Future Requirements	35
16	Factors Influencing Coal Consumption	42
17	Replacement Of Coal By Other Fuels	42
24	Domestic Coal Consumption	45
	Conclusions And Recommendations	48

Chapter V

COAL EXPORT POLICY

2	Bunker Requirements	49
3	Review Of The Export Trade	49
6	Effects Of The Coal Grading Board Act	50
10	Future Policy In Regard To Exports	52
15	Concessions Attaching To Export Coal	54
17	Coastwise Coal	54
	Conclusions And Recommendations	56

CHAPTER VI

COAL AS A SOURCE OF ELECTRIC POWER

Para.		Page
1	General	57
2	History Of Electricity Development In The Coalfields	57
5	Present Position Of Electricity Supply	58
6	Present Requirements Of Electricity In The Coalfields	59
8	Policy And Proposals Regarding Further Electricity Development	60
15	Electrification Of The Railways	65
	Conclusions And Recommendations	67

Chapter VII

CONSERVATION

1	The General Case For Conservation	69
3	Conservation Of Good Coking Coal	70
18	Conservation Of Other Coals	81
19	Avoidance Of Waste In Mining	82
21	Present Mining Regulations	83
22	Stowing	83
40	Rotation Of Working	94
41	Coal Under Railways And Roads	94
43	Effect Of Proposals On Coal Requirements	97
	Conclusions And Recommendations	97

Chapter VIII

THE PLANNED UTILISATION OF COAL

1	The General Case For Planning	99
3	The Need For A Physical And Chemical Analysis Of Our Coal Resources	100
4	Study Of Fuel Requirements Of Consumers	100
5	Control Over Despatches	101
6	Factors Influencing Regulation Of Use	101
7	Railway Coal Requirements	101
9	Coal Requirements Of Other Consumers	105
10	Proposals For Regulation Of Use	105
11	The Bearing Of Transport On The Regulation Of Use	106
12	The Price Of Coal And The Regulation Of Use	106
13	Enforcement Of The Regulation Of Use	106
	Conclusions And Recommendations	107

Chapter IX

	ESTIMATED FUTURE REQUIREMENTS—THE SUMMING UP	108
	Conclusions And Recommendations	110

PART IIChapter X*PLANNING FOR PRODUCTION

Para.		Page
1	The Case For Planning	111
5	Programme For Production	112
	Conclusions And Recommendations	115

Chapter XITHE STRUCTURE OF THE INDUSTRY

1	Structural Forms In The Coal Industry	116
3	Captive Collieries	116
4	Managing Agents	116
9	Privately Owned Collieries	120
	Conclusions And Recommendations	121

CHAPTER XIIMINING LEASES

2	Position In The Non-Permanently Settled Areas Of British India	122
6	The Position In Indian States	124
7	The Position In The Permanently Settled Areas Of Bengal and Bihar	124
9	The Question Of Salami	126
10	Royalty Rates In The Permanently Settled Areas	127
12	Instroke And Outstroke Rights	128
15	Disabilities Of Zamindars	130
16	General Policy In Regard To Mining Leases	131
	Conclusions and Recommendations	132

CHAPTER XIII.FRAGMENTATION AND IRREGULAR BOUNDARIES

1	Recent Growth In The Number Of Mines In Bengal and Bihar	133
3	Previous Consideration Given To Fragementation	134
4	Our Consideration Of The Question	135
10	Proposals For Dealing With Fragementation As It Now Exists	139
	Conclusions And Recommendations	141

CHAPTER XIV.OWNERSHIP OF THE MINERAL

1	Disadvantages Of The Private Ownership Of Mineral Rights	142
7	Past Consideration Of The Question	144
10	The Basis Of Compensation	148
13	Procedure for Acquisition	151
	Conclusions And Recommendations	152

CHAPTER XV.LABOUR, MECHANISATION AND THE CONTRACTOR SYSTEM

Para.		Page
2	Labour	153
12	Mechanisation	159
14	The Contractor System	160
	Conclusions And Recommendations	162

CHAPTER XVICAPTIVE COLLIERIES

1	The Emergence Of Captive Collieries	163
4	Railway Collieries	163
9	Iron And Steel Companies' Collieries	167
	Conclusions And Recommendations	168

CHAPTER XVIIFINANCE, PRICES, WAGES AND PROFITS

1	Present Position And Future Requirements Regarding Finance	169
6	Prices And Wages	170
	Conclusions And Recommendations	175

CHAPTER XVIII

	THE DEVELOPMENT OF NEW FIELDS	176
	Conclusions And Recommendations	178

CHAPTER XIX

	STATE OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT OF THE INDUSTRY	179
	Conclusions And Recommendations	182

CHAPTER XX

	PLANNING FOR PRODUCTION : THE SUMMING UP	183
--	--	-----

PART IIICHAPTER XXI*DISTRIBUTION, MARKETING AND TRANSPORT IN RETROSPECT

2	Pre-war Marketing	186
3	Pre-war Distribution	186
4	Pre-war Transport	186
11	War Time Developments	188
	Conclusions and Recommendations	190

CHAPTER XXIITHE PLANNING OF TRANSPORT

1	Introduction	191
4	Proposals For Production	191

Para.		Page
30	Transport Requirements	197
42	Zonal Distribution	202
43	Siding Arrangements	202
44	The 10-Hour System	203
45	Mechanical Loading Plants And Open Wagons	203
46	Over-loading And Under-loading	204
47	Weigh Bridges	204
49	Sea Transport	205
	Conclusions And Recommendations	205

CHAPTER XXIII

RAILWAY FREIGHT RATES

2	Reasonableness Of Present Freight Rates On Coal	207
5	Group Rates	208
6	Pooled Rates	209
7	Need For Different Rates For Different Classes Of Coal	209
9	Telescopic Rates	210
10	Coal In Train Loads	210
11	Seasonal Rates	211
12	Freight Payment System	211
14	Section 42 Of The Railways Act	211
	Conclusions And Recommendations	211

CHAPTER XXIV

THE CONTROL OF DISTRIBUTION AND MARKETING

2	Need For Continuance Of Control Over Distribution	212
4	Statistics Necessary For Efficient Distribution Control	212
5	Change Over From Complete To Modified Control Over Distribution	213
8	Central Marketing Agency	214
9	Middlemen	214
11	Prices And Possible Over-Production of Coal	215
	Conclusions And Recommendations	216

CHAPTER XXV.

	THE COMPOSITE PLAN	217
--	------------------------------	-----

PART IV

CHAPTER XXVI.

RESEARCH

1	Research In Relation To Coal	220
3	Requirements Of The Indian Situation	221
7	The Proposed Fuel Research Institute	223
10	The Need For A Cess	225
	Conclusions And Recommendations	226

CHAPTER XXVIITHE CARBONISATION OF COAL

Para		Page
1	General Considerations	227
2	The Various Forms Of Carbonisation	227
4	High Temperature Carbonisation	228
9	Low Temperature Carbonisation	230
	Conclusions And Recommendations	232

CHAPTER XXVIII.CESSES AND TAXES

1	Central And Provincial Cesses Levied	233
2	Reasonableness Of The Central Cesses	234
5	Examination Of The Basis Of Provincial Cesses	235
8	Unification Of Cesses	236
9	Central Taxation	237
	Conclusions And Recommendations	240

CHAPTER XXIX.MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

1	Technical Training	241
8	Acquistiton Of Surface Rights For Colliery Purposes	242
11	Coal Statistics	244
13	Briquetting	246
	Conclusions And Recommendations	247

CHAPTER XXXADMINISTRATIVE PROPOSALS

1	The Constitutional Position	248
2	The Need For Central Control	248
5	Administrative Requirements	251
	Conclusions And Recommendations	261

CHAPTER XXXICONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS
