Suggestions to Readers of League Publications.

Readers of League documents may be roughly divided into three main groups:

1. The general public, who wish to follow the work of the League in a general way, and demand mainly non-technical publications. To meet their needs, the Information Section has issued:

A. Descriptive pamphlets, entitled The League of Nations, its Constitution and Organisation, which is intended to give broad elementary ideas; The League of Nations, A Survey (January 1920 to December 1926), since 1927 regularly supplemented by a pamphlet called The League of Nations from Year to Year. Further pamphlets, periodically revised, are devoted to the various aspects of the League's work, for example, The Economic and Financial Organisation of the League of Nations, The Social and Humanitarian Work of the League of Nations, etc.

Several of these pamphlets have appeared in other than the official languages.

B. The Monthly Summary, which gives a short account of the chief events of the month (see page 9).

2. Persons who, without specialising, desire to follow the work of the League more closely.—The main publications recommended for this class of reader are:

(1) The Official Journal, which may be regarded as the official gazette of the League of Nations, and contains the Council Minutes, reports of Committees, the records of the Assembly and the principal published documents:

(2) The report on the work of the League, submitted to the Assembly each year by the Secretary-General¹.

These may be supplemented by separately published documents, such as the Minutes of certain Committees (Mandates, Transit, Health, etc.).

¹This report, which can be obtained separately, also forms part of the Assembly Records.

NOTE.

This Catalogue contains the titles of the documents and periodical publications issued by the League of Nations which have been put on sale up to the end of October 1929.

It is continually kept up to date by the Periodical Lists of Publications recently issued and annual supplements, which are sent free on application.

All documents, with a few exceptions, are published in French and English, the official languages of the League of Nations. Important documents are generally published separately in each language. Ordinarily, only the English version is handled by this agency. There are, however, several of which both texts have been printed in one edition. In the present catalogue the titles of these are followed by an asterisk. (*)

In order to avoid errors in the execution of the orders, it is necessary to indicate the title and number of the document required, together with the language in which the document should be supplied.

An order mentioning, for example, only Arbitration, Security and Reduction of Armaments is not sufficiently clear, because several documents bear this general title. In order clearly to indicate the paper required, THE TITLE MUST BE FOLLOWED BY THE NUMBER.

An alphabetical index will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS

Official Journal

The Official Journal has appeared since 1920. During its first year, only eight numbers were published, but since then it has appeared regularly every month. During 1920-1921, it was published in a bilingual edition; since January 1922, two editions have been published, one in French and the other in English.

It contains the League of Nations Council Minutes (those of the first fifteen Council sessions were published separately), together with the texts of the reports and resolutions adopted by the Council, as well as the principal official documents received or despatched by the Secretariat of the League.

Indexes to the Official Journal have hitherto been published in the form of special supplements, but, from 1929, the annual index will form part of the annual volume.

Treaty Series

Publication of Treaties and International Engagements registered with the Secretariat of the League

Under the terms of Article 18 of the Covenant of the League of Nations: "Every treaty or international engagement entered into hereafter by any Member of the League shall be forthwith registered with the Secretariat and shall as soon as possible be published by it. No such treaty or international engagement shall be binding until so registered". The publication of the Treaty Series fulfils this condition of the Covenant.

The texts of the Treaties are published in their original form: an English and a French translation are added to these texts when they have not been made in one of these two languages.

The Treaty Series contains international engagements of all kinds: Treaties of Peace, Treaties of Commerce, chief International Conventions, adhesions to these Conventions, extension of Treaties of Commerce and Navigation, notice of Treaties, etc. This series constitutes the most complete collection published on this subject and bears, moreover, the seal of an indisputable authenticity.

General Index No. 2 (Volumes XL-LXIII-Treaties Nos. 1001 to 1500) (1925-1927).....	12/-	$3.00

Up to Volume XXXV inclusive a separate index was published for every four volumes of the Series. As consultation proved rather difficult with such a large number of indexes, it was decided to publish a general index for every series of 500 treaties. The first general index, however, covers the first thousand treaties registered at the Secretariat, which make up Volumes I to XXXIX of the Treaty Series.

The first part of Volume I contains a comprehensive review of world trade during the years 1926 and 1927 and analyses in a series of summary tables the trade statistics of sixty-four countries by value and by weight, by countries of destination and origin, etc. Separate sections in the text deal with the general trade movements in 1927, changes in import and export prices and in the quantum of trade, the development of trade by continental groups, trade per head of population, trade by classes of commodities, and the commercial balance.

The second part contains estimates of the balances of international payments of twenty-five countries, in recent years—in the majority of cases up to and including the year 1927. Statements are given for the first time for Canada, Dutch Guiana and the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

Volume II contains detailed trade statistics of sixty-four countries covering imports and exports of merchandise, bullion and specie, trade with principal foreign countries, imports and exports of principal articles and groups of articles.

It is a supplement to Volume II of the 1926 edition and covers the years 1925-1927. The full volume contains the figures for 1913 and 1922-1926 and a series of detailed notes explaining the manner in which the various national statistics are compiled, etc.

WORK OF THE FINANCIAL COMMITTEE

Reports of the Financial Committee to the Council ¹

The financial work done in Europe during the past six years under the auspices of the League of Nations has always been based on the Reports of the Financial Committee to the Council.

The Financial Committee meets as a rule every three months and occasionally holds extraordinary sessions in the intervening periods. After each session, the Committee addresses a report to the Council. These reports, together with the relevant Council resolutions and other important documents, are printed in special white papers.

The reports issued during 1928 contain, inter alia :

- (1) The Protocol for the Bulgarian Stabilisation Loan.
- (2) The opening of the enquiry into the purchasing power of gold.
- (3) The request from the Governing Commission of the Saar Territory for assistance in connection with a proposed external loan.

- Other subjects dealt with during 1928 include :

- (1) The scheme for the giving of financial assistance to States victims of aggression.
- (2) The establishment of Greek and Bulgarian Refugees.
- (3) The administration of the balances of the Austrian, Hungarian, Danzig (1927), and Estonian Loans.
- (4) Double Taxation and Tax Evasion.
- (5) The stabilisation of Greece on a gold basis.

The experience of the Financial Committee, particularly as an advisory body for the carrying out of budgetary and monetary reforms, is now unrivalled. Its published reports have constantly assumed greater importance and are received by the public always with considerable interest.

The first of these volumes provides information on questions such as the Aaland Islands affair, the Polish-Lithuanian dispute regarding Vilna, the Upper Silesian question, etc., while the second volume recounts how settlements were reached in the Mosul questions, the Greco-Bulgarian frontier incident of October 1925, the Memel affair, the Salamis affair, etc.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS : THE REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS AND THE ORGANISATION OF PEACE. Revised edition, 1928

1/- $0.25

This pamphlet shows the various aspects of the problem of the reduction of armaments and its influence on international affairs. After an introduction dealing with the character and scope of the work accomplished in this field, the pamphlet explains how the various organs of the League of Nations have attempted to draw up a general scheme for the reduction and limitation of armaments. It deals with the Treaty of Mutual Assistance, the Protocol of 1924, the Locarno Agreements, the steps taken to prepare for a Disarmament Conference, etc.

The second part of the pamphlet deals with various special questions closely allied to the problem of disarmament, such as the supervision of the international trade in arms, the private manufacture of arms, chemical warfare, and the League's right of investigation in respect of certain countries.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS : ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL ORGANISATION. Revised edition, 1928..... 6d. $0.15

This pamphlet summarises and explains the League's work in the domain of economics and finance, from the Brussels Financial Conference in 1920 to the Geneva Economic Conference in 1927. It gives details concerning the part played by the League in the reconstruction of Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria, Greece and other countries, and its work in connection with double taxation, tariff policy and many other questions.

THE HEALTH ORGANISATION OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. Revised edition, 1926..... 6d. $0.15

The Health Organisation is a little-known feature of the League's work. Yet this Organisation is rendering the world great service by providing, for example, for constant co-operation between the public health administrations of the various countries. It is also co-ordinating scientific research and organising combined action to combat different infectious diseases; it is endeavouring to simplify quarantine formalities, and is undertaking enquiries and research in various fields such as cancer, disease in Equatorial Africa, malaria, tuberculosis, etc.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS : SOCIAL AND HUMANITARIAN WORK. Revised edition, 1926..... 6d. $0.15

Gives, in some 50 pages, a clear and complete summary of all that the League has done and is doing in the social and humanitarian field: the campaign against the abuse of opium and other dangerous drugs, the campaign against the traffic in women, the protection of children, the suppression of the traffic in obscene publications, relief measures for peoples overcome by disaster, the repatriation of prisoners of war, the settlement of Greek, Bulgarian and Armenian refugees and the abolition of slavery.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND INTELLECTUAL CO-OPERATION. Third revised edition, 1927..... 6d. $0.15

Describes the work accomplished by the League of Nations for the worldwide development of intellectual co-operation, the efforts to organise intellectual work and relations and to improve the organisation of scientific knowledge, and details the activities of the various League organisations in preparing and applying this programme.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS : FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION AND APPORTIONMENT OF EXPENSES. Revised edition, 1928..... 6d. $0.15

A succinct account of the financial administration of the League of Nations, explaining the scale adopted for the allocation of its expenditure among the various Member States.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND THE REFORM OF THE CALENDAR 6d. $0.15

This publication contains, in addition to a brief summary of international action previous to the existence of the League of Nations in favour of a reform of the calendar, an account of the conditions under which the League took over the examination of the question, the methods which it adopted, and the conclusions at which it has arrived.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND THE PRESS. • International Press Exhibition, Cologne, May to October 1928

1/- $0.25

The principle of publicity on which the work of the League of Nations is based has brought it into closer touch than ever with the Press.

This pamphlet, prepared by the Secretariat of the League of Nations for the International Press Exhibition at Cologne, gives a complete account of the relations of the League of Nations with the Press. It shows how information on the League is prepared and circulated, and how the seat of the League has gradually become a great international news centre.

A PICTORIAL SURVEY..... 4/- $1.00

It has been found that the exhibit of charts and photographs prepared by the Information Section of the Secretariat, concisely outlining in 25 placards the character and main achievements of the League, the International Labour Organisation and the Permanent Court of International Justice, has met a definite requirement in schools and various organisations.

The present publication is a reproduction of the Exhibit, in a convenient and attractive form, for the use of individuals who have no need of large and separate placards for exhibition purposes.

(Open to subscription.)

In January 1928, the Publications Department of the Secretariat inaugurated the supply of index cards for the publications of the League of Nations, similar to the card records issued by the Washington Library of Congress. (2) The catalogue of publications on sale, classified by subjects.
