AUTHOR'S NOTE

THIS book is a revised version of one published in 1921 and long since out of print. Topics, which, it might have been hoped, would never again occupy our minds have become once more of dominating interest, and are here discussed anew in relation to a conflict in which the economic factors may be expected to play a decisive part.

Già si solea con le spade far guerra ;
Ma or si va togliendo or qui or quivi
Lo pane che il pio padre a nessun serra.
