MINISTRY OF EDUCATION & SOCIAL WELFARE
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

P R E F A C E

This publication is eighteenth in the series entitled "Education in the Universities in India". It reviews the progress made in the university education in the country during the year 1966-67. The important aspects of higher education have been reflected through 37 statistical tables and the general analysis is given in the first two chapters that precede the statistical survey. Chapter I gives a brief account of the general development in the field of higher education and Chapter II contains statistical analysis of the tables that follow.

The information given in the publication is factual and does not attempt to draw any conclusion thereon. It is hoped that Research Workers, Educationists and others interested in higher education will find the publication useful.

Our thanks are due to all Universities, Deemed to be Universities, Institutions of National Importance and Boards of Intermediate Education who have taken interest in supplying the data contained in this publication.

Suggestions for the improvement of this publication are welcome and may please be addressed to Shri J. Veerareghavan, Director, Ministry of Education and Social Welfare, New Delhi.

CHAPTER - I

GENERAL SURVEY

1.1 The Ministry of Education at the Centre is responsible for the maintenance of four Central Universities, viz., Aligarh, Banaras, Delhi and Visva-Bharati besides promoting and co-ordinating the activities of higher education in the country through University Grants Commission. The year under report i.e. 1966-67 continued to witness the substantial progress in the field of higher education. To meet the increasing demand for higher education, six more universities were started, 177 new colleges were opened and the capacity of some of the existing ones was enlarged. New courses in some selected fields were introduced and facilities for research both in Humanities and Science were increased.

1.2 During the year 1966-67, a grant of Rs 16.49 crores was given by University Grants Commission to various universities for developmental activities. This amount include Rs.11.55 crores for plan and Rs.4.94 crores for non-plan projects. Plan allocation included funds for the development of Humanities, Scientific Education and Research, Engineering and Technology, and for conducting seminars, conferences etc. while non-plan allocations covered block grants to Central Universities and maintenance grants to constituent/affiliated colleges of Delhi University, in addition to administrative costs of the University Grants Commission. The above allocation also included grants of Rs 17.65 lakhs received from the Government of India and other sources for specific purposes.

1.3 A brief account of the activities of the Central Government (including University Grants Commission) in the field of higher education during the year under review is given in subsequent paragraphs.

2. New Universities

1.4 Six new universities were established one each at Kanpur and Meerut in Uttar Pradesh, Bhubaneswar and Sambalpur in Orissa, and Surat and Rajkot in Gujarat. The total number of universities in India thus rose to 70 during 1966-67, in addition to 9 deemed to be universities and 9 institutions of national importance. However, in the interest of economy and for maintaining the high standards of higher education it was decided that no new University should be opened except in very essential circumstances and that too in consultation with the Central Government and University Grants Commission.

1.3 A brief account of the activities of the Central Government (including University Grants Commission) in the field of higher education during the year under review is given in subsequent paragraphs.

2. New Universities

1.4 Six new universities were established one each at Kanpur and Meerut in Uttar Pradesh, Bargarh and Sambalpur in Orissa, and Surat and Rajkot in Gujarat. The total number of universities in India thus rose to 70 during 1966-67, in addition to 9 deemed to be universities and 9 institutions of national importance. However, in the interest of economy and for maintaining the high standards of higher education it was decided that no new University should be opened except in very essential circumstances and that too in consultation with the Central Government and University Grants Commission.

(contd...2)

For this purpose, a Standing Committee was appointed by the University Grants Commission to consider proposal received for the establishment of new universities and for setting up university centres during the Fourth Plan.

3. Central Universities

1.5 The following scales of pay for the academic staff of Central Universities, recommended by the University Grants Commission and accepted by the Central Government, were adopted with effect from 1st April, 1966:-

Lecturer	Rs 400-40-800-50-950
Reader	Rs 700-50-1250
Professor	Rs 1100-50-1500-60-1600

It was also agreed that 1/3rd of the number of Professors in the universities might be given the senior scale of Rs 1600-100-1800.

1.6 Some of the significant developments in the Central Universities in the matter of expansion and improvement of quality of education are briefly indicated below:-

1.7 Aligarh University

(i) Diploma Courses in electronic engineering, costume design and dress-making and architectural assistantship for women were introduced in the Faculty of Engineering and Technology and 50 students were admitted in these courses.

(ii) Evening classes in pre-university and first and second years of the three-year degree courses in Commerce and Arts were started and 220 students were admitted.

(iii) A new hostel for Indian and foreign women students was started in a leased buildings. Two hostels were started under the self-management of students.

(iv) During the year several conferences, seminars and symposia were organised. Seminar on analysis was held in May, 1966 in the Department of Mathematics, where problems of studies and research in mathematics were discussed. Thirty teachers from different parts of the country participated in it. A symposium on devaluation was held in August 1966 in the Faculty of Commerce. The Department of Geography organised an Autumn School in Geography in October, 1966 in which more than 50 delegates from 15 universities participated. A three day All-India Seminar on Entomology was held in October, 1966 in the Department of Zoology over one hundred entomologists from all over the country participated in it.

(v) The 23rd Session of All-India Oriental Conference was held in the University in October, 1966. About 600 delegates from all over the country and abroad participated in it.

(vi) A four day symposium on Plant Anatomy was held in December, 1966. It was attended by delegates from all over the country.

1.8 Banaras Hindu University

(i) The Academic Council of the University approved a scheme whereby all matters relating to students affairs and maintenance of discipline would be decided by the students themselves. The scheme which was the first of its type, provided for the formation of five Committees viz; (1) Students Affairs Committee in each hostel; (2) Students Affairs Committee in each college; (3) University Council of Students Affairs; (4) Students Council of Honour; and (5) Students Court of Honour.

(ii) The University celebrated its Golden Jubilee in February, 1967. A book containing its history was released on this occasion;

(iii) The Banaras Hindu University (Amendment) Bill, 1966 was passed by both Houses of Parliament. It was brought into force with effect from 31st December, 1966.

1.9 University of Delhi

(i) In order to meet the growing demand for university education, Delhi University permitted ten colleges to admit additional number of students to their under-graduate courses under the Extended Scheme. The maximum number of students that a college could admit under this Scheme was raised from 1,000 to 1,500.

(ii) A number of eminent scholars joined the University as Visiting Professors in the subjects of Library Science, Psychology, Philosophy, Punjabi, Economics, Chinese Studies, Business Management and Industrial Administration, History, Physics and Astro-physics.

1.10 Visva-Bharati

(i) The new courses of studies introduced in the university from the 1966-67 academic session were:

- (a) A four-year post-graduate diploma course in Chinese Studies;
- (b) A four-year senior certificate course in music and dance;
- (c) A part-time two-year certificate course in music and dance;

(ii) Three seminars relating to the 'Concept of Pramana in Philosophy', 'Cultural Confusion in Modern India' and 'Writing of Indian History' were organised by the University.

4. Review Committees

1.11 The reports of the Review Committees concerned with Botany, Bio-Chemistry, Chemistry and Mathematics, was brought out and made available to the universities. Similarly the report of the Mathematics Reforms Committee was published and circulated to the universities. In the field of the humanities and social sciences, the reports of the Review Committees concerned with English, Education, Library Science, Social Work and Sociology, Philosophy and Political Science were printed. The Committees dealing with Psychology, Military Science, Arabic and Persian Studies and Economics have also finalised their reports. The Review Committees recommended inter alia improvements in the syllabi and standards of education.

5. Area Studies

1.12 A Standing Advisory Committee was appointed to advise the University Grants Commission regarding the measures to be taken to implement the scheme of area studies. During 1966-67, the proposals for the development of studies concerning West Asia, China, Pakistan and South East Asia were received from Aligarh, Delhi and Jadavpur Universities. These proposals were examined by the Visiting Committees and were accepted.

6. Three-Year Degree Course:

1.13 The University Grants Commission assisted 42 universities and 733 colleges affiliated to them for the provision of additional staff, class-room accommodation, library and laboratory facilities in order to facilitate the introduction of the three-year degree course. During 1966-67, grants amounting to Rs 20.24 lakhs for the admissible recurring and non-recurring expenditure were released to the universities and colleges.

7. Post-graduate Studies

1.14 In 1966-67, 447 affiliated colleges were conducting post-graduate courses in various sectors of higher education and a large number of post-graduate students were receiving education in the affiliated colleges. The Commission continued to provide financial assistance to selected affiliated colleges for the development of post-graduate studies in various branches of study. For this purpose, the total grant given to the colleges amounted to Rs. 15.63 lakhs during 1966-67.

8. Correspondence Courses

1.15 Correspondence Courses for B.A.(Pass) in Delhi University were placed on a permanent footing. The University Grants Commission who took over this Scheme from the Ministry of Education, appointed a committee to consider the question of extending it to other centres of higher studies.

9. Centres of Advanced Study

1.16 The Commission provided a special assistance to 26 selected university departments to function as Centres of Advanced Study. These centres were intended to encourage the 'pursuit of excellence' and to improve quality and raise standards at the post-graduate and research levels. Grants amounting to Rs 67.96 lakhs were paid to the centres during the year under review.

10. Programme for Teachers

1.17 Following were some of the salient features of development in this programme during 1966-67:-

(i) Assistance was provided by the Commission for improving the salary scales of teachers during second plan-period. These scales were further revised during Third Plan Period. In 1966-67, grants amounting to Rs 39.24 lakhs were paid to the universities and colleges under the scheme for the revision of salary scales of teachers.

(contd...6)

(ii) A scheme of giving financial support to teachers in the universities and colleges for undertaking research work, which was initiated by the Commission in 1961-64, continued during 1966-67 and grants amounting to Rs 1.33 lakhs for 166 projects in the humanities and social sciences and Rs 2.87 lakhs for 318 projects in science subjects including engineering and technology were approved. Upto the end of 1966-67, 595 teachers in humanities and social sciences and 1,005 in science subjects were helped under the programme. An amount of Rs 3.83 lakhs was paid to the universities and colleges concerned during the year under this scheme.

During 1966-67, an amount of Rs 12.18 lakhs was paid to the universities and colleges during the year for disbursement to the retired teachers appointed under this scheme, whose number was 174 by the end of the year 1966-67.

(iv) Lump-sum grants amounting to Rs 9.47 lakhs were placed at the disposal of the universities for the scheme relating to the exchange of teachers, extension work by university teachers, travel grants for attending international conferences and for visiting centres of research and for attending academic conferences, etc.

(v) The Commission continued to give assistance to universities and colleges for the construction of staff quarters at the rate of fifty per cent of the approved expenditure. The total payments made on this account during the year amounted to Rs 24.04 lakhs to universities and Rs 4.15 lakhs to colleges.

(vi) Assistance was also made available to universities for the construction of teachers' hostels as hitherto on the usual sharing basis. Total payments on this account to the universities during the year amounted to Rs. 45.56 lakhs.

11. Scholarships and Fellowships

1.18 During the year 1966-67, the Commission awarded 30 senior fellowships and 87 junior fellowships in science subjects and 20 senior fellowships and 48 junior fellowships in humanities and social sciences. The number of research fellows working at the end of 1966-67 was 186 in science subjects and 156 in humanities and social sciences. The grants amounting to Rs 10.01 lakhs in science subject and Rs 9.71 lakhs in humanities and social sciences were paid during the year under review. In addition to the above, 32 fellowships were awarded for research in various fields of engineering and technology. A grant of Rs 3.22 lakhs was paid to the universities and colleges on this account.

(contd...7)

During 1966-67, 265 scholarships were made available by the Commission to 47 universities and a grant of about Rs. 14.45 lakhs was paid to them for this purpose. The value of these scholarships was raised from Rs. 200 to Rs. 250 per month with effect from 1st July, 1966. During this very year, 14 candidates were selected for the award of scholarships of the value of Rs 1,200 p.a. for honours and post-graduate studies in Arabic and Persian.

12. Students Welfare

1.19 The University Grants Commission continued to provide assistance to the universities and colleges for the provision of essential amenities for the student community. For the construction of student hostels in the universities, grants paid during the year amounted to Rs. 44.32 lakhs. An amount of Rs. 29.90 lakhs was paid to the colleges for this purpose. During the year, grants amounting to Rs. 10.01 lakhs were paid to some colleges for textbook libraries, wherefrom students can borrow text-books on long-term loans. An amount of Rs. 11.18 lakhs was paid to the universities and colleges to finance students aid fund wherefrom needy students are given the assistance for paying their tuition or examination fees and purchasing books, or meeting other expenses related to their studies. Grants amounting to Rs. 602 lakhs to the colleges and Rs. 2.83 lakh to the universities for the establishment of non-resident student centres and student homes respectively. The Commission accepted the report of the committee appointed to formulate a scheme for providing health centres for staff and students in universities and colleges. A meeting of a panel of Vice-Chancellors and educationists was convened in October, 1966 to consider problems relating to students unrest and indiscipline. The recommendations of the panel were circulated to the universities and the Government of India was requested to provide additional funds for the implementation of specific programmes of students welfare as recommended by the panel.

13. Summer Institutes Programme

1.21 Thirty-five summer institutes were organised for college teachers in science subjects in collaboration with the USAID, Grants amounting to Rs. 14 lakhs were paid to the universities for this purpose. Another summer institute for college teachers in agriculture was organised under the auspices of Sardar Patel University. The total number of teachers, who participated in the summer institutes for colleges during 1966 was 1,265. Six institutes in English language were organised in collaboration with the British Council and USAID at the Universities of Bombay, Delhi, Mysore, Osmania, Panjab and Ranchi, and 317 teachers participated in the programme.

(contd...8)

The summer institutes, one each in Chemistry, Biology and Mathematics were organised in the Universities of Panjab, Madras and Madurai respectively for under-graduate students.

14. Rural Higher Education

1.22 The scheme of Rural Higher Education was launched in 1956. Fourteen Rural Institutes were functioning in various parts of the country and provided courses approved by the National Council for Rural Higher Education. The Institutes continued to receive Central assistance on the approved pattern for non-recurring and recurring expenditure as well as for award of stipends. Grants totalling about Rs.20.93 lakhs were released to them. The total number of candidates who appeared at the Annual and Supplementary Examinations for the various diplomas/certificates conducted by the National Council for Rural Higher Education in April and October, 1966 was 1,327, out of which, 954 were declared successful.

15. Foreign Aid

1.23 Foreign Aid Programmes for the benefit of the universities are operated by the University Grants Commission in collaboration with the Union Ministries concerned. During 1966-67 universities continued to receive assistance from UNESCO and other foreign countries such as U.K., U.S.A. and U.S.S.R.

1.24 During 1966-67, the Government of India approved the proposals of five persons for training abroad in special fields for which training facilities are not available in India. Some Indian Universities were also visited by foreign experts.

1.25 During the year under review, four British Scientists visited Indian University and six Indian Scientists visited U.K. under the programme of exchange of scientists between India and U.K.

1.26 Under the Cultural Exchange Programme, 38 teachers, educationists and scientists came to India and 19 Indian educationists/scholars went to different countries. A seven-member delegation of Soviet Scientists visited India at the invitation of the Government for about three weeks.

CHAPTER - II

STATISTICAL SURVEY

Universities

2.1 During the year 1966-67, six new universities came into existence viz; Kanpur and Meerut in Uttar Pradesh, Borhampur and Sambalpur in Orissa, and South Gujarat and Saurashtra in Gujarat; thus bringing the total number to 70. No new addition was, however, made in the number of deemed to be universities and institutions of national importance which remained at 9 each.

2.2 This Chapter is intended to present, in a nut-shell, the statistical progress in the field of university education during the year 1966-67.

The distribution of universities, deemed to be universities and institutions of national importance by States is given in Statement I below:-

Statement No. 1 : Distribution of Universities by States

Colleges

2.8 The number of colleges maintained by or affiliated to the universities was 2,610 in 1966-67 as against 2,448 in 1965-66. This gives an increase of 6.2 per cent during the year under review.

2.9 Of the total number of 2,610 colleges, 303 (11.6 per cent) were meant exclusively for women. As can be seen from Table III-A, the number of university constituent colleges and the number of affiliated colleges was 477 and 2,133 respectively. The corresponding number for the year 1965-66 was 381 and 2,067 respectively.

2.10 The number and the percentage of colleges managed by various agencies on an all-India basis is indicated below in Statement No.4. Similar data classified by Universities is given in the Table III-B.

2.19 The above statement gives comparative enrolment data for the years 1965-66 and 1966-67 by fields of education besides giving break-up of enrolment by levels of education for the year 1966-67.

2.20 Of the total enrolment 2,73,539 students were attending institutions affiliated to the Board of High School & Intermediate Education, U.P. Of these 40,473 (14.8 per cent) were girls. Further of the total number 2,31,702 (84.7 per cent) opted for general education and 41,837 (15.3 per cent) pursued professional education.

2.21 Amongst the professional education courses, Medicine, Teachers' Training, Music & Dancing and Nursing continued to attract more girls.

2.22 The number of students coming from rural areas and receiving higher education was 4,92,753 in 1966-67 as against 4,37,250 in 1965-66.

2.23 Apart from the above mentioned enrolment, 16,921 additional students were enrolled in institutions of national importance and the deemed to be universities. Of those 15,783 (14,934 boys and 849 girls) were enrolled in the university teaching departments and the remaining 1,138 (728 boys and 410 girls) attended the constituent colleges. The detailed break-up of this data by fields of study and by standard of education in respect of each deemed university/institution of national importance are furnished in Tables VI-A and VII while the total picture is indicated in Statement No.12:-

Foreign Students in India

2.27 The number of foreign students studying in various universities in India was 5,706 during the year under review. Their country-wise and university-wise details are given in Table XI-a. Of the total, 2,786 came from Africa, 2,341 from Asia, 120 from Europe, 72 from America and 47 from Australia and New Zealand.

2.28 Of the foreign students, 3,316 (58.1%) were studying in general education and 2,390 (41.9%) were studying in professional education. In professional courses, medicine attracted 912, engineering and technology was taken up by 336 while commerce and agriculture were taken up by 505 and 160 students respectively. Detailed information is given in Table XI-B.

(contd...23)

2.29 As regards the sources financing these foreign students in India, the university-wise information is available in Table XI-C. Of the total number, 824 (14.4%) were the Government scholarship holders, 545 (9.6%) received scholarships from agencies other than the Government and the remaining 4,337 (76.0 percent) managed their finances from private sources.

2.30 Intake into Professional Courses: The intake capacity indicate the number of seats available in the first year of the course. This available information in respect of each university and each professional course has been indicated in Tables X-A, X-B and X-C. An all-India abstract of intake capacity by subject-wise level of education is given in Statement No.15 below:-

2.36 It may be observed that 51.7 per cent of the teachers working in university teaching departments were paid a salary of above Rs 500. The corresponding percentage in respect of constituent and affiliated colleges were 35.0 and 15.9 per cent respectively. Percentage of teachers getting salary above Rs 1,000 is 8.3 percent in university teaching departments, 4.3 percent in constituent colleges and 1.5 per cent in Affiliated colleges. It will be more interesting to study the distribution of teachers according to salary-block in comparison with the two preceding years because this will indicate the change that has occurred during this period. This distribution in terms of cumulative percentages is given in Statement No. 19:-

Scales of Pay

2.37 An effort has been made to give a representative (though not an exhaustive) account of the pay-scales of the lecturers, readers, professors/principals working in university teaching departments, constituent colleges and affiliated colleges which may be seen in Tables XV-A and XV-B.

Examination Results

2.38 Tables XVI and XVII give detailed information regarding the examination results for the year 1966-67. In all 10,97,373 candidates (8,58,133 boys and 2,39,240 girls) appeared from universities, deemed universities and institutions of national importance for the various post-matriculation annual and supplementary examinations. Of these, 5,87,312 (4,46,429 boys and 1,40,883 girls) were declared successful. This gives an overall pass percentage of 53.5 per cent.

(contd....28)

2.39 Apart from these, 1,77,331 candidates (1,49,220 boys and 28,103 girls) appeared in the annual and supplementary examinations for the intermediate education conducted by the U.P. Board of High School and Intermediate Education. Of these 52,030 candidates (66,250 boys and 15,780 girls) came out successful giving an overall pass percentage of 46.3 percent.

2.40 Comparative statement for the years 1964-65, 1965-66 and 1966-67 showing the number of candidates declared successful by level of examination is given in the Statement No.20 below:-

Scholarships, Stipends and
Other Financial Concessions

2.43 The extent to which the financial assistance in the shape of scholarships, stipends and other financial concessions were made available in the universities and their colleges can be seen in Table XVIII.

2.44 The number of students who benefitted from scholarships, stipends, other financial assistance or free ships were 6,39,442. Of these 4,77,304 (74.6 per cent) were in general education, 1,60,331 (25.1 per cent) were in professional education and 1,007 (0.3 per cent) studied other education. Of the total number of beneficiaries, 1,09,035 (17.1 per cent) were girls.

2.45 Included in the above were 89,817 (14.1 per cent) scheduled castes and 15,026 (2.3 per cent) scheduled tribe students. Of the scheduled caste beneficiaries, 72,436 (80.6 per cent) were in general education courses, 17,361 (19.3 per cent) were in professional education courses and only 20 students were in other education courses. Similar figures for scheduled tribe students were 12,678 (84.4 per cent) in general education courses, 2,346 (15.6 per cent) in professional education courses and only two students in other education courses. These figures include 9,470 (10.5 per cent) scheduled caste girl students and 2,148 (14.3 per cent) girl students belonging to scheduled tribes.

2.46 Out of the total number of beneficiaries, 2,92,373 (45.7 per cent) were scholarships/stipend holders, 2,04,474 (32.0 per cent) were the recipients of other financial assistance, while 1,42,595 (22.3 per cent) enjoyed free studentship.

2.47 The amount disbursed as scholarships, stipends and other financial assistance was Rs 16.75 crores. The students of general, professional and other education benefitted to the extent of Rs 9.96 crores, Rs 6.72 crores and Rs 0.07 crores respectively. The scheduled caste students received Rs 3.14 crores and the scheduled tribe students Rs 0.61 crores. The average amount per beneficiary in respect of all categories was Rs 262, while it was Rs 349 in respect of scheduled caste students and Rs 407 in respect of scheduled tribe students. The average annual amount per beneficiary in general education was Rs 209. Similar amount in respect of professional education and other education students was Rs 419 and Rs 364 respectively.

2.48 In addition to the amount mentioned above, Rs 110.43 lakhs were spent as scholarships and stipends on 11,990 students in the institutions of national importance and deemed universities. Of the total number of beneficiaries 2,479 were studying in general education courses and 9,511 had opted for professional courses. Of the total amount disbursed, the beneficiaries in general education received

(contd...32)

Rs 15.66 lakhs and those in professional education received Rs 94.77 lakhs. The amount foregone on account of freships to 2,637 students was Rs 4.57 lakhs.

FINANCE

Income

2.49 The income of the universities and their colleges was Rs 161.54 crores in 1966-67. This was 11.6 per cent higher than the income of the previous year. Of the total income of Rs 161.54 crores, 62.4 percent was recurring and 17.6 percent was non-recurring. Statement No.23 below shows the income by source during the years 1965-66 and 1966-67:-
