The President acquainted the Council the Occasion of his coming hither, which was to inquire into their Investments soe much complained of, the occasion of the differences amongst the Companys servants, The Particulars of their Expences, The amount of the Revenues and into the state of the whole place.

Mr. Fraser in answer to what the President said of the Differences, made a long harangue in his own defence; & concluded in telling the President & Council, that he should adhere to his former resolution, of which he acquainted the President & Council of Fort St. George, that when the business of Doud Cawne was over, as now it was, hee desired to be dismissed the Companys service, and accordingly he is to be dismissed as soon as this month is expired, and that he has delivered up his charge.

Whereas on the 21st Instant Bompaa Rause was the greatest bidder for the retailing of the Tobacco, Beetle & Ganjee within these bounds for the Ensuing year, commencing Primo August next, the said Farm was then declar'd to be taken by said Bompaa Rause upon his producing such security approved by this board, who are also order'd to attend at our next Meeting.

The Councill being duly summoned, The merchants being summoned to attend, in order to be Discoursed about the new Contract, they desired to be excused being q<sup>r</sup>. day of the Moon and so an unlucky day with them.

The Councill being mett, the Governour inquired of them what Number of Weavers wee had in our bounds, answer was made, between two or three hundred, which was a great surprize to him, having been often informed that soon after the Companys first settling here there was five or six thousand. The reason of their Deserting being demanded of those that resided here, twas answered, that they knew of nothing that occasion'd it, but the business of Seliam Cawne, and the laying of that heavy Tax of Beetle and Tobacco with the great incouragement the Dutch & French have of late years given weavers to draw 'em to their settlements, the French having now (as wee are advised) between 1500 or two thousand within their bounds at Pullicherry.

Upon this the President urg'd the Necessity of using all ways and means imaginable to encourage the weavers to resettle here, for that the decay of 'em had very much Lessen'd the Companys revenues & rendered it very inconvenient for making their Investments, and a great occasion of the Cloth comeing out so dear as it was, Its therefore resolved that, Whereas the Farm of Tobacco, Beetle & Ganjee was agreed to be lett out to rent, that a stop be put to it, and that wee forthwith consider of proper means to make these Farms more easie to the Handicraft & Poor people, in order to encourage them to resettle here, and that in this matter wee consult the Chief Inhabitants thereon.

Whereas many years past, there being a great Famine so that all Provisions were extravagantly dear, insomuch that the soldiers of Conimeer & Madrass could not subsist with their pay, in consideration whereof the Governour & Councill at Fort St. George added to their Pay nine fanams per mensem, but some years after when provisions grew tollerably cheap, the nine fanams was taken off at Madrass but omitted at Conimeer, which soldiers were removed hither upon the purchasing this place and the nine fanams still continued and being considered as an injustice to the Company and the unreasonableness of the soldiers having nine fanams more here than at Madrass, It is therefore order'd by the President & Councill that their pay for the future be equall to that at Madrass & that the Paymaster acquaints them therewith this day at Pay-table, and for the future whoever is entertained in the Gunroom shall have no more than ninety-one fanams per mensem, as is lately order'd in Madrass.

TREVOR GAMES.

Mr. Richard Farmer was sent for and reinstated in his place in the Council there being nothing proved against him as his being Instrumentall in occasioning the Differences that has been in this place amongst the Companys servants.

The Warehousekeeper is ordered to lade on board the Bedford what bales are now embaled or shall be in readines against her Dispatch to Fort St. George.

Both setts of Joint Stock Merchants came hither, with whom wee had a long debate about a new Investment. The President produced to 'em a List of such goods the Company had this year ordered amounting to about one hundred thousand Pagodas, for the procuring of which they would not undertake it, but at extravagant rates alledging that they lost four thousand Pagodas by their last contract, and that the Dutch and French made such large Contract, that they had very considerably raised the price of all Cloth, the Dutch more especially, who in their settlements from Policat to Nagapatam for about four hundred thousand Pagodas which is more than they have done for at least these fifty years past, and tis generally reported that their orders to the Merchants are, to outbid all others, for that they must have goods let them cost what they will.

So after a tedious and long debate wee could gett no other answer from the Merchants, but that they could not undertake at this Juncture such an Investment, unless wee advance to 'em Ten per Cent on the Terms of the last Contract, The President & Council insisting upon the Ten per Cent abatement, laying before them the great Difference between their goods and those of Madrass, both in price & goodness, for which the Company had very much complained, They replied if it was so 'twould be the Companys Interest to make all their Investments there, and their Interest as Times go to make none here, and likewise urg'd, that this Country was so unsettled, that from the Place they made the Cloth to this, they pay at least five or six per Cent more in Custom than the Madrass Merchants, which wee have reason to credit, so at present, not being able to bring 'em to more reasonable terms, the further consideration whereof is adjourned to Monday next.

Att this time wee consulted the Merchants about regulating the price of Beetle, Tobacco & Ganjee, and to make it more easie to the Poor not only to encourage what Inhabitants wee have, to remaine here, but if possible to induce those who have left us to return, and the Methods proposed are, viz<sup>t</sup>: That all Beetle & Tobacco shall pay as a Custom their first value, and all people whatever shall be at liberty to retail it, which the Merchants at first was of opinion that fifty per cent would be sufficient, but the President & Council laying before them that at that rate, that part of the revenue would be very much lessened 'twas resolved that the further Consideration be referred till Monday next, and in the meantime the Conicoplys bring in an acco<sup>t</sup>. of what Tobacco is imported yearly and what beetle brought from the Gardens.

Mr. Fraser declareing in the Council that he should be ready to surrender his Charge on Monday Next, Tis ordered that Mr. John Haynes succeed him as Prov<sup>ll</sup>. Deputy Governour till the R<sup>t</sup>. Hon<sup>ble</sup>. Company or the President & Council at Madrass shall give further orders about it and that he receives the Cash, Papers, &c<sup>a</sup>. of Mr. Fraser belonging to the Company.

The same letters also advise that a Polygar with six thousand strong plundered Bimlepatam of grain &c<sup>a</sup>. seizing two Europeans and severall Peons, afterwards Marching to Vizagapatam committed the like Hostilities there, cutt of Mr. Holcombes head, but a letter to the President of an after date contradicts that about Mr. Holcombe and that he is living.

4th.

The Merchants all came before us who still insisted upon the Terms of Ten per Cent advance, about which wee had a long debate, but the President & Council being thoroughly informed and finding it in their Perticular affairs to be so, that all Cloth is risen since last year at least from ten to fifteen per cent, in consideration of which and that the Merchants might not disappoint us of making an Investment, wee proposed to 'em now the Terms of last year which they refusing wee dismissed 'em telling 'em that wee could treat no further about it, unless they came to more reasonable conditions.

Mr. Fraser read his acco<sup>t</sup>. of the Rt. Hon<sup>ble</sup>. Comp<sup>as</sup>. Cash for the month July and August to this day, Ballance being pag. 938 : 11 : 2 which he delivered to Mr. Haynes, who was ordered to go to the Fort to receive his charge, and whatever else Mr. Fraser has in his possession of the Companys.

This day wee again debated the business of the Beetle & Tobacco, and having before us the annual Consumption of both in this place, wee find that the Company will be Loosers about eight or nine hundred pag. per annum by taking a Custom instead of farming of it for the summe now offered, yet nevertheless the future benefits wee foresee that must necessarily follow induces us to this resolution viz<sup>t</sup>. : That the Beetle & Tobacco be taken into the Companys hands for one year, and that a Custom be laid thereon of its first value, and that forthwith Mr. Haynes and the Council here order the Conicoplys that they bring in an exact acco<sup>t</sup>. of all Tobacco that is in Custody of all persons within our bounds that they forth with settle proper persons for collecting of it, and that it be published by beat of Drum in all places what is ordered herein, that all people are free to sell the same, and the Care of this affair is more particularly recommended to Mr. Haynes and Mr. Mountague, who are enjoined to send a monthly acco<sup>t</sup>. of the Income to the Governour and Council at Madrass.

The reasons that has induced us to the preceding resolution are viz<sup>t</sup>. :

- 1st. Is the present easing of the Poor, who are chiefly agrieved by this Tax.
- 2nd. To prevent the great Clamours and reflections that are often made by the Country, and the Disturbance and Vexations that is given to all Inhabitants and Strangers that travel within our bounds by the Farmers in serching for these Commodities.
- 3rd. The hopes wee have that this will be Instrumentall in recalling many of our weavers, and inviting new ones to settle here.

— AUGUST 1701 —

- 4th. That if this have the effect wee hope for, in making the Place Poppo-lous [sic], it will very much increase all Branches of the Revenue.
- 5th. Wee being assured by some of our Chiefest Inhabitants (who has promised their utmost assistance) that this will be a means of bringing great numbers of Weavers, which in a little time may be capable of making goods to the amount of the Companys Investment, which will be a great advantage not only in regard to the price and goodness of the goods, but the great security of their State.

what was proper to be done in this Conjunction, for that wee have the Bedford out making a considerable Contract in this place, having on Sunday last the ill

news from Vizagapatam which gives us reason to believe wee shall have few bales thence, so that our whole dependance for the Dispatch of that ship must be from Madrass and this place which wee shall find very difficult to procure, considering the vast Investments made upon this Coast, wherefore have resolved rather than let so great a ship lye on Demurrage or go home dead freighted to advance as far as five per cent to the Merchants, if less will not prevail, hoping so small an advancement may be regained by the well sorting of the Cloth, upon which they were summon'd to attend to Morrow Morning.

The Difference between Capt<sup>t</sup>. James Hugonin and Ensign Robert Reay, being this day examined and the latter having sent the other a Challenge under his hand, notwithstanding being his superior Officer, Tis unanimously resolved that Ensign Robert Reay be confined in order to be sent on board the Bedford for Madrass, there to be broke and made for ever incapable of serving the Company again.

Tis order'd for the future that if any Soldiers belonging to this Garrison, address themselves to the Deputy Governour and Councill here for leave to go to Madrass to serve the Company there, it shall be granted 'em, giving timely notice to Madrass, that so many may be sent thence in their room.

The Joint Stock Merchants mett this Morning and agreed the quantity & each sort of goods, being all upon the Madrass musters, but when wee came to Discourse 'em on the prizes, they still insisted upon the Ten per Cent, and after some time came to nine, and wee finding 'em very obstinate, and seem to be resolved not to make any Contract without some advance, wee by degrees (but with long debates between) rose to five per cent, resolving not to give more, so order'd the Merchants to withdraw to consider of it, & give their answer in the afternoon, when they accordingly met, & after the usuall tedious Debates, they brought down to 6 per cent and then told us positively unless wee gave that, they would make no Contract, or if wee did not like to do it on those terms, they had much rather agree upon the Prizes that the Dutch & French give, and on their Musters, so wee concluded to give six per cent, and referr'd finishing the Contract till to Morrow Morning.

There being five Malefactors Natives of the Country in prison here, who about the 21st Nov<sup>r</sup>. last committed a most barbarous Murder, who if brought upon their tryal be convicted and Executed, the latter might render many Inconveniencies at this time, Wherefore It is order'd that Messrs.
