ONE SHILLING AND THREEPENCE

THE CATHOLIC SOCIAL GUILD
OXFORD

THE CATHOLIC SOCIAL GUILD

President:

His Grace, the Archbishop of Birmingham

Hon. Secretary: Rev. L. O'Hea, S.J., M.A.

Hon. Treasurer: Paul Kelly, Esq.

The Guild is established to arouse Catholics to interest themselves in social questions, to help them to understand the Church's doctrine on these matters, to face the actual facts which are troubling our people and our country to-day. The Guild exists to make Christian citizens.

The Guild is in touch with hundreds of study clubs and a host of other correspondents at home and abroad.

BUT THE GUILD WANTS YOUR HELP

MEMBERSHIP. The Guild is supported by the subscriptions of its members. Join the Guild to-day, or find a new recruit! Subscription, 1s., 3s. (with our monthly paper), 5s. upwards (with other privilege literature). Ask your Catholic Society to affiliate (5s. upwards). Use our handbills to make the Guild known.

LITERATURE. The Guild's pamphlets are cheap and concise, within the reach of every thoughtful Catholic, the only simple introduction to Catholic social doctrine, and they provide a useful social library. A member can have 10s. worth for 8s. post free. Make your selection. Order a small stock for sale to others. The Guild's literature gives an easy way of spreading Catholic teaching, but the Guild relies on members to make it known and read.

STUDY CLUBS. A study club means work, a weekly evening given along with others to the study of social problems, local, national or world-wide, in a Catholic spirit and in line with Catholic truth. The Guild helps with plans and text-books. Get a study club going with a few friends or in your Catholic society.
