Use of the Subject List.

All documents are grouped according to their subject-matter, and the entries are classified in alphabetical order. Entries for documents which do not appear periodically consist of a summary of their contents classified under headings and sub-headings and followed by their number.

E.g. (1): Council, League

Composition of

Letter Sept. 7, 1928 from the Persian Govt. (M. Foroughi) to Ass. presenting its candidature for a non-permanent seat on the C.I.

A. 50. 1928. VII

Entries for documents which appear periodically do not contain a summary of the document, but merely show the period covered and give the number.

E.g. (2): Work of the League

Summary, Monthly, of

Numbers summarising the work of the League in 1928

January

Monthly Summary, Vol. VIII, No. 1

Entries for documents which are redistributed with a Circular Letter, or reappear as an annex to the Minutes of the Council or to the Verbatim Records of the Assembly, or form part of a collective document, give the respective numerical references.

E.g. (3): Women and Children

Protection of Children

Cttee. on

4th Sess. March 1928, Geneva

Rep. March 1928
