ACT No. XXVIII. OF 1858.

An Act for the Maintenance of a Police Force for the Port of Madras.

Whereas it is expedient to make further provision for the security of the traffic between the shore and the shipping in the Port of Madras, by increasing the Police Force; and whereas it is just and expedient that the said traffic should contribute towards the expenses and maintenance of the said Force; It is enacted as follows:—

I. To meet the expense of such an increase to the Police Force, established under the provisions of Act XIII. of 1856, as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act, the sum of Three Annas shall be charged and taken by the owner of every boat employed to convey cargo or goods to or from any ship or vessel in the Port of Madras, in addition to the hire payable under Act IV. of 1842.

II. No cargo or goods of any description shall be conveyed in any boat to or from any ship or vessel in the Port of Madras unless accompanied by an Officer of the Police Force, and it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Police to provide every such boat with an Officer of the Police Force for this purpose.

III. The owner of any boat, and the tindal and boatmen for the time being employed in any boat in which any cargo or goods shall be conveyed to or from any ship or vessel in the Port of Madras without having an Officer of the said Force on board of such boat, and every boat-owner, tindal, and boatman who shall either hinder any such Officer from accompanying any such boat, or shall obstruct him in the performance of his duty when in any such boat, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable as follows:—every boat-owner, for the first offence, to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, and for a second or any subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees; every tindal, for the first offence, to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty stripes of a rattan; and for a second or any subsequent offence to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty-five stripes of a rattan; and every boatman, for the first offence, to corporal punishment not exceeding fifteen stripes of a rattan, and for a second or any subsequent offence to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty stripes of a rattan.

IV. Every boat-owner shall, on every Monday, make, to the Commissioner of Police, or to such other person as the said Commissioner of Police shall appoint to receive the same, a return, in writing, signed by such boat-owner, of the number of trips made by each of his boats on each day during the preceding week.

V. Every boat-owner who shall neglect to make such return as in the next preceding Section specified, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable, for a first offence, to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, and for a second or any subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees; and every boat-owner who shall make a false return shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Three Hundred Rupees, and to the forfeiture of all licenses which he may hold under the provisions of Act IV. of 1842.

VI. Every boat-owner shall, on every Monday, pay, to the said Commissioner of Police, or to such other person as the said Commissioner of Police may appoint to receive the same, the said sum of Three Annas for every trip made by any boat belonging to him employed in conveying cargo or goods, according to the weekly return to be made by him as hereinbefore directed; and in default of such payment, one or more of the boats of any boat-owner making such defaults may be seized and sold by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of a Magistrate, until the amount so due by such boat-owner, and the expenses of sale, shall be realised; and such amount, when realised, shall be forthwith paid to the said Commissioner of Police.

VII. All monies paid to or received by the said Commissioner of Police under this Act, shall be paid by him, at least once a month, into the General Treasury of Fort Saint George.

VIII. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Magistrate under this Act, shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state, on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

IX. None of the foregoing provisions of this Act shall be taken or deemed to extend or apply to any boat which shall convey only mails or passengers with their baggage to or from any ship or vessel in the Madras Roads.

X. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Police and the members of the Police Force at Madras to exercise, within the limits of the Port of Madras as defined under the provisions of Act XXII. of 1855, all powers given to them respectively by Act XIII. of 1856, or which may be lawfully exercised by Constables within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; and all provisions of the last-mentioned Act, applicable to the said Commissioner and Police Force at Madras, shall apply to them respectively in the execution of the powers hereby given.

Legislative Council of India.

7th August 1858.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 31st July 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 7th August 1858), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXIX. OF 1858.

An Act for the Relief of Persons who, in consequence of the Recent Disturbances, have been Prevented from Instituting or Prosecuting Suits or Appeals in the Civil Courts of the North-Western Provinces within the Time allowed by Law.

Whereas, during the recent disturbances, many of the Civil Courts in the North-Western Provinces were compelled to suspend their sittings for considerable periods; and whereas, during this interval, the time allowed by law for instituting and prosecuting original suits and appeals has in many cases expired, and it is proper to provide relief for the plaintiffs and appellants in such cases; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Whenever, subsequently to the 10th May 1857, the sittings in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may have been suspended in consequence of the disturbed state of the country, it shall be competent to such Court to receive and try, or to re-admit any original suit or appeal within its jurisdiction, in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired during the time that the sittings of such Court were so suspended, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted, but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within the period of three months from the date on which the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the Districts shall issue a proclamation, copies of which shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the several Courts and in the Office of the Collector and Magistrate of the District, notifying that the Courts of the District, or such of them as it is intended to re-establish, have resumed their sittings.

II. In like manner, any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may receive and try, or re-admit any original suit or appeal in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Court that the plaintiff or appellant in such suit or appeal was precluded from instituting or prosecuting it within the limited period, owing to the disturbed state of the country, whereby access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult; provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted, but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within three months from the passing of this Act, or from the time when the cause above stated shall cease to exist.

Further time allowed for prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the difficulty of access to the Courts.

III. If the application be for the admission of a special appeal, the appellant may present his application either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court from whose decision the appeal is made, for transmission to the Sudder Court.

IV. The petition of plaint or appeal in any original suit or regular or special appeal, falling within the provisions of this Act, which may be instituted, for the first time, under Section I. or Section II., shall be written on stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular suits and appeals; but an application for the re-admission of an original suit or appeal, which shall have been previously instituted, but shall have abated for want of prosecution, may be written on plain paper.

V. No original suit or appeal, which may have been instituted or re-admitted in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces, subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, shall be liable to be dismissed, nor shall any decision passed in any such suit or appeal be reversed, on the ground that, at the date of its institution, the period allowed by law for the admission of the suit or appeal had expired, or, that the suit or appeal had abated for want of prosecution (according as the case may be), if, at the time the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting such suit or appeal expired, the sittings in the Court by which it was cognisable, or in which it was pending, were suspended, or access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult by reason of the disturbed state of the country.

VI. For the purposes of this Act, the certificate of the Zillah Judge that the sittings in any Court within his jurisdiction were suspended, or that access to any such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, owing to the disturbed state of the country during any particular period, shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact.

VII. This Act may be extended by the Governor General in Council, or by the Executive Government of any Presidency or place, to any District within the limits of their respective jurisdictions.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

By virtue of the power and authority vested in us, we hereby revoke, as from and after the Thirtieth day of September 1853, the regulations made and published by us on the First day of May 1852, relating to the Lights to be carried by Sea-going Vessels to prevent collision: And we hereby make the following Regulations, and require and direct that the same be strictly observed and carried into effect on and after the First day of October 1853:—

STEAM VESSELS.

All Sea-going Steam Vessels, when under steam, shall, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit the following Lights:—

1. A bright White Light at the Foremast Head.
A Green Light on the Starboard side.
A Red Light on the Port side.
2. The Mast-head Light shall be so constructed as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least 5 miles, and shall show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass, and it shall be so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz. from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side.
3. The Green Light on the Starboard side and the Red Light on the Port side shall be so constructed as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least 2 miles, and show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, and they shall be so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the Starboard and on the Port sides respectively.
4. The side Lights are to be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least 3 feet forward from the Light, so as to prevent the Lights from being seen across the bow.
5. Steam Vessels under Sail only are not to carry their Mast-head Light.

FOG SIGNALS.

All Sea-going Steam Vessels, whether propelled by paddles or screws, when their steam is up, and when under-way, shall in all cases of Fog use as a Fog Signal a Steam Whistle, placed before the Funnel at not less than 8 feet from the deck, which shall be sounded once at least every five minutes; but when the steam is not up, they shall use a Fog Horn or Bell, as ordered for Sailing Ships.

SAILING VESSELS.

1. All Sea-going Sailing Vessels, when under-way or being towed, shall, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit a Green Light on the Starboard side and a Red Light on the Port side of the vessel, and such Lights shall be so constructed as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least 2 miles, and shall show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the Starboard and on the Port sides respectively.
2. The Coloured Lights shall be fixed whenever it is practicable so to exhibit them; and shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least 3 feet forward from the Light, so as to prevent the Lights being seen across the bow.
3. When the Coloured Lights cannot be fixed (as in the case of small vessels in bad weather), they shall be kept on deck between sunset and sunrise, and on their proper sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition, and shall be exhibited in such a manner as can be best seen on the approach of, or to, any other vessel or vessels, in sufficient time to avoid collision, and so that the Green Light shall not be seen on the Port side, nor the Red Light on the Starboard side.

FOG SIGNALS.

All Sea-going Sailing Vessels, when under-way, shall, in all cases of Fog, use, when on the Starboard Tack a Fog Horn, and when on the Port Tack shall Ring a Bell. These Signals shall be sounded once at least every five minutes.

SAILING PILOT VESSELS are to carry only a White Light at the Mast-head, and are to exhibit a Flare-up Light every 15 minutes, in accordance with Trinity House Regulation.

By Command of their Lordships,

The following Diagrams are intended to illustrate the use of the Lights carried by vessels at sea, and the manner in which they indicate to the vessel which sees them the position and description of the vessel which carries them:—

FIRST.—When both Red and Green Lights are seen:

A sees a Red and Green Light ahead;—A knows that a vessel is approaching her on a course directly opposite to her own, as B;

If A sees a White Mast-head Light above the other two, she knows that B is a steam vessel.

SECOND.—When the Red, and not the Green Light, is seen:

A sees a Red Light ahead or on the bow;—A knows that either, 1st, a vessel is approaching her on her port bow, as B;

or, 2nd, a vessel is crossing in some direction to port, as D D D.

If A sees a White Mast-head Light above the Red Light, A knows that the vessel is a steam vessel, and is either approaching her in the same direction, as B, or is crossing to port in some direction, as D D D.

THIRD.—When the Green, and not the Red Light, is seen:—
 A sees a Green Light ahead or on the bow;—A knows that either, 1st, a vessel is approaching her on her starboard bow, as B;

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confirm the grant of the VICTORIA CROSS to the undermentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Men of the East India Company's Armies, which Decoration has been provisionally conferred upon them by Major General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., and by the late Major General Henry Havelock, K.C.B., on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, in virtue of the power delegated to Generals Commanding Corps, Divisions, or Brigades, by Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th January 1856, viz :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of Bravery for which Recommended.
Bengal Artillery...	Captain (now Lieutenant Colonel) William Olpherts. Date of act of bravery, 25th September 1857.	For highly distinguished conduct, on the 25th September 1857, when the Troops penetrated into the City of Lucknow, in having charged on horseback, with Her Majesty's 90th Regiment, when gallantly headed by Colonel Campbell it captured two guns in the face of a heavy fire of grape, and having afterwards returned, under a severe fire of musketry, to bring up limbers and horses to carry off the captured ordnance, which he accomplished.—(Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October 1857.)
1st Madras Fusiliers.	Serjeant Patrick Mahoney. Date of act of bravery, 21st September 1857.	For distinguished gallantry (whilst doing duty with the Volunteer Cavalry), in aiding in the capture of the Regimental Colour of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry at Mungulwar, on the 21st of September 1857.—(Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October 1857.)
Ditto.	Private John Ryan. Date of act of bravery, 26th September 1857.	In addition to the above act, Private Ryan distinguished himself throughout the day by his intrepidity, and especially devoted himself to rescuing the wounded in the neighbourhood from being massacred. He was most anxious to visit every dooly.—(Extract from Divisional Orders of Major General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 16th October 1857.)
Ditto.	Private Thomas Duffy.	For his cool intrepidity and daring skill, whereby a 24-pounder gun was saved from falling into the hands of the Enemy.—(Extract from Divisional Orders of Major General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 16th October 1857.)

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers of the East India Company's Armies, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant before referred to, on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, viz :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of Bravery for which Recommended.
Bengal Veteran Establishment.	Captain George Forrest. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Delhi Magazine, on the 11th May 1857.
Ditto.	Captain William Raynor. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi, on the 11th May 1857.
Commissariat Department, Bengal Establishment.	Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance John Buckley. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi, on the 11th May 1857.
2nd Punjaub Cavalry.	Captain (now Major) Dighton Macnaghten Probyn.	“Has been distinguished for gallantry and daring throughout this campaign. At the battle of Agra, when his Squadron charged the Rebel Infantry, he was some time separated from his Men, and surrounded by five or six Sepoys. He defended himself from the various cuts made at him, and, before his own Men had joined him, had cut down two of his assailants. At another time, in single combat with a Sepoy, he was wounded in the wrist by the bayonet, and his horse also was slightly wounded; but though the Sepoy fought desperately, he cut him down. The same day he singled out a standard-bearer, and, in the presence of a number of the Enemy, killed him and captured the standard. These are only a few of the gallant deeds of this brave young Officer.”—(Despatch from Major General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10th January 1858.)

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of Bravery for which Recommended.
1st Punjaub Cavalry.	Lieutenant John Watson. Date of act of bravery, 14th November 1857.	Lieutenant Watson, on the 14th November, with his own Squadron and that under Captain, then Lieutenant, Probyn, came upon a body of the Rebel Cavalry. The Rissaldar in Command of them,—a fine specimen of the Hindustani Mussulman,—and backed up by some half dozen equally brave men, rode out to the front. Lieutenant Watson singled out this fine-looking fellow, and attacked him. The Rissaldar presented his pistol at Lieutenant Watson's breast, at a yard's distance, and fired, but, most providentially, without effect; the ball must, by accident, have previously fallen out. Lieutenant Watson ran the man through with his sword, and dismounted him; but the Native Officer, nothing daunted, drew his tulwar, and with his Sowars renewed his attack upon Lieutenant Watson, who bravely defended himself until his own Men joined in the mélee, and utterly routed the party. In this rencontre, Lieutenant Watson received a blow on the head from a tulwar, another on the left arm, which severed his chain gauntlet glove, a tulwar cut on his right arm, which fortunately only divided the sleeve of the jacket, but disabled the arm for some time; a bullet also passed through his coat, and he received a blow on his leg, which lamed him for some days afterwards."—(Despatch from Major General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10th January 1858.)

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

With reference to Government Notification of 25th May 1858, published at page 845 of the Government Gazette of 27th idem, the following Resolution by the Government of India, dated 27th July 1858, is published for general information:—

RESOLUTION.—With advertence to the instructions conveyed by the Honorable the Court of Directors in paragraph 13 of their Despatch No. 10 of 1858, dated 16th February, viz. that Military Officers in Civil employ must abide by the Regulations of the Civil Service in respect to Privilege Leave, the Government of Bombay inquires whether it is intended that Military and Medical Officers in Civil employ must abide by the Rules in respect to Privilege Leave for one, two, and three consecutive months, or whether they are to be subject, as laid down in Section XIX. of the New Covenanted Civil Absentee Rules, to the Military Rules, which provide that Privilege Leave to the extent of thirty days in six months may be granted to Military Officers in Civil employ, from the 1st of January to the 1st of July, and from the 1st of July to the 1st of January, respectively.

Referring to this inquiry, the President in Council remarks that the definite instructions of the Honorable Court have already been solicited in respect to the question of the Rules under which Privilege Leave is to be granted to Military and Medical Officers in Civil employ; and that, pending the receipt of the Honorable Court's reply to this reference, the recent orders placing Military Officers in Civil employ under the Civil Absentee Rules, in respect of Privilege Leave, must be enforced.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,

W. HART,

Secretary to Government.

Letters on the Public Service.—It is hereby notified, for the information and guidance, that as some uncertainty seems to prevail on the subject of the obligation on Public Officers to receive Letters, purporting to be Public Letters, which are charged with Postage, the Director General considers it desirable that the rule in this matter should be known as widely as possible, and that all Officers of the Postal Department, at all events, should have it constantly in mind, in order that they may direct attention to it when necessary.

The following Extract of an Order by the Supreme Government, No. 884, dated 13th July 1855, is therefore republished:—

“No Public Officer is authorised to send covers on the Public Service by Post without payment of Postage, unless he is at the time on active duty and in charge of the Office by virtue of which the privilege is enjoyed. All Letters superscribed as ‘On the public service only’ must, even though the Postage thereon be not paid, be received and opened by the Officer to whom they are addressed; but if any such or partially paid Letter so superscribed, and addressed to any Officer, except a Secretary to Government, be found, when opened, to relate to the private affairs of the sender, the Postage will be debited to him, and he will be further liable to be dealt with under Section 47, Act No. XVII. of 1854.

“His Honor in Council further directs, that unpaid or insufficiently paid Letters addressed to any such Officer or Department, and not superscribed ‘on the Public Service only,’ be refused, or if opened, that it be at the risk and cost of the opener.”
