GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council having sanctioned the publication of a weekly paper, to be styled the "BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE," notice is hereby given, that after this day all advertisements and other public papers of the Government will be printed in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE only: and all orders or other public notices appearing in that paper, under the signature of the Secretaries, or other public officers of the Government, are hereby ordered and directed to be conformed to and obeyed accordingly.

Bombay Castle, 18th January 1832.

When official notifications from the Government are inserted in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, no communication on the same subject will be made in writing to any department concerned; but all public officers are required to take notice of such official notifications in the same manner as if they had been directly communicated to them by letter from the Secretary's office, and as heads of offices alone will be furnished by Government with the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, they will be expected to communicate to their subordinate officers all orders which may in any manner concern them.

The Bombay Government Gazettes furnished by Government to public offices are to be lodged with the records, and are not to be removed from the office.

Published by order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,
JOHN BAX, Secy. to Govt.

NOTICE.

Legislative Council.

9th February 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 4th February 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. II. of 1856.

An Act to enable Magistrates and certain other Officers to take Cognizance of certain Offences without requiring a Written Complaint.

Whereas it is expedient to enable Magistrates and certain other Officers to take cognizance of all offences which affect the public, without requiring a complaint in writing or the attendance of a complainant; It is enacted as follows:—

I. So much of Section V. Regulation IX. 1793, of Section V. Regulation VI.

Laws repealed. 1803, of Section VI. Regulation IX. 1807, of the Bengal

Code, and so much of Section XV. Regulation IX. 1816 of the Madras Code, and so much of any other enactment, as require a complaint in writing to be preferred to a Magistrate, or the attendance of a complainant, shall not apply to any offence which affects the public.

II. A Magistrate or other Officer having jurisdiction over such offence may, on the information of a Police Officer or other person, to be given on oath or affirmation, or on his own personal knowledge, (having first recorded the grounds thereof in his own handwriting), proceed against any person for such offence in the same manner as if a complaint in writing had been preferred and duly deposed to.

Magistrate may take cognizance of offences affecting the public on information sworn, &c.

III. All proceedings under this Act shall be subject to the like appeal as other proceedings of such Magistrates and Officers.

Appeal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

9th February 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 8th February 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III. of 1856.

An Act to amend Act No. XI. of 1849 and Act No. XIX. of 1852.

Whereas the office of Commissioner for the superintendence of the Abkaree Revenue, heretofore existing under Act No. XXV. of 1840, has been abolished, and it is expedient to make provision for the exercise of the powers and duties vested by Act No. XI. of 1849 in the Commissioner of Abkaree; and whereas it is also expedient to declare the powers of Abkaree Officers to make arrests in certain cases; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. The Commissioner of Revenue of the Division within which the Town of Calcutta is or may be situated, shall possess the powers and perform the duties vested by Act No. XI. of 1849 in the Commissioner of Abkaree.

II. Whenever an Abkaree Officer shall, under Section XIX. Act XI. of 1849 or Section XIX. Act XIX. of 1852, seize any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, as liable to confiscation, he may also arrest the person in whose possession such liquors or drugs may be found; and all the provisions of the aforesaid Acts relative to arrests shall be applicable to arrests made under this Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

9th February 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 8th February 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. IV. of 1856.

An Act to prevent the malicious or wanton Destruction of Cattle.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the apprehension and punishment of persons who maliciously or wantonly destroy cattle; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Within the territories under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, whoever is charged with maliciously or wantonly causing the death of any cattle, the property of another, may be proceeded against in the mode prescribed in Section XXV. Regulation XX. 1817 of the Bengal Code, for proceeding against persons charged with a heinous offence, and shall, on conviction before a Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment with hard labour for any period not exceeding three years, or, at the discretion of the said Magistrate, may be committed for trial before the Sessions Judge, and, on conviction, shall be liable to imprisonment with hard labour for any period not exceeding nine years.

II. The provisions of Act XVI. of 1850 shall be applicable to persons convicted of offences under this Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

2nd February 1856.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd February 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 6th of May next:—

A Bill to amend the Articles of War for the Native Army relating to the Forfeiture of Pay and Service in certain cases.

Whereas it is expedient that Native Officers and Soldiers, when imprisoned or absent by reason of being prisoners of war, should be subject to the same forfeiture of pay and time of service as European Soldiers are in like cases; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. So much of the 113th Article of War for the Native Army as is still in force, and Act XXXVI. of 1850, except so far as it repeals the said Article of War, are hereby repealed.

II. From and after the day of

Time passed in imprisonment, &c. not to reckon as service. next, if any Native Officer, Soldier, or Public Follower in the Military Service of the East India Company, by reason of his imprisonment, whether under sentence of a Court Martial or of any other Court duly authorised to pass such sentence, or by reason of his confinement for debt, or by reason of his desertion, shall have been absent from his duty during any portion of the time limited by his enlistment or re-engagement, such portion of his time shall not be reckoned as service; and

no such Native Officer or Soldier, or Public Follower, shall be entitled to pay or to reckon service towards pay or pension when in such confinement, or during any such absence or any absence from duty by commitment or confinement under any charge, of which he shall be afterwards convicted: and when any Native Officer or Soldier shall be absent as a prisoner of war, he shall not be entitled to pay or to reckon service towards pay or pension for the period of such absence; but, on re-joining the East India Company's Service, due inquiry shall be made by a Court Martial, and unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of such Court that the said Native Officer or Soldier or Public Follower was taken prisoner through wilful neglect of duty on his part, or that he had served with, or under, or in some manner aided the enemy, or that he had not returned as soon as possible to the East India Company's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the whole of such arrears of pay or a proportion thereof, and to reckon service during his absence. Provided that, when any sentence shall have been wholly remitted and the offence pardoned by competent authority, the Native Officer or Soldier, or Public Follower, shall be entitled to reckon service towards pay or pension for the days he may have been in confinement previous to trial and until such pardon had been pronounced.

Act to be taken as part of Act XIX. of 1847.

III. This Act shall be read with, and taken as part of Act XIX. of 1847.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

9th February 1856.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 9th February 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 13th of April next:—

A Bill to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the Abkaree Revenue in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient that the laws relating to the manufacture of spirits, and the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs, and the collection of the revenue derived therefrom, should be consolidated and amended; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Regulation II. 1802; Regulation X. 1813; Regulation XVII. 1814; Section XLI. and the following Sections of Regulation XIII.

1816; Regulation XI. 1818; Regulation VII. 1824, except the first five Clauses of Section XVIII. and Sections XXIII. and XXIV.; and Regulation VIII. 1826, of the Bengal Code; and Act No. XXV. of 1840; Act No. IX. of 1841; and Act No. XXIII. of 1848 are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or part of any other Regulation or Act, and except as to acts done, offences committed, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

II. The collection of the revenue arising from the manufacture of spirits, and the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs, shall be ordinarily under the charge of the Collectors of Land Revenue, who shall perform the duties connected therewith under the control and direction of the Commissioners of Revenue, and of the Boards of Revenue. But the Government may appoint any other qualified person to be Superintendent of Abkaree Revenue in any district or locality, and may vest such person with the charge of the Abkaree Revenue therein; and any person so appointed shall exercise in such district or locality all the powers and authority vested by this Act in the Collector of Land Revenue, and such powers and authority shall cease to be exercised in such district or locality by the Collector of Land Revenue during the continuance of such appointment.

III. The Government may also appoint a Commissioner or Commissioners for the superintendence of the Abkaree Revenue in any district or districts: and when such appointment is made, the Commissioner of Abkaree shall exercise within such district or districts the powers and authority vested by this Act in Commissioners of Revenue; and the Revenue Commissioner shall cease to exercise such powers and authority in the said district or districts during the continuance of such appointment.

IV. It shall be lawful for a Collector to make over any part of their duties to Deputy or Assistant Collectors. to any Deputy or Assistant Collector appointed under Regulation IX. 1833, all or any of the duties of a Collector under this Act, and to resume the same at his discretion. Provided that no Assistant Collector, who has not been invested by Government with the powers of a Deputy Collector, shall exercise any judicial power conferred on Collectors by this Act.

V. Collectors may appoint darogahs, jemadars, peons, surveyors, gaugers, and other officers, for the collection of the Abkaree Revenue, and for the prevention of smuggling; and the officers so appointed shall, in addition to their ordinary designations, be styled Abkaree Officers. In districts where there are tusseldars and mofussil establishments for the collection of the land revenue, the office of Abkaree darogah may be united with that of tusseldar; and in such cases the tusseldar and the subordinate officers of his establishment shall be held and deemed to be Abkaree Officers within the meaning of this Act.

VI. It shall not be lawful for any person to construct or work a distillery after the manner in which European distilleries not to be constructed or worked without license. distilleries are constructed and worked in Europe, without a license under the signature of the Collector of the district in which such distillery is situated, or in case the distillery is within twenty miles of Calcutta, or such other distance less than twenty miles as may from time to time be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, under the signature of the Collector of Calcutta.

VII. The Board of Revenue, with the sanction of Government, may prescribe such rules relative to the granting of licenses under the preceding Section, to the proprietor of a licensed distillery when he commences and discontinues work, to the size and description of the stills, to the passing and storing of the spirits, to the inspection and examination of the distillery and warehouses, and of the spirits manufactured and stored therein, and to the furnishing of statements and lists of such spirits, and of the stills, coppers, casks, and other utensils used in the distillery, as may from time to time be judged expedient; and such rules, when sanctioned by Government, shall have the force of law.

Board of Revenue to prescribe rules for regulating European distilleries.

Government may prescribe such rules relative to the granting of licenses under the preceding Section, to the proprietor of a licensed distillery when he commences and discontinues work, to the size and description of the stills, to the passing and storing of the spirits, to the inspection and examination of the distillery and warehouses, and of the spirits manufactured and stored therein, and to the furnishing of statements and lists of such spirits, and of the stills, coppers, casks, and other utensils used in the distillery, as may from time to time be judged expedient; and such rules, when sanctioned by Government, shall have the force of law.

VIII. A duty shall be levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the European method, at the rate of one rupee the imperial gallon London-proof, to be augmented or reduced in proportion to the strength of the spirit. No spirit shall be removed from any such distillery, or the warehouses connected therewith, upon which the aforesaid duty has not been paid, or for the duty chargeable on which a bond has not been executed as hereinafter provided; and for all spirits removed upon payment of duty or under bond, passes shall be issued by the Collector, which shall specify the quantity and strength of the spirit, the place of its destination, the person to whom it is consigned, and whether the duty has been paid or secured by bond.

Rate of duty to be levied on spirits.

IX. A drawback of the duty paid as above on spirits manufactured after the European method, and exported by sea, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, to any port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Straits of Malacca, shall be allowed by the Collector of Customs at the port of exportation. Provided always, that the exportation shall be made within one year from the date of the payment of duty under this Act, and that the spirits when brought to the Custom House shall be accompanied by the pass in which such payment is certified.

X. Spirits may be removed from any licensed distillery for exportation under bond.

Spirits may be removed for exportation under bond. of duty, under such rules and restrictions as may be from time to time prescribed by the Board of Revenue, on the person removing them executing a bond with security to the East India Company in the Form A hereunto annexed, for the payment of the prescribed duty upon such portion of the said spirits as may not be exported within four months from the date of the bond. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, on sufficient cause shown, to extend the period allowed for the exportation of the spirits for a further term of four months.

XI. Spirits intended for exportation by sea shall be gauged and proved, previous to shipment, by an Officer of the Customs. The amount of drawback to be allowed upon spirits for which duty has been paid shall be regulated according to the strength and quantity of the said spirits as ascertained by such proof and gauge; and the quantity of spirits brought for exportation under any bond shall be determined in the same manner. Spirits under bond shall be taken from the distillery direct to the Custom House Wharf under passes to be granted for that purpose by the Collector.

XII. When spirits are passed from a distillery under bond, duty shall be recoverable upon any difference between the quantity of spirits so passed from the distillery and the quantity ascertained by gauge and proof at the Custom House, less such allowance for ullage and leakage as may be prescribed by the Board of Revenue. If, upon proof at the Custom House, the strength of any spirits shall be found to be less than that at which they were passed from the distillery, as entered in the pass or invoice thereto annexed by the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, such spirits, with the cask in which they are contained, shall be liable to confiscation.

XIII. Spirits brought to the Custom House Wharf under bond for exportation may nevertheless be removed for local consumption, under passes to be granted for that purpose by the Collector of Revenue, upon payment of the prescribed duty of one rupee the imperial gallon London proof on the quantity so removed. Spirits so removed shall be treated on settlement of the bond in the same manner as if they had been exported by sea.

XIV. All sums due to Government under bonds executed according to the provisions of this Act may be recovered either by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the parties by whom the bonds are executed, or by suit on the bond against those parties in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

XV. Spirits intended for exportation by sea, either under bond or with claim to drawback, shall not be shipped from any place except the Custom House, or upon any vessel to which a Custom House officer has not been appointed to superintend the receipt of export cargo. All spirits put on board of any vessel, otherwise than as above directed, shall be treated as if passed for local consumption. If the duty on the said spirits has been paid, no drawback shall be allowed; and if the spirits have been passed from the distillery under bond, the duty chargeable thereon shall remain due upon the bond. Spirits shipped for exportation shall not be re-landed without a special pass from the Collector of Revenue, in addition to the usual order of the Collector of Customs.

XVI. No drawback shall be allowed on spirits exported to any port to which the operation of Section III. Act No. VI. of 1848 may extend, or upon spirits shipped as stores; nor shall spirits under bond be so exported or shipped without payment of the duty prescribed by this Act.

XVII. Rum shrub, cordials, and other liquors, prepared in a licensed distillery under the supervision of the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, shall be charged with duty according to the quantity of spirit used in the preparation; and all the provisions contained in this Act respecting spirits, except such as relate to gauge and proof, shall be applicable to such liquors. When any such liquors are removed for exportation without payment of duty, the bonds to be executed by the persons removing them shall be in the annexed Form B.

XVIII. All licensed distilleries constructed and worked after the European method, and situated within twenty miles of Calcutta or such other distance less than twenty miles as may from time to time be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall be under the superintendence and control of the Collector of Calcutta, who shall exercise, with respect to such distilleries and to the spirits manufactured therein, all the powers vested in Collectors by this Act; and the Collectors of districts in which any such distilleries are situated shall have no jurisdiction with respect to such distilleries, or to the spirits manufactured therein, except when any such spirits shall be passed out for local consumption in those districts.

XIX. Every person who shall construct or work, or collect materials for working a distillery after the European method, without a license from the Collector, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding one thousand rupees; and all spirits so manufactured, and all materials and implements collected for the purpose of such manufacture, shall be liable to confiscation.

shall pay for every such license the sum of sixteen rupees. The license shall be current only during the official year and in the district in which it is granted. But travelling merchants may obtain a general license, authorising them to sell by wholesale in any district which they may visit in the course of their travel, without taking out a fresh license for that district, under such rules and restrictions as may be from time to time prescribed by the Board of Revenue.

XXVI. Persons taking out licenses for the retail shall pay for every such license such fee or tax as may be fixed by the Board of Revenue, and such fee or tax shall be payable at such periods as the said Board may direct. Provided that such fee or tax shall be at such rate for each license as shall not exceed the total sum of one hundred rupees for the whole year. Any sale of spirituous or fermented liquors as aforesaid in less quantity than two imperial gallons, or one dozen of quart bottles, shall be held to be a retail sale.

or possession of fermented liquors contained in the following Sections of this Act shall be held applicable to the sale or possession of taree, whether in a fermented state or otherwise ; and all taree, both fresh and fermented, shall be held to be included in the expression "fermented liquors" as used in the following Sections of this Act.

XXIX. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for Proviso.

Government, on the report of the Board of Revenue, to pass an order suspending the operation of all the provisions relating to taree contained in this Act, with respect to any district in which the consumption of taree in a fermented state is inconsiderable ; and after the passing of any such order, it shall be lawful for taree to be possessed and sold without license in any such district, notwithstanding any thing contained in this Act.

XXX. The Collector, with the sanction of the Collectors may establish distilleries for country spirits.

Board of Revenue, may establish at any place within his jurisdiction a distillery in which spirits may be manufactured after the Native process ; and may from time to time fix limits within which no country spirits, except such as are manufactured at the said distillery, shall be introduced or sold without a special pass from the Collector, and within which no stills shall be constructed or worked, or spirits manufactured, except at the said distillery. He may also, with the like sanction, discontinue any distillery so established whenever its discontinuance may appear to be expedient.

XXXI. The Board of Revenue may prescribe such rules relative to the internal management of distilleries established as above, to the conditions on which spirits may be manufactured in the said distilleries, and to the passes to be issued for the conveyance of such spirits to the shops of the vendors, as may from time to time be judged expedient.

XXXII. The Board of Revenue may regulate the mode in which taree shall be supplied to licensed vendors of the same ; and may frame rules for the grant of licenses or passes to persons purchasing, transporting, or strong gunjah, bhang, or churrus for the supply of the licensed vendors of those drugs. They may also place the cultivation, preparation, and store of the intoxicating drugs abovementioned under such supervision as may be deemed necessary to secure the duty leviable thereon.

XXXIII. Opium shall be supplied to licensed vendors from the Government stores in such manner and at such prices as the Board of Revenue may direct ; and no other description of opium shall be sold by such vendors.

XXXIV. Except for the supply of licensed vendors, country spirits, taree, and puchwey, and intoxicating drugs shall not be sold in larger quantities than are hereunder specified—namely, country spirits one seer, taree, or puchwey four seers, gunjah or bhang, or any preparation or admixture of the same, one quarter of a seer, churrus or opium, or any preparation or admixture of the same, five tolahs weight ; and the sale of any such quantity as is herein allowed shall be deemed to be a retail sale within the meaning of this Act.

Sale of more than specified quantities of country spirits, &c. prohibited.

XXXV. Whenever a license for the retail sale of country spirits, taree, or puchwye, or intoxicating drugs shall be granted under this Act, the Collector shall be authorised to demand, in consideration of the privilege granted, such tax or duty, or a tax or duty adjusted on such principles as may from time to time be fixed with the sanction of the Board of Revenue; and such tax or duty shall be payable at such periods as the said Board may direct. The Collector may grant special licenses for the sale of unfermented taree, only at those periods of the year when the fresh juice is in request: fees may be demanded for such special licenses at a rate not exceeding one rupee for each license; and the vendors shall not be subject to any other tax or duty.

XXXVI. Persons taking out licenses for the retail sale of country spirits, taree, or puchwye, or intoxicating drugs, shall give such security for the performance of their engagements, or make such deposit in lieu of security, as the Collector may require.

XXXVII. Unless otherwise specially authorised by the Board of Revenue, licenses for retail sale as aforesaid shall be granted for the term of one year, and, if continued to the holders thereof, shall be formally renewed from year to year. But it shall be incumbent on every person holding a license, who may intend not to renew it, to give notice of his intention to the Collector fifteen days previous to the expiration of the year; and if such notice be not given, and the license be not recalled by the Collector, the license held and engagement entered into by every such person shall remain in force as if the said license and engagement had been formally renewed.

XXXVIII. The Board of Revenue shall have authority to regulate the form and conditions of all licenses granted under this Act; and every person taking out a license for the manufacture of country spirits, or for the retail sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, shall execute a counterpart engagement in exact conformity with the tenor of such license.

XXXIX. The Collector may recall any license granted under this Act if the tax or duty therein stipulated be not duly paid, or in case of a violation of any other condition thereof, or of the holder being convicted of a breach of the peace or any other criminal offence. If the Collector desire to recall a license for any cause other than those above specified, he shall give one month's previous notice, or make such compensation for default of notice as the Commissioner or Board of Revenue shall direct.

XL. Any licensed retail vendor may surrender his license on giving fifteen days previous notice to the Collector, and paying a sum equal to the tax for fifteen days over and above the sum payable under the license.

XLI. The Collector may recover any arrear of tax or duty due on account of any license granted under this Act, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person from whom the same is due or of his surety, or by any other process which is or may be in force for the recovery of arrears of revenue due from farmers of land or their sureties.

XLII. Every person licensed to manufacture country spirits, or to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, who shall refuse or be unable to produce his license on the demand of any Abkaree Officer, or who shall commit any act in breach of any of the conditions of his license not otherwise provided for in this Act, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding fifty rupees.

XLIII. Every licensed retail vendor, who shall sell any greater quantity of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs than is allowed to be sold by retail by the provisions of this Act, and every licensed wholesale vendor who shall make a retail sale, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

XLIV. Every person who shall convey or attempt to convey any country spirits from a distillery established under Section XXX. of this Act without a pass, or exceeding the quantity for which a pass shall have been granted, or shall introduce or attempt to introduce any country spirits manufactured at another place into the limits fixed for the consumption of spirits manufactured at such distillery, or shall wilfully contravene any rule prescribed by the Board of Revenue for the management of such distillery, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XLV. Every person other than a licensed manufacturer, who shall manufacture any country spirits, and every person other than a licensed vendor, or a person duly authorised to supply licensed vendors who shall sell any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, and every person authorised to supply licensed vendors, who shall sell any such liquors or drugs to any person other than a licensed vendor, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XLVI. Every person, other than a licensed manufacturer or vendor, or a person duly authorised to supply licensed vendors, who shall have in his possession any greater quantity of country spirits, or taree, or puchwye, or intoxicating drugs, except opium, than may legally be sold by retail under the provisions of Section XXXIV. of this Act, or shall transport by land or by water, or have in his possession any spirituous liquors made at a distillery worked according to the European method, or any imported spirituous or fermented liquors, in larger quantity than two gallons, without a pass from the Collector or other Officer duly empowered in that behalf, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees; and the liquors and drugs, together with the vessels, packages, and coverings in which they are found, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying them, shall be liable to confiscation. Provided Proviso. always, that nothing in this Section shall extend to any spirituous liquors, wines, or beer purchased by any person for his private use and not for sale.

XLVII. The provisions of the two last preceding Sections, so far as they relate to the sale and possession of fermented liquors, shall not be held applicable to the sale and possession of taree, the produce of the date tree, when supplied or used for the manufacture of goor or molasses; and the provisions of the said Sections relating to the sale and possession of intoxicating drugs shall not be held applicable to the sale and possession of gunjah or bhlang by cultivators which produce those drugs respectively. But such cultivators are prohibited from selling any gunjah or bhlang to any one other than a licensed vendor, or a person duly authorised to purchase by pass or license from the Collector; and every such cultivator who shall act in breach of this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XLVIII. Every person other than a licensed vendor, who shall have in his possession a greater quantity of opium than five tolahs weight, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees, unless the opium found in the possession of such person shall exceed the weight of thirty-one seers and a quarter, in which case the penalty may be increased at a rate not exceeding sixteen rupees the seer for all the opium so found in excess of that weight: and the opium, together with the vessels, packages, and coverings in which it is found, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying it, shall be liable to confiscation.

XLIX. Provided always, that nothing in the last Exception in favor of— preceding Section shall extend to the persons and circumstances hereinafter specified, namely—

1. Authorised opium cultivators having newly extracted opium in their possession during the usual period, between the full growth of the poppy and the delivery of the produce to the opium agent.

2. Travellers and visitants from foreign states or countries having in their possession any quantity of foreign opium not exceeding two seers, the produce of such states and countries, and intended for the private use of such travellers and visitants, or their attendants, and not for sale or traffic.

3. Dealers in horses travelling with strings of horses from beyond the South-West frontier of the territory under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces, and having in their possession opium, the produce of foreign states or countries, not exceeding in quantity the proportion of ten tolahs weight for each horse.

If opium be found in the possession of any traveller or visitant, or any dealer in horses as aforesaid, in excess of the quantities above specified, such excess shall be liable to confiscation, but the persons in whose possession it may be found shall not be subject to any further penalty.

L. Every licensed vendor who shall sell or offer for sale opium adulterated with any foreign substance, not being a preparation or admixture of opium for the sale of which such vendor may have taken out a license, or shall sell or have in his possession any opium other than the opium supplied to him from the Government stores, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees, the license held by him shall be withdrawn, and the opium, together with the vessels or packages in which it is found, shall be seized and confiscated.

LI. Every proprietor, farmer, tulseeldar, gomashita, or other manager of land, who shall authorise or connive at the manufacture of country spirits or the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs by any unlicensed person, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

LII. Any Abkaree Officer may enter and inspect at any time by day or by night the shop or premises in which any licensed manufacturer or retail vendor shall carry on the manufacture of country spirits, or the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs.

LIII. Any Abkaree Officer may stop and detain any person carrying any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs liable to confiscation under this Act, and may seize the liquors or drugs, with the vessels, packages, or coverings in which they are contained, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying them; and may also arrest the person in whose possession such liquors or drugs are found.

LIV. Any Abkaree Officer above the rank of a jemadar of peons may arrest any person having an unlicensed still in his possession, or engaged in the unlawful sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, and may seize such still with the materials for working it, and all such liquors and drugs.

LV. Whenever any Abkaree Officer above the rank of a jemadar of peons shall have good reason to believe from information given by any person, which information shall be taken down in writing, that spirits are unlawfully manufactured, or that any spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, liable to confiscation under this Act, are kept or concealed in any house, boat, or other place, such officer may, between sunrise and sunset, but always in the presence of a darogah or other Officer of Police not being under the grade of a jemadar, enter into any such house, boat, or place, and in case of resistance may break open any door, and force and remove any other obstacle to such entry; and may seize and carry away all stills and materials used in the manufacture of such spirits, and all such liquors and drugs; and may also arrest the owner or occupier of the house, boat, or place, with all other persons concerned in the manufacture of such spirits, or in the keeping and concealing of such liquors or drugs.

LVI. A Collector may issue his warrant for the search of any house, boat, or other place in which he may have good reason to believe, either from information given, or from his own knowledge, or from the proceedings in any other case, that spirits are unlawfully manufactured, or that spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, liable to confiscation under this Act, are kept or concealed, and such warrant may be executed by any Officer above the rank of a jemadar of peons in the manner prescribed in the last preceding Section.

LVII. The powers of seizure, search, and arrest given to Abkaree Officers by Sections LIII, LIV, and LV, of this Act shall, in regard to the seizure and search for contraband opium and the arrest of persons found in possession thereof, be vested also in the Officers of the Police and Revenue Departments according to their respective grades. And it shall further be lawful for the Government to invest the Officers of those Departments or of any of them, with the like powers with respect to the seizure of, and search for spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs of every description, and the arrest of persons found in possession of them; and all such Officers, when so empowered, as well as all Police and Revenue Officers when acting under the authority conferred by this Section for the suppression of illicit dealings in opium, shall be held and deemed to be Abkaree Officers within the meaning of this Act.

LVIII. Whenever an Abkaree Officer shall arrest any person, or seize any still or any liquors or drugs liable to confiscation under this Act, or enter any house, boat, or place, for the purpose of searching for any such illicit articles, he shall, within twenty-four hours thereafter, make a full report of all the particulars of such arrest, or seizure, or search, to his official superior, and shall carry the person arrested, or the illicit articles seized, with all convenient despatch, to the Collector for trial or adjudication.

Abkaree Officer to report every arrest, seizure, or search to his official superior, and to carry the person arrested, &c. to the Collector for trial, &c.

LIX. Every person who shall obstruct or molest any Abkaree Officer in the due execution of this Act, or of any rules prescribed under the authority thereof, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and shall be further liable, if an affray of breach of the peace shall happen in consequence of his resistance to such punishment as is prescribed by law for cases of affray or breach of the peace, in addition to the penalty herein prescribed for resistance of process.

arrested, or any illicit articles seized under this Act, shall forfeit for such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

LXIV. Any Abkaree Officer who shall unlawfully release or connive at the escape of any person arrested under this Act, or connive at the manufacture of spirits or the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs by any unlicensed person, or by any licensed person contrary to the terms of his license, or act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, for the purpose of enabling any person to do anything whereby any of the provisions of this Act may be evaded or broken, or the Abkaree Revenue defrauded; and any darogah of Police or other Officer invested with local jurisdiction, who shall authorise, countenance, or connive at the establishment of any unlicensed shop for the sale of such liquors or drugs as aforesaid in any place subject to his control, shall forfeit for such offence a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

LXV. Any Abkaree Officer who shall ask or take any gratuity not authorised by any law or order of Government or of the Board of Revenue, in consideration of doing or omitting to do any act in his official capacity, and any person who shall offer any bribe to any such Officer in order to induce him to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

LXVI. All forfeitures leviable from Abkaree and other Officers under Sections LXIII. and LXIV. shall be adjudged by the Collector, Magistrate, or other authority to whom such Officers shall be respectively subordinate; and all other forfeitures and penalties prescribed for offences against the provisions of this Act, except as herein otherwise provided, and all seizures of goods declared liable to confiscation under this Act, shall be adjudged by the Collector.

Adjudication of penalties and seizures.

LXVII. Complaints or informations of offences committed against the provisions of this Act shall be received on unstamped paper; but no such complaint or information shall be admitted unless it be preferred within the period of six months after the commission of the offence to which the complaint or information refers.

Time and mode of preferring complaints or information.

LXVIII. If from any complaint or information lodged before him, or from circumstances within his own knowledge, or the proceedings in any other case, a Collector has good reason to believe that any person has actually in his possession an illicit still, or any spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, liable to confiscation under this Act, he may issue his warrant for the arrest of the person believed to be in the possession of such illicit articles, or a warrant for search and arrest as provided in Section LVI. of this Act.

Collector may issue warrant of arrest in certain cases.

LXIX. In all other cases of complaint or information of offences against the provisions of this Act the cognizance whereof is vested in the Collector, that officer shall issue a summons requiring the attendance of the accused person on or before a certain day to be specified therein, and shall at the same time summon such witnesses as may be named by the informer or as he may judge it necessary to examine in proof of the accusation. If, on the summons being duly served, the accused person shall fail to attend, the Collector may issue a warrant for his apprehension.

If accused fail to attend, warrant may issue.

LXX. When an accused or suspected person shall be sent to the Collector by any Officer authorised to make arrests under this Act, or shall be apprehended on the warrant of the Collector, or shall attend in pursuance of summons, the Collector shall proceed to investigate the case with as little delay as possible. In the summoning and examination of witnesses, the Collector shall exercise the same powers which he is authorised to exercise when acting judicially in the trial of summary suits for rent. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition on oath or affirmation shall be held to be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law.

Mode of trial by Collector.

Penalty for false deposition.

LXXI. Whenever any person shall be convicted of any offence and sentenced to pay any penalty forfeited under this Act, in case of non-payment of the same, the Collector or other Officer by whom the forfeiture shall have been adjudged may issue his warrant for the distress and sale of any personal property belonging to the offender; and if no such property sufficient for the payment of the forfeiture be found, the Collector or other Officer may pass an order that the offender be imprisoned in the criminal jail for any period not exceeding one month if the offence of which he has been convicted is punishable under this Act with a pecuniary penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, for a period not exceeding three months if the limit of the penalty is two hundred rupees, and for a period not exceeding six months if the limit is any sum above two hundred rupees. Provided always, that if the offender declare his inability to pay the forfeiture, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Officer, at his discretion, to pass an order for such imprisonment as aforesaid, instead of issuing a warrant of distress and sale. Provided also, that the imprisonment prescribed by this Section shall be in addition to any other period of imprisonment to which the offender may be sentenced under the provisions of this Act.

Recovery of Penalty.

LXXII. Whenever any person shall be convicted of an offence against this Act, after having been previously convicted of a like offence, he shall be liable, in addition to the penalty attached to such offence, to imprisonment in the criminal jail for a period not exceeding six months; and a like punishment of imprisonment not exceeding six months shall be incurred, in addition to the punishment which may be inflicted for a first offence, upon every subsequent conviction after the second. The warrant of the Collector, or other Officer adjudicating any case under the provisions of this Act, shall be authority for the Magistrate or other person in charge of the criminal jail to hold the person described therein in confinement in such jail, and for such time as may be specified and required in the said warrant.

LXXIII. Whenever any person shall attend on summons, in consequence of a complaint or information exhibited against him of any offence committed against this Act, if it shall appear on investigation that the complaint or information originated in malice or in motives clearly vexatious and unwarrantable, the Collector or other Officer adjudicating the case may impose on the complainant or informant a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, which fine or any part thereof may on realization be paid to the party summoned, or may order such complainant or informant to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding fifteen days.

LXXIV. All goods and chattels adjudged to confiscation, except opium, shall be disposed of by the Collector by public sale. Opium seized and confiscated shall be sent for examination to the civil surgeon of the station, and, if declared by him to be fit for use, shall be transmitted to the Government factories, or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall direct. If declared to be unfit for use, it shall be immediately destroyed.

LXXV. One-half of all fines and forfeitures levied from persons convicted of the unlawful manufacture of spirits, or of the unlawful sale or possession of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drugs, and one-half of the proceeds from sale of all confiscated articles, except opium, and in the case of opium confiscated and declared by the civil surgeon to be fit for use, a reward of one rupee eight annas for each seer shall, upon adjudication of the case, be awarded to the Officer or Officers who apprehended the offender; and the other half of such fines and forfeitures and proceeds of sale, or in the case of opium as aforesaid, a reward of one rupee eight annas for each seer, shall be given to the informer. If the fine or forfeiture is not realized, the Board of Revenue may grant such reasonable reward, not exceeding the sum of two hundred rupees, as may seem to them fit; and the said Board may direct by general order what classes of Abkaree Officers shall receive rewards, and what classes shall have no title to share therein.

LXXVI. All fines and forfeitures levied under this Act, the disposal of which is not specially provided for, shall belong to Government; but the Board of Revenue may appropriate any portion thereof, not exceeding one-half, for rewarding informers, or for compensating persons subjected to annoyance or injury by any proceedings under this Act.

LXXVII. All orders and sentences passed by a Collector or other Officer under this Act shall be appealable in the usual manner under the laws and regulations in force relative to appeals from the orders of Collectors or of such other Officers. Provided always, that all orders passed by an Officer invested with the charge of the Abkaree Revenue shall be appealable to the Commissioner, in the same manner as if the orders were passed by a Collector.

LXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Collector, with the sanction of the Board of Revenue, to let in farm, for any period not exceeding five years, the duties leviable on the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, or any description of such liquors or drugs, except opium, in any pergunnah or other known division of a district.

LXXIX. The Board of Revenue may prescribe rules for the invitation and acceptance of tenders for such farms, and for the requisition of security for the due fulfilment of the engagements entered into by the farmers. The said Board may also regulate the form and conditions of lease; and any breach of those conditions shall render the lease liable to annulment.

LXXX. When the duties leviable on any of the articles above enumerated are let in farm, the farmer shall be at liberty to make his own arrangements with the manufacturers and vendors within the limits of his farm; and all the penalties and forfeitures prescribed by this Act for the unlawful manufacture, sale, or possession of any such article shall be incurred by all persons manufacturing, selling, or possessing the same without license or authority from the farmer.

LXXXI. Provided always, that every such farmer shall be required to file in the Collector's office a list of all the licenses granted by him in such form as may be prescribed by the Board of Revenue. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Collector, with the sanction of the said Board, before entering into engagements for any such farm, to make such reservations or restrictions with respect to the grant of licenses as may be deemed proper and expedient.

LXXXII. If a farm be cancelled for any cause other than a breach on the part of the farmer of the conditions of the lease, or if any reservation or restriction with respect to the grant of licenses be imposed within the period of the lease, the farmer shall be entitled to receive such compensation for any loss which he may sustain thereby as the Board of Revenue shall think just and proper.

LXXXIII. Compensation for losses to be granted to farmers in certain cases.

LXXXIV. Appeals from orders and sentences passed under this Act.

LXXXIII. The provisions of Section XII. of this Act shall be applicable to any arrear that may be due from any farmer of Abkaree revenue; and every such farmer shall be authorised and empowered to use the same means and processes for the recovery of any arrear of tax or duty due to him from any authorised vendor, which may be lawfully used by zemindars and farmers of land for the recovery of arrears of rent due to them from their undertenants.

LXXXIV. Within the limits of any military cantonment, and within a circle drawn at a distance of two miles, or such other distance as may in any case be prescribed by Government, from such limits, licenses for the manufacture of spirits and for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors shall not be granted, nor shall the duties leviable upon such spirits and liquors be let in farm, otherwise than with the knowledge and consent of the Commanding Officer; and upon the requisition of such Officer, any license which may have been granted either by the Collector or by a farmer within such circle or limits shall be immediately withdrawn.

Rules respecting the manufacture and sale of spirits, &c. in military cantonments.

Mode of making arrest or search within military cantonments.

that, when arrest or search is to be made within the limits of any cantonment, the Collector or other Officer authorised under this Act to make arrest or search shall, whenever it may be practicable, give previous notice to the Commanding Officer, and in all other cases shall report the arrest or search to such Commanding Officer with as little delay as possible. Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect or interfere with the provisions of Act No. XVIII. of 1853.

LXXXV. In all other respects the foregoing provisions of this Act shall have full force and effect within such circle and limits as aforesaid. Provided, however, that, when arrest or search is to be made within the limits of any cantonment, the Collector or other Officer authorised under this Act to make arrest or search shall, whenever it may be practicable, give previous notice to the Commanding Officer, and in all other cases shall report the arrest or search to such Commanding Officer with as little delay as possible. Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect or interfere with the provisions of Act No. XVIII. of 1853.

LXXXVI. In the districts in which the poppy is cultivated on account of Government, the Deputy Opium Agents and Sub-Deputy Agents shall exercise the powers vested by this Act in Collectors and Deputy Collectors, so far as the same relate to the suppression or punishment of illegal dealings in opium; and the Officers of the Opium Department shall exercise the powers vested by this Act in Abkaree Officers for the seizure of illicit opium and the arrest of persons found in possession thereof, and, in respect to such seizures and arrests shall be held and deemed to be Abkaree Officers within the meaning of this Act.

Powers vested in Officers of the Opium Department.

Proceedings of Officers of the Opium Department.

under this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Deputy Agents in the same manner as the proceedings of Deputy Collectors under Regulation IX. of 1833 are subject to the revision of the Collectors; and all orders and decisions of a Deputy Agent or Sub-Deputy Agent under this Act shall be appealable to the Commissioner, in the same manner as the orders and decisions of a Collector or Deputy Collector.

LXXXVII. The proceedings of Sub-Deputy Agents

under this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Deputy Agents in the same manner as the proceedings of Deputy Collectors under Regulation IX. of 1833 are subject to the revision of the Collectors; and all orders and decisions of a Deputy Agent or Sub-Deputy Agent under this Act shall be appealable to the Commissioner, in the same manner as the orders and decisions of a Collector or Deputy Collector.

LXXXVIII. Nothing in this Act relating to the grant of licenses for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs, and the recovery of arrears of tax or duty due under such licenses, to the illicit sale, carrying, or possession of spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs, and the penalties incurred thereby, and to the appointment, duties, and responsibilities of Abkaree Officers, shall extend to the Town of Calcutta; but the provisions of Act No. XI. of 1849 shall continue in full force and effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Provisions not applicable to the Town of Calcutta.

Saving of provisions of Act XI. 1849.

1849 shall continue in full force and effect as if this Act had not been passed.

LXXXIX. The following words and expressions in

Legislative Council.

16th February 1856.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 16th February 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 20th of May next:—

A Bill to provide for the Execution of Criminal Process in places out of the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the same.

Whereas, by Act No. VII. of 1854, certain provisions were made for the execution, in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of warrants of arrest issued by competent officers in any other parts thereof; and whereas it is expedient that similar means should be provided for the execution as aforesaid of all other criminal process issued as aforesaid; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Any criminal process whatever, including summonses, subpoenas, and search warrants, as well as warrants of arrest, issued by any Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the said territories, whether in the same Presidency or not, upon having a written authority, under the hand and seal of the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction it may be executed, previously endorsed thereon.

II. The Magistrate endorsing any process under this Act shall not be liable to any action or other proceeding in consequence of any illegality in the issuing of the process; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same shall be liable for any act in pursuance of the endorsement in the same manner, and to the same extent only, as if the process had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

III. The provisions of Act No. VII. of 1854, and of this Act, do and shall extend and apply to any warrant or other process of any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, which shall be executed within those limits.

Provided that, if a Magistrate having jurisdiction within those limits shall object to endorse any warrant or other process on account of any apparent defect therein or for any other cause, he shall refer such warrant or other process to a Judge of the Supreme Court, who shall deal therewith according to the provisions of Act No. XXIII. of 1840.

IV. The word "Magistrate," as used in this Act, includes a Joint Magistrate, or any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also a Justice of the Peace.

II. A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

III. Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged, in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter without exception which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta, and addressed to Hooghly, is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office, and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

IV. The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters not only imposes much labour upon them, but, in large Offices, seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A Register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

Camp, 7th November 1855.

(Signed) H. B. RIDDELL,

“ A BILL TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO BILLS OF LADING.”—Murathee.

खाली लिहिलेला आकटाचा मसुदा सन १८५५ चे डिसेंबर महिन्याचे १ ले तारिखेस लेजिस्लेटिव कौन्सिलांत दुसरे वेळीं वाचून सिलेवट कमिटीकडे सोंपला, ती कमिटी येत्या मार्च महिन्याचे ५ वे तारिखेनंतर त्या मसुद्याविषयी रिपोर्ट करणार आहे :—

मालाचे सतमीचे पाठीवर शेरा लिहिल्याने व्यापारीलोकांचे चालीप्रमाणे ती दुसऱ्याचे नावावर करिता येते यामुळे, जाचे नावाचा शेरा लिहिला असेल त्याकडे मालाचें स्वामित्व जाऊं शकतें. परंतु सतमीतील करारासंबंधी सर्व हक्क मुळचे माल चढविणाराकडे, किंवा मालकाकडे राहातात, आणि सदरहू प्रकारचे उक्त स्वामित्वाबरोबर जावे हें योग्य आहे यास्तव; आणि मालाचे सतमीवर सही झालेली असते तो माल तर गलबतावर चढविलेला नसतो असेही वारंवार घडतें यास्तव; आणि वास्तविक रितीने सदरहू प्रेभाराची सतमी जाजवळ ऐवजावडल असल्याची त्याचे हातीं ती असताना तीवर सहीकरणारे मास्तराने, किंवा इतर मनुष्याने सदरहू प्रमाणे माल गलबतावर न चढल्याचे सबवेवरून तिचे खरेपणाविषयी संशय घेऊं नये हें योग्य आहे यास्तव; खाली लिहिल्या प्रमाणे ठरविलें आहे :—

१. माल सोंपलेले मनुष्याचें नाव सतमींत लिहिलें असेल त्याकडे, आणि सतमीचे पाठीवर जाचे नावें शेरा लिहिला असेल त्याकडे सदरहू प्रमाणे सोंपल्यावरून, किंवा शेरा लिहिल्यावरून सतमींत लिहिलेले मालाचें स्वामित्व जातें त्या मनुष्याकडे फिर्दाद करण्याचे सर्व हक्क जातात असें समजावें; आणि सतमींत लिहिलेला करार त्या बरोबरच केला असता तर, सदरहू प्रकारचे मालाविषयी त्यावर जोखीम असतें तें जोखीम त्यावर आहे असें समजावें.

सतमीवरून मिळालेले हक्क माल सोंपलेले मनुष्यास, किंवा जाचे नावें सतमीचे पाठीवर शेरा लिहिला असेल त्यास मिळतात त्याविषयी.

२. वाटेंत माल जात असतां तो अटकाविण्याचे हक्कास; किंवा मुळचे माल चढविणारावर, किंवा मालकावर नोरावडल दावा करण्याचे हक्कास; अथवा माल सोंपलेला मनुष्य, किंवा सतमीचे पाठीवर नाव लिहिलेला मनुष्य, सदरहू प्रमाणे माल सोंपलेला मनुष्य किंवा सतमींत नाव लिहिलेला मनुष्य आहे या सबवेने, अथवा सदरहू प्रमाणे माल सोंपल्यामुळे, किंवा सतमीचे पाठीवर शेरा लिहिल्यामुळे, त्याणे माल घेतल्याचे सबवेने व्यावरील जोखिमास या आकटातील कोणतेही ठरावावरून व्यत्यय, किंवा बाध येतो असें समजूं नये.

वाटेंत माल जात असतां तो अटकाविण्याचे हक्कास, किंवा नोरावडलचे दाव्यास व्यत्यय येतो असें समजूं नये त्याविषयी.

३. माल सोंपलेले मनुष्याचे हातीं, किंवा सतमीचे पाठीवर नाव लिहिलेले मनुष्याचे हातीं ऐवजाचे बदली सतमी असेल, आणि तारवावर माल चढविल्याचें त्या सतमींत लिहिलें असेल ती सतमी, सदरहू प्रकारचा माल किंवा त्याचा काहीं भाग तारवावर चढविला नसेल तथापि, सदरहू प्रमाणे माल चढविल्याविषयी खात्रीचा पुरावा मास्तरावर, किंवा त्या सतमीवर सही करणारे इतर मनुष्यावर आहे असें समजावें. परंतु सतमी जाजवळ असेल त्या मनुष्यास माल तारवावर चढविलाच नाही अशी सतमी पांचतेवेळीं वास्तविक सुचना झाली असेल तर सदरहू प्रमाणे समजूं नये. असें ठरविलें आहे कीं तफावत आहे ती माझा चुकीने झाली नाही, आणि माल चढविणाराने, किंवा सतमीचे मालकाने, किंवा सतमीचा मालक जाचे संबंधाने दावा करितो त्या मनुष्याने दगा केल्यामुळेच ती सर्व तफावत झाली आहे असें मास्तराने, किंवा सतमीवर सही करणारे इतर मनुष्याने शाबीत केलें असतां, सदरहू प्रकारचे तफावतीचें जोखीम त्यावरून नाही असें होईल.

माल सोंपलेला मनुष्य वगैरेचे हातीं सतमी असेल ती माल चढविल्याबद्दल मास्तर वगैरेवर खात्रीचा पुरावा आहे त्याविषयी.
