POST OFFICE NOTICES.

Notice is hereby given, that under instructions from the Government of India, letters posted in Bombay cannot be received for transmission by the Government Expresses despatched hence to Calcutta and Madras on the arrival of the Overland Mails, those Expresses being specially intended for Europe letters and intelligence.

Bombay, General Post Office, 4th March 1846.

It is hereby notified for general information, that letters addressed to any of the settlements to the Eastward via Point De Galle, and forwarded in a ship's bag to Colombo or Point De Galle, instead of through the Post Office, cannot be despatched, unless on payment there of the Colonial and British Packet postage due thereon.

Bombay Genl. Post Office, 7th September 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that the General Post Office will in future be strictly closed on Sundays, except from 6 to 10 A. M. for the delivery of letters, and from 4 to 6 P. M. for the receipt and despatch of letters, or except on the arrival of the Overland Mail.

The receiving house at Byculla will henceforth be strictly closed on Sundays.

Bombay General Post Office, 23rd October 1846.

Notice is hereby given, that no letters or papers addressed to places in Scinde will be forwarded by sea to Kurrachee unless marked "per Ship or Steamer".- Letters and papers not so marked will be forwarded by land charged with inland postage.

Bombay, General Post Office, 9th February 1847.
With the view to prevent disappointment, parties who are in the practice of calling at the Post Office, or of sending for their Overland letters, are reminded that section XXIV of the Post Office rules of 30th August 1837 will be strictly enforced in future; and that no bearing letters will be delivered, except on payment of the Postage. Bombay General Post Office, 8th March 1847

The following extract from the new Post office ordinance recently passed at the Mauritius, is published for general information.

powers vested in them by the Charter of Justice, framed divers wholesome rules of procedure by which causes at law of a certain amount have been enabled to be brought before the

Judges sitting as a Small Cause Court in a simple and economic manner, to the great benefit of suitors and to, the advancement of justice, and it is expedient that the jurisdiction thus exercised should be extended and should include certain causes in Equity and other matters wherein the ends of justice require summary procedure

And whereas the powers of the Judges do not extend And whereas the powers of the Judges to not extend to the framing of rules by which the parties to a suit at law may be made examinable, or be compelled to give discovery on oath as in suits in Equity, and it is expe-dient that such powers should be conferred, and that a dient that such powers should be conferred, and that a uniform procedure should be framed for the elicitation of the truth in all cases according to the methods which have been found most efficacious in practice.

And whereas it is very desirable that the rules of procedure should enable causes whether at Law or in Equity which do not require a prolouged judicial investigation to be disposed of summarily, and that on the other hand the amplest means should exist for
