PREFACE.

MORE than thirty years have elapsed since the first Gazetteer of Saharanpur was written by Mr. E. T. Atkinson. The work was based mainly on the old settlement reports, notes by Mr. G. R. Williams, and many of the volumes noted on the following page. Since the publication of Mr. Atkinson's book the district has undergone great changes, especially as regards the growth of population, the development of roads, railways and canals, and the assessment of the land revenue. In compiling the new edition I have had the advantage of the Settlement Report of Mr. L. A. S. Porter, a work of much value; and I must also express my grateful thanks to Mr. G. A. Tweedy and Mr. H. C. Ferard for the many notes furnished on various subjects.
