THE PANDAL—A BIRD'S EYE VIEW.

FOREWORD.

---

A word of apology is necessary for the late appearance of the report. It was due to several factors over which the Reception Committee had no control, the chief one being the non-receipt of corrected copies of speeches from the speakers themselves in time. The severe outbreak of Malarial fever in Delhi in September last also delayed the work of printing for a long time.

Every attempt has been made to make the report as complete and accurate as possible. The Urdu and Hindi speeches were reported by Lala Ram Dayal Vidyarthi of Meerut as a labour of love and the translations have been made as faithfully as possible. No Urdu shorthand reporter being available the speeches may not have been reported quite verbatim but it is hoped that their purport has been as fully and faithfully represented as the circumstances would permit.

In publishing the list of delegates I have omitted the date and place of election, the name of the electorate and certain unnecessary informations which merely burdened the list without serving any useful purpose. The list of electorates however will be found as a separate appendix. It is possible that there may be some mistakes in connection with the names and addresses but they are mostly due to illegible and incomplete forms. It is hoped that the delegates would be able to correct any such mistakes.

The thanks of the Reception Committee are due to Lala Ram Dayal Vidyarthi for kindly helping it out of the difficulty in the nick of time and in helping to make the report more complete and readable.

In conclusion, I must acknowledge with grateful thanks the assistance I have received from various workers in the national cause and particularly from Mr. Manohar Lal, B.A., LL.B., Vakil, Joint Secretary, but for whose assistance it would have been impossible to bring out the report in so complete a form.

4th December, }
1919. }

S. N. BOSE,
General Secretary.
