IN offering to the public a Second Edition of the Speeches of LORD ERSKINE, which were selected for this work, the Publishers take the opportunity of adding to that selection, the Speeches in behalf of Hadfield, the Rev. G. Markham, and the Honourable Richard Bingham. These will be found to contain some of the finest specimens of Lord Erskine's eloquence; and the Publishers persuade themselves that little apology is necessary for making that which will, it is confidently expected, be deemed a valuable addition to the selection which has been already placed before the public.
