HURST & BLACKETT’S

NEW PUBLICATIONS.
MESSRS. HURST AND BLACKETT'S
LIST OF NEW WORKS.

ROYAL WINDSOR. By W. HEPWORTH DIXON.

Royal Windsor follows in the same lines as 'Her Majesty's Tower,' and aims at weaving a series of popular sketches of striking events which centre round Windsor Castle. Mr. Dixon makes everything vivid and picturesque. Those who liked 'Her Majesty's Tower' will find these volumes equally pleasant reading."—Athenaeum.

"A truly fine and interesting book. It is a valuable contribution to English history; worthy of Mr. Dixon's fame; worthy of its grand subject."—Morning Post.

"Mr. Dixon has supplied us with a highly entertaining book. 'Royal Windsor' is eminently a popular work, bristling with anecdotes and amusing sketches of historical characters. It is carefully written, and is exceedingly pleasant reading. The story of old Windsor Hall page can be found in this book. Dickens often quoted this tale in his work."—Daily News.

"These volumes will find favour with the widest circle of readers. From the first days of Norman Windsor to the Plantagenet period Mr. Dixon tells the story of this famous castle in his own picturesqueness, bright, and vigorous way."—Daily Telegraph.

Mr. Hepworth Dixon has found a congenial subject in 'Royal Windsor.' Under the sanction of the Queen, he has enjoyed exceptional opportunities of most searching and complete investigation of the Royal House and every other part of Windsor Castle, in and out, above ground and below ground."—Daily News.

VOLS. III. AND IV. OF ROYAL WINDSOR. By W. HEPWORTH DIXON. Demy 8vo. 30s. Completing the Work. (Just Ready.)

DIARY OF A TOUR IN SWEDEN, NORWAY, AND RUSSIA, IN 1827. By THE MARCHIONESS OF WESTMINSTER.

1 vol. Demy 8vo. 15s.

"A bright and lively record. So pleasantly are the letters written which Lady Westminster sent home, so full are they of the enthusiasm and good humour which enabled her to appreciate the sunny, and endure the cloudy, side of her wanderings, that her book is most agreeable; and it has this special merit, that it brings clearly before us a number of the greatest people of former days, royal and imperial personages, whose intimate acquaintance the traveller's rank enabled her to make."—Athenaeum.

"A very agreeable and instructive volume."—Saturday Review.

"We recommend Lady Westminster's diary to all classes of readers as a highly instructive book of interesting travel, replete with graphic sketches of social life and scenery, and abounding in many entertaining anecdotes. It is written throughout with excellent taste and good sense."—Court Journal.

"The public have to thank the authors for putting in their hands a work so full of interesting matter."—Globe.
HOLIDAYS IN EASTERN FRANCE; Sketches of Travel in CHAMPAGNE, FRANCHE-COMTE, the JURA, the VALLEY of the DOUBS, &c. By M. BETHAM-EDWARDS, Author of "A Winter with the Swallows," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. With Illustrations. 15s.

"Miss Edwards passed her holidays last summer in visiting a singularly interesting and beautiful country. Her present volume, written in the same pleasant style as that which described her wanderings in Western France, is so much the more to be recommended that its contents are fresher and more novel."—Saturday Review. "Readers of this work will find plenty of fresh information about some of the most delightful parts of France. The descriptions of scenery are as graphic as the sketches of character are lifelike."—Globe. "The tourist could not have a pleasanter companion than this pretty book, and its well laid out itineraries."—Graphic. "A book of some value, full of pleasant light reading, and containing a good deal of information."—Academy.

"M. Wiesener is to be complimented on the completeness, accuracy, and research shown in this work. He has drawn largely on the French Archives, the Public Record Office, and British Museum, for information contained in original documents, to some of which notice is directed for the first time. M. Wiesener's work is well worth translating, for it is most interesting as showing the education and circumstances which tended to form the character of that extraordinary queen. Miss Yonge appears to have successfully accomplished the task which she has undertaken."—Athenaeum. "An excellent and interesting book. M. Wiesener has worked conscientiously and carefully from original sources."—Academy.

"M. Wiesener's volumes are a valuable contribution to an interesting chapter of our history, and we cordially thank Miss Yonge for introducing them in an English dress to a wider circle of readers."—Examiner.

LONDONIANA: By EDWARD WALFORD, M.A., Author of "The County Families," &c. 2 volumes crown 8vo. 21s.

"A highly interesting and entertaining book. It bristles with anecdotes and amusing sketches. The style is vivid, graphic, and dramatic, and the descriptions are given with a terseness and vigour that rivet the attention of the reader. The historian, the antiquarian, and the lover of romance will combine in pronouncing 'Londoniana' one of the most readable books of the day."—Court Journal. "There is variety and amusement in Mr. Walford's volumes."—Pall Mall Gazette. "These volumes are interesting and entertaining."—John Bull.

RORAIMA AND BRITISH GUIANA, with a Glance at Bermuda, the West Indies, and the Spanish Main. By J. W. BODDAM-WHETHAM. 8vo. With Map and Illustrations. 15s.

"The author has succeeded in producing an interesting and readable book of travels. His remarks on every-day life in the tropics, his notes on the geography and natural history of the countries he visited, and, above all, his vivid descriptions of scenery, combine to form a record of adventure which in attractiveness it will not be easy to surpass."—Athenaeum. "Mr. Whetham writes with vigour, and describes the life in the forests and on the rivers and prairies of South America with a picturesque and freshness of interest not inferior to that of the late Mr. Waterton's immortal wanderings. Mr. Whetham travelled in portions of Guiana little known, meeting with many adventures, seeing many strange sights, and taking notes which have furnished matter for a book of fascinating interest."—Daily News.

"A singularly attractive volume. Altogether one of the most enjoyable books of travel we have had this season."—Graphic.
CONVERSATIONS WITH DISTINGUISHED PERSONS during the Second Empire, from 1860 to 1863. By the Late NASSAU W. SENIOR. Edited by his Daughter, M. C. M. SIMPSON. 2 vols. 8vo. 30s.

CONVERSATIONS WITH M. THIERS, M. GUIZOT, and other Distinguished Persons, during the Second Empire. By the Late NASSAU W. SENIOR. Edited by his Daughter, M. C. M. SIMPSON. 2 vols. demy 8vo. 30s.

Among other persons whose conversations are recorded in these volumes are King Leopold; the Due de Broglie; Lord Cowley, Counts Arravane, Corelle, Daru, Flahaut, Kergoley, Montalembert; Generale Lamoriciere and Chrzanski; Sir Henry Ellis; Messieurs Amapro, Beaumont, Blanchard, Boufflet, Auguste Chevaular, Victor Cousin, De Witt, Duchieil, Dupertiaux, Dumon, Du pard, Devroyer de Haurnan, Leon Favier, Fra Frere, Grimald, Guizot, Lafitte, Labaume, Lamartine, Lanjumais, Maillo, Mann, Merimee, Mignet, Jules Mohl, Montanelli, Oudinon-Barrot, Quetelet, Remusat, Rogier, Rivet, Rosset, Horace Say, Thiers, Troadje-Chatrel, Villemain, Wolowski; M. James Cirecourt, Cornu, Eustor &c.

"This new series of Mr. Senior's 'Conversations' has been for some years past known in manuscript to his more intimate friends, and it has always been felt that no former series would prove more valuable or important. Mr. Senior had a social position which gave him admission into the best literary and political circles of Paris. He was a cultivated and sensible man, who knew how to make full advantage of such an opening. And above all, he had by long practice so trained his memory as to enable it to recall all the substance, and often the words, of the long conversations which he was always holding. These conversations he wrote down with surprising accuracy, and then handed the manuscript to his friends, that they might correct or modify his report of what they had said. This book thus contains the opinions of eminent men given in the freedom of conversation, and afterwards carefully revised. Of their value there cannot be a question. The book is one of permanent historical interest. There is scarcely a page without some memorable statement by some memorable man. Politics and society and literature—the three great interests that make up life—are all discussed in turn, and there is no discussion which is unproductive of weighty thought or striking fact."—

"The present selection of Mr. Senior's Journals, edited with remarkable skill and judgment by Mrs. Simpson, is extraordinarily full and interesting. Although the unreserved and original communications of Thiers are especially fascinating, the book would be abundantly interesting if it consisted only of the reports of conversations with Guizot, Montalembert, Cousin, Lamartine, and other persons of celebrity and eminence."—Saturday Review

"These conversations extend from the year 1832 to 1860, and will be found to refer to some of the most interesting public events of our time—the Revolution of 1848, the Cremne War, the French Alliance, the attempt on the life of Louis Napoleon, the Indian Mutiny, and the Italian campaign of 1859. Besides these great public occurrences of European celebrity, we have many very curious and piquant anecdotes of a private character, and expressions of opinion on men and things by persons of eminence. All that is said in these volumes of France, England, and Russia, is of interest now as it was first uttered."—Standard.

ROUND THE WORLD IN SIX MONTHS. By LIEUT.-COLONEL E. S. BRIDGES, Grenadier Guards. 1 vol 8vo. 15s.

"The author may be congratulated on his success, for his pages are light and pleasant. The volume will be found both amusing and useful."—Athenzeum.

"Colonel Bridges' book has the merit of being lively and readable. His advice to future travellers as well as his estimate of expenses may be found serviceable."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"A thoroughly interesting and amusing book, as full of solid matter as pleasant anecdote. We have not met a truer picture of American, Japanese, Chinese, Indian, Egyptian, or Maltese scenery and surroundings."—Court Journal.

"In two handsome volumes Mr. Dixon here gives us the first instalment of a new historical work on a most attractive subject. The book is in many respects a favourable specimen of Mr. Dixon's powers. It is the most painstaking and elaborate that he has yet written. . . . On the whole, we may say that the book is one which will sustain the reputation of its author as a writer of great power and versatility, that it gives a new aspect to many an old subject, and presents in a very striking light some of the most recent discoveries in English history."—

"These concluding volumes of Mr Dixon's 'History of two Queens' will be perused with keen interest by thousands of readers. Whilst no less valuable to the student, they will be far more enthralling to the general reader than the earlier half of the history. Every page of what may be termed Anne Boleyn's story affords a happy illustration of the author's vivid and picturesque style. The work should be found in every library."—Post.

"Mr Dixon has pre-eminently the art of interesting his readers. He has produced a narrative of considerable value, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and written with power and picturesque effect."—Daily News.

"Mr Dixon's 'William Penn' is, perhaps, the best of his books. He has now revised and issued it with the addition of much fresh matter. It is now offered in a sumptuous volume, matching with Mr. Dixon's recent books, to a new generation of readers, who will thank Mr. Dixon for his interesting and instructive memoir of one of the worthies of England."—Examiner.

FREE RUSSIA. By W. HEPWORTH DIXON. Third Edition. 2 vols. 8vo, with Coloured Illustrations. 30s.

"Mr Dixon's book will be certain not only to interest but to please its readers and it deserves to do so. It contains a great deal that is worthy of attention, and is likely to produce a very useful effect."—Saturday Review.

"A lively, interesting, and altogether novel book on Switzerland. It is full of valuable information on social, political, and ecclesiastical questions, and, like all Mr. Dixon's books, is eminently readable."—Daily News.

MEMOIRS OF GEORGIANA, LADY CHATTERTON; With some Passages from her Diary. By E. HENEGHAN DERING. 1 vol. demy 8vo. 15s.

Among other persons mentioned in this work are Lorda Lansdowne, Brougham, Macaulay, Lytton, Houghton, Messrs. Wilberforce, Wordsworth, Hallam, Rogers, Moore, Sydney Smith, Landor, Lockhart, Fosblandqua, Warburton, Harnett, Chantrey; Count Montalembert, Dr. Ullathorne, Dr. Newman, Joanna Baillie, Lady Gifford, Lady Cork, Mrs. Somerville, Mrs. Norton, &c.

"Lady Chatterton's Diary gives a sketch of society during a well-known but ever-interesting period. Mr. Dering may be congratulated on having furnished a graceful epilogue to the story of an interesting life."—Allgemeine.

"In this work we have the pleasant picture of a literary artist and an amiable lady, and some interesting anecdotes which give value to the volume."—John Bull.

"In this agreeable volume Mr. Dering has succeeded in bringing before us in vivid colours the portrait of a very remarkable, talented, and excellent lady. Her Diary is full of charming reminiscences."—The Tablet.

"This is, in many respects, a remarkable book. It records the life, work, aspirations, and death of a schoolmaster and poet, of lowly birth but high-strung and ambitious soul. His writings brim with vivid thought, keen analysis of feeling, touches of poetic sentiment, and trenchant criticism of men and books, expressed in scholarly language."—Guardian.

"Mrs. Craik has related a beautiful and pathetic story—a story of faith and courage and untiring energy on the part of a young and gifted man, who, under other circumstances, must have won a place in literature. The story is one worth reading."— Pall Mall Gazette.

"In these volumes a well-known novelist presents us with a history so touching, so marvellous, and so ample, as no invention could produce. Few more pathetic or more instructive volumes have fallen in our way."—Morning Post.

"We strongly recommend our readers to procure this charming book, not only because it is a gem of beautiful writing, showing the finished style and gracefull heart of the talented authoress, but because the subject matter in itself is of absorbing interest."—Church Review.

THE THEATRE FRANCAIS IN THE REIGN OF LOUIS XV. By ALEXANDER BAILLIE COCHRANE, M.P. 1 vol. demy 8vo. 15s.

"We sincerely hope Mr. Cochrane's book will meet with the popular reception it merits. It is a most valuable contribution to dramatic literature. All members of the profession should read it."—Morning Post.

"In this handsome volume Mr. Cochrane gives us a new work on a most attractive subject, which will be perused with keen interest by thousands of readers. It is written in a style singularly vivid, dramatic, and interesting. The variety of scenes described in this pleasant volume, the historical personages and dramatic artists crowded on the canvas, and the truthful account of the French stage, form an intellectual treat of the highest order. 'The Theatre Francais' will take its place among the best standard works of the day, and find its way into every well-selected library, fully sustaining the reputation of its skilful author."—Court Journal.

HISTORIC CHATEAUX: BLOIS, FONTAINEBLEAU, VINCENNES. By ALEXANDER BAILLIE COCHRANE, M.P. 1 vol. 8vo. 15s.

"A very interesting volume."—James.

A lively and agreeable book, full of action and colour."—Allgemeine.

"This book is bright, pleasant reading."—British Quarterly Review.

"A most valuable addition to the historical works of the time. It is full of life and colour."—Morning Post.

"A well executed book by a polished and vigorous writer."—The World.
VOLS. I. & II. OF HER MAJESTY’S TOWER.
By W. HEPWORTH DIXON. DEDICATED BY EXPRESS PERMISSION TO THE QUEEN. Sixth Edition. 8vo. 30s.

FROM THE TIMES:—"All the civilized world—English, Continental, and American—take an interest in the Tower of London. It is upon which has been enacted some of the grandest dramas and saddest tragedies in our national annals. If, in imagination, we take our stand on those time-worn walls, and let century after century hit past us, we shall see in due succession the majority of the most famous men and lovely women of England in the olden time. We shall see them feasting, yeaasting, love-making, plotting, and then anon, perhaps, commending their souls to God in the presence of a hideous masked figure, bearing an axe in his hands. It is such pictures as these that Mr. Dixon, with considerable skill as an historical limner, has set before us in these volumes. Mr. Dixon dashes off the scenes of Tower history with great spirit. His descriptions are given with such terseness and vigour that we should spoil them by any attempt at condensation. In conclusion, we may congratulate the author on this work. Both volumes are decidedly attractive, and throw much light on our national history."

VOLS. III. & IV. OF HER MAJESTY’S TOWER.
By W. HEPWORTH DIXON. DEDICATED BY EXPRESS PERMISSION TO THE QUEEN. Completing the Work. Third Edition. Demy 8vo. 30s.

"These volumes are two galleries of richly painted portraits of the noblest men and most brilliant women, besides others, commemorated by English history. The grand old Royal Keep, palace and prison by turns, is revivified in these volumes, which close the narrative, extending from the era of Sir John Eiot, who saw Raleigh die in Palace Yard, to that of Thistlewood, the last prisoner incarcerated in the Tower. Few works are given to us, in these days, so abundant in originality and research as Mr. Dixon's."—Standard.

"Two volumes of very attractive matter:—letters which illustrate agriculture, commerce, war, love, and social manners, accounts of passing public events, and details which are not to be found in the Gazettes, and which come with singular freshness from private letters."—Athenæum.

"Two agreeable and important volumes. They deserve to be placed on library shelves with Pepys, Evelyn, and Rawesby."—Notes and Queries.

"In the interests of history a publication such as the present is of almost inestimable value. Every historical student ought to make himself acquainted with these two very delightful volumes."

"Mr. St. John has given us in these pages a record of all that was seen and done in a very successful visit. His book is instructive, and it should be interesting to the general reader."—Times

"Mr. St. John is a shrewd and lively writer. The reader will find ample variety in his book, which is well worth perusal."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"These volumes are amusing, interesting, and even valuable. They give us a very clear idea of the great quarrel between British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada; and they contain a full report of Lord Dufferin's great speech at Victoria. There are some graphic sketches of social life and scenery, and some entertaining stories."—Spectator.
CELEBRITIES I HAVE KNOWN. By Lord WILLIAM PITT LENNOX. Second Series. 2 volumes demy 8vo. 30s.

Among other persons mentioned in the Second Series of this work are—The Princess Charlotte and Prince Leopold, the Dukes of Wellington and Beaufort; the Earls of Durham and Carlisle; Lords Byron, Clyde, Adolphus Fitzclarences, and Cockburn; Sirs Walter Scott, G. Wombwell, A. Barnard, John Eley, Sidney, Derry, and C. Dodd; Count D'Orsay; Countess Moore, Theodore Hook, Leigh Hunt, Jordan, James, Horace, and Albert Smith, Beazley, Tattersall, Hudson, Uda, George Colman, The Kembles, G. F. Cooke, Charles Young, Edmund and Charles Keen, Yates, Harley, Miss Foote; Mrs. Nisbet; Madame Catalani, Grasman, Rachel, &c.

"This new series of Lord William Lennox's reminiscences is fully as entertaining as the preceding one. Lord William makes good use of an excellent memory, and he writes easily and pleasantly"—Pall Mall Gazette.

"One of the best books of the season. Pleasant anecdotes, exciting episodes, smart sayings, witticisms, and repartees are to be found on every page."—Court Journal.

COACHING; WITH ANECDOTES OF THE ROAD. By LORD WILLIAM PITT LENNOX, Author of "Celebrities I have Known," &c. Dedicated to His Grace the Duke of Beaufort, K.G., President, and the Members of the Coaching Club. 1 vol. demy 8vo. 15s.

"Lord William's book is genial, discursive, and gossipy. We are indebted to the author's personal recollections for some lively stories, and pleasant sketches of some of the more famous dragmen. Nor does Lord William by any means limit himself to the English roads, and English coaches. Bussian's Irish cars, the continental diligences, with anecdotes of His Grace of Wellington, when Lord William was acting as his aide-de-camp during the occupation of Paris, 'Lord, Mazarin, matters more or less germane to his subject, are all brought in more or less naturally. Altogether his volume, with the variety of its contents, will be found pleasant reading."—Pall Mall Gazette.

LIFE OF MOSCHELES; WITH SELECTIONS FROM HIS DIARIES AND CORRESPONDENCE. By His Wife. 2 vols. large post 8vo, with Portrait. 21s.

"The life of Moscheles will be a valuable book of reference for the musical historian, for the contents extend over a period of three-score years, commencing with 1794, and ending at 1870. We need scarcely state that all the portions of Moscheles' diary which refer to his intercourse with Beethoven, Hummel, Weber, Czerny, Spontini, Rossini, Auber, Halévy, Schumann, Cherubini, Spohr, Mendelssohn, F. David, Chopin, J. B. Cramer Cienantu, John Field, Habeneck, Hauptmann, Kalkbrenner, Kaseweiter, G. Klengemann, Lablache, Dragonetti, Sonntag, Persiani, Malibran, Paganini, Rachel, Ronzi de Begrus, De Beross, Ernst, Donizetti, Gounod, Damoreau, Cheirard, Bochsa, Laporan, Charles Kemble, Patton (Mrs Wood), Schroder-Devrient, Mrs Siddons, Sir H. Bishop, Sir G. Smart, Staudigl, Thalberg, Berlioz, Vellut, C. Young, Balta, Graham, and many other artists of note in their time, will recall a flood of recollections. It was a delicate task for Madame Moscheles to select from the diaries in reference to living persons, but her extracts have been judiciously made. Moscheles writes fairly of what is called the 'Muse of the Future' and its disciple, and his judgments on Herr Wagner, Dr. Liszt, Rubenstein, Dr. von Bülow, Liszt, &c., whether as composers or executants, are in a liberal spirit. He recognizes cheerfully the talents of our native artists, Sir Stern- dale Bennett, Mr. Macfarren, Madame Arabella Goddard, Mr. John Barnett, Mr. Hullah, Mrs. Shaw, Mr. A. Sullivan, &c. The celebrities with whom Moscheles came in contact, include Sir Walter Scott, Sir Robert Peel, the late Duke of Cambridge, the Bunsens, Louis Philippe, Napoleon the Third, Humboldt, Henry Heine, Thomas More, Count Nesselrode, the Duchess of Orleans, Prof. Wolf, &c. Indeed, the two volumes are full of amusing anecdotes."—Athenaeum.

WORDS OF HOPE AND COMFORT TO THOSE IN SORROW. Dedicated by Permission to THE QUEEN.
Fourth Edition. 1 vol. small 4to, 5s. bound.

“These letters, the work of a pure and devout spirit, deserve to find many readers. They are greatly superior to the average of what is called religious literature.”—Atheneum.

The writer of the tenderly-conceived letters in this volume was Mrs Julius Hare, a sister of Mr Maurice. They are written with the devout submissiveness and fine sympathy which we associate with the name of Maurice; but in her there is added a winningness of tact, and sometimes, too, a directness of language, which we hardly find even in the brother. The letters were privately printed and circulated, and were found to be the source of much comfort, which they cannot fail to afford now as surviving ones. A sweetly-conceived memorial poem, bearing the well-known initials, ‘E. H. P.’, gives a very faithful outline of the life.”—British Quarterly Review.

“This touching and most comforting work is dedicated to THE QUEEN, who took a gracious interest in its first appearance, when printed for private circulation, and found it, in its pages, and has now commanded its publication, that the world in general may profit by it. A more practical and heart-stirring appeal to the afflicted we have never examined.”—Standard.

A MAN OF OTHER DAYS: Recollections of the MARQUIS DE BEAUREGARD. Edited, from the French, by CHARLOTTE M. YORGE. Author of “The Heir of Redclyffe,” &c. 2 vols. 21s.

“M. Costa de Beauregard lived long enough to see the last years of the Monarchy, the Revolution, and the early promise of General Bonaparte. The opening chapters of the work introduce us to Paris society at the time when it was perhaps the most brilliant, and it is amusing to accompany our hero to Mme Geoffrin’s salon, where Marmontel, Rochestoucaud, Greuze, Diderot, and many others, discourse literature, art, and philosophy.”—Saturday Review.

OUR BISHOPS AND DEANS. By the Rev. F. ARNOLD, B.A., late of Christ Church, Oxford. 2 vols. 8vo. 30s.

LIFE OF THE RT. HON. SPENCER PERCEVAL;
Including His Correspondence. By His Grandson, SPENCER WALPOLE. 2 vols. 8vo. With Portrait. 30s.

“This biography will take rank, as a faithful reflection of the statesman and his period, as also for its philosophical, logical, and dramatic completeness.”—Post.

MY YOUTH, BY SEA AND LAND, FROM 1809 TO 1816. By CHARLES LOFTUS, formerly of the Royal Navy, late of the Coldstream Guards. 2 vols. crown 8vo. 21s.

“Major Loftus played the part allotted to him with honour and ability, and he relates the story of his sea life with spirit and vigour. Some of his sea stories are as laudable as ‘Peter Simple,’ while many of his adventures on shore remind us of Charles Lever in his freshest days. During his sea life Major Loftus became acquainted with many distinguished persons. Besides the Duke of Wellington, the Prince Regent, and William IV., he was brought into personal relation with the allied Sovereigns, the Due D’Angoulême, Lord William Bentick, and Sir Hudson Lowe. A more genial, pleasant, wholesome book we have not often read.”—Standard.

LODGE'S PEERAGE
AND BARONETAGE,
CORRECTED BY THE NOBILITY.

THE FORTY-NINTH EDITION FOR 1880 IS NOW READY.

Lodge's Peerage and Baronetage is acknowledged to be the most complete, as well as the most elegant, work of the kind. As an established and authentic authority on all questions respecting the family histories, honours, and connections of the titled aristocracy, no work has ever stood so high. It is published under the especial patronage of Her Majesty, and is annually corrected throughout, from the personal communications of the Nobility. It is the only work of its class in which, the type being kept constantly standing, every correction is made in its proper place to the date of publication, an advantage which gives it supremacy over all its competitors. Independently of its full and authentic information respecting the existing Peers and Baronets of the realm, the most sedulous attention is given in its pages to the collateral branches of the various noble families, and the names of many thousand individuals are introduced, which do not appear in other records of the titled aristocracy, hence its typography and binding, the work is justly entitled to the place it occupies on the tables of Her Majesty and the Nobility.

"This work is the most perfect and elaborate record of the living and recently deceased members of the Peerage of the Three Kingdoms as it stands at this day. It is a most useful publication. We are happy to bear testimony to the fact that scrupulous accuracy is a distinguishing feature of this book."—Times.

"Lodge's Peerage must supersede all other works of the kind, for two reasons: first, it is on a better plan; and secondly, it is better executed. We can safely pronounce it to be the readiest, the most useful, and exactest of modern works on the subject."—Spectator.

"A work of great value. It is the most faithful record we possess of the aristocracy of the day."—Post.

"The best existing, and, we believe, the best possible Peerage. It is the standard authority on the subject."—Standard.
1. SAM SLICK'S NATURE AND HUMAN NATURE.

"The first volume of Messrs. Hurst and Blackett's Standard Library of Cheap Editions forms a very good beginning to what will doubtless be a very successful undertaking. Nature and Human Nature is one of the best of Sam Slick’s witty and humorous productions, and is well entitled to the large circulation which it cannot fail to obtain in its present convenient and cheap shape. The volume combines with the great recommendations of a clear, bold type, and good paper, the lesser but attractive merits of being well illustrated and elegantly bound."—Post.

2. JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN.

"This is a very good and a very interesting work. It is designed to trace the career from boyhood to age of a perfect man—a Christian gentleman, and it abounds incident both well and happily wrought. Throughout it is conceived in a high spirit, and written with great ability. This cheap and handsome new edition is worthy to pass from hand to hand as a gift book in many households."—Examiner.

3. THE CRESCENT AND THE CROSS.

BY ELIOT WARBURTON.

"Independent of its value as an original narrative, and its useful and interesting information, this work is remarkable for the colouring power and play of fancy with which its descriptions are enlivened. Among its greatest and most lasting charms is its reverent and serious spirit."—Quarterly Review.

4. NATHALIE. By JULIA KAVANAGH.

"Nathalie" is Miss Kavanagh's best imaginative effort. Its manner is gracious and attractive. Its matter is good. A sentiment, a tenor, are commanded by her which are as individual as they are elegant."—Athenæum.

5. A WOMAN'S THOUGHTS ABOUT WOMEN.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

"A book of sound counsel. It is one of the most sensible works of its kind, well-written, true-hearted, and altogether practical. Whoever wishes to give advice to a young lady may thank the author for means of doing so."—Examiner.

6. ADAM GRAEME. By MRS. OLIPHANT.

"A story awakening genuine emotions of interest and delight by its admirable pictures of Scotch life and scenery. The author seizes before us the essential attributes of Christian virtue, with a delicacy, power, and truth which can hardly be surpassed."—Post.

7. SAM SLICK'S WISE SAWS AND MODERN INSTANCES.

"The reputation of this book will stand as long as that of Scott's or Bulwer's Novels. Its remarkable originality and happy descriptions of American life still continue the subject of universal admiration."—Messager.

8. CARDINAL WISEMAN'S RECOLLECTIONS OF THE LAST FOUR POPES.

"A picturesque book on Rome and its ecclesiastical sovereigns, by an eloquent Roman Catholic. Cardinal Wiseman has treated a special subject with so much gentleness, that his recollections will excite no ill-feeling in those who are most conscientiously opposed to every idea of human infallibility represented in Papal domination."—Athenæum.

9. A LIFE FOR A LIFE.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

"In 'A Life for a Life' the author is fortunate in a good subject, and has produced a work of strong effect."—Athenæum.
10. THE OLD COURT SUBURB. By LEIGH HUNT.

"A delightful book, that will be welcome to all readers, and most welcome to those who have a love for the best kinds of reading."—Examiner.

11. MARGARET AND HER BRIDESMAIDS.

"We recommend all who are in search of a fascinating novel to read this work for themselves. They will find it well worth their while. There is a freshness and originality about it quite charming."—Athenæum.

12. THE OLD JUDGE. By SAM SLICK.

"The publications included in this Library have all been of good quality; many give information while they entertain, and of that class the book before us is a specimen. The manner in which the Cheap Editions forming the series is produced, deserves especial mention. The paper and print are unexceptionable; there is a steel engraving in each volume, and the outsiders of them will satisfy the purchaser who likes to see books in handsome uniform."—Examiner.

13. DARIEN. By ELIOT WARBURTON.

"This last production of the author of 'The Crescent and the Cross' has the same elements of a very wide popularity. It will please its thousands."—Globe.

14. FAMILY ROMANCE.

BY SIR BERNARD BURKE, ULSTER KING OF ARMS.

"It was impossible to praise too highly this most interesting book."—Standard.

15. THE LAIRD OF NORLAW. By MRS. OLIPHANT.

"The 'Laird of Norlaw' fully sustains the author's high reputation."—Sunday Times.

16. THE ENGLISHWOMAN IN ITALY.

"Mrs. Gretton's book is interesting, and full of opportune instruction."—Times.

17. NOTHING NEW.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

"Nothing New' displays all those superior merits which have made 'John Halifax' one of the most popular works of the day."—Post.

18. FREER'S LIFE OF JEANNE D'ALBRET.

"Nothing can be more interesting than Miss Freer's story of the life of Jeanne D'Albret, and the narrative is as trustworthy as it is attractive."—Post.

19. THE VALLEY OF A HUNDRED FIRES.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "MARGARET AND HER BRIDESMAIDS."

"If asked to classify this work, we should give it a place between 'John Halifax' and 'The Caxtons.'"—Standard.

20. THE ROMANCE OF THE FORUM.

BY PETER BURKE, SERGEANT AT LAW.

"A work of singular interest, which can never fail to charm."—Illustrated News.

21. ADELE. By JULIA KAVANAGH.

"'Adele' is the best work we have read by Miss Kavanagh; it is a charming story full of delicate character-painting."—Athenæum.

22. STUDIES FROM LIFE.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

"These 'Studies from Life' are remarkable for graphic power and observation. The book will not diminish the reputation of the accomplished author."—Saturday Review.

23. GRANDMOTHER'S MONEY.

"We recommend 'Grandmother's Money' to readers in search of a good novel. The characters are true to human nature, and the story is interesting."—Athenæum.
24. A BOOK ABOUT DOCTORS.
BY J. C. JEFFRESON.
“A delightful book.”—Athenæum.  “A book to be read and re-read; fit for the study as well as the drawing-room table and the circulating library.”—Lawes.

25. NO CHURCH.
BY THE AUTHOR OF “JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN.”
“With all who have the opportunity to read this book.”—Athenæum.

26. MISTRESS AND MAID.
“Lost and Saved’ will be read with eager interest. It is a vigorous novel.”—Times.  “A novel of rare excellence. It is Mrs. Norton’s best prose work.”—Examiner.

27. LES MISÉRABLES.
BY VICTOR HUGO.
AUTHORISED COPYRIGHT ENGLISH TRANSLATION.
“The merits of Les Misérables do not merely consist in the conception of it as a whole; it abounds with details of unequalled beauty. M. Victor Hugo has stamped upon every page the hallmark of genius.”—Quarterly Review.

28. BARBARA’S HISTORY.
BY AMELIA B. EDWARDS.
“A charming and charming book, with a well-managed story, clearly-cut characters, and sentiments expressed with an exquisite eloquence. It is a book which the world will like.”—Times.

29. ST. OLA VE’S.
“Surely the work of one who possesses a great talent for writing, as well as experience and knowledge of the world.”—Athenæum.

30. LIFE OF THE REV. EDWARD IRVING.
BY MRS. OLIPHANT.
“A touching memoir.”—Times.  “A truly interesting and most affecting memoir. Irving’s Life ought to have a niche in every gallery of religious biography. There are few lives that will be fuller of instruction, interest, and consolation.”—Saturday Review.

31. SAM SLICK’S AMERICAN HUMOUR.
“Dip where you will into this lottery of fun, you are sure to draw out a prize.”—Post.

32. CHRISTIAN’S MISTAKE.
“Christian’s Mistake’ a novel without a facsim.”—Times.

33. ALEC FORRES OF HOWGLEN.
BY GEORGE MAC DONALD, LL.D.
“No account of the story would give any idea of the profound interest that pervades the work from the first page to the last.”—Athenæum.

34. AGNES.
BY MRS. OLIPHANT.
“A novel superior to any of Mrs. Oliphant’s former works.”—Athenæum.  “A story whose pathetic beauty will appeal irresistibly to all readers.”—Post.

35. A NOBLE LIFE.
BY THE AUTHOR OF “JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN.”
