section 122.

5. For section 122 of the said Act there shall be substituted the following :

“(1) Surplus moneys at the credit of the Municipal Fund which cannot immediately or at an early date be applied to the purposes of this Act or of any loan raised thereunder may be, from time to time, deposited at interest in the Bank of Bombay or be invested in public securities.

“(2) All such surplus moneys which it is necessary to keep readily available for application to such purposes, and all such surplus moneys which cannot, in the opinion of the Municipal Commissioner, concurred in by the Standing Committee, be favourably deposited or invested as aforesaid, may be deposited at interest at any Bank or Banks in the City of Bombay which the Standing Committee may, subject to the control of the Corporation, from time to time, select for the purpose.

“(3) All such deposits and investments shall be made by the Commissioner on behalf of the Corporation, with the sanction of the Standing Committee, and, with the like sanction, the Commissioner may, at any time, withdraw any deposit so made or dispose of any securities and re-deposit or re-invest the money so withdrawn or the proceeds of the disposal of such securities; but no order for making any deposit or investment, withdrawal or disposal under this section shall have any validity unless the same be in writing, signed by the Commissioner and one Member of the Standing Committee and the Municipal Secretary.

“(4) The loss, if any, arising from any such deposit or investment shall be debited to the Municipal Fund.”

BOMBAY ACT No. II OF 1894.

An Act to amend the law in force in the Peint Territory in the Bombay Presidency.

The assent of the Governor General of India to this Act was published by the Governor of Bombay on the 20th December 1894.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the law in force in the territory of Peint, to which the Secretary of State for India, by a Resolution in Council bearing date the 14th day of July 1885, declared the provisions of the Statute 33 Victoria, chapter 3, section 1, to be applicable, should be the same as the law in force in the district of Násik and that the said territory should cease to be a Scheduled District under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874: And whereas the previous sanction of His Excellency the Governor General required by section 5 of the Indian Councils Act, 1892, has been obtained for the passing of this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Peint Laws Act, 1894, and it shall come into force on the first day of January 1895.
2. Notwithstanding anything in the definition of "Scheduled Districts" in section 1 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, the territory of Peint shall not be deemed to be a Scheduled District within the meaning of that Act. Amendment of Act XIV, 1874, as to territory of Peint.
3. All enactments which are in force in the district of Násik and not in the territory of Peint shall come into force in the said territory. Application of laws of Násik to territory of Peint.

[Price—Half Anna.]

Repeal of other laws. 4. All enactments which are in force in the said territory of Peint and not in the district of Násik shall be repealed in the said territory.

Pending proceedings. 5. All proceedings commenced before any authority in the said territory before the day on which this Act comes into force and still pending on that day shall be disposed of by such authority as the Governor in Council may direct, and save as aforesaid shall be carried on as if this Act had not been passed.

BOMBAY ACT No. I OF 1894.

An Act to further amend the law relating to the Municipal Government of the City of Bombay.

(The assent of the Governor General of India to this Act was published by the Governor of Bombay on the 30th January 1894.)

111 1888

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, in manner hereinafter appearing;

It is enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as "The City of Bombay Municipal Act Amendment Act, 1893." Short title.
