PREFACE

WE may as well forestall the obvious criticism that this little book is not "constructive." It is not intended to supply a plan of reconstruction. For such a plan, in considerable detail, the reader is referred to the works advertised in the final pages; and particularly to A Constitution for the Socialist Commonwealth of Great Britain, and, on another plane, The Prevention of Destitution; or, in the form of a political programme, the pamphlet of the British Labour Party, Labour and the New Social Order (33 Eccleston Square, London. Price Threepence).

We gratefully acknowledge the help of various friends, who will excuse the omission of their names. But we cannot refrain from expressing our deepest gratitude to our oldest friend and comrade, Mr. Bernard Shaw, who kindly undertook the revision of the proofs in the midst of a General Election when we were otherwise engaged.

41 GROSVENOR ROAD,
WESTMINSTER, January 1923.

[The opportunity of a Second Impression has been taken to correct various verbal and literal errors, principally in the quotations and references.]

THE END

The Fabian Society

25 Tothill Street, Westminster, London, S.W.1.

Founded 1883.

THOSE willing to join the Labour Party, or desirous of obtaining information about its Programme and Principles, are invited to communicate with the Secretary of the Fabian Society.

The Fabian Society has been, from the outset, a constituent body of the Labour Party; and membership of the Society carries with it full membership of the Labour Party, eligibility for nomination to all Conferences and Offices, and qualification for Labour Party candidatures for Parliament and Local Authorities, without obligation to belong to any other organisation.

The Society welcomes as members any persons, men or women, wherever resident, who subscribe to its Basis, and who will co-operate in its work according to their opportunities.

The Society includes :—

- I. Members, who must sign the Basis and be elected by the Committee. Their Subscriptions are not fixed; each is expected to subscribe annually according to his means. They control the Society through the Executive Committee (elected annually by ballot through a postal vote), and at its annual and other business meetings.
- II. Associates, who sign a form expressing only general sympathy with the objects of the Society, and pay not less than 10s. a year. They can attend all except the exclusively members' meetings, but have no control over the Society and its policy.
- III. Subscribers, who must pay at least 5s. a year, and who can attend the Society's Ordinary Lectures.

The monthly paper, Fabian News, and the Tracts from time to time published in the well-known Fabian Series, are posted to all these classes. There are convenient Common Rooms, where light refreshments can be obtained, with an extensive library for the free use of members only.

Among the Society's activities (in which it places its services unreservedly at the disposal of the Labour Party and the Local Labour Parties all over the country, the Trade Unions and Trades Councils, and all other Labour and Socialist organisations) may be mentioned :

- (i.) Free lectures by its members and officers ;
- (ii.) The well-known Fabian Book-boxes, each containing about three dozen of the best books on Economics, Politics and Social Problems, which can be obtained by any organisation of men or women for 15s. per annum, covering an exchange of books every three months ;
- (iii.) Answers to Questions from Members of Local Authorities and others on legal, technical or political matters of Local Government, etc. ;
- (iv.) Special subscription courses of lectures on new developments in thought ;
- (v.) Economic and social investigation and research, and publication of the results.

Lists of Publications, Annual Report, Form of Application as Member or Associate, and any other information can be obtained on application personally or by letter to the Secretary at the above address.

The History of Liquor Licensing in England. Small 8vo.
2s. 6d. net.

These works present a complete systematic analysis of the Local Government of England and Wales from the seventeenth to the nineteenth—continued in some cases to the twentieth—century. Drawn largely from the unpublished manuscript records of the Justices, the Vestries and Parish Officers, the Manorial Courts and Municipal Corporations, the Courts of Sewers, Turnpike Trusts and Improvement Commissioners, they afford a new view of the past two hundred and fifty years of the history of the English people, with an inspiring vision of the development of social organisation, out of which has grown the Local Government of To-day.

“Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webb’s monumental work on our local institutions must be a source at once of pride, and of something a little like shame. Here at last we have a book which is more than worthy to be placed beside those of the great continental writers on the subject. . . . If it be literature to present a singularly vivid picture of a past stage of society, to render it real and lifelike by a careful selection and skilful grouping of illustrative details, and to explain its meaning with clearness, sound judgment and not infrequent touches of quiet humour, then assuredly is this volume literary as well as learned.”—Standard.

“Without exaggeration it may be said that this work will necessitate the rewriting of English history. . . . A history of the English people, more comprehensive in its survey of social affairs and more truly human in its sympathies than any treatise hitherto given to the public.”—Daily News.

OTHER WORKS BY SIDNEY AND BEATRICE WEBB.

ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

Grants in Aid: A Criticism and a Proposal. By SIDNEY WEBB. Demy 8vo. Pages viii and 145. New and revised Edition, 1920. 7s. 6d. net.

The only monograph on this important subject, affecting every Local Government Official and Councillor, and every Ratepayer.

English Poor Law Policy. Demy 8vo. Pages xv and 379. 7s. 6d. net.

The "Missing Link" in histories of the Poor Law—an analysis of the successive transformations of the policy of the Government and the Guardians since the "Principles of 1834."

The State and the Doctor. Demy 8vo. Pages xiii and 276. 6s. net.

An examination of the extent to which sickness was, in 1908, already dealt with by the State, and the lines on which reform may proceed.

The Break-up of the Poor Law. Demy 8vo. Pages xvii and 601. 7s. 6d. net.

The Minority Report of the Poor Law Commission. An impressive detailed description of the actual administration of every phase of the Poor Law; with a full description of the policy now adopted by the Government for the Abolition of the Poor Law, and the Supersession of the Boards of Guardians by the Local Health, Education, Lunacy, Pension, and Unemployment Authorities.

The Public Organisation of the Labour Market. Demy 8vo. Pages xiii and 345. 5s. net.

A description and an attempted solution of the Problem of Unemployment and the Unemployed. The authors here present, not only an exhaustive and detailed description of the facts of Unemployment, but also a carefully-worked-out plan by which they believe that Unemployment can (apart from sporadic cases) be not merely relieved but actually prevented from occurring.

The Prevention of Destitution. Demy 8vo. Pages xvi and 348. 10s. 6d. net.

A comprehensive and practical programme of how it can be done, as soon as the nation chooses.

OTHER WORKS BY SIDNEY AND BEATRICE WEBB.

ON INDUSTRIAL AND SOCIAL ORGANISATION.

The Consumers' Co-operative Movement. Demy 8vo.

Pages xv and 504. 1921. 18s. net.

The Co-operative Movement in Great Britain now enrolls three-sevenths of all the families; supplied, in 1920, goods and services to the value of more than £250,000,000; furnishes one-seventh of all the food we eat; directs a capital exceeding £100,000,000; and is growing very much faster than the population. It is an extraordinary example of successful business administration by the manual-working class. This book describes in detail the organisation and activities of this characteristically British "Socialism"; analyses its achievements and specifies its defects and shortcomings; recounts the story of its recent political transformation, and seeks to forecast its future.

A Constitution for the Socialist Commonwealth of Great Britain. Demy 8vo. Pages xviii and 364. 1920.

12s. 6d. net.

What is here presented is more than a Constitution (though as a practicable and characteristically British scheme for Parliamentary and Local Government reform it may receive the attention of Statesmen and students). It is more even than a fully-worked-out plan for Nationalisation and Municipalisation, with "workers' control." With its proposals for the development of the Co-operative Movement, for the reorganisation of the Vocational World, and for the co-ordination of all factors, from the Crown to the Works Committee, it sets forth a complete Socialist Commonwealth.

Industrial Democracy. Demy 8vo. Pages xxxix and 899.

New and revised Edition, with New Introductory Chapter.

1920. 21s. net.

This comprehensive and critical analysis of every phase of Trade Union theory and practice has stood the test of a quarter of a century's searching examination by employers, workmen and economists. The questions so often put—Is Trade Unionism a good thing or a bad? Is it an economic success? What effect does it have on prices and profits?—are answered in this volume.

"A permanent and invaluable contribution to the sum of human knowledge. . . . We commend to the public a book which is a monument of research and full of candour. . . . Indispensable to every publicist and politician."—Times.

The History of Trade Unionism. Revised Edition. Enlarged and extended to 1920. Demy 8vo. Pages xv and

784. 21s. net.

This is practically a new work, having been nearly doubled in size in order to bring the story down to 1920. Whilst the whole history from the middle of the seventeenth century has been revised, the volume now sets forth the recent dramatic progress of Labour, notably during the last thirty years, the revolution that is occurring in thought, the Coal and Railway struggles, the controversy as to Direct Action, and the rise of the Labour Party.

No fewer than 19,000 copies of a special edition were bought by the Trades Unionists in December 1919, before publication. "Read what the workmen are reading."

"A masterly piece of work."—Times.

"To the politician . . . an invaluable guide."—Observer.

"Undoubtedly marked by the qualities of true history—fullness, accuracy—and clear connection in the presentation of facts."—Newcastle Chronicle.
