

461

INDIAN CURRENCY COMMISSION

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-000461

A REVIEW OF THE PRINCIPAL EVIDENCE RECORDED
DURING THE FIRST SESSION

BY D. E. WACHA

REPRINTED FROM THE "BOMBAY CHRONICLE"

PRINTED BY A. P. BREWIN AT THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE PRESS, MEADOWS STREET,
FORT, BOMBAY, AND PUBLISHED BY D. E. WACHA, HORNBY ROAD, FORT, BOMBAY.

1913

X61.2.N12f:9

E3

461

PREFATORY NOTE.

THIS brochure contains in a collected form the series of articles which I recently contributed, from the Indian point of view, to the columns of the Bombay Chronicle, reviewing and commenting on the evidence of some of the typical witnesses, official and non-official, examined by the Royal Commission on Indian Currency in London during its first Session.

D. E. WACHA.

December, 1913.

CONTENTS:

INDIAN CURRENCY COMMISSION.—	PAGE.
I.—Composition of the Commission, Character of Witnesses and Nature of Evidence	1
II.—Early History of Cash Balances and the Bank of Bombay ..	4
III.—Wise Financial Statesmanship of the Government	7
IV.—Unwisdom of Presidency Banks in making their Bank Rate Dependent on Government Operations	12
V.—Trade should be left to Depend on its own Financial Resources	15
VI.—The Fundamental Facts on which the State Cash Balances are Regulated	20
VII.—Government cannot Undertake without Grave Danger to Finance, Trade and Commerce while Financing the Administration of the Country	23
VIII.—Mr. Lionel Abrahams' Views on the Advantages and Disadvantages of a State Bank	27
IX.—Mr. Abrahams' able and striking Evidence.. .. .	32
X.—Causes of Recent Monetary Stringency and other Cognate Matters	36
XI.—Ample Justification of the Policy regarding Cash Balances laid down by the Indian Government	40
XII.—The Witnesses Examined—Their Triangular Character—Valuable Evidence of an ex-Governor of the Bank of England	44
XIII.—Some Anglo-Indian Illusions dispelled by Mr. Cole—Condemnation of the way of Lending Monies at the India Office	48
XIV.—Mr. Webb—our Currency Athanasius and the strongest Accuser of the Indian Government	54
XV.—Mr. Webb's Change of Opinion as to Silver and Gold ..	58
XVI.—How long may a Gold Currency remain Stable in Gold using Countries?	64

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
XVII.—Mr. Moreton Frewen on the Drain of Gold to India ..	68
XVIII.—Absolute Artificiality of Indian Currency and therefore of Exchange	72
XIX.—The Disquisition on "Specie Point"—Exchange Difficulty still Unsolved	75
XX.—The Currency Policy of the Government has been a Chapter of Colossal Blunders since 1893—Fallacy touching Subordination of Indian Interests to Lombard Street	79
XXI.—Strong Views of the Exchange Banks—a non possumus as to a State Bank and a Gold Mint	85
XXII.—Evidence of Typical Witnesses representing the Anglo—Indian Mercantile Community	90
XXIII.—Evidence of Typical Witnesses—(contd.)	93
XXIV.—Concluding Observations	100
Expansion of Banking	106
Why not a New Bank ?	110
