

४७३५

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-008039

THE BUSINESS OF FINANCE

WORKS BY HARTLEY WITHERS

Editor of "THE ECONOMIST."

"Numerous instances of the Wisdom of Withers, culled from a ripe experience and put into literary shape by a trenchant, and occasionally caustic, pen."—
The Financial News.

Uniform with this volume

WAR-TIME FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Second Impression.

THE BUSINESS OF FINANCE

Third Impression.

THE MEANING OF MONEY

Twenty-first Impression.

STOCKS AND SHARES

Seventh Impression.

MONEY CHANGING

Fifth Impression.

WAR AND LOMBARD STREET

Fourth Impression.

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

Third Impression.

POVERTY AND WASTE

Third Impression.

BAGEHOT'S LOMBARD STREET

Third Impression.

---

OUR MONEY AND THE STATE

Second Impression. 3s. 6d. net.

---

LONDON : JOHN MURRAY.

---

THE CASE FOR CAPITALISM

7s. net.

---

LONDON : EVELEIGH NASH CO., LTD.

THE BUSINESS OF FINANCE

BY
HARTLEY WITHERS

For hath not nature furnisht man with wit and valour, and as it were with armour, which may bee used as well unto extreame evill as good?—RICHARD HOOKER, Ecclesiastical Politie.

LONDON
JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET, W.

1920

X6

FO

First Edition . . . August, 1918

Reprinted . . . October, 1918

Reprinted . . . June, 1920

8039

All rights reserved

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTORY

	PAGE
Progress about to begin—The Effort needed—The Position of Finance—The Problem to be dealt with—The Work of Finance—The Objects and Ideals to be aimed at . . . . .	1

CHAPTER II

THE PROVISION OF CURRENCY

Currency and Money—Precious Metals—Bills of Exchange—Bank Notes—Government Notes—Cheques—The manufacture of the Cheque Currency—The "Quantity Theory"—Responsibility of Bankers for Inflation—The Regulation of Currency Issue—Suggested Demonetization of Gold . . . . .	23
---	----

CHAPTER III

CREDIT

How provided—A Bank Balance Sheet—Loans and Advances—Bills of Exchange—Acceptance—Loans to Stockbrokers—Investments by Banks—Credit and Production—Regulation of Demand—The Bankers' Responsibility . . . . .	63
---	----

CONTENTS

CHAPTER IV

CAPITAL

	PAGE
Distinguished from Credit—How Produced—Finance and Capital—The Public's Delusions—Attacks on Capital—Embittered by bad War Finance—Capital's Justification—Its past Misdeeds—Collective control of Capital—Working Men Capitalists . . . . .	80

CHAPTER V

COMPANY CAPITAL

The Public and its Investments—The Obscurities of a Balance Sheet—The Education of the Public—Responsibility of Finance . . . . .	107
---	-----

CHAPTER VI

THE MANUFACTURE AND MARKETING OF SECURITIES

Prospectuses—Freedom and its Drawbacks—The Forms of Securities—The Market—The Issue of Securities—Government Control—Is Speculation Wicked? . . . . .	133
---	-----

CHAPTER VII

INTERNATIONAL CURRENCY

Bills of Exchange—Based on Goods and Services exported—Visible and Invisible Exports—Rates of Exchange—Finance Bills—Gold Movements—The Gold Exchange Standard—International Bank Notes . . . . .	155
---	-----

CONTENTS

vii

CHAPTER VIII

INVESTMENT ABROAD

	PAGE
Obstacles after the War—Its Effects—How affected by Manner in which Present War ends—Its past Record —Its Power for Good and Evil—Difficulties of Safe- guarding—The Unpopularity of the Creditor Country	155

CHAPTER IX

FINANCE AND GOVERNMENT

Questions of Taxation—Direct v. Indirect—Fiscal Ideals —Inflation and Borrowing—Conclusion . . . . .	206
--	-----

INDEX . . . . .	235
-----------------	-----

INDEX

- AMERICA, banking in, 40
  - " exports of, 163, 164, 167-170
- BALANCE sheets of banks, 65, 66
  - " " of Companies, 110-132
- Bank Act, 33
- Bank note, 30 et seq.
- Bank of England, monopoly of note issue, 32, 33, 36
- Banks, balance sheet of, 65
  - " deposits of, 44-46, 63, 72
  - " investments by, effect of, 72
  - " manufacturers of currency, 47, 54
- Bills of Exchange explained, 29, 66-71, 157
  - " as international currency, 157-159
- Booth, Sir Alfred, quoted, 90, 91
- CANADA, trade balance of, 167
- Capital, credit and, 80, 81
  - " definition of, 81, 82, 92
- Cheques, advantages of, 35, 37, 38
  - " legal meaning of, 29, 36, 37
  - " manufactured by bankers, 41
  - " not legal tender, 37
  - " origin of, 24, 25
- Company, balance sheets explained, 112-132
  - " capital, 107-132
  - " directors, 126, 127
  - " joint stock, why formed, 133, 134
- Credit, 63-79
  - " definition of, 64
  - " distinction between capital and, 80, 81
- Currency (see also INTERNATIONAL)
  - " and credit, 63
  - " history of, 25, 26
  - " how manufactured, 32, 40
  - " meaning of, 23
  - " provision of, 23-62
  - " result of over-production, 54
- EXPORTS, visible and invisible, 161
- Extravagance, result of, 82, 83, 91, 93
- FINANCE and government, 206-234
  - " public control of, 12
  - " responsibility of, 16, 83, 84
- Founders' shares, 144

- GOLD, early history and utility of, 26-28
 " effect on prices of, 60
 " influence of, 61
 "Gold exchange standard," 176
 Goodwill, explained, 120-122
 Government and Finance, 206-234
 " discredit of, 15
 " intervention of, 102-106, 138, 139, 178
 " result of borrowing by, 229, 230, 232
 " Stock Exchange and, 148
 HAMMOND, J. L., quoted, 97, 98
 INTERNATIONAL Currency, 155-179
 " " Bills of Exchange as, 29, 157-159
 " " and trade balance, 163, 164, 167-170
 International Finance, a strong power for good, 192-194
 Investment abroad, 180 et seq.
 Investors defined, 85, 140
 LIPTON'S balance sheet discussed, 112-115
 MALTHUSIAN Doctrine, 101
 Marshall, Prof., on afterwar problems, 221
 Mill, John Stuart, on Capital, 82
 Money, early history of, 26, 27
 " forms of, in use, 38
 " meaning of, 23
 " "Quantity Theory" of, 47-54
 PEEL'S Act of 1844.. 32, 35
 Powell, Ellis, "The Evolution of the Money Market," 28, 36
 Preference stock holders, 142
 Prospectus, 134 et seq.
 "QUANTITY Theory" of money, 47-54
 SECURITIES, 133 et seq.
 Speculation, 152
 TAXATION, 209 et seq.
 " consumption tax, 222
 " Death and Legacy Duties, 213, 214
 " differentiation, 218-220
 " Direct and Indirect, 212
 " graduation, 210, 211, 214, 215, 221, 222
 Todd, Professor, "Mechanism of Exchange," 48, 49
 "Town Labourer," quoted, 97, 98
 Trade Balance, 163 et seq.
 Treasury Notes, 34, 227

Other Works by

HARTLEY WITHERS

Editor of "The Economist."

---

Our Money and the State

Second Impression.

"It should be read at once by every taxpayer. Mr. Withers' latest book can be most heartily commended. It is delightfully written, with never a dull page."—Morning Post.

"Written with all the clarity and vigour which have rendered the author's books on kindred subjects so popular . . . is quite sound, and it can be recommended to all who desire to obtain an insight into what is primarily a subject of the day."—Financial Times.

"Mr. Hartley Withers has the happy gift of being able to light up, and even make plain to the ordinary man, the mysteries of the money market and the mechanism of exchange . . . interesting and informative, it should make an appeal to a wide constituency."

—Westminster Gazette.

Stocks and Shares

Seventh Impression.

"It is a good book, it is sure of its public, and if the laymen who read it will only follow Mr. Withers' advice more than one 'bucket-shop' will be closed till further notice."—Morning Post.

"Should be of the greatest value to investors and all who take an interest in City matters. . . . It is eminently readable, and the description of a typical flotation, 'Hygienic Toothpowder, Ltd.', is a literary gem."—Daily News.

"Mr. Hartley Withers has performed a public service in issuing his latest volume. . . . With the witty author of 'Stocks and Shares' as his guide, philosopher, and friend the would-be investor may avoid many of the pitfalls which crowd his way. . . . The volume may be strongly recommended to all who have an interest of any kind in stocks and shares."—Statist.

JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET, W. 1.

Other Works by
HARTLEY WITHERS

Editor of "The Economist."

---

The Meaning of Money

Twenty-First Impression.

(Third Edition, with New Preface.)

"There can be no doubt that Mr. Withers' book will supersede all other introductions to monetary science. . . . Readers will find it a safe and indispensable guide through the mazes of the Money Market."

—Financial News.

"A book for the average man. Volumes upon volumes have been written to explain and discuss our monetary system. Now we have a work worth all the rest put together in clearness of exposition and elegance of diction."—Daily Mail.

"We have not often met with a treatise on a difficult subject in which the author has so nearly attained the end he set before himself when he began it . . . the result of careful and intelligent 'first hand' observation by an inquirer enjoying special opportunities for his task."

—The Times.

Money Changing

AN INTRODUCTION TO FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Third Edition. (Fifth Impression.)

"Mr. Withers makes the topic interesting in spite of its obvious and irrepressible technicality. Occasionally he renders it really amusing."—Financial Times.

"The volume will be extremely acceptable to the financial public. A most valuable treatise upon an interesting, if somewhat technical subject."—Financial Times.

"Mr. Withers makes the subject very simple, which is the greatest tribute that can be paid to his knowledge. He also makes it interesting, which is a greater tribute still."—World.

JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET, W. 1.

Other Works by
HARTLEY WITHERS

Editor of "The Economist."

---

Poverty and Waste

Third Impression.

"The book views its subject from the advantageous position of an impartial observer, the respective cases for capital and labour, rich and poor, and producer and consumer, being brought to the reader's attention in a convincingly logical manner."—Financial Times.

"No modern writer on economics is more readable and convincing than Mr. Withers. A subject which deeply concerns every citizen."—Glasgow Herald.

War and Lombard Street

Third Edition. (Fourth Impression.)

"Carried out with the same happy touch of literary simplicity and wit combined with an expert knowledge of his subject which has given distinction and popular value to his preceding books. Nothing could be clearer or more enlightening for the general reader."—The Times.

"The most fascinating and informing contemporary writer on the mysteries of the world of finance."—Truth.

JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET, W. 1.

Other Works by
HARTLEY WITHERS
Editor of "The Economist."

International Finance

Third Impression.

"We heartily commend a timely work dealt with in popular and simple style, which, however, in no way detracts from its value as a standard financial work. It is, in fact, one of the peculiar merits of Mr. Hartley Withers' works that, while he writes on finance in a manner easily understood by those having no previous knowledge of the subject, his facts and reasonings are of a character which make his books of equal value even to practical experts in finance themselves. It is a fascinating little book and will be widely read."—Morning Post.

"There are probably few subjects upon which more nonsense is talked or more ignorance displayed than high finance, and we welcome Mr. Withers' successful effort to make such things clear. He always writes lucidly. Such information can be found elsewhere, but in technical language which is neither so comprehensible to the layman nor so attractive to the reader. Nor do other sources of information often get to the bottom of these matters, and we are most grateful for the clear insistence to be found here upon the fact that all this paper business rests upon genuine production of things that people want. Mr. Withers is admirably judicial in dealing out praise and blame with his sound economics."—Spectator.

Lombard Street

A DESCRIPTION OF THE MONEY MARKET.

BY WALTER BAGEHOT.

Edited, with a New Preface, by HARTLEY WITHERS.

Fourteenth Edition.

"This well-known work represents a standard manual of the Money Market, and the new edition, brought up to date, will be appreciated by those who have derived help from the earlier editions."

—Financial Times.

"There is no City man, however ripe his experience, who could not add to his knowledge from its pages."—Financial News.

"Bagehot's thorough mastery of principles and his keen relish for economics made all his work of enduring value."

—Scottish Bankers Magazine.

JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET, W. 1

CHECKED
20C3-04